A DOUBLE WEDDING.

Celebrated Last Night at Residence of Brides' Parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Platt.

A VERY PRETTY SERVICE.

Miss Annie Platt Becomes Bride of Mr. Robert Edward Bizzell and Miss Nellie Platt is Wedded to Mr. Preston Gayle White.

An exceedingly pretty double wedding service at the residence of the brides' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Platt, No. 609 Grace street, last night at 9:30 o'clock, joined in matrimony four of Wilmington's most popular young people—Miss Annie Platt to Mr. Robert Edward Bizzell and Miss Nellie J. Platt to Mr. Preston Gayle White.

The ceremony was very quiet and only a few guests were present on account of the illness of the father of the brides, Mr. John T. Platt, but the service was impressively performed and in exceedingly good taste. Rev. Dr. Calvin S. Blackwell, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was the officiating minister, and those present included only relatives and very intimate friends of the contracting parties. The home was neatly decorated with a profusion of plants and flowers and the scene was a beautiful one indeed.

When the hour for the ceremony arrived, the couples entered in the following order: Miss Annie Platt with Mr. Bizzell; Miss Nellie Platt with Mr. White; Rev. Dr. Blackwell, the officiating minister. When both couples had taken their stations, Dr. Blackwell spoke feelingly the words that made each other man and wife.

The wedding party then served with delightful refreshments and an informal reception followed, during which music and recitations were enjoyed.

Miss Annie Platt, the bride of Mr. Bizzell, wore a becoming suit of white silk mull, trimmed with lace and ribbons, with diamond brooch.

Miss Nellie Platt, the bride of Mr. White, wore light blue organdy, with lace and ribbon trimmings. Her ornaments were pearls.

There were very many beautiful bridal presents attesting the esteem in which the popular young people are held. Mr. and Mrs. Bizzell and Mr. and Mrs. White will be at home to friends after to-day at No. 219 South Front street.

Among those in attendance upon the wedding from a distance were Mr. A. C. Bissell, father of one of the grooms, and son of Goldsboro, and Miss Alma May Tice, of Winston, a friend of the brides.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The Wilmington Live Stock Co. has an advertisement of interest in today's paper.

—Jefferson Lodge No. 61, K. of P. last night conferred the rank of Esquire upon two pages.

—During the past month license has been issued for the marriage of eight white couples and nine colored.

—The schooner City of Baltimore arrived yesterday with a cargo of cement for the Coal Cement Supply Company.

—"Be merciful to the beasts" always. And be especially careful of their comforts during the excessively hot weather.

—There were sales of spirits turpentine on the local market yesterday at 32 cents for "machines" and 31 cents for "country."

—The government has been engaged for the past several days repairing the breakwater at New Inlet with stone furnished by Capt. Edgar D. Williams.

—Three colored women, Ada Moore, Rebecca Moore and Mary J. Battle were locked up by the police yesterday for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

—A colored excursion to Newbern on August 12th, returning same day, is announced. It is by the Buffalo Pleasure Club and the fare is $1.00 for the round trip.

—License was issued yesterday for the marriage of Mr. J. A. Brown, a son of Mr. J. J. Brown, of Burgaw, and Miss Katie Merritt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Merritt, of this city.

—It was characteristic of George Burns, sheriff of Cumberland county, to present the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry with that handsome china service. It will come in handy during the encampment.

—Mr. A. Silverman bid in the jewelry sold at auction yesterday by Ed. S. Battle, Esq., trustee in the bankruptcy matter of Dingelhoff Bros. bankrupts. The amount bid was $96, but it is learned that the sale will not be confirmed at that figure.

—Fayetteville Observer, 31st: "Mr. Ernest W. Cooke, chief engineer and manager of the Cape Fear Power Company and of the Fayetteville and Wilmington Steamboat Company, returned last night from a stay of several weeks in New York and other northern cities on business connected with the above companies."

CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 31.—And yet another new twister did the Hornets try to-day against the Hornets and yet another defeat is recorded.

The new pitcher, Cole, was not fast enough for victory. The locals whittled up their appetites on him for three innings and then devoured Stewart who succeeded him. Yesterday the visitors knocked Bass out of the box, but to-day they could not find him, save in the eighth inning.

No sensational features occurred except almost an assault upon Umpire Mace by Capt. Clark, of the Hornets, whom he had called out at the plate. Clark got mad and started to hit Mace, but the players prevented a disturbance.

Bishop, of the old Richmond team, has been signed by Charlotte and is expected to pitch in to-morrow's game. Allen will be in the box for Wilmington. "Brownie" Martin has been signed by the Tar Babes.

Mighty Close Between Wilmington and Tarboro.

—It was too warm for Cole yesterday.

—The Hornets and the Giants are due here on the K. S. train to-day.

—Three "straights" well, that's almost enough to make a horse editor drunk.

—It is Tarboro and Wilmington now that persist in their scramble for bottom of column.

—Weeks, who has pitched for both Raleigh and Tarboro, has been umpiring since Meade was retired.

—A determined effort should be made to reinforce the Wilmington team before next Thursday, when the Turtles will be here.

—Raleigh Post: "The poor old Lobsters. How can it all be explained? That's dead easy. The Loggerhead Turtles are winning the most games."

—Cranston (presumably "Reddy") caught a winning game for Newbern Tuesday. It is supposed he is with Newbern under some temporary arrangement.

—The Turtles are now 299 "pits" about 84 bushels—ahead of the Giants. If the Giants win to-day and the Turtles lose—well, "to be continued in our next."

—The Charlotte papers have bought from the Raleigh papers a county right for calling the Wilmington team "Lobsters." It may be in order now to substitute a name for "Hornets."

—There ought to be a very interesting game to-day. Barring accidents, the teams are very evenly matched, and those who see the game are more than likely to get full value for their admission fee.

—The Star said yesterday: "If Stewart pitches for the Giants to-day they will have a good chance to even up with the Hornets." He did pitch seven innings, and would probably have won the game if he had pitched from the start.

—Wilmington welcomes the Hornets most cordially. They are a well-behaved set of ball players and play a fine game. They are making a great effort to win the second series, and it will be prudent not to give big odds against their success.

—Wilmington has played 19—about one third—of the games scheduled for the second series. With 3

The Confederate Encampment.

Raleigh News and Observer: "Gen. Julian S. Carr, who was in the city yesterday, spoke in most enthusiastic terms of the proposed encampment of Confederate Veterans at Wrightsville in August. For the first time they have been given a cent-a-mile rate and Gen. Carr believes a sufficient number of them will attend to make the encampment a success. He has taken up the matter with his usual vigor and determination, and there can be no failure of it."

Sharpie Caper.

The sharpie Winnipeg, Capt. Billy Lewis, bound from Walton's Creek to Wilmington with a cargo of 1000 watermelons, capsized down the river near the menhaden fishery on Wednesday and part of the cargo, which belonged to Mr. W. A. Moore, of Southport, was lost.
