VETERANS IN CAMP. CONVENTION DAY

Number Now in Wilmington and at the Sound Estimated at Five Hundred.

THE PROGRAMME FOR TO-DAY.

included in Order Issued Yesterday Even ing-Gen. Matt Ransom Will Speak at 3 P. M. To-day-Division and Brigade Elections.

Every train yesterday increased the crowds of veterans and their friends, who are here and at the beach and sound for the reunion and encampmente at Wrightsville. It is conservatively estimated that the number of yeterans alone already here will reach five hundred and this number is expected to be increased to fully one thousand to-day. At the camp last night, of course, everything was in confusion on account of the late arrival of a majority of the delegations but to-day will find the old soldiers observing strict routine and enjoying themselves as only veterans of a civil war can. General Carr, commanding the Division, is already on the grounds and Adjutant General H. A. London, his chief of staff is also here. Most of the brigade commanders and their adjutants are also in the city and in camp.

The local entertainment committee is doing its full duty and Cape Fear Camp, of this city, is well represented in camp. Members now remaining in the city are called out by Commander Metts this afternoon and are expected to leave this morning or this afternoon in time to take part in the camp exercises and to hear General Matt W. Ransom, who arrived in the city last evening and will speak this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the pavilion on the camp the danger line at Fayetteville grounds. It is also requested that as many as possible of the Daughters of the Confederacy go down to camp during the day and especially in the afternoon to assist in entertaining the old soldiers. There will be ample train facilities for returning to the city in the evening. The following general order issued by Major General Carr yesterday evening outlines the camp routine to-

General Notes About Camp.

Gen. Ransom, who arrived last evening, is the guest of Capt. W. R. Kenan at the beach.

The Second Regiment Band has been secured to furnish music for the veterans to-day.

The Seacoast railroad people hope o arrange to-day a schedule of extra trains for the benefit of those in camp and those desiring to visit camp. Dr. Holliday, commanding the Sampson Camp of Veterans, brought down a fine lot of men. Their weights range from 180 to 250 pounds each.

Among the prominent veterans present yesterday were Brigadier Generals W. L. London and F. M. Parker, Pittsboro; Maj. H. A. London, chief of staff, Pittsboro; Col. T. M. Emory, Weldon; Capt. J. H. Currie, Fayetteville; Maj Edwin Sully, Rockingham; Maj C. D. Barden, Salisbury; Maj. J. P. Leach, Littleton; Maj. W. A. Smith, Ansonville.

Prominent Woodman Coming.

Mr. A. C. Fine, chairman of the Board of Southern Managers of the Woodmen of the World, will make an official visitation to Live Oak Camp No. 6., of this city, to-night at 8 o'clock. Mr. Fine will arrive on this evening's A. O. L. train. As will be seen by reference to an advertisement in another column the Woodmen are expected to meet in Germania Pythian Lodge room instead of Castle Hall in the MacRae building as usual. A full attendance is desired.

Entertainment by Orphans. The children of the Odd Fellows' Orphanage at Goldsboro came up to the city from Southport yesterday afternoon and are guests of the Wil mington Odd Fellows. Last night a very creditable entertainment was given in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, which betokened careful and excellent training by those in charge of the Home. To-day the children will visit Wrightsville Beach.

C. Underwriters' Association an Knights of Honor Held Meetings There Yesterday.

Yesterday was a day of conventions at Wrightsville Beach. Two sessions of the North Carolina Fire Underwriters' Association were held in the Assembly room of the Carolina Yacht Club during the day and two sessions of the Grand Council, Knights of Honor of North Carolina; were held at the Seashore Hotel. The morning session of the Underwriters' Association was called to order at 11 o'clock and continued until about 1:30 P. M. An afternoon session was held from 2:30 until 5:30 o'clock. The morning session was taken up principally with routine business although two excellent addresses were delivered by Col. Walker Taylor, the retiring president, and by W. J. Hunter, of Columbia, S. C., special agent of the Rochester German, Glen's Falls and New Hampshire Fire Insurance companies. His subject was the work accomplished by the Asso ciation and along the line of insur ance in general. ·

During the afternoon session the reports of the various committees were received and the election of officers held for the ensuing year. The election resulted as follows:

President-C. F. Harvey, Kinston First Vice President-R. W. Murray, Greensboro.

