In addition to the Englishmen who are over here to study American methods of manufacturing, some railroad men have come over to study our way of running railroads. It would be cheaper for them to hire some Americans to go over there and teach them how to do things.

An old fellow died in Wisconsin recently leaving $3,500 to be divided among several heirs, on the mathematical equation plan, and now they have all the mathematical experts in that neck of woods figuring to solve that will. What's bothering them is to find a starting point, as he failed to state what any one of them was to get.

When Miss VanWagner, who is with the European Stars, the opening concert of the association's course, was here last year it was the almost universal opinion that she was without exception the finest violin virtuoso who ever visited Wilmington. One of Wilmington's critics, who is a gifted violinist, says that Miss Van Wagner has technique that knows no limitation. All who heard this gifted young lady last year will need no persuasion to secure their patronage this year. The European Stars have been greatly strengthened by the addition of Miss Chase, who is one of Georgia's belles as well as one of the South's sweetest singers. Her voice ranges from E to D flat, and her singing is said to be thrilling in the highest de-

ABOUT THE CARNIVAL

People from the Adjoining Towns and Country Began Arriving Yesterday Morning.

THIS IS THE ELKS' DAY.

Parade To-night at 9 O'clock Will Be Grotesque and Interesting-Free Attractions Are All Good-Street Gambling Stands Closed.'

The third day of the Carnival yesterday was not one whit behind its two distinguished predecessors both as to crowds in attendance and weather conditions. The people from adjoining towns and country were in great evidence, and that's really for whom the Carnival was designed. The city folks, too, had lost none of their fair interest, and around almost every booth were gathered anxious throngs. The festive spirit pervades the entire atmosphere, and although business may not be so good in the store and office, the people are being attracted to the city and of course business will follow.

Two extra trains came in yesterday from over the Seaboard Air Line and Wilmington and Newbern railroads, and the steamer Wilmington also brought up a crowd from Southport. or two with Mr. Angel's grandmother, The extra trains will bring in larger crowds to-day, and the Carnival is then expected to reach the zenith of its glory. The free attractions are good and a majority of the paid shows sppear to be well worth the admission price charged. Yesterday the "small horse and man" show moved up from Front and Grace streets to Front and Market. Numerous other small side line attractions began to spring up all along the carnival district. The red lemonade men, the silver and gold wire workers, the negro behind the canvas, the cane racks, the balloon venders, the confetti dealers and the lunch counter men are all here and doing fairly good business.

Two stands where the "eavelope men" gave "ten, twenty and thirty" were suspressed by Mayor Waddell and Chief Furlong early in the afternoon. It savored too much of gambling and the proprietors had to "shut up shop."

The "country store" during the three days of the carnival has enjoyed a patronage of nearly $400. Value received is given for every chance purchased as all the merchandise was donated and of course may be sold with great profit "regardless of cost or consequences." Mr. James H. Cowan is in charge assisted by Mr. John W. Bloome.

The Elks, the originators of the Fair. have thrown their handsome Temple on North Front street wide open to the public during the week. The parlors, drawing rooms and other departments of the building are handsomely decorated and visitors are received with the utmost cordiality.

The free shows in various sections of the Carnival district are heralded by music from Hollowbush's Cornet Band and all of them entertain and instruct. Notable among them for grace and prehensile agility is Mrs. Murphy, the monkey balloonist," who grasps the parachute, and seems the higher she goes the more to enjoy the rarity of the atmosphere, until at the dizzy altitude of 3,000 feet above the world, she cuts loose and descands in the same graceful manner in which she arose from Mother Earth.

Another feature that never fails to please is the "Hiway Family of Japanese Acrobats" in posturing acts, and Wu Ming, the daring, who does a stride for life on a 500-foot wire.

A remarkable sight, Mile Orocas, in in ærial work, the famous high diver, "Speedy," diving 60 feet into a small tank of water, and "Grant," the electrical wonder, riding on a bicycle at great height on a live wire, with bike and wire illuminated.

To-day is Elks' Day. To-day has been given over to mem bers of B. P. O. E., as their own and the Wilmington Elks have determined to make the season set apart for them a "Red Letter Day" in the Carnival, giving the visitors an opportunity of viewing what will be interesting and amazing in originality and variety. In the forenoon of the day visiting Elks will be entertained by the local brotherhood "around about in spots," as the programme uniquely announces it. To-night at 9 o'clock members of the order will give a grotesque parade that will surpass anything yet seen durwill follow, "no one known from another." All Elks are requested to meet at the Temple at 8 o'clock tonight to prepare for the pageant. The line of march will be down Front to Nun street; to Third; to Market, to Second and again to Front street and to the Temple. The regular ghost parade of the Elks will be on Friday morning at 12:01 o'clock A. M. Messrs. "Jack" Bellamy and T. W. Davis, of the Amusement committee, are at work on the parade feature and all desired information may be gained by applying to either of them.

