The probabilities are that South

THE ORPHANS COMING

Children of Odd Fellows' Home at Goldsboro Expected Here Next Week.

ON THEIR ANNUAL OUTING.

Committee From Local Lodges Have Per- fected All Arrangements for Their Entertainment—Trip to South- port and to Wrightsville.

The half a hundred bright young folks from the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home at Goldsboro, who annually have a week's outing at Wilmington and its seaside resorts as the guest of the Wilmington and Southport lodges, will be here next week and it is very unnecessary to say that each of the merry group and those who have them in charge will find a warm welcome awaiting them not only by those who "wear the three links" but by all who are endowed with a feeling of human kindness toward these fatherless ones.

The children will be here on the morning of Tuesday, August 13th, and will remain until Saturday. The joint committee of entertainment from the four lodges of Odd Fellows in Wilmington met yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock and mapped out a programme of the several events that will go to make the children happy during their stay in our midst.

At the station Tuesday morning the party will be met by the committee from the four lodges of this city and a committee from Atlantic Lodge No.
48, of Southport. The steamer Wilmington will meet them at the A. C.
L. wharf and with the Southport committee the children will be taken straight through to Southport, where they will be entertained by Atlantic Lodge of that city until Wednesday.

They will return to the city at 3:30 P. M. and on Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A., the children will give an entertainment for the benefit of the public. Early Thursday morning the party will go to Wrightsville beach and there they will be the guests at dinner of Manager Joe Einton, of the Seashore Hotel. The return to Wilmington will be on the 6 o'clock train of the same day, and Thursday night, Friday and Friday night, they will be entertained at the homes of the many Odd Fellows in Wilmington. On the 9:30 train Saturday morning, the children will return to Goldsboro and the STEARNS ventures the assertion from experiences of the past that all of them will have had a good time.

The committee of entertainment which is working industriously for the pleasure of the orphans is as follows: Cape Fear Lodge, No. 2—M. W.
Jacobi, L. L. Boon, W. H. Yopp.
Orion Lodge, No. 67—H. O. Craig, B. R. Penny, Wm. Simpson.
Wilmington Lodge, No. 139—W. W.
Robertson, C. C. Chabourn, J. R.
Turteltaub, Jr.
Hanover Lodge, No. 145—N. F.
Parker, J. E. Wood, S. G. Hall.
Mr. M. W. Jacobi is chairman of the committee and Mr. John E. Wood secretary.

The Atlanta Excursion.

The excursion from Atlanta under the auspices of the Carpenters and Joiners' Union reached Wrightsville yesterday morning about 9:30 o'clock. There are about 300 persons in the party and all of them spent the day delightfully at the sea. Most of them came up to the city last night and will go down to Carolina Beach and Southport on the several boats to-day. They will return to-morrow night. Mr. W. B.
Clemens, travelling passenger agent, and Mr. E. E. Winters, transmitter, were aboard the train and gave the excursionists every attention possible.

Laws Pete To-morrow.

Many young people of the city are anticipating with pleasure the lawn fete to be given to-morrow afternoon and evening by the young lady friends of the Y. M. C. A. for the benefit of the fund to equip the new parlors in the building. It will be on the lawn of the First Presbyterian church and many attractions will be offered.
Children will be admitted from 5 to 7 P. M., and the evening festivities will begin at 8 o'clock.

City Subscribers.

City subscribers are earnestly requested to report promptly at the STAR office every failure of the carriers to deliver their papers. In all such cases steps will be taken to insure prompt and regular delivery.

TARTARS DEFEATED THE TURTLES.

Bryan Got Victory From Kelly—Matise Lied Put Out of the Game.

TARBORO, N. C., Aug. 3.—Tarboro won a pretty game from the Turtles to-day. Both sides pitched fine ball. The visitors were unable to take advantage of Kelly's two base hit, even after he had been advanced to third, for it was there the King was caught napping. The features were Aiz and Kelley's batting for the Turtles and that of Martin for the home team. Hennegar's one hand stop of Martin's hot grounder was phenomenal.

Strenuous kicking by the visitors resulted in Stanley's expulsion from the game. The score:

Raleigh	138456789 R R E
Tarboro	101010010-2 2
Batteries:	Stockdale and Curran; Bush and Lehman, Umpire, Mr. Weeks.

A Mid-Week Excursion.