Second Vice President-I. P. A. bright, Burlington. Third Vice President-W. J. Gris wold. Durham. Secretary and Treasurer-J. Van B Metts, Wilmington.

Executive Committee-Col. Walker Taylor, Wilmington; F. K. Ellington. Raleigh; H. C. Bragaw, Washington; A. P. Weaver, Wilson; R. E. Cochran, Charlotte.

to be held at Put-in-Bay, Ohio, during McGinnis. When the Champions two in the Bush." C. F. Harvey, Kinston; M. S. Willard, Wilmington; W. J. Griswold, Durham; W. T. Crumpler and Thos. Griffith. At 5:30 o'clock the convention adjourned, subject to the call of the executive committee.

After the afternoon session the visiting delegates were tendered a launch party by the local board of underwriters of Wilmington.

The selection of a meeting place for next year's convention was left to the executive committee. All the delegates attending express themselves as well pleased with the beach and are warm in their praise of the courtesies shown them by the local agents here.

Knights of Honor in Session. At 11 o'clock the opening session of the bi-ennial meeting of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Honor, of North Carolina, was held in the ball room of the Seashore Hotel. The meeting was called to order with Grand Dictator J. B. Whitaker, of Winston, in the chair, and P. C. Carlton, of Statesville, acting as Grand Reporter. The usual routine business was transacted and reports from various lodges received. Addresses were delivered by Grand Dictator J. B. Whitaker, Grand Reporter P. C. Carlton and Supreme Representative, Hon. Theodore F. Kluttz, of Balisbury.

The reports received indicate a very satisfactory condition of the order. A recess was taken about 12 o'clock, and an afternoon session was held from 3 till 4 o'clock. This morning the session will be called to order at 9 o'clock, and the morning will probably be taken up with the election and installation of officers. It is expected that the business of the session will be concluded to-day. Among the prominent Knights attending are Rev. Dr. L. A. Bikle, grand chaplain, Concord; K. R. Jones, vice dictator, and W. F. Rountree, grand trustee, Newbern; M. Feizer, a sistant grand dictator, Concord; S. C Scofield, grand treasurer, Davidson; Norman L. Shaw, past grand dictator, Warrenton; Thomas B. Beall, Salisbury; T. B. Wright, Winston; C. L. Wilmington made it an even break of the series of four games with Tarboro here .this week at the ball park yesterday afternoon. The score was five to four, and the five hundred 'faithful" who found their way out to he grounds were amply repaid for their trouble and the price of admission.

The locals found Slagle up in a balloon in the fifth inning and batted him out for four runs, which, combined with one in the first inning, to make a lead that the Tartars couldn't over-

The game commenced at 4 o'clock with the visitors at the willow, and they landed two men safely home before Ragan could get control. Martin singled: Puliefer fouled to Thackara: Kemmer walked, allowing Martin second and the bases were cleared on a two base hit by Weddege to left. a spring and the "Jack in the box" Hempleman was thrown out by same up. Clayton fanned; Devlin walked and scored on Warren's single and McGinnis' beautiful two base hit. Warren was on third with one man down. Allen hit to second and 'Wallie" died at the plate; Frost flew to first.

The run-getting machine slipped a cog and no more business was done until the fifth ianing when the locals by bunching hits and taking advantage of error piled up a total of four runs. Thackara bit double and Turner, Wilmington's new fielder, followed it up with another, scoring Thackara. Ragan struck out and Clayton hit double and went to third on Martin's error, scoring Turner. Devlin singled and Clayton scored; Warren fouled to catcher and Me-Ginnis hit to right and Martin's fumble went to third and Devlin scored. Allen was out, second to first and the Grand Old Centre Felder, as is customary, was left on third. It looked at least like a tied score in the ninth, but the Tartars couldn't quite span the chasm between five and two runs, although they got the runner that would have tied the score as far as the third base. Bush drew four balls and Martin was out, second to first: Pulsifier got free transportation to the initial bag and Kemmer, next up, had been given three balls when Capt. "Tacks" Allen determined to put an end to the fireworks and Ragan was replaced by Hopkins Kemmer hit double, however, scoring Bush and Pulsifer. Kemmer stole third and Weddige and Spratt were out from the infield. The victory was won by the locals five to four.

