The weather out in Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska has for some time been torrid and also horrid.

The Mobile Register wants Chinamen on our Southern plantations to show the negroes how to work. Might not that in the long run be swapping the devil for a witch?

There is a chance for some "benevolent assimilation" in Hawaii. The girls are anxious to marry Americans, and some of them are rich, too. Here's a chance, boys.

The last reports from Shanghai are that Prince Tuan, who declined the invitation to have his head chopped off, is putting on some war paint and that the Empress Dowager is casting goo-goo eyes at him.

It is an ill wind and an ill hot wave, too, that don't blow some good. The hot spell in London has brought some Londoners to the conclusion that they will have to use ice in their houses, and also American refrigerators.

Russia is going to put 50,000 soldiers in Manchuria "to protect her railroad," and Li Hung Chang has ordered the withdrawal of all Chinese soldiers from Manchuria "to avoid conflict." Sly old Li. This is doubtless in accordance with his deal with Russia, made some time ago.

A fine deposit of lithographic stone has been discovered in Kentucky. What is used in this country comes from Germany and costs from forty to fifty cents a pound. Mr. Leary, of the U. S. Geological survey, who has inspected this Kentucky find, says he would rather own it than any gold mine he ever heard of.

As stickers Mr. Dudley G. Wooten, of the Sixth Congressional district in Texas, and his friends take the cake. He was nominated for Congress Wednesday, after six days' balloting, on the 4,046th ballot, which will probably be about as many votes as he will get on the day of election.

Public baths are features of every Japanese town. There are 800 in Tokio, which are patronized by 300,000 people daily. The price charged is about a cent for grown persons and less for children. They believe that water is a good thing for other purposes than sailing ships, and putting out fires.

AT "CAMP AYCOCK."

Rain Was Disagreeable, But Didn't Interfere With the Regular Routine.

A PRIVATE COURT MARTIALED

Religious Exercises Announced for To-day.

The Third Regiment Band's Excursion—General Notes Picked Up About the Grounds.

All the usual routine work at Camp Aycock was observed yesterday in spite of the drizzling rain which fell while the regiment was on dress parade. The companies showed up very well and are now falling very rapidly into the regimental drill. Court-martial proceedings were held yesterday morning as is given in General Order No. 6, as follows: Headquarters Third Regiment, North Carolina State Guard, Camp Aycock, July 13.

Proceedings of Court Martial: Before a summary court martial, which convened at Camp Aycock this morning pursuant to verbal orders from commanding officer and of which Lieutenant Colonel J. N. Craig was President, was arraigned and tried Private Richards, Co. E. Charge: Violation of 62nd article of war: Conduct unbecoming a soldier and to the prejudice of good order and discipline.

Specifications—First, that the said Private Richards absented himself from his company on or about July 12th, 1901, without leave from the commanding officer, having been ordered to remain within his company street.

Second, in that said Private Richards on or about July 13, was drunk and disorderly in the city of Wilmington and guilty of misconduct.

Pleas—To the first specification, "guilty." To the second specification, "guilt."

Witnesses—Captains Devin and O'Connell.

Sentence—As said Private Richards pleaded "guilty" of the above charges, no witnesses for the State were examined, and the Judge sentenced said Private Richards to confinement and arrest for two days and during that time he is to perform police duty two hours each, from 2 to 4 o'clock, and that this police to be performed shall be at the discretion of the officer of the day. The above is approved and published.

By order of
COLONEL HENRY PERRY,
McGhee, Captain and Adjutant.

Religious exercises will be observed in camp to day, as will be seen from the following order issued yesterday: Headquarters Third Regiment, North Carolina State Guard, Camp Aycock, July 13.

Order No. 7: There will be religious services in the pavilion in camp at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, 14th inst., conducted by the Chaplain of the Regiment, Rev. Alpheus McCullen.

By order of
COL. HENRY PERRY,
MCGHEE, Captain and Adjutant.

LOCAL DOTS.

—For other local see fourth page.

—The Diamond saloon, No. 6 South Front street, is for rent. See business local column.

—Mr. W. M. Cumming will be the speaker at the Y. M. C. A. men's meeting this afternoon.

—A good pony with perfect qualities is offered for sale by advertisement in the business local column of the STAR to day.

—Communications, even when otherwise acceptable, receive no attention in the STAR office unless accompanied with a responsible name.

—Business of importance requires a full attendance upon the regular convocation of Concord Chapter No. 1, R. A. M., in the Masonic Temple to-morrow night.

—The annual excursion of the Southside Baptist Sunday school to Carolina Beach will be given this year on Friday, July 19th. It will no doubt be liberally patronized.

