Free Exhibitions Are Marvelous and Ma jority of Paid Shows Are Well Worth the Price-Where, When and How It May Be Epioyed.

Wilmington saw the Carnival by daylight yesterday for the first time and appeared to be fully as well pleased with it as when seen on the night previous under the glare of electrics. The crowds were naturalty not large in the morning but in the afternoon multitudes began to swarm on the streets, ladies and children being in large, especially on the Midway at Second and Market where a large variety of entertainments is affordedthe riding gallery, Electra, the Flying Lady, Osco, the Snake Eater and many other side lines. The snake eater was formally located at Front and Dock streets but he found business dull down there with the fishermen and moved up on the Midway.

The visitors from the inland points were not in large numbers yesterday, but crowds of them are expected to-

The free attractions "came off" yeserday as advertised and were witnessed by very large crowds. The parade by the Wilmington Fire Department headed by Hollowbush's fine. Band at 4 o'clock in the afternoon was very creditable. The high dive at Second and Market was marvellous. JOHN A. ORRELL ELECTED.

POOT BALL THIS AFTERNOON. on the Board of Audit and Finance. Meeting Last Night.

Mr. John A. Orrell was last night elected a member of the City Board of Audit and Finance, to succeed the late Wm. A. Riach.

He Will Succeed the Late W. A. Riach

The action was taken at the regular meeting of the board last night, upon which Chairman McQueen and all members were present. Mr. Orrell is a young man of splendid business qualifications, and his election will no doubt be received with eminent satisfaction. He is assistant manager of the Standard Oil Company's branch establishment in Wilmington and a resident of the Fifth ward.

The other business of last night's session consisted of an approval of the appropriation of the Aldermen of $200 for a bell tower for the fire alarm system at Fourth street bridge and the burning of $17,260 in interest coupons which have been paid.

No action was taking in regard to the street paving contract, as the bids have not yet been submitted by the Aldermen to the Board of Audit and Adjournment was had subject to the call of the chairman.

Friends in the city will deeply sympathize with Capt. N. J. Williams and wife in the death yesterday at noon of their infant daughter, Margaret Octavia, aged five and a half months. The little one had been ill for several weeks with a complication of diseases and death came yesterday at the family home, No. 302 Bladen streets. The funeral will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon from the late residence.

THE UNITED STATES COURT.

Case from Cumberland County Consumed Much of Yesterday's Session-May Adjourn To-day.

A major portion of vesterday's session of the Federal Court was taken up in a completion of the hearing of the case of N. F. Truelove, of Cumberland county, charged with retailing liquor without license and illicit distilling. All the evidence was in when court took a recess for dinner, and in the afternoon Herbert McClammy, Esq., counsel for defendant, and District Attorney Bernard addressed the jury. Judge Purnell delivered an able charge, and at 3 o'clock the case went to the jury. After remaining out until 6 o'clock last evening the jury brought in a verdict of guilty and the defendant will be sentenced upon the convening of court this morning.

Another jury also remained, out until after the court had taken a recess for the day and a verdict of guilty was returned to Deputy Clerk Tonnoffski. It was the matter of Neill McArthur, of Robeson county, charged with retailing. J. G. McCormick. Esq., of Maxton, appeared for the defendant.

There are now not more than a dozen cases on the docket and it is expected that these will be disposed of and an adjournment for the term taken this afternoon.

The following cases were tried yes-Gooch Dees, alias Miranda Dees, Robeson; retailing; verdict not guilty. John Knowles, Scotland: retailing; verdict guilty, 60 days in jail and $100

TROUBLE ON A SCHOONER.

Negro Laborer Shot by Mr Robert N. flarriss, Superintendent of the Wilmington Stevedore Company.

While directing the work of a number of stevedores engaged in loading the schooner Fred B. Balano at Kidder's mill in the southern section of the city vesterday morning about 8 o'clock, Mr. Robert N. Harriss, a young man well known in the city and a superintendent for the Wilming ton Stevedore Company, had trouble with a negro named Will Moore which resulted in the perhaps fatal shooting of the latter.

Mr. Harriss says the negro had been insolent all the morning and at length he told him to get to work, whereupon the negro cursed him and when he resented the insult clutched his throat and threw him against a pile of lumber. When he arose, Mr. Harriss says, the negro advanced upon him with a knife and he shot him. The ball took effect in the negro's right side under the ninth rib and was later extracted at the hospital from near the backbone. It was a 32 calibre Smith & Wesson pistol from which the bullet was fired.

After the shooting Mr. Harriss gave himself up to Chief of Police Furlong at Front and Princess streets and in the afternoon gave bond in the sum of $200, with Messrs. George and W. N. Harriss as sureties.

The negro was removed to his home on Church between Sixth and Seventh streets where Dr. Mask, the colored physician, attended him. Later he was sent to the Walker Memorial Hospital and Drs. Bulluck, Harriss and Little gave him attention. Last midnight an inquiry at the hospital revealed the fact that the negro was still in a critical condition but the surgeons in attendance think there is chance for his recovery.

THE SUPERIOR COURT

Suit Against Champion Compress Dismissed Upon Motion of Defendant's Counsel.

THE SESSION YESTERDAY. Case of Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company Against J. P. Kirven Now in Hearing - Witnesses from South Carolina.

> After consuming practically the entire session of the Superior Court yesterday, the damage suit of Geoge Graham against the Champion Compress and Warehouse Company was dismissed without going to the jury upon motion of Meares & Ruark, attorneys for the defendant.

Upon the convening of court yesterday morning the hearing was resumed by the introduction of testimony for the plaintiff. About a dozen witnesses were examined for the plaintiff up to the hour at which a recess was taken for dinner. When the plaintiff's testimony was all in, the defendant's counsel moved to dismiss the action on the ground that the plaintiff, taking the evidence in its most favorable light, was not entitled to recover. After an argument upon the motion, lasting until 3:30 o'clock, Judge Allen sustained the position taken by defendant's counsel and a non suit was entered. The plaintiff's attorneys, Stevens. Beasley & Weeks and L. V. Grady, gave notice of an appeal to the Supreme Court. Notice of an appeal was waived and appeal bond fixed at $25. Thirty days was given plaintiff to make up the case on appeal and a like period to defendant to serve counter statement

Upon the conclusion of the Graham suit, that of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company against J. P. Kervin was taken up. Evidence was being submitted when court adjourned at 6 o'clock for the day. The plainiff is represented by Wilcox & Wilcox, of Florence, S. C., and Rountree & Carr, of this city. The counsel for the defendant consists of Junius Davis, Esq., and Bellamy and Peschau. The suit involves the title to about a hundred bales of cotton and has been on the docket for several years. A large number of witnesses are here from South Carolina, the defendant being a resident of Darling-

The following cases were decided by per curiam order: State vs. Bivens, from Wayne, affirmed; Brinkley vs. Smith, from Columbus, certiorari allowed; Everett Dawes, from Robeson, motion to docket and dismiss defendant's appeal under rule 17 allowed.

Appeals from the eighth district were argued to-day, those from Nash county being continued by consent. Senator Pritchard opened his campaign to break into the white Democratic votes of Eastern North Carolina at Louisburg to-day. About 3,000 people heard him, many of them negroes. His whole argument was based on the assumption that white men will do the voting in the future. Most of the speech was in discussion of national issues-expansion, merchant marine, tariff. He severely denounced the State revenue act passed by the last legislature, denouncing it as unjust, unbusiness like and calculated to do the State great harm. No reference was made to the State election law. He told your correspondent here to night that there is every indication of a political revolution in Frank.in county, and that the Republican Business Men's Club at Louisburg will support the State as well as the National Republican
