FORCAST FOR TO-DAY.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—For North Carolina: Fair Tuesday and Wednesday; warmer Wednesday; light northerly winds, becoming variable.

Port Almanac—October 15.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price/Amount.

Spanish war claims to the amount of $75,000,000 have been filed at Washington, and the books are not closed yet.

It is said that Admiral Sampson has developed aphasia. And a good many of the Government witnesses in the Schley case seem to have caught it.

Mobile papers report that steps are being taken to establish a German colony in Alabama. German colonies are good things. We would like to see lots of them in the South.

A Savannah paper remarks that "Oysters are coming modestly to the front." That's the way they come to the front up this way all the time. Our oysters never put on any airs.

The deaths of Boers in the British camps average 230 a week. As these are mostly children if Kitchener can keep it up he may in course of time exhaust the supply of fighters.

The farmers of Rockbridge county, Va., who grow apples, have been realizing an average profit of more than $300 an acre from them this year. Dealers buy them on the trees and do their own picking.

A man was arrested in Savannah last week for bribing voters. He paid $5 a vote. No wonder they had him arrested. A man who would run the market price up from 50 cents to $5, must have had malice in him. Something should be done with him.

If Schley did say "damn the Texas" it must be remembered that things were getting pretty hot about that time, and a man could not be expected to be particularly frigid in his remarks. "Fighting Bob Evans" would probably have put some prefixes to the monosyllable to round it up.

President Roosevelt is quoted as saying, "I am going to make such appointments as will make every Southerner respect the Republican party." He can easily make such appointments as will make every Southerner respect him, but when it comes to respecting the Republican party that is another matter.
That will be a pretty large sized job.

LOCAL DOTS.

—British steamer Torgorm, hence, arrived at Ghent yesterday.
—Stock in the Wilmington Savings and Trust Company is wanted.
See business local column.

—Rythians of Wilmington and all visiting Knights are asked not to forget the joint meeting to-night at 8 o'clock.

—The Daughters of the Confederacy will serve refreshments in the German Village booth during the fair and respectfully ask for the public patronage.
—A lady asks the STAR to call the attention of the authorities to reckless driving that she says is evident during the Carnival week when the streets are crowded with ladies and children.

—Although there has been much talk of "Crooks" at the fair, little evidence of their presence prevails.
A number came to Wilmington but were informed by Chief of Police Furlong and City Detective Green that they had best "move on." However, caution should be observed.
—Capt. Danielson, of the British steamship Candleshoe, which arrived Saturday from New York, reports that on the 10th inst. his vessel passed at 10:30 A. M. a submerged wreck with masts above water and very dangerous to shipping; bearing Furlong and City Detective Green that they had best "move on." However,
caution should be observed.

—The foot-ball season in Wilmington will be opened at Hilton Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock with a game between the crack eleven of Cape Fear Academy and the Wilmington High School. Cars will be run to the Park. An admission of twenty five cents will be charged gentlemen; ladies free.

Death of Capt. J. S. Burruss.
The STAR regrets to chronicle the death of Capt. Joseph Burruss, an aged and highly respected citizen of Southport. Captain Burruss died at 10 o'clock Sunday morning and was buried at Southport yesterday afternoon. He was 73 years of age and served the Confederacy valiantly during the war on one of the blockade runners running into this port. Deceased survived besides his wife by one son, Capt. O. D. Burruss, who is so well and favorably known in Wilmington and three daughters. The sorrowing ones have the sympathy of numerous friends.

Three had an Affray.
On account of a difficulty which T.
F. Bell had on Saturday night with Deputy Sheriff Geo. W. Mills, Walter Bell, a son of the former, G. W.
Mills and his brother, Scip Mills, engaged in a lively affray in front of Justice McGowan's office yesterday.
The three were tried by Justice Bornemann yesterday afternoon and bound over to the Superior Court in two cases each for an affray and resisting an officer. T. F. Bell, who was confined in the station house for his Saturday night offence yesterday morning gave bond for his appearance in the municipal court this morning.

The Acme Tea Chest Co.
Mr. Arthur Maclean, one of the directors of the Acme Tea Chest Co., Glasgow, Scotland, reached the city yesterday morning on a visit to Mr.
Will L. Miller, manager of the local branch of the large enterprise. Mr.
Miller has chartered the steam tug Buck and will take Mr. Maclean on a three days' tour of the company's logging camp and landed interests, fifty-two miles up the Cape Fear. They will also visit the lands of the company on Black River, remaining away about three days.