—The second annual grand reunion of the Lutherans of the State will take place August 1st in the Lutheran Chapel grove near China Grove, N. C. An interesting programme is being arranged.

—The Board of Aldermen will meet in special session Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock to formally receive the James Walker Memorial Hospital from Messrs. James Sprunt and Wm. Gilchrist, executors of the will of the late James Walker.

—George Allen Wright, a colored laborer, for a long time employed by Mr. D. Hanna, the contractor, died Thursday and was buried yesterday afternoon at Scott's Hill. He was one of Mr. Hanna's best workmen, and was highly valued by him.

New Hanover Superior Court.

The July term of the New Hanover Superior Court for the trial of criminal cases only, expired last midnight by limitation. Judge Allen convened the court as usual yesterday morning but aside from entertaining several motions in regard to civil cases, there was nothing of interest in the proceedings. The judgment heretofore rendered in the case of John Mitchell, for an assault with a deadly weapon upon John Jacobs, was stricken out and defendant paid the costs and a fine of $30. In the civil case of Cotton vs. the regimental surgeons, are looking after him.

The Burlington Company, which has not yet received its uniforms, will receive some Naval Reserve uniforms early in the week.

Lieutenant Gwyn, who was in the Spanish-American war as a First Lieutenant of Regulars, has helped very much to make the exercises at Camp Aycock a success.

Governor and Mrs. Aycock and children left Raleigh yesterday morning for Morehead City. Governor Aycock will be over Tuesday to review the troops. As soon as the review is completed it is stated that he will return to Morehead.

Rev. M. H. Tuttle, of Henderson, is along with the "Vance Guards," of Henderson, which are under the able command of Capt. J. B. Poythress and Lieutenants W. K. Sturges and Geo. E. Perry. Among other distinguished persons that the Henderson boys brought along with them were: Col. Henry Perry, Third Regiment; Rev. A. McCullen, Regimental Chaplain (rank of Captain); Dr. Goodie O'Connell, assistant Regimental surgeon, (rank of Captain); Phil H. Thomas, Regimental Steward; Col. Francis A. Mazon, Quartermaster General.

The "Granville Grays" from Oxford are in camp with spick and span new uniforms, which are very attractive. They were also accompanied to the beach by Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Booth, Rev. A. McCullen, Regimental Chaplain, Rev. J. S. Hardway, Com-

It was one that tried men's souls. For six long innings not a man could be sent across the rubber by either team and 600 anxious rooters and roosterers sat nervously under the canopy of heaven and the grand stand cover and with bated breath whispered to one another, "When will they score."

Willig, the new pitcher for the Giants, made his initial appearance on the home grounds and left a decidedly favorable impression. He was a trifle wild at times but will steady down when he gets fully into the game. Bass did the slab honors for the Hornets and neither twirler yielded but a single hit up to the seventh inning. Then the locals jumped on the visiting artist and pounded him—not "unmercifully" as the stereotyped phrase would have us to remark, but liberally to say the least of it. In that inning and in the eighth he handed up six more singles while three was the best that Willig would afford.

A pass to Weaver, his force out by Swander, an out, pitcher to first by Murray was the debut of the Hornets and Wilmington got Clayton safe on Bass' error, and sacrificed him by Cranston. Devlin was safe on Hooker's error but with the bases full the best that Warren and Sebring could do was to go out, fly to right and third to first.

In the second Knaus was out, pitch to first; Hooker flew out to centre and Clark to left. Thackara was safe for the Giants on Bass' error, but lack of coaching allowed him to die going to third. McGinnis out, second to first; Frost to Clark.

The third had a fan out for Gates; a pass for Bigbie, a single for Weaver and a force-out for the same by Bigbie with a fly out to right on a phenominal catch by Cranston for Swander. The locals went out, Willig to second; Clayton on a fan and Cranston force out by Devin at second after he was safe on "Hooker's" error.

In the fourth Murray was out to short; Knaus, try to first, Clark to left; Hooker having been safe on an exorable error of Frost. Warren, out to right; Sebring to second and Thackara safe.

In the fifth, Gates was out, short to first; Bass to third and Bigbie to short, Weaver having walked. McGinnis for the Champions popped out to short; Frost got a single, Willig to pitcher, out at first; Clayton flew out to right.

In the sixth, Swander drove out to Devin; Murray and Knaus beat the atmosphere. Cranston flew out to centre; Devin and Warren to left.

The seventh brought more "fans" for Hooker and Gates, a single by Clark and a fly-out by Bass to left. The Giants then got strictly in the game, Sebring lined out and was sacrificed by Thackara, while McGinnis, next up, was safe at first and Sebring crossed the rubber on Hooker's "sneak" error. Frost followed with a single and "Mack" was thrown out (1) at home on Willig's hit to short. Clayton stopped the run-getting machine by flying out to centre.