It is a charitable and commendable offer that Capt. W. A. Sanders, of the steamer Compton, makes in connection with his mid-week family excusion to Southport next Wednesday.
The offer is to provide all the inmates of the Home with a free ticket, and it is certain that many of them will avail themselves of the Captain's kindness. The Hotel Brunswick will be thrown open for use of the excursionists, with its broad ver-andas and tables upon which to spread lunch. Particulars may be had of the trip by reference to the advertising columns.

Excursions To-day.

The usual splendid facilities for spending Sunday at Southport will be offered on the steamer Wilmington again to-day and with the continued torrid weather it is safe to predict that the boats will be crowded. The Wilmington will leave for the first trip at 9:45 A. M., and for the second at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The fare for the round trip—70 miles of delightful sea breezes—will be only 35 cents on either boat. Many of the Atlanta excursionists, who arrived yesterday, will be on each boat.

Funeral of Mr. Howard.

The funeral of the late Mr. Thos. W.
Howard, whose death was noted in the interment will be in Bellevue

Order of Red Men, of which he was a charter member, will attend the ser-this morning at the 11 o'clock service, Mrs. E. G. Woody, of Richmond, Va., will sing a solo, and with Mr. E. K.

Holden the two will sing a duet. At the night service, the musical program will be rendered by the old

Motte, tenor, and Mr. E. K. Holden, 8:30. Fare for round trip 35 cents.

Go and take your children and enjoy a pleasant day's outing with very little expense.

A DOUBLE-HEADER.

Wilmington Champions Took Both Games From Charlotte Hornets Yesterday.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

The Champions took both ends of the double-header with Charlotte yesterday and crimped in the edges so nicely that the countenance of Capt.
Clark, of the Hornets, presented a woe-begone expression as he left the field late in the evening. In other words, he looked like a thirty-cent piece.

The story is briefly told. One was what the Horse Editor ironically calls a "shut-out"; the second is defined in the lexicon of that worthy "high-muckety-to-muck" as a "walk-over." The first score was three to nothing, with an accent on the nothing, and the second was ten to two, with apologies to the two. Stewart and Bass were the opposing slab artists in the first and Sweeney and "Buck" Hooker hit hard were the cyceroines in the second paralyser.

The local "professors" came off with the honors and had almost perfect support of the team, while the gentlemen hailing from the Independence City were pounded pretty hard.

The opening game was called at 2:49 o'clock and it was pretty much a pitcher's battle until the fourth inning when the Champions scored the only three runs of the game. Devin and Warren both led off with beautiful singles but the latter was caught at second. McGinnis, who distinguished himself throughout both games and had the grand stand making good goes eyes at him, was next up. The Old-Reliable Beware-of-Imitations followed up the singles with a beauty three-base hit that cleared the bases.
He was later scored by a dandy twobase hit by Frost, Allen having gone out from pitcher in the meantime.
Frost came home on a single by Cranston and a more crushing "shut-out" was saved by Stewart, who fouled to third after Willig had walked.

It was pretty much "one-two-three and you're out" until the Hornets were retired in the ninth and Charlotte money had been transferred to Wilmington trouser pockets.

The second game was a slugging match so far as Hooker is concerned. He is pitched almost every day by Capt.
Clark but that does not alter the result. Sweeney went in the box for the locals and pitched a magnificent game. Before he steadied down, however, the Hornets tallied one on a pass to Bigbie and singles by Drauby and Knaab. The locals could do nothing in their half and both teams blanked in the second.

The locals made it two to the good in the third. Clayton singled and was sacrificed by Devin; Warren flew to centre and McGinnis got free transportation. Capt. Allen, was hit and Frost sent "Mack" and Clayton across the rubber on a beautiful single. Cranston was out, second to first.

The Hornets tied the score in the fourth on a two base hit by Gates, a hit-out by Clark and a long fly of Bass to centre. Swander singled to centre and Weaver flew to centre.

It was Bigbie, Knaab and Drauby for the Hornets and the Champions again to lead in their half. Devin made it two hit and Warren went to the high bush in centre; McGinnis singled to right and Devin crossed; Allen fanned and "Jack" F. sent Warren home on a "peach" while Grand Old "Mack" was caught on third. Cranston flew to left.

With two large horizontal to the good, the Champions had a merry go-round in the sixth and when the grand stand and bleachers had recovered from overjoy, six more runs had been added. Willig drew four balls and got third on Sweeney's single to centre. Allen fanned and Devin scored Willig on a hit to second; Warren singled to right and the Frost-Sweeney combination crossed the rubber. McGinnis went to centre, scoring Devin, "Mack" got second on centre-fielder's error; Allen hit to short and Warren scored on catcher's error. Frost up and Allen stole second; Frost flew to right and McGinnis scored; Cranston hit for two bases to right, scoring Allen, but on attempt to stretch his drive, he was thrown out at third.

