[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 21.-To-day's game was won by Raleigh but it will probably not count in the pennant series, as it was protested from the very start on account of the sunset limit. On account of rain the game was not commenced until after 5 o'clock and was called in the eighth inning on account of darkness. Rules prescribe that the game must begin two hours before sunset, consequently to-day's contest will very likely amount to naught. The game itself was more or less farce as the diamond was slippery and soaked with water. It was impossible to field and hard chances could not be taken. Both Newman and Stockdale suffered and at times lost complete control of the ball. If the game is thrown out, as it no doubt will be, it will necessitate a double header this

' The Protest and When Decided. In response to a telegram sent Manager Cowan by the STAR last night inquiring who would decide the protest of yesterday's game and when it would be decided, he replied as follows: "Mr. Sherwood Higgs will decide the protest probably as early as to-morrow. I will be present when he considers it. Umpire Harry Mace says I am right." RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 21.-To day's game was featureless and tiresome. Rain at 4 o'clock prevented a full attendance. Wilmington played slow, and at the end of its half of the eighth inning the game was called at that club's request, though there was ample time before sunset to play the next inning. The grounds were wet and a piece of carpet was used for the pitchers to stand on. Players could not maintain their footing or run on account of the wet grounds.

ASSAULTED A WATCHMAN.

Negro Desperado, Burt Green, Threw Brick at Man Who Would Have Saved His Life-His Arrest.

Burt Green, a colored desperado, whose name not infrequently appears on the police docket, was bound over in a bond of $50, failing to give which he went to jail. The charge against him is assault with a deadly weapon, and it was upon a white man who sought to save the negro's life and that of a colored woman named Betsie Mills, whom Green was accompanying along the A. C. L. yards in this city.

The negroes were walking on one of the side tracks of the railroad on which a train was approaching late Tuesday night. Watchman B. F. Strickland, seeing their danger, ordered them to leave the switch. They replied insolently, and began a fusilade of words and profanity, which the watchman immediately checked by making an attempt to arrest them both. Green got away and the woman was taken in charge by Policeman Frank George, but not until after Green retired to darkness and began to throw brickbats at the watchman, one of which smashed his lantern and another grazed his arm.

Green appeared at the trial of the woman yesterday morning and was Policeman George.

NEGRO SWUNG TO A LIMB.

Near McParlan Colored Flend Assaulted Daughter of a Farmer and Was Hanged Within Five Hours. Lady Badly Wounded.

Special Star Telegram. McFarlan, N. C., Aug. 21.-One f the most brutal and heinous cases of criminal assault in the history of the State occurred here this afternoon between one and two o'clock and the negro brute who is responsible for the crime met swift punishment at the hands of the infuriated white citizens of the community. The victim was Miss Lena Keith, aged 22 years and a daughter of a well-known farmer living near McFarlan, a small village in Anson county, on the Wadesboro and Florence division of the A C. L. railroad. The brute was Lute Hough, a desperate negro character known over the entire county.

The crime was committed at the nome of the young woman, where the negro asked for water and ascertaining the absence of her brother at the stables on the plantation, he proceeded to accomplish his hellish ourpose. The young lady severely cut at the back of her head and on her breast are two ghastly wounds. The fiend was speedily captured and at sunset this evening he was swinging to a limb just across the South Carolina line about two miles and near the scene of the crime. Fifty volleys were fired into his body by determined citizens and after the lynching this well known warning to members of his race was penned on a placard on his breast: "Our white women must be protected."

[By Associated Press.] CHARLOTTE, N. C., Aug. 21.-Luke on the police docket, was bound over Hough, a pegro, was hanged near to the next Superior Court yesterday Wadesboro, N. C., to night by a crowd of enraged citizens. His body was then riddled with bullets. His crime was criminally assaulting Miss Lena Keith. He attacked his victim while she slept, and broke a chair over her head and then tried to cut her throat. The negro admitted his guilt. The Keiths are respectable people, and as soon as the crime became known the entire community started in the search. The negro was found within a few hours after the crime.