Hails from Wilmington.
Goldboro Argus: "A white man named E. B. Brown, who claims to hall from Wilmington, was arrested in LaGrange this morning in response to a telegram from Chief Freeman and brought back to Goldboro on a charge of stealing $70 from an Assyrian at the Privet boarding house last night.
Brown had a bed in the same room with two Assyrians. When they returned last night they found the door open for Brown. He did not show up this morning and one of the Assyrians missed $70 and suspicion fell on Brown. He was searched and $47 of the money was secured, together with a handkerchief which was recognized."

Shooting at Navassa.
In a fight at Navassa Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock, Jim Hall, colored, shot and perhaps fatally wounded Tom McKoy, also colored. The ball took effect in McKoy's right breast.
Chief Furlong and Sergeant Burnett, of the Wilmington police department went over to Navassa in response to a telephone message, but Hall had fled, though he was held by the colored people of the neighborhood for a while after the shooting.

New Menhaden Fishery.
A party of twelve or fifteen contractors and carpenters arrived Sunday from Lewes, Del., and went down yesterday to the new menhaden fishery to begin work. The new factory will be completed and in operation in two or three weeks.

CARNIVAL OPENING.

Week of Festivity Begun in Blaze of Glory Last Evening at Seven O'clock.

MESSAGE FROM GOVERNOR.

It was a Tolerant for Throwing Wide the Gates—Various Shows and Where Located—Programme for Today—Large Attendance.

Under the most favorable auspices and with an augury of a week of great enjoyment for the people of Wilmington and visitors, the Elks Carnival and Street Fair opened last evening at 7 o'clock with booming of cannon, screaming of steam whistles, ringing of bells and flashing of electric.
The word was given for the formal opening of the fair exactly at 7 o'clock when Governor Charles B. Aycock, in the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company's office in Raleigh, flashed this message across the wires in response to an invitation sent him last week:

"RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 14th.
"Wilmington Lodge, No. 530, B. P. O.
E., Wilmington, N. C."
"It gives me pleasure as Chief Executive of the State to open the Wilmington Carnival under the auspices of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks. Accept my congratulations and best wishes for its success. I now formally declare the Carnival open."

A multitude of people thronged the streets at the hour for opening and on the "midway" many friends met and exchanged cordial greetings. The weather was all that could be desired and the crowds lingered about the various multi-colored and ornamented booths until the hour of midnight.

The Elks have accomplished a great thing for Wilmington and everywhere compliments were bestowed upon their industry and enterprise in arranging the event.
The "show train" reached the city at 5 o'clock yesterday morning from Richmond and consisted of sixteen cars and a sleeper. The magnitude and variety of the attractions was a surprise to many. A whole day was consumed in spreading canvas, arranging the booths, etc. Even at that many of the shows last night were in readiness for the opening but there was no complaint on the part of spectators. It seemed to be the opinion of all that a visit to the Carnival was well worth the while even under the handicapped conditions.
To-day will naturally be a big one of the fair. The various free attractions will come off according to programme, and many will be given that are not on the programme. A parade of the Wilmington paid fire department will be a feature of this afternoon exercise, and the trolley parade to-night at 8 o'clock promises to be an interesting feature. Hollowbush's brass band of twenty-two pieces arrived yesterday and will give daily concerts. There are also several excellent bands with the Bostock Company.
The Shows and Where They Are.
There is plenty to amuse one a whole week at the Carnival. There are shows well pleasing to the multitudes that passed in and out last night. There are sixteen regular shows along with the Bostock-Ferari Company and there are many side liners—the fortune-telling booths, the cane rocks, the balloon stands, etc.—and all of them appear to be well patronized.
All the regular attractions are under the management of Col. Francis Fer-ari. The most captivating and one to which Col. Ferari gives his personal attention is the trained animal show at Front and Market streets. The animals were personally selected by Col.
Ferari. Wallace, the untamable lion, performing lion, the wrestling kangaroo and other trained animals make a very interesting exhibit. Another very popular feature at Front and Market, on the east side, is the Crystal Maze, Up Market street as far as Second, in the building of the Air, a maid of the found Elks. A system of hobby horses that are proving very popular and the Streets of All Nations. The latter was a great favorite in Richmond and is proving so here. The Turkish dancing girls and other features of the show are attracting big crowds. Kabel E. Nelmy, the manager, was at one time an attaché at the Turkish legation in Washington. Near this corner the High Diver has his tank of water of 36 inches in depth and will make free exhibitions of high diving during the fair. At Front and Princess streets on the west side is the German Village where there are to be seen black wire performers, Tyrolean performers and other vaudeville attractions. Across the street is Minnie, the Wild Girl, who has superhuman powers. She is known as the Australian bushgirl.
She is between 35 and 40 years of age and has been exhibited for 17 years.
On this corner troupes of Japanese and Hindoos will also perform wonder-feats.

