Troubles crowd upon Boston. In addition to the short bean crop, there is a threatened shortage in the codfish ball crop.

At the last General Army reunion A. Reed, of Decatur, Ind., aged 103, marched with the boys in the parade. He is still able bodied enough to draw his pension.

It may be surprising to learn that Dallas, Texas, is the greatest harness and saddle manufacturing city in the United States, and that practically means in the world.

It is said that the Russian farmers in Siberia, who are large purchasers of American agricultural machinery are, with the machinery, adopting American methods of farming.

It is reported that old man Kruger's mind is failing and that the only thing which prevents a collapse is his intense hatred of England.
He, too, has paid his portion of the "humanity staggering" price.

The Manila hemp scandal, now under investigation in Washington has already generated some warmth.
Saturday Maj. Hawkes called Col.
Heistand, who was giving testimony, a liar without a big L.

The un sophisticated denizens of Chili stick to a barometer their ancestors used to go by, the cast-off shell of a crab. But that can't hold a candle to a bank of tobacco leaves, which some of the natives in the tobacco section of central North Carolina bank on.

Chicago papers say we may look for a big advance in the price of meats, attributed to the scarcity of cattle and hogs, resulting from the scarcity of corn, etc. The meat bosses are never short on reasons when they want to get long on prices.

Electric motive power is soon to be tried on one of the short divisions of the Great Northern Railway.
If it gives satisfaction there it will be adopted on the whole system.
One of the reasons for this is that there are so many tunnels on the road, some of them long ones, that electricity will be preferable to steam, for there will be no annoying smoke.

MR. A. BREWER PASSED AWAY.

Sudden Death of Aged and Respected Citizen Early Yesterday Morning.
At his home, No. 917 North Third street, yesterday morning, at 1:30 o'clock, Mr. A. Brewer, an aged and highly respected citizen of Wilmington, passed away after a very brief illness. Mr. Brewer the day before had visited the court house and remaned until about 11 o'clock. Returning to his home for dinner, he complained of having a chill, but he did not regard his condition as serious, although he went to bed. After supper he said he was feeling better and declined an offer of the services of a physician.
At 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning, upon going to the aged man's room, his son, Mr. C. M. Brewer, was surprised to find his father dead. Physicians pronounced a congestive chill as the cause of death.
Mr. Brewer was in the 78th year of his age and had spent most of his life in Wilmington. About ten years ago he was a foreman in the A. C. L. shops in Wilmington, but after a service of more than nine years he went to Palatka, Fla., and became master car builder of the Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West railroad. Returning to Wilmington later, he engaged in the butcher business, but just prior to his death he had been employed by the Angola Lumber Co.

Besides a son, Mr. C. M. Brewer, the deceased is survived by two brothers and a sister, Mrs. E. A. Howell, of Newbern; Mr. James Brewer, of Danville, Va., and Mr. Humphrey Brewer, of Falling Creek, N. C. The funeral will be conducted from the late residence this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Elite Theatre Performance.

Richard Brinsley Sheridan's immortal play, "The School for Scandal," has been decided upon for the bill of the MacLean-Taylor Company here next Tuesday night. The appearance of Mr. R. D. MacLean, the celebrated actor, and his no less renowned co-star, Miss Odette Tyler, will bring forth all the elite, so a large house may be expected. Miss Tyler is a native of this State and a daughter of the late Gen. R. D. Kirkland, of the Confederate service. For this engagement the management has to advance the admission, but only so far as the first five rows of seats down stairs and the first row up, which will be $1.50.
This is a part of the contract and is done in other cities.

An Interesting Fox Chase.

Messrs. W. T. Sears, A. C. Sneed and F. T. Mills, of the Wilmington Fox Club, were joined yesterday morning at 5:30 o'clock by Messrs. J.
Winfree and W. H. Parnell, of Winston, and the party went on one of the most interesting fox chases of the year. Messrs. Winfree and Parnell brought with them a dozen fine hounds and eighteen others were added to the pack from the Wilmington club. The party went in the direction of the Sound and captured a fine animal at 11 o'clock. Another, which was jumped at 1 o'clock, was brought to bay by the dogs after a four hour's chase. The party will leave for another chase this morning.

AWARDED NO DAMAGE

Case of Bonitz Versus Mills Decided Adversely to the Plaintiff.

MANY CONTINUANCES MADE.

Penny Suit Against Railroad Will Go Over to Next Term—To-day Matters On Motion Docket Will be Heard.
Talesmen Drawn.

After a hearing lasting the entire day in the Superior Court and after remaining in consultation a little more than an hour, the jury in the case of H. E. Bonitz against Frank T. Mills last evening at 6:30 o'clock returned a verdict awarding no damage in favor of the plaintiff as alleged in the complaint.
The case has been one which has attracted much attention in the city, involving as it does, the liability of a liveryman to his patrons. On Sept.
24th, 1899, Mr. Bonitz hired a horse and buggy from the defendant with which to take his wife and child to ride on a Sunday afternoon. He asked for a gentle horse and one which was not dangerous. The horse was sent to plaintiff's home and in driving, he was checked up suddenly, allowing the buggy to run upon him with the result that a runaway ensued in which the plaintiff and his wife and child were injured by being thrown from the buggy.

The plaintiff, through his counsel, Boutree & Carr and Russell & Gore, entered suit for damage to himself in the sum of $1,000. The suit was defended for Mr. Mills by Herbert Mc-Clammy, Esq., and Bellamy & Peschau and resulted as stated above.
Mr. Bonitz, the plaintiff, was the first witness introduced. He spoke of the circumstances of engaging the turn-out and the runaway that resulted. He also told of the injuries sustained and the consequent loss of time from his business as an architect. He was subjected to a rigid cross-examination by opposing counsel, and Dr.
Andrew Harris, his attending physician, went upon the stand. Dr. Harris testified as to defendant having received two severe lacerations; his eyebrow was cut and hanging down.
After the patient was removed to his home, he suffered from concussion which lasted several hours. He also became delirious and was in severe pain.