Eiks are requested to meet at the Temple at 11:30 o'clock with all paraphernalia for the ghost parade. It will sold via Philadelphia and Pennsylvania and Penns either of them. star t promptly at 12:01 A. M. and the vania railroad, as well as via direct J. A. Springer & Co.-Coal, wood. line of march will be to Dock street route.

and return. The parade will be weird and well worth the seeing.

Edison's Moving Pictures. The Edison Moving Pictures at corner of Front and Dock streets, is one of the best of its character ever seen in Wilmington. The very latest pictures of the famous Wizard are repro-

President reviewing the troops during his visit and a most striking likeness is presented as he salutes the troops as they pass. The second picture shows the introduction of the President to the people by President Milburn, of the Exposition, and the delivery of his last speech to his countrymen. This picture is considered one of the best ever taken by the Edison Company. The last picture of this series shows the wonderful funeral cortege at Buffalo and is considered a masterpiece of the moving picture business, showing in perfect detail the entire procession as it passed from the house of President

Milburn to the depot at Buffalo. In addition to the above is given a beautiful colored presentation of the famous fairy tale of Cinderilla. Taken as a whole the entertainment is one that should not be missed.

Notes of the Carnival. J. H. Rehder & Co. have one of the prettiest booths in the Carnival district. It is handsomely decorated, beautifully lighted at night, and located in front of the postoffice building north of the Ferris wheel. Friends of the big Department Store are requested to call at the booth and rest while traversing through the fair.

The best of order still prevails on the street, notwithstanding the large crowds. Extra policemen are on duty at all times and during the night there is a policeman on each block down-

All the shows close at 11 o'clock each night. A number of the stands conducted for individual profit remain open until midnight. Kincaid, the electrician of the shows, who assaulted his treasurer Tuesday, was arraigned in Justice Fowler's court yesterday. He promised to leave the city and boarded the afternoon W., C. & A. train for Charleston. Mr. F. C. Huffman, the fair promoter, whom the boys like to call "Mr. Bostock," left yesterday afternoon for Mobile, Ala., to organize a fair there. Mr. Huffman is a clever gentleman and made many friends here, who will be delighted to have him come this way again. The Bostock aggregation will leave

Sunday for Macon, Ga.; thence to Canton, Miss., and to Mobile, Ala. The Daughters of the Confederacy are serving refreshments in the store on Market street, next to the store of Mr. N. F. Parker, the furniture mans. They respectfully ask their friends to call. The proceeds go to the entertainment of the National Convention,

PRETTY AFTERNOON WEDDING

Miss Abbey Ellis Chadbourn Became the Bride of Dr. Chas. P. Bolles in the First Presbyterian Church.

At 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church, this city, a pretty wedding ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, when Dr. Charles P. Bolles, a prominent young business man of Wilmington, led to the altar Miss Abbey Ellis Chadbourn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Chadbourn, Jr., also of this city.

The church edifice was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, wild smilax and other flowers and was thronged with friends and relatives of the popular young bride and groom. The wedding marches were admir ably rendered by Miss Anna Sprunt, the organist. The bridal party entered the church to a chorus from Lohengrin and leaving the altar a march by Mendelsohn was played. The order in which the attendants came was as follows: Miss Besste Bolles, sister of the groom. Messrs. Joe Yates and George Chadburn, ushers.

Misses Chrissie Black and Olive Armstrong, bridesmaids. Messrs, Aubrev Parsley and Clayton Giles, Jr., ushers.

Misses Susie Parsley and Blanche Chadbourn, bridesmaids. Miss Frances King Chadbourn, maid of honor.

The bride leaning upon the arm of her father, Mr. James H. Chadbourn, Jr.

The groom entered with his brother and best man, Mr. Frederick Bolles, and all gathered around the beautifully decorated altar, where Dr. Wells softly spoke the words which joined the couple in holy wedlock.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of satin crepe, trimmed with white point

lace and chiffon. She wore a veil of point applique, an heirloom in the Chadbourn family. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and ferns. The maid of honor was handsomely ostumed in white silk, trimmed with lace, and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and ferns. The bridesmalds wore white organdie, trimmed with lace, and carried red carnations. Many beautiful and costly wedding presents were received, attesting the popularity of the couple. The bride and groom left last night on the north bound A. C. L. train on an extended tour, after which they will be at home in this city.