In front of the Postoffice, on Front street, is the Ferris wheel propelled by a gasoline engine. South of this attraction is the Elks' Country Store, a local feature, managed by Mr. James H. Cowan, assisted by Mr. J. W.
Bloome. A committee of Elks is also present to administer to the wants of the multitude.

At the eastern intersection of Front and Chesnut streets is the Moorish Palace, which is one of the twenty-five cent attractions and a popular one, too. The fire dance, the Cham-vion lady in poses plastique, the vivified statue are very interesting.
Opposite the Moorish Palace is the London Dog and Monkey Circus. This feature is especially popular with the ladies and children. Mrs. Murphy, the monkey balloonist, is the star of the show.

Near Front and Grace, on the west side of Front street are Major Aguinaldo, the tiny Filipino, and the smallest horse in the world. The horse weighs only 28 pounds and is 24 inches high.
At the eastern intersection of Grace and Front streets is "A Trip to the Moon" in which are presented some attractive living pictures. Further up Front street, on the west side, the Norwegian barrel-jumpers, contortion-ists and others do a free performance.
At Front and Dock streets Edison's moving pictures are up-to-date and never fail to please the crowds. Across the street is Oco, who "eats 'em alive," and inspires the stentorian voice of the Barker. Bosco is dead, but Oco is still with us.
There are many free acts. The balloon ascension of Mrs. Murphy and her parachute leap; Horikoshi's band of Japanese acrobats; Madie, Kotony in her thrilling aerial act on a telegraph pole; the Norwegian barrel-jumpers and the contortionists arranging the multitude. The most sensational of the free shows is the act of Grant, who rides a bicycle across a live wire. This is a very spectacular act at night, and the electrical effects are startling and beautiful.
Visitors to the Carnival will find no lack of good shows, and the ticket sellers were kept very busy last night.
Managing Director Ferari has a valuable corps of colleagues in V. D. Leavit, business manager; B. H. Patrick, secretary and treasurer, and H. B. Potter, general agent. They are uniting in their efforts to keep all the shows up to such a standard that general satisfaction and pleasure will be experienced by the big crowds that witness these attractions.

Some of the Trades Displays.
Commendable enterprise has been shown by many merchants in the erection of booths and in window and store decorations for the Carnival.
Beginning on North Front street Mr.
J. G. Skipper, the confectioner, has a very creditable booth; Tucker Bros., the marble men, come next and in their order down Front street are the booths of the following: J. D. Nutt, Sternberger Brothers, Geo. O. Gaylord, J. H. Rehder & Co. (Front and Chesnut), A. S. Winstead, Geo. R.
French & Son, Victor Zoeller & Co., J. W. Plummer, Jr. (Front and Princess), Joe H. Hinton (opposite Maclean's Bakery and Cafe), Fishplate Clothing Company and Chas. M.
Steiff, S. H. Kress & Co., George Honnet, The C. W. Polvogt Company, H. J. Gerken, Peterson & Rulis, Robert R. Bellamy, E. Warren & Son and Penny & Co. On Market street booths have been erected in front of the places here mentioned: W. H.
Anderson, Mavronichos and Jos. C.
Shopard, Jr. On Princess street, Mercer & Evans and Worsley's Cafe and Restaurant have displays.
Many of the merchants who did not find it convenient to erect booths have very creditable store displays and decorations and several are using banners to attract attention, notable among them being at the stores of Messrs. S. & B. Solomon, corner of Front and Market streets.
Order Kept at the Fair.
Mayor Waddell, Chief Furlong and individual members of the police force are putting forth extraordinary efforts to maintain the best of order during the week, and the way the crowds were handled last night is evidence of their skill in this direction. Not more than half a dozen arrests were made up to midnight, and these were for petty offences. Ten extra policemen are on duty at night and five during the day. The Elks also never fail to place the stamp of their disapproval upon any breach of the peace.

