COMMISSIONER YOUNG TEAMS SPLIT EVEN. ARRIVED LAST EVENING.

State Insurance Commissioner J. R. Young arrived yesterday evening from Raleigh, and to-day he will make an investigation with Chief Schnitben, of Wilmington, into the alleged incendiary fire at the establishment of H. Hauser, No. 122 Market street, reference in detail to which was made in these columns vesterday.

There were no new developments in the case yesterday, and a strict surveil lance is still being kept over the burn ed apartments until the investigation is completed. Mr. Hauser, who is on bond for his appearance to answer the charge of having caused the fire, is still in the city, and says he is anx ious to prove himself guiltless of the crime. The case is set for a hearing before Mayor pro tem. West in the municipal court this morning at 9 o'clock, but it is expected that a postponement of the case will be had, as Commissioner Young intimated last night that it might require more time for the collection of evidence. In company with Fire Chief Schnibben, Chief of Police Furlong, Mr. J. H. Boatwright and others, he visited the store last night about 7 o'clock and seemed content with what he saw. He says he does not attach the least importance to the absence of Mr. Hauser from the city at the time, as there are evidences that the fire could have been started to burn slowly early in the afternoon. A representative of this paper was present when the Insurance Commissioner looked over the premises and found some significant circumstances, but it is safe to predict that the battle for conviction will be a hard fought one, though more thorough investigation in the day time may disclose further

MANY VISITORS TO CITY.

Several Annual Meetings at Wrightsville Beach and Reduced Railroad Rates Brought Large Crowds to City.

The cheap rates on all railroads on account of the Veterans' encampment; the coming of the children of the Odd Fellows' Orphanage; the meetings at Wrightsville of the State Underwriters' Association and the Grand Leodge Knights of Honor, combined to make Wilmington travel very heavy yesterday and it is conservatively estimated that all trains brought upwards of 1,500 visitors to the city. On the morning A. C. L. train alone there were over 400 passengers, and other trains brought in crowds almost proportionately large. Among those who arrived yesterday to attend the various meetings were: J. B. Ezzell, Columbia, S. C.; A. R. Williams, Fayetteville; C.T. Williams, Georgetown, S. C.; Major Edwin Sully, Rockingham; J. Wilmington and Tarboro solit even on the double-header yesterday. The first exhibition went to the locals in au eleven inning game in which the score was one to nothing; the second belonged to the visitors in a score of ten to three.

In the first game it was a battle between Pitchers Hopkins and Morrisey and the latter lost. For ten innings men were up and down and the score board at the park looked like two sections of a log-chain. Everybody was naturally nervous and excitement was at fever heat. The winning run came in the eleventh spasm on a mad dash by "Jack" Frost from second to home plate while the visitors were figuring on a double from second to first. There was a slip in the calculation and the Tartars got very mad and called Umpire Mace ugly names and made faces at him and the like but the kid that "kept" the score board chalked up Jack's run all the same and when the grand stand and bleachers had drawn a long breath, the second game came on and the visitors were glad. The winning run in the first was made by good, fast ball playing. Warren flew to centre and Frost made a beautiful single to left. Allen followed and hit to Gilligan too hot to handle. Mc-Ginnis lined down to first and Kem mer threw to second for a double; Allen was forced, but "Mack" got safe and Frost rushed across the rubber. Allen and Wolfe were the opposing twirlers slated for the second game, but "Tacks" has been playing field for a couple of weeks and was not in condition. He was bumped very hard and in the third inning he was replaced by Regan, who pitched good ball against a bank of runs scored by the visitors in the first bout. The first ball over the plate was smashed for two bags by Martin, and Pulsifer hit to second and stole one. Kemmer cleared the bases with a double hit to centre. Weddige and Hempleman went down from the infield, and Spratt beat out a slow one to third, scoring Kemmer. Lehman singled and Spratt stole third; Gilli gan walked and Wolfe fouled to War ren. Tarboro's entire nine men faced Allen in that inning. The locals were out in their order at their turn to the

It looked like the Tar River states men were going to let up on Allen in the second, but two more runs were handed up with two men down. Martin flew to McGinnis and Pulsifer was out from short to first. Kemmer. Weddige and Hempleman made consecutive singles, and the two first named scored. Spratt was out from pitcher to first. For Wilmington. Frost and Allen flew to short; Mc-Ginnis drew four balls, and "Thack" was out pitcher to third. When Regan went on the slab, the first man that faced him fanned and the last one sawed. The locals got in - License was issued yesterday shape then and Regan walked, and was sacrificed by Stewart; Clayton singled to left and Thackara, running for Regan, crossed the pan.

In the fifth inning Spratt was safe on Warren's error and later made a circuit of the cushion on infield hits. In the sixth a wild throw of Regan to first, with Martin on second and a single by Kemmer scored another un for the Tartars and the locals were unable to return the compliment in their half. In the seventh, Cranston scored for the locals on hits and stolen bases. The ninth netted the visitors three more runs and the locals one. Kemmer singled and Weddige was safe on Warren's error. Hempleman flew to right; Spratt flew to Allen, but the ball was caught in the Charlotte Observer says that New Or- bushes and two men scored. Regan showed decided improvement; and, though a little wild at times, he made an excellent showing in the seven innings in which he pitched. His performance at the bat, too, was very creditable.

Allen was clean out of form. In the two innings he was in the box the Tartars got eight hits and made five The tabulate score of the two games
