Wilmington Team Stranded in Raleigh Without a Dollar - An Outrage Scarcely Parallelled in the History of Baseball.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 24 -Raleigh o-night produced another card from apsher sleeve, and though not a trump, was sufficient to break up the pennant games. At the late hour of 6 o'clock this fternoon Raleigh came to the front and demanded that Wilmington remain over Monday, in the face of a contract with Newbern for that day, and play the two games of the five scheduled for Raleigh that had not been played. To this the manager of the Wilmington term demurred and demanded that the contract be lived up to, especially as faith should be kept with the folks of Newbern. He admitted that the agreement was for the first five games to be played in Raeigh but not at the expense of dates next week, when the Wilmington team could return according to all baseball schedules and play the two deferred games later. This would place Raleigh at no extra expense and by so doing they would live up to their agreement. Raleigh then called a special meeting of the directors and meanwhile flatly refused to make a settlement for the games played and guaranteed, although the money was due and in part worked fall for the day, .35; rainfall st of the month to date, 5.40 for by the Wilmington team. They were unmindful of the fact that the visitors were here ready to play and were entitled to the money. After the directors' meeting, Wilmington was flatly refused the guarantee. Manager Cowan and Mr. Newman, of the team, yet.

then asked that they be allowed half of the money realized on the games. This was also refused and the directors leave the Wilmington team stranded without one red copper cent. Their idea was to force the team to play in Raleigh Monday; if not, then they would keep the money the Wil mington team had earned, besides paying railroad fare and board. - About 13 o'clock last night the STAR telegraphed its correspondent at Re wigh asking what disposition would and ade of the Wilmington team. The Jegram was delivered, but no answer was received. It is supposed the office closed before the reply could be prepared. Presumably, the team would come home to-day; but the action of the Raleigh Baseball Association has left the men without a dollar for transportation or board bills? - The action of the Raleigh Baseball Association was received too late last night for extended comment. But, really, does it need any? Is it not a parallel case to that of the Richmond Association when it refused to pay the guarantee to Charlotte and which was so severely denounced in Raleigh?

Yesterday eight car loads of ton timber and piling were taken down on lighters, and other material will go forward this week. The work of building the railroad across the island, a distance of four miles, is nearing completion. About a hundred laborers have been employed in the light house construction for some time.

MARRIED YESTERDAY.

Miss Mary Lilly Kenan Became the Bride of Mr. Henry Morrison Flagler.

QUIET BUT VERY ELABORATE

Took Place at Kenausville in the Pres ence of Only Relatives and Intimate Friends-Left for Bridal Tour North on Special Train.

The marriage of Miss Mary Lil Kenan, daughter of Capt. and Mrs W. R. Kenan, of this city, to Mr Henry Morrison Flagler, the wel known Florida capitalist, railroad owner and Standard Oil magnate, took place yesterday morning at 10:80 o'clock at the old Kenan homestead Kenansville, N. C., in the presence of a few intimate friends of the bride and groom and members of the immediate Kenan family.

Prior to the wedding no facts were given out for publication, noe even the essential points to an authoritative announcement of the forthcoming event, and the general impression prevailed that the ceremony would be performed at noon, but such was not the case, as indicated above.

Mr. Flagler, accompanied by his attorney, Mr. Ashley, of New York, spent Friday night in the city, the guest of Mr. W. A. Dick, and vesterday morning at 7 o'clock, with Mr. Ashley and a number of his friends from Wilmington, Mr. Flagler left on his private car for Warsaw, N. C. from which point members of the party went over to Kenansville by total loss, though most of the contents private conveyance. The party on the special train consisted of Mr. Flagler and his attorney, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dick, Capt. and Mrs. E. W. Van C. Lucas and Miss Hannah Bolles. In a separate coach were members of Hollowbush's ? Orchestra, who went to furnish music for the event. The train consisted of an engine, one combination baggage and nger coach and Mr. Flag It was in charge of Capt. Jno. Walker, the veteran A. C. L. conductor, and the distance of fifty-five miles between Wilmington and Warsaw, was traversed in exactly sixty minutes. Of course, at the splendid Kenan home, where the ceremony occurred there were other guests. The bride, accompanied by her father, a sister, Miss Sarah Kenan, and brother, Mr. W. R. Kenan, Jr., went up to Kenans ville Friday morning and Mrs. Kenan, the bride's mother, and another sister, Mrs. J. Clisby Wise of Macon, Ga have been at the home for several days. Mr. Henry Walters arrived at Warsaw in his private car yesterday morning, and Rev. Dr. Peyton H. Cooperage and Veneer Works, of this Hoge, the officiating clergyman, arrived Friday evening.

The old home of the Kenan family where the ceremony was performed. was beautifully decorated with bamboo and a wealth of white roses, artistically arranged by Mr. C. F. W. Rehder, the well known local florist. Except to invited guests-and the number of these was very limitedthere was no admission to the home during the ceremony, and press representatives were given only the simple announcement of the marriage after it had occurred. The wedding breakfast was served at 11 o'clock immediately after the ceremony by Dr. Hoge, Miss Kenan's former pastor, and Mr. and Mrs. Flagler left at once in a carriage for Warsaw, where they boarded Mr. Flagler's car, attached to another special train, which connected with the through train for the North at Rocky Mount last night. The bride and groom will go at once to Mamaroneck, N. Y., and spend some time at Mr. Flagler's palatial residence there. The ceremony proper is said to have been very simple but exquisitely beautiful. The wedding marches were softly played by Hollowbush's Orchestra and the ceremony was spoken with much feeling and impressiveness by Dr. Hoge. The groom was attired in a handsome black Prince Albert coat with light trousers. The bride was dressed in a becoming gown of white and was very beautiful. She carried an exquisite bouquet of carnations and her jewels were costly and brilliant.

Fabulous stories of gifts to the bride and to wedding guests by the groom have been circulated, but it is believed that none of them is authentic. One of the stories has it that the bride was presented with a certified check for a million dollars and two million dollars in government bonds. The wedding gifts are said, however, to have been costly and, very numerous. Hundreds of telegrams of congratulations were received, and even after the car left Warsaw others were received and forwarded.

A special to Ithe New York World from Newport, dated August 22d, is as follows: "Mrs. Pembroke Jones just before her grand entertainment to-night, sent Two pound box for 40 TO OFFER YOU. Wilmington, North Carolina, who is to be married to H. M. Flagler on Saturday. Mr. Jones also sent a telegram of congratulations as did several other cottagers."

Of the party which went up to the wedding yesterday morning the following returned last evening: Mr. and Mrs. Dick and Miss Hannah Bolles. Capt. Kenan and Rev. Dr. Peyton H. Hoge also came down on the same train. Dr. Hoge will preach to his old congregation at the First Presbyterian church in this city to day.

Visit Rehder's early this week and take advantage of the magnificent bargains offered in remnants.