Additional subscriptions to the carnival fund have been received from the following: John J. Kelly, Jake Elsback, L. W. Davis, J. B. Rankin, H. A. Rankin, N. E. Rankin, San Lee, H. E. Hance, J. W. H.
Fuchs, Mercer & Evans, Adolph Goodman, A. D. Wessell, J. W. Duis, E. F. Johnson, M. C. Benson, W. J.
Crawwell, Mrs. Lela Eldred.

Past Exalted Ruler E. J. Gerken, District Deputy E. P. O. E., North and South Carolina, and Chairman of the Carnival Executive Committee.

THE UNITED STATES COURT.

Session Yesterday Taken Up With Cases From New Hanover, Robeson, Cumberland and Columbus Counties.

Yesterday's session of the Federal Court was mainly uninteresting except to those who were defendants or witnesses. A large number of unimportant cases were heard during the day and at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a recess was taken until 10 A.
M. to-day. As the court adjourned for the day the case of N. F. Truelove, of Cumberland county, charged with retailing, was on trial. A jury was empaneled and the court took a recess pending the testimony.
The following cases were tried during the day:
Thomas Steen, of Richmond county, removing and concealing spirits; defendant pleaded guilty and was sentenced to three months in jail and fined $100.
Jim Ledbetter, of Richmond county, retailing liquor without license; defendant pleaded guilty and was sentenced to thirty days in jail and fined $100 and the costs; defendant to be discharged at the end of thirty days.
Will Flowers, of Richmond county, retailing; defendant pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 4 months in jail and fined $100.
Artemus Cox, of Richmond county, retailing; defendant pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 30 days in jail and fined $100.
Chester Wadkins, of Columbus county, removing and concealing spirits and retailing spirits; defendant entered a plea of nolo contendere, which was accepted by the court and judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in the two cases.
Brewan Lockyer, of Robeson county, retailing; defendant pleaded guilty and judgment was suspended.
W. B. Crumpler et al., of New Hanover county, removing and concealing spirits; continued till the next term of the court.
Calvin Banks, of Scotland county, retailing; verdict guilty and defendant sentenced to 4 months in jail and fined $100 and the costs.
Sandy A. Thomas, of Scotland county, retailing; called and failed, judgment nisi, set aside and capias.
John McNeill, of Cumberland county, retailing; defendant being dead action was abated.
Mariah Lowrie, of Robeson county, retailing; defendant pleaded guilty and judgment was suspended and the defendant continued and discharged.
T. DeVane, of Robeson county, retailing; verdict guilty. Judgment was suspended; defendant having been on the chain gang of Robeson county for this offence.
John Jacobs, of Robeson county, retailing; not guilty.
Frank Townsend, of New Hanover
spirits; verdict guilty and judgment reserved.
H. K. Bourk and G. R. Bate, regular jurors, excused for the term.
It is expected that the docket will be exhausted to-day and court adjourning for the term.

STATE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.
Annual Meeting in Raleigh, Thursday, October 24th—Truckers interested.
The twenty-second annual meeting of the State Horticultural Society will be held in the Auditorium of the Agricultural Department, Raleigh, N. C., at 3 P. M. on Thursday Oct. 24th.
A good programme will be presented, and everyone who is interested in fruit-growing, trucking, or other lines of horticulture, is invited to attend this meeting. As it takes place during the week of the State Fair there should be a large attendance.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

Superior Court Has in Hearing a Case Against the Champion Compress Company.

THE SESSION YESTERDAY.

Number of Matters Disposed of, Including Several Motions—Bank of New Hanover vs. Butters Lumber Co.
Talesman for To-day.

About the only matter of public interest in the Superior Court yesterday was the entering upon the trial just before adjournment for the day of the damage suit brought by George Grambam, colored, against the Champion Compress and Warehouse Company, in which the plaintiff seeks for $5,000 alleged damages by reason of certain injuries received by him some time ago while loading cotton in the hold of a British tramp steam ship. The plaintiff is represented by Stevens, Beasley & Weeks and L. V.
Grady, while Meares & Rusk appear for the defendant company. A jury had been empaneled and the complaint and answer read when court took a recess at 6 o'clock until 9:30 A. M. to-day.
The jury which has the case in hearing is composed as follows: Clifton Carroll, Geo. T. Groglen, J. A. Montgomery, Joe L. Middleton, Joe A.
Westbrook, D. G. Westbrook, J. W.
Barnes, J. B. Watters, Sol Bear, Owen Fennell, F. T. Skipper, E. T. Conaway.
The other proceedings of the days are as follows:
Junius Davis, receiver, vs. Butters Lumber Company, agreed that judge shall find the facts; argued by Russell & Gore for defendant and Rountree & Carr, Bellamy & Bellamy and Eugene S. Martin for plaintiff.
M. J. Corbett vs. J. B. Sellars & Co.; summons to issue for Ed Mac-Rae.
T. G. Williams, administrator, vs.
Inter State Telephone and Telegraph Company; set for second Monday at the next term of court for trial of civil cases.
City of Wilmington vs. E. K. Ryan; time allowed to file proceedings.
Ludden & Bates vs. N. L. Smith; J. K. Ryan, Esq., makes a special appearance and moved to dismiss the case.
The following talesmen were ordered summoned for to-day: J. Alvis Walker, Martin O'Brien, F. L. Peasall, Z. W. Whitehead, Geo. C. Dew, Walter E. Jackson, H. G. Whitney, J. G.
Darden, Jr., D. E. Prigden, W. G.
Goddard, H. B. Martin, G. W. Cas-teen.

