THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. LXVIII,--NO. 136. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 30. 1901.

LABOR DAY MONDAY.

People of Southport Are Planning a Great Celebration On That Occasion.

WILMINGTON IS INTERESTED.

Several Organizations From This City Will Send Teams for Athletic Exercises. Col. Waddell, Orator of the Day. Second Regiment Band.

Labor Day next Monday in Wilmington will not be elaborately celebrated but what this city has left undone, Southport will do and many Wilmingtonians will be there to participate in and enjoy a programme, which has been carefully prepared on a magnificent scale. There will be some observance here in the way of the closing of business houses and offices but at Southport when business has closed there will be abundant opportunity for the average citizen to go out and spend a day of real pleasure. The celebration begins with a street parade, which will form on the Garrison with the Southport Cornet Band in the lead, at 11 o'clock A. M., and march to that shaded grove of live caks, Franklin Square, the centre of attraction for the day's festivities. After scripture reading and prayer by Rev. E. J. Edwards, acting Mayor E. H. Cranmer, Esq., will make a short welcome address and Robert W. Davis, Esq. will introduce the orator of the occasion, Col. A. M. Waddell, Mayor of the city of Wilmington.

In the afternoon numerous athletic exercises will be in progress including a tug of war participated in by Wilmington Division, Naval Reserves, and a championship game of basket ball between the crack teams of the Boys' Brigade, of this city, and the Reserves. The prize for the ball game is a very handsome silver cup which is now on exhibition in Honnet's show window, in this city. The inscription on the cup is: "Labor Day, Southport. N. C., Sept. 2nd, 1901. Basket Ball Championship." A number of prizes for other events have already been sent down by Mr. Honnet and all of them are of sufficient value and beauty to excite the very best effort in the contests. There will also be a number of boat races and a baseball game during the atternoon. In the evening there will be a minstrel show by local talent in Franklin square and an open air concert by the Second Regiment Band of Wilmington, which will leave the city at

The steamer Wilmington has ar ranged a schedule of two trips during the day and a large crowd from the city can be accommodated. The first boat leaves at 9 A. M. and the last at 5 P. M. Returning, the schedule from Southport is 2 P. M. and 9:30 P. M.

Negro With Empty Pistol Defied Police and Was Subsequently Arrested.

HAD SHOT ANOTHER NEGRO.

The Pursuit Was Lively and Engaged Crowd of Civilians Exclusive of the Police-He Was Felled by Sergeant Burnett.

The down-town section of the city was thrown into a furor of excitement last night about 11 o'clock by a mad chase after a desperate negro with pistol in hand, in which about a dozen policemen and half a hundred citizens participated. Fifteen or more volleys were fired at the fleeing negro until he was finally captured on Sec ond, near Chesnut streets by Police Sergeant C. S. Burnett and Patrolman

J. J. Moore. The negro's name is Isaac Jones, aged twenty years, and he was wanted by the officers for shooting another negro under the steamer Wilmington's shed earlier in the night. Notwithstanding the rapid and rather indiscriminate firing and the large number of people who gathered in the street to join in the chase, nobody was hit by the flying bullets and the negro was at length brought to bay by Sergeant Burnett, who felled him with a severe blow on the head from his club. In falling, the negro was also bruised about the knees. When picked up a murderous looking revolyer was found under him, which previously he had brandished at different times in the face of perhaps ten or fifteen of his pursuers. This led to the fir ing on the part of those who wanted his capture. The pistol was without a single cartridge in the cylinder and the negro had merely been making a "bluff." as he afterwards said at the police station, at those who were after him. The weapon is a Harrington & Tupper, officiating. There were gath-Richardson manufacture and 38 calibre - Pitcher W. H. Newman, of in size. The police think that after the Wilmington Baseball Team, left | the negro shot another early in the > ing the chambers. The negro lives at Navassa and came down to the city on a freight train last night, accompanied by his brother, Edward Neal. The latter says he left his brother at Ruth Hall and he began drinking mean whiskey, which led to all the trouble. The negro shot early in the night is named Louis." a driver at the Palace Bakery. He says he was shot by mistake. The wound is just above the knee, the ball having passed through the fleshy part of his leg and glanced on the cobblestones in such a way that it broke s window-light on the second floor of Bennett's saloon across the street.

Policeman L. M. Smith arrested two negroes on suspicion and carried them to the station house, but neither was identified by the negro as his assailant. Garfield Chessam, negro porter at tend the funeral. Bennett's saloon, identified Jones as the negro who did the shooting. He was then walking up Market street. near Bellamy's drug store, and Police man Smith started for him. The negro ran and the officer gave chase. He was soon joined by Policemen E. R. Chadwick, J. J. Moore, Capt. Williams, Sergeant Burnett and a crowd of citizens, and the chase was fast and furious. The negro went up Front street and turned into Polvogt's alley and drew his pistol-a savage looking weapon which he flashed at any one who came in his path. The crowd chased him through to Water street, thence up Water to Princess and down the Custom House alley to the Masonic Temple alley; thence to Front street and down the Purcell alley toward Second street. In the Purcell alley, negro baker attempted to halt him. but Jones drew his pistol and the baker did likewise. He fired five shots at him without effect, and when he had reached Second and Princess streets he again brandished his weapon and a fusilade of shots ensued.

The officers finally landed him further up the street, as stated, not a single bullet having hit him. He was placed in the lock-up for trial to-day.

- The street cars have been reaping a harvest from the thousands of excursionists who have visited Wilmington this season. In this connec tion it may be of interest to state that a well informed citizen recently said to a STAR representative that the street railway was one of the best paying properties in Wilmington.