Miss Mamie McIntire Becomes the Bride of Mr. Elmer Mason Jones, of Savannah-The Ceremony.

A quiet, but exceedingly tasteful wedding was celebrated at Fifth Street M. E Church yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, when Mr. Elmer Mason Jones, of Savannah, Ga., led to the hymeneal altar Miss Mamie McIntire, daughter of Mrs. S. N. McIntire, of this city, and the two were made man and wife in a beautiful service performed by the Rev. Jno. H. Hall, pastor of the congregation.

The party entered the church to beautiful wedding march skilfully played by Miss Elizabeth D. Burtt The maid of honor, the bride and her uncle, Mr. W. H. Newell, entered from the north entrance of the church and they were joined at the altar by the groom and his best man, who entered from the south door. The bride was handsomely attired in a tailor-made suit of mode cloth trimmed with bands of silk and hat to match. She carried an exquisite bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair ferns. The maid of honor was Miss Lucile Hunting Newell, of Norfolk, cousin of the bride. She wore white chiffon with hat to match and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bride was given away by her uncle

Mr. W. H. Newell, of Norfolk. The best man was Mr. B. A. Jones, of Meriden, Miss., brother of the the groom. The ushers were Messrs. James S. Williams, E. L. Heinsberger, Willie Herring and Dr. W. T. Smith. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Jones left on the southbound train for Savannah, their future home.

The Two Capital Cases for the Term Were Called During Yesterday.

SANITY OF EDWARD WILLIS.

Attorneys for Negro Charged With Arson Submitted a Plea of Insanity-Motion for Continuance as to Wallace or Submission, 2nd Degree.

The Superior Court vesterday was engaged for a part of the day with two of the most important cases on the docket-John Wallace, charged with murder, and Ed. Willis, charged with arson. The latter was in hearing as to the sanity of the defendant when the court adjourned for the day at 6 o'clock last evening, and the Wallace case is open on a conditional motion for continuance until next term. The grand jury also made marked progress during the day and will finish the business of the term on Friday. It adjourned last evening to assemble this morning and go out in carriages to the County Home and convict camp at Castle Haynes. When this is completed it will meet Friday morning in regular session and most probably adjourn for the term.

The motion in the Wallace case in which the defendant is charged with the murder of Will. Dudley was lodged in the morning by Jno. H. Gore, Jr., and Robert Ruark, Esqs, who appear as counsel for Wallace by appointment of the court. It is for continuance until next term to allow the attorneys opportunity for a preparation of their case. The motion is contingent upon another to allow the defendant to submit to murder in the second degree, which Solicitor Duffy now has under advisement. He said vesterday evening that he was undecided as to the matter but was rather inclined from the evidence in hand to Mitchell, No. 7 South Fourth street. urge a verdict in the first degree.

The case of Ed Willis for arson consumed the entire afternoon session of the court and will likely require a greater part of to-day. C. D. Weeks and Marsden Bellamy, Jr., Esqs., appear for the defendant and Solicitor Duffy is assisted in the prosecution by E. M. Koonce, Esq., Jacksonville. The evidence thus far has been entirely along the line of defendant's sanity or insanity and the crime with which he is charged has not yet been entered into. Four witnesses for the defence were examined yesterday and there are yet fifteen or twenty to be heard, nine of whom are for the State. In the meantime Drs. C. D. Bell and A. H. Harriss have been requested to make an examination of the defendant Willis, who is a paralytic and said to be subject to epileptic fits. As he was placed in the prisoners' box in the court room yesterday afternoon, PRETTY AFTERNOON WEDDING he toppled from his seat and appeared to suffer from a very violent attack of epilepsy. He soon recovered, however, and the trial was entered Soldiers Returning Home. Pursuant to orders from headquarters the First Regiment, North Carolina State Guard, left Camp Aycock yesterday morning and their evacuation was closely followed by an occupation by the Confederate Veterans. The troops left on special trains via the S. A. L. and A. C. L. early yesterday morning and by this time the companies are again safe at home.

The encampment of the First Regiment was a great success and member and officers were well pleased with their outing. All the regiments in the Guard have now had ten days each at the Sound and when the Veterans are gone day after to-morrow, Camp Aycock will be no more.
