Extra Edition of Old Wilmington Journal

Giving News of Civil War.

Prof. Washington Catlett, New

Hanover's clever county superintenshowed a STAR reporter an interesting relic of Civil War times. It is an extra edition of the old Wilmington

Journal, published April 17th, 1861, and was found among the papers of the late Col. T. C. McIlhenny. The issue was gotten out at 10 o'clock at night to announce startling news regarding the impending struggle between the States. The first note in the paper is a call to arms from the Secretary of War and significant replies from Kentucky and North Carolina.

Governor McGoffin, of Kentucky, said: "My State will furnish no troops for the wicked purpose of subjugating her sister Southern States." Governor

Jno. W. Ellis of North Carolina said in reply to the 'call: "Your dispatch is received and if genuine, which its extraordinary character leads me to doubt, I will say that I would fegard the sending of troops as a violation of the Constitution and a gross usurpa-the country and to this war upon the liberties of a free people. You can get

All honor to Sweeney but no fragrant flowers for the men behind him. The game yesterday at Hilton was another in which there were no features save the slab work of the twirlers. It was an agonizing game, liberally punctuated with kicks from the visitors, principal among which was Matinee Idol Stanley. He kicked at everything in sight and when nobody else was looking he kicked at himself. It seemed to matter little with the umpire, either, for he took it all semi-good naturedly and the bleachers and grand stand revolted at the sight. Nobody doubts but that the "officiating clergyman" was perfectly conscientious in every decision and did just the very best he could but he should get some pointers from some of the old-time fel-

Both sides were up and down then until the locals were at bat in the sixth and gave an excruciating example of school boy base running. They should have scored, but they didn't. - Captain Clayton has resigned the captaincy of the Wilmington team, but will, of course, play in his accustomed position at short. Mr. Arthur Devlin captained the team yesterday afternoon. Capt. Clayton did not play on account of sickness.

- The "penny wise and pound foolish" policy should not be entertained for a moment. The Wilmington team should be strengthened at once by the addition of at least two good men. If this is not done it will not only drop to the bottom of the column; but with an insignificant percentage, within two weeks; and this will be followed by a falling off of one third to one-half in the attendance here. This would entail a loss in receipts that would double the cost of the needed players.

From al lsections of the country contiguous to Wilmington there came reports yesterday of heavy downpours of rain within the past few days. IN MEMORIAM.

SAINT THOMAS' HALL, WILMINGTON, N. C. At a called meeting of St. Thomas' Council No. 98 of the Catholic Benevolent Legion, held July 14th, 1901, the following Preamble and Resolutions were adopted:

PREAMBLE, In the death of Mr. Patrick Donlan, who departed this life July 11th, 1901, we recognize the fact that Wilmington has lost one of its honored and highly respected citizens. He was one of the charter members of the St. Thomas Council, and for sixteen years filled the office of Treasurer, He was ever energetic and faithful in the discharge of his duties.

Resolved, That in his death the Council has lost one of its most useful members, a man possessed of a genial and bright disposition, modest and unassuming in his manners, vigilant and active for the best interests of the Legion, possessing all the attributes that make a man noble.

possessing all the attributes that make a man noble.

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the inscrutable will of an all-wise Providence "who doeth all things for the best;" we lament the loss of our departed dead; yet we are consoled by the faith that was strong within him; having been permitted in that dreadful hour to receive Him who is the "Life and the Resurrection," Sleep, then, comrade, sleep; the strife is o'er; no longer will you answer at roll gall; the sound of the gavel is hushed to thy ear, thy requiem has been snng; loving hands have laid thee to rest far from the land of thy birth. We have bedecked thy mound with beautiful flowers, which will act as sentinels to those who sleep in Jesus; then will the dead arise and go to Paradise, its Heavenly country. Be yea therefore comforted by these words.

Resolved, That our hearts beat in sympathy with the family of cur deceased comrade. In him they have lost a loving husband and an affectionate father. We know that words are futile to express the bitter anguish of the heart, when the happy home has been invaded by the hand of death and robbed it of its beloved one. But death has been the temporary victor only; for beyond the grave is immortality, and may the soul of our faithful friend and comrade take its flight and enjoy the happiness of eternal bliss.

Resolved, That a blank page be inscribed sacred to his memory; that a copy of these resolutions be inscribed on our minutes, and one transmitted to the family of our deceased comrade; also, one furnished the daily papers for publication.

Requiescant in Pace,
