OUTLINES.

One hundred and ten of the ring of Buffalo Bill's show were filled in a train wreck near Lexington, N. C., three hours after leaving Charlotte; the loss is $50,000.—Fire at St. Joseph, La.; loss $50,000.— The National Confederate re-union at Dallas next year will begin April 29.
—U. S. revenue cutter Tascorara was launched at Richmond, Va., yesterday.—Jno. McPherson, white, murdered by a negro on a plantation near Fort Worth, Texas.— A negro was executed a few minutes after 7 o'clock yesterday morning; he was defiant to the last; his last words were: "I am not sorry for my crime." —Dr. E. H. Dillard, colored, arrested at Roanoke, Va., he is wanted in Bedford, N. C.—In government prison at Sofia it is the impression that Miss Stone, the American missionary, is dead; a Constantinople dispatch says that information from missionaries near the brigands' retreat is far from satisfactory.—

who have never read it in even one.

Some fellows undertook to corner corn in Mexico, American fashion, but when President Diaz caught on to it he cornered them Diaz fashion and busted the combine.

Here is another illustration of the hoodlum 13. Thirteen Hessian waiters who arrived at New York a few days ago were refused permis- sion to land and had to go back.

Cock fighting has been prohibited in Manila, because the American residents pronounce it cruel. Henceforth festivities of that kind must be conducted on the sly, as they are in this country.

The special train on which J. Pierpont Morgan and party returned from San Francisco made a remark- ably rapid run from Detroit to Niagara Falls, when it covered the distance of 227 miles in 200 min- utes. At times it clipped along at the rate of 85 miles an hour.

Some Republicans in Indiana have written the Indianapolis Sentinel that they wouldn't hesitate to invite "an educated colored gentleman to dinner." But they have had plenty of opportunities to do that, have never done it, and are not rushing to do it now.

There is a good deal of ally humor in Admiral Schley's testimony be- fore the court of inquiry. There was so much about the proceedings of his squadron up to and during the light of Santiago that he didn't know until he heard the testimony of Captain Lemly's witnesses.

The Minnesota Federation of Women's clubs has put its foot down on the application of a negro woman's club in St. Paul to affiliate with it. This was after the Roosevelt shows what the white women of Minnesota think of that.

That late accident to Senator Tillman's other eye didn't impair the volubility of his tongue. The latest utterance attributed to him is that Roosevelt's dining Booker Washington will make it necessary to "kill a thousand more niggers in South Carolina to teach them their places."

LOCAL DOGS.

Christian Science services will be held at the Masonic Temple, room No. 10, this evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. M. H. Kelly, of the firm of Munroe & Kelly, will leave this morning for Raleigh.

The fire department responded to a telephone alarm at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Sparks from the chimney of the residence No. 612 South Ninth street was the cause.

Robert Wade, colored, was fined $5 and costs in the police court yesterday for disorderly conduct. Mary Carter, colored, was taxed with the cost in a case against her for the same offense.

Collector John C. Dancy, of Wilmington, has been chosen to make an address on "Farmers and Mechanics' Day" at the colored State fair, which opened at Raleigh yesterday.

A water tank on a high scaffold at the rear of the car shed of the Wilmington Street Railway Company is being torn down. The timbers were beginning to decay and the structure was regarded as unsafe.

New fixtures have been placed in the Orton office, which adds much to the appearance of things thereabouts. The private office of Mr.
R. W. Wallace, the clever proprietor, will be re-arranged and improved very soon.

The North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church will meet in Fayetteville on December 4th. About 400 delegates, clerical and lay, will be in attendance and Fayetteville is preparing to entertain them in hospitable style.

The old Oldham mill building on Dock street, recently purchased by Mr. N. A. Schloss, is being fitted up for stable use. The new place will be occupied by the stock of horses and mules which Mr. Schloss formerly carried on Princess, between Fourth and Fifth streets.

From reliable information it appears reasonably certain that "Oco-co, the Snake Eater," is not suffering from blood poisoning, as was currently reported on the streets yesterday.
Neither is the report true that "Grant, the Live Wire King," fell from his lofty station in Macon and broke his neck.

CHIEF FURLONG IN NEW ROLE.

Yesterday by Appointment He Exercised Functions of Office as Magistrate.

Chief of Police Furlong was in a new role as police headquarters yesterday—that of justice of the peace, with the powers of which office he was vested by the last Legislature.

Mayor Waddell had a couple of offenders before his court at noon, who expressed a preference for another to pass upon their guilt or innocence.
They were Walter Sylvia and Minnie Clark, both charged with disorderly conduct on the night previous. The Mayor removed the case as requested very cheerfully, and Chief Furlong was the magistrate before whom the trial was set. A hearing was entered into and the presiding justice sent both offenders to the county roads for thirty days each. They will be delivered to the county authorities to day.