This week the Giants go to Tarboro for three games and then return home for three games with the esteemed Turtles.

Figures never lie and the perhaps over-drawn picture above by the exuberant reporter may be corroborated or contradicted below.

IN CAMP ON MONDAY.

First Regiment, North Carolina State Guard, at Wrightsville To-morrow.

COL. ARMPFIELD COMMANDING.

Special Trains Will Begin Arriving Mon- day Evening—Indications Point to a Large Attendance—Several Ad- vance Squads Here.

Before to-morrow night Camp Ay-cock, Wrightsville Sound, will be alive with troops of the First Regiment, North Carolina State Guard, which is the last of the three divisions of the State militia to go into camp for ten days, as ordered by Governor Ay-cock, commander-in-chief. As stated in yesterday's STAR, the indications are for a very large attendance, and members of advance squads, who reached the city yesterday, from the several companies, spoke very encouragingly of the prospects for a successful outing.

Col. J. F. Armpfield, of Statesville, commanding the regiment, will begin the city this morning and will begin at once preparations for the encampment. The regiment is composed of companies as follows:

Company D—Capt. J. R. Anderson,
Charlotte.
Company A—Fayetteville Light Infantry, Fayetteville.
Company C—Capt. J. O. Bessent, Winston.

Company E—Capt. Roy L. Limster, Statesville.
Company F—Capt. H. C. Chedester, Asheville.
Company G—Capt. J. T. Gardner, Shelby.
Company H—Capt. Thos. String-field, Waynesville.
Company I—Capt. R. P. Hackney, Durham.
Company L—Capt. J. F. Goodman, Concord.
Company M—Lieut. Wm. F. Neiser, Charlotte.

The Waynesville company will start for camp to-morrow morning at 4 o'clock on a special train, which will pick up Asheville Companies F and K and the First Regiment Band.
The Statesville company will be picked up by this train at 8:40 A. M., and the Concord company will join the train at Salisbury. At Greensboro the special will take on the Winston company, and later the Durham company, reaching Goldsboro at 5:30 P. M.
Companies M and D and Battery A from Charlotte and the Shelby company will arrive at 5:30 P. M. on a special over the Seaboard Air Line.
The Fayetteville Light Infantry will arrive on the regular A. & Y. train at 7:15 o'clock in the evening.

Our Baking Powder

Made the Giants Rise.

—Our sympathies to Captain Clark.
May he have better luck in Raleigh.

—The grand old center-fielder was in fine trim both at the bat and in the field.

—Stewart struck out eight men and Bass 1. Sweeney struck out 7 and Hooker 4.

—What's the matter with Komical King Kelly's derrier now? Slipped another cog!

—Sweeney got back to his old form and pitched a game that made his friends feel proud.

—Frost, Warren, Clayton—oh! well, the whole "fix" did so well that it is useless to go into details.

—There was not a man on the Wilmington nine who did not do his part in winning the double victory.

—Our kounded compliments to Komical King Kelly. May his shadow never grow less nor his percentage grow more.

—It was just impossible for the Hornets to handle some of those grasburners fired from the bats of the Giants.

—The playing of the Turtles is becoming almost as bad as old Billy Boylan's poetry. Really, they are getting awful slow.

—Hooker has pitched more than the equivalent of three full games this week and was, consequently, not at his best yesterday.

—The V. P. says all doubts have been removed and he is now certain that the game yesterday was a diabolical "shut-out" for the Hornets.

—The genial snake editor of the Post will please make a note of the fact that our derrier is working smoothly and now has power enough to lift Giants.

—Umpire Mace is to have a team next year, and is already "spotting" his players. His experience will enable him to make up a strong combination of players.

—The Giants leave Monday for the game at Tarboro. Umpire Mace, who has "words of friends" here for his many decisions and impartial rulings on the ball field, will accompany them.

—Charlotte News: "The sting of the Hornets is getting where the Lobsters don't like it. How are they to help it?" Haven't they already helped it by beating you fellows three straight games? Please prepay reply.

—Possibly, the D. D. of the N. and O. will now think there is some "risk" in the horse editor's baking powder.
By the way, wouldn't you like to have some of our brand? You may need it Monday.

—"According to the dictionary," says the D. D. of the N. and O., "a "lobster" is a macerous crustacean with large and unequal claws." "We thank, thee, Jew, for that word." According to Worcester, a Loggerhead is "a blockhead; a thickskull; a dolt."