In the eighth, Stewart relieved McGinnis at centre, on account of the sickness of the latter and Weaver got a single, Bigbie was hit and the two were sacrificed by Swander and on Murray's fly-out to right, Weaver made the only one score for the visitors. Knaus was out to short. Two more runs were produced by the locals at their turn with the willow and a single by Cranston, a sacrifice by Devin, singles by Warren and Sebring upon which Cranston scored and a subsequent beautiful single by Stewart, upon which Sebring raced across the rubber after "Thack" had forced Warren at second. Frost flew out to left.

A last effort by the Hornets in the ninth consisted of a fly-out by Hooker to second, a single by Clark, a fan by Gates and a pop-out to pitcher by Bass.

Brought to Hospital Here.

Henry Kermon, the young man who shot and it was thought fatally wounded himself in a fit of madness at Phoenix, N. C., was brought to the City Hospital yesterday and the bullet taken from his breast by the hospital surgeons. At 12 o'clock this morning he was resting well and hope is entertained that he will recover.

THE BOYS' BRIGADE.

First Battalion Broke Camp at Southport and Returned to the City.

A VERY PLEASANT OUTING.

Boys Are Grateful to Southport People for Many Courtesies Shown—A Description of the Grounds and Pleasures of the Week.

THE STAR—SOUTHPORT, July 13.

TO THE STAR—On July 3d the First Battalion, North Carolina Boys' Brigade, went into camp at Southport for a stay of ten days, likewise nights. Heretofore we have had correspondents for all of the papers to report each day's doings in detail, and perhaps we were expected to have them this time, but none of us could spare the time we would wish, so this article will take the place of daily reports.

The Battalion is composed of Company A, commanded by Capt. J. A. Price, with Jos. B. Linder, First Sergeant; J. S. Britton, Second Sergeant; Malcolm M. Parker, First Corporal, and H. A. Kure Jr., Second Corporal, and Company B, commanded by Capt. J. William Curtis, with Harry C. Thomas, First Sergeant; H. E. Jordan, Second Sergeant; A. L. Burton, First Corporal and S. F. Garrison, Second Corporal. Each Company has about 15 privates.

The staff is as follows: Colonel Walker Taylor, "Manager"; J. J. Loughlin, Major Commanding; Jno. W. Brown, Adjutant; Jas. W. Orrell, Sergeant Major and Jas. M. Hall Surgeon.

The tents are pitched on the north side of the Garrison, the beauty spot of Southport, with the company streets running east and west. The drill grounds are about twenty-five yards from the camp, covering about four acres of level, grassy land.

Arriving about 12 o'clock Wednesday we consumed the balance of the day in getting the camp in order. "The Fourth" was a great day in the history of Southport, an account of which has already appeared in this paper. We were asked to lead the grand parade, but on account of our ignorance of the plan of the city and the names of the streets, Colonel asked that the band be given first place. The parade was a success from start to finish. We had dress parade late in the afternoon before a crowd of not less than 2,000 people.

The succeeding days, each accompanied by a night of pleasure on the Garrison with the lovely girls of Southport, passed by with wings of the wind, regardless of the inclement weather, until now the last day of our fourth encampment presents itself to us with all its sorrow and sadness. Even the elements are in sympathy with us, for while this is being written the sky is weeping for all it is worth.

Before closing it becomes us to mention the treatment we have received at the hands of the people of Southport, especially the girls. The favorable attention and kindness shown us, and their endeavors to make our stay as pleasant as possible, could not be bettered anywhere.

Hi! Hi! Hurrah!!! Three cheers for Southport. The same for the Boys' Brigade!!! And a tiger for the girls!!! C. C. L.

Funeral of Mr. P. Donlan.

The funeral of the late Mr. P. Donlan was conducted yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from St. Thomas' Pro-cathedral in the presence of a large number of friends. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery and the following were pall bearers: Honorary, Messrs. H. G. Darby and D. O'Connor; active, Messrs. M. O'Brien, Thos. Torpy, J. H. Sweeney, W. H. Sprunt, Clayton Giles, Jr., and J. C. Higgins.

The following record of real estate transfers were filed yesterday at the Court House: Robert N. Harris to George Harris for $115, his undivided one-seventh interest in a tract of land between the northeast and southeast prongs of Bradley's Creek and in an adjoining tract lying and being on both sides of Clear Run branch. George Harris and wife to Frank Herbst, a part of the "Sanders Point Place" in Harnett township containing 75 acres more or less.
