Some sort of a fungus disease is doing much damage to cotton in Putnam county, Georgia.

President Roosevelt is five feet 8 inches tall, weighs 185 pounds, prefers plain food and doesn't smoke.

Tomato growing is considerable of an industry around Humboldt, Tenn. This season the bank there paid out to the farmers $150,000 for tomatoes.

New York has the reputation of being a very naughty town, but still she is a fit subject for sympathy when Carrie Nation says she is going to live there.

There are both politics (mean politics too) and professional envy in the efforts to make the "yellow" journals responsible for the assassination of President McKinley.

Senator Hanna says he isn't going to be interviewed any more. But this will not prevent the hustling newspaper scribe from making an interview for him when one is wanted.

The United States own an island in the Pacific inhabited only by birds. How would it do for a sequestering spot for anarchists? It would be rough on the birds, but they could roost high.

Some oil hunters who started to bore for oil in the Mojave desert, in southern California, didn't strike oil, but they struck water, which will be worth a vast deal more to that section than oil, for with it the waste land can be reclaimed and made fertile.

The Marquis of Anglesy who says he was robbed by one of his four valets of jewelry valued at $150,000, says he doesn't know how he can get along without four of the trinkets which he valued most.
It is a wonder how such a weakling can get along without a guardian.

The prohibition people of the town of Dickson, Tenn., have struck on an original way to get rid of the saloon. There is only one in that town, and they have opened an opposition beverage dispensary where drinks of all sorts are sold at cost. When they drive the other fellow out they will shut up shop.

A bank exclusively for the patronage of negroes has been opened in Philadelphia. Negroes who have any recollection of the Freedmen's bank at Washington will show good judgment by not getting excited over this Philadelphia negro bank, and tumbling over each other to deposit in it.