South Carolinians here.
P. A. Wilcox, Esq., of Florence, W. F. Dargan, Esq., Messrs. J. A.
Whittington, J. K. Kervin, J. M.
Earle and C. S. McCullough, of Darlington, S. C., arrived Sunday to attend the Superior Court. They are interested as counsel and witnesses in the case of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company against J. P.
Kervin, a prominent South Carolina farmer.

OPERA HOUSE TO-NIGHT.

MacLean-Tyler Company in Big Revival of "School for Scandal."

To-night at the Opera House the MacLean-Tyler Company will appear and will, no doubt, be greeted by a large audience. These two stars have delighted the season to test whether the public does not enjoy, and fully appreciate, plays of undoubted worth and merit when properly mounted and presented. In other words, they have decided to give authors whose names have become classic an even chance with some of the more modern school of novelists and story writers, whose works have been "adapted" for the stage.
It is admitted that much of this latter day dramatic fare would not be accepted without lavish outlays for stage settings, etc. Therefore, Mr. MacLean and Miss Tyler think Shakespeare and Sheridan are worthy of equal elaborate appointments. The production of the School for Scandal is not only a magnificent example of scenic art, but historically correct in matters of detail, and an excellent company will present the play.
Seats are now on sale at Gerken's.

Request to Merchants.

In order to allow them to participate in the military parade for the carnival on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Messrs. S. & B. Solomon, of Robeson county, members of the Wilmington Aristocracy, Wilmington Light Infantry and Colonel Walker Tays-lor's Boys' Brigade are earnestly requested by the Elks to allow them a brief leave of absence until after the parade. It is to the interest of the people at Wilmington to make as creditable a display as possible and for this reason it is hoped that each organization will enter with full ranks.

Handsome Vestibuled Coach.

A handsome full vestibuled day coach for the Florida and West Indian Limited, New York to Tampa, will be turned out by the Atlantic Coast Line shops in this city in a day or two.
The coach is the first of its class built and painted in the shops here and is decidedly handsome. It is finished in oak and mahogany and the decorative work, the creation of the A. O. L. paint shops in Wilmington, is a credit to that department if credit is ever deserved for any work. Few people, perhaps, appreciate that in the Wilmington shops some of the finest work in the country is done.

The Atlantic Coast Line has on sale round trip tickets to Buffalo, on according to the P. A. M. S. (Stop-overs allowed within transit limit). These tickets allow a limit of five days in each direction and final limit 30 days, at rate of one fare plus $1.00. Rate from Wilmington $25.00. Stop-overs allowed within transit limit. These tickets sold via Philadelphia and Pennsylvania railroad, as well as via direct route.

FISHBLATE CLOTHING CO.'S Stores.

Wilmington holds wide open her doors of hospitality to the noble Elks and their followers. At no place have you met more cordial and sincere greeting than will be extended to you here. Wilmington is your city and we are but the keepers and guardians of its illustrious history. So come with the freedom of co-ownership. You will find the latchings of public buildings and private enterprise alike hanging on the outside, and awaiting you within are the cheery smiles and hearty hand-shake of genuine friendships. All that can be done to make your visit here a memorably happy one will be done by individuals and organization. Directly we extend you the facilities of our stores. Make appointments to meet your friends in our reception room. Let us take charge of your parcels. Have your mail and telegrams sent in our care. The Bureau of Information will direct you to all points of interest, and the most accessible means of reaching them. In a word, use us with the same freedom you would your home store. In Wilmington there can be no strangers—this is the people's store, and we are fully equipped with all your wants in Men's Wear.