Judge Fuller's Successor.

A correspondent in the Raleigh Post advocates the appointment by President Roosevelt of J. B. Schulken, Esq., of Whiteville, to succeed the late Judge Fuller on the Court of Private Land Claims. A number of other names are also mentioned and in this connection it is not inappropos to say that Senator Simmons has addressed a letter to the President asking him that if it is his purpose to appoint a Democrat to hold the same in abeyance until the Democratic delegation from this State can be heard. No reply has been received by Senator Simmons, but he has sent a letter to every North Carolina Congressman asking them to meet in Washington to-morrow with a view of making a unanimous recommendation. Justice James E. Shepherd is among the prominent Democrats mentioned for the place.

Reception At Y. M. C. A.

On Friday night of this week a reception will be given at the Y. M. C. A. from 8 to 11 o'clock in honor of Mr. Geo. H. Fitch, the new general secretary of the association, who has recently entered upon his duties here.

A very interesting programme has been arranged, and all friends of the association are cordially invited to at- tend. The gymnastic, opening from 8:40 to 9:45 o'clock, will be one of the features of the evening's entertain- ment. No juniors will be admitted.

Sent to Higher Court.

Jim Ford, a citizen of color, was arraigned in the municipal court at noon yesterday for assault and battery with a deadly weapon, viz., an axe.
The object of the assault was another negro and the scene was Tenth and Red Cross streets. He was held for the higher court and in default of $25 bond was committed to jail for appearance.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 29.—In the course of his address opening the twenty-third annual North Carolina negro fair here at noon to-day, Governor Aycock made the following significant reference to the Booker Washington dining episode: "It may not be improper for me upon this occasion to express to you the hope that recent events occurring in the nation may not unduly excite you and that you will still remember that your best friends are those who live in your State. What you wish, what you need, more than recognition by the President or other people in authority, is the establishment among yourselves of a society founded upon culture, intelligence and virtue and in no wise dependent upon those of a different race. The law which separates you from the white people in the State socially, always has been and always will be inexorable, and it need not concern you nor me whether this law is violated elsewhere, it will never be violated in the South. Its violation would be to your destruction as well as to the injury of the whites.
No thoughtful, conservative and upright Southerner has for your race anything but the kindest feeling, and we are willing and anxious to see you grow into the highest citizenship of which you are capable, and we are willing to give our energies and best thought to aid you in the great work necessary to make you what you are capable of, and to assist you in that evolution of character and of virtue which tends to the strengthening of the State. But to do this it is absolutely necessary that each race should remain distinct and have a society of its own, in which its own race you can grow as large, as broad, and high as God permits, with the aid, the sympathy and encouragement of your white neighbors. If you can equal the white race in achievement, in scholarship, in literature, in art, in industry, and commerce, you will find no generous minded white man who will stand in your way, but all of them in the South will insist that you shall accomplish this high end without social intermingling and this is well for you; it is well for us; it is necessary for the peace of your section; it is essential to the education of your children that there should be no misunderstanding upon this point. I am sure that you will agree with me in what I have said and in the spirit of one who is the governor of the whole people without regard to race, he bid you God speed in the great work of upbuilding our State. I find no better encouragement in the friendly co-operation of the men and women of your race in which tends to the raising of the level of educating all the children, and I pray you that in this great work you shall not be retarded by misunderstanding."

In replying to Governor Aycock's address, Rev. C. A. King, D. D., editor of the Advance, a negro paper published at Durham and pastor of St. Joseph's M. E. church, said among other things:

"We assure you the negroes of North Carolina understand their places. We don't want social equality. If casting my vote would bring it, I wouldn't cast it. The negro is content to eat his dinner at home. The recent incident to which you refer is known to all few negroes. The great mass will never hear of it. We recognize that the negroes' best friends are in the South, and we say to those on the outside, look on, but hands off."

The negro fair is the most creditable they have ever given; exhibits in all departments being of a high order.

FUNERAL OF ROBERT H. M'KOY.

Will be Conducted This Morning From St.
James'—Wilmington Naval Reserves.

This morning at 11 o'clock, from St.
James' Episcopal church, the funeral of the late Robert H. McKay will be held and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

The news of his death published in the city papers yesterday morning was a source of profound regret to numerous friends in Wilmington, but nowhere was it received with more sadness than with members of Wilmington Division, Naval Reserves, of which for several years he was a lieutenant of the junior grade. In token of their respect for his memory, members of the division yesterday draped their company flag with half-masts. Many members of the organization will attend the funeral this morning.