Mr. Wm. Gilchrist testified as to having witnessed the runaway and the consequences.
Mr. R. C. Collins testified as to having driven the horse and as to its amiable qualities.
Mr. W. F. Robertson was introduced and said he had driven the horse one afternoon and found it gentle.
Mr. Bowden, who was employed at the stable also testified as to the gentle qualities of the animal.
Clarence Mills, the 16-year-old son of Mr. Mills, testified as to having driven the horse every day for some time with no accident.
Jno. Lovett, also employed at the stable, testified as to having driven the horse to Mr. Bonitz's residence.

Street Last Night—Funeral.

DEATH OF CHARLES L. COWLES.

tailor and an aged and respected citizen of Wilmington, died last night at 7:40 o'clock at his home, No. 812 Chesnut street, after an illness of several days. The funeral will be conducted late residence and the interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

Annual Meeting Postponed.

The fourth annual meeting of the Merchants' Association, of Wilmington, was appointed to have been held yesterday, but was postponed by order of Vice President M. W. Jacobs until the first Wednesday in November. The absence from the city of Col. W. A. Johnson, the president, and two of the directors was the cause of the postponement.

tractors for the Wilmington Sewerage from Castle to Church; Fourth, from main yesterday were without interest.

The day's session began at 10 A. M. usually large number of witnesses and in clearing the docket.

FIELD'S MINSTRELS TO-NIGHT.

Big Parade This Afternoon and Splendid Performance Assured This Evening.

To-day is minstrel day in Wilmington, as it always is when A. G. Field, whose friends here are numbered by the score, brings his gigantic burnt-corn aggregation to town. Yesterday an unusually large number of seats were sold for the performance to-night, which the press everywhere says is the strongest and best of all.

The company will reach the city via the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta railroad from Columbia, S. C., about 1 o'clock and the parade will take place shortly afterwards.
In the big parade two complete military bands furnish inspiring music to escort the minstrel boys on the march.
During the parade the two bands consolidate into the largest musical organization ever connected with any minstrel company, and present a concert of rare excellence. The band is under the leadership of Burt M. Cutler and is a strong feature. The band is particularly strong in its soloists, including Walter Booth, the famous cornet virtuoso, and John Huffman, the euphonium soloist. Mr. Booth is said to be one of the most capable soloists in the musical profession.

Blites by Tarantula.

Wm. Lamb, a colored drayman, while engaged in handling some bananas for Mr. A. S. Winstead, the Second street fruit dealer, was bitten on the finger of the left hand yesterday afternoon by a genuine tarantula, the spider-specimen that is so dreaded in the tropics. The drayman had the finger cauterized by a physician and does not apprehend serious results.
The "bananas spider," as the negro aptly described him, was brought to the STAR office for inspection.

Princess Street Paving.

Another hitch has come in the Princess street paving. Last night a special meeting of the Board of Audit and Finance was held and it was decided not to concur in the award of the contract to Roger Moore's Sons & Co. until all the bids received by the Aldermen are laid before the Board. At the meeting all members were present except Mr. Jesse Wilder.

THE LATE W. A. RIACH

The Remains Arrived From New York Yesterday Evening for Funeral To-day.

ACCOMPANIED BY FRIENDS.

Scene at the Station Was Impressive.
Officials and Clerks Did Reverence to Their Deceased Auditor and Their Friend.

The remains of the late lamented Wm. A. Riach, General Auditor of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, reached the city from New York last night on the 6:15 o'clock train accompanied by the grief-stricken wife, her nephew, Mr. James Sinclair; her niece, Miss Belle R. Mann, of Richmond; Mrs. J. A. Gaul, a friend, of Weldon, N. C.; Mr. Horace P. Clark, General Eastern Agent of the A. C. L. in New York, and Mr. Christy, of New York, a personal friend of the late Mr. Riach. The funeral party arrived in two private cars attached to the regular train.

At the station there were gathered to meet the funeral cortege and the remains all the officials of the Atlantic Coast Line, the clerks and assistants in a body from the Auditor's office; many clerks from the general offices, city officials and individual friends of the family. As the train came slowly to the station there was a deep silence over the throng and every one was impressed with the solemnity of the hour.

Mrs. Riach and members of the funeral party were met at the rear of the train shed by President Elliott, General Manager Kealy and General Superintendent Divins, of the Coast Line, Mr. James Sprunt, a personal friend, and the Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.
Mrs. Riach was assisted from the car to a carriage in waiting by her nephew, Mr. Sinclair, and Mr. James Sprunt. As the cortege passed down the walk every one stood with bared head bowed in reverence. At the baggage car, where the remains lay, there were standing on each side of the walk, Coast Line officials and clerks from the Auditor's office in a body. When the remains had been tenderly lifted from the car, they were followed by hundreds of clerks and friends with silent tread and an outward recognition of the deep loss each one felt individually. Several very handsome floral tributes were upon the caasket.

The pall bearers at the train were Capt. Walter G. MacRae, Capt. A. D.
Brown, Mr. R. M. Sweet, Mr. Bertram Quelch, Mr. Walter Smallbones and Mr. Thomas McDonald.

The remains immediately after arrival were taken to the late residence of the deceased, No. 511 South Third street, from which the funeral will be conducted this morning at 11 o'clock.
From thence they will be taken to the First Presbyterian church and later to Oakdale cemetery, where they will be laid away.

During the hour of the funeral today all city offices will be closed and officials will attend the services in a body in recognition of Mr. Riach's valued services to the municipality as a member of the Board of Audit and Finance.