Leaves for Mississippi.

Mr. S. O. Morton, the popular and very efficient voucher clerk in the office of the General Auditor of the Atlantic Coast Line, has resigned his position and will leave this evening for Southern Mississippi where he has a good place with the Gulf and Ship Island Railroad Company, a new system traversing a very fertile country.
Mr. Morton's host of friends in Wilmington will regret to know of his intended departure and will wish to bid him every success in his new position, which will be similar to the one he has held here and in a line of work in which he is thoroughly conversant.

—Mrs. George W. Kidder and two children returned last evening from Jersey City and New York.

THE GREENWOOD MEETINGS.

All Services Were Well Attended Yesterday and Much Interest is Being Manifested—Other Notes.

Growing interest is attending the series of revival services being held in the city by Evangelist Greenwood, of Boston, and great things are promised in a religious awakening before the week is over.

Last night at the First Baptist Church, the large main auditorium of the building was filled with people and a sermon of great power was preached by Mr. Greenwood from the text: "Thine Heart is Not Right in the Sight of God." The speaker was given strict attention and there was a manifestation of deep interest. Mr.
Greenwood already has a great hold upon the people and they are hearing him with much profit. No "after meeting" was held, nor will there be another held until after the regular services to-night. There were many inquirers last night, but the evangelist, according to his own way, had decided to have no "after service" until this evening.

The afternoon prayer meeting down town on Market street from 12:30 to 1 o'clock yesterday was not very largely attended but was striking in that five or six persons took part in public prayer and a number were perceptibly moved. Several prayed in public for their first time and the effect was electrifying. These services will be held each day at the same hour and will be entirely informal. One may go and come as he or she may desire and all will be cordially welcomed.

The service yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock was well attended and consisted more of a Bible exposition than of a regular meeting. There is no change in the hours for to-day and the public is asked to co-operate with Dr. Blackwell and Mr. Greenwood in bringing about a great revival in reality as well as in name.

People of different denominations, recognizing the unique character of Mr. Greenwood's work, and the catholicity of spirit in which Dr. Blackwell is directing it, are asking that some plan be adopted to make the services still more of a union type, that all the churches may share in the blessing. It is to be hoped that this end may be reached.

OPENING DANCE LAST NIGHT.

L'Arroso German Club inaugurated Season of Gaiety With Splendid German in Masonic Temple Ball Room.

Last night in the handsome ball room of the Masonic Temple, L'Arroso German Club opened the terpsichorean festivities of the season with a splendid german led by Mr. Clayton Giles, Jr., dancing with Miss Frances Chadborn.
Excellent music was furnished by Hollabusch's Orchestra, which arrived last evening from Raleigh, and the opening event of the club was an augury of a very brilliant and successful season of Winter's gaiety.

Those participating in the german were:

Miss Olive Armstrong with Mr. Richard Bradley; Miss Ashton of Portsmouth, with Eugene Beery; Miss Annie Neave, of Salisbury, with Mr.
George Crow; Miss Katie Harlow

ner; Miss Marie Peschau with Mr. W.
C. Crow; Miss Octavia Boatwright with Mr. Jack Bellamy; Miss Leonora Cantwell with Mr. Marsden Bellamy; Miss Aunty DeRosset with Mr. W. J.
Bellamy; Lieut. Ball, stag.

Patronesses—Mr. and Mrs. T. M.
Emerson and Mr. and Mrs. George Rountree.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. B. F. Keith got home last night from the North.

—Mr. James H. Cowan left yesterday morning for Raleigh.

—Mr. S. B. Alexander, Jr., of Charlotte, is a guest at The Orton.

—Miss Virginia Westbrook, of Faison, is a guest of friends in the city.

—Dr. J. N. Johnson arrived in the city from Warsaw yesterday to spend a few days.

—Miss Cornelia Fillyaw left yesterday morning for Weldon, to be the guest of friends during the fair.

—Miss Ida May Sholar, who for several weeks has been visiting her relatives, Mr. Benj. Motte and family, returned to her home at Columbia, S. C., yesterday, accompanied by Mrs.
C. V. Motte and child, who will be her guest for some time.

—Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure returned yesterday from Charlotte, where he has been attending Synod, and from Concord, N. C., where he preached last Sunday. Rev. P. C.
Morton will return to the city the last of the present week.

THE COUNCIL CASE.

Supreme Court Made Adverse Decision to Condemned Cumberland County Rapist.

ERROR IN DEATH WARRANT.

It Was Discovered at Fayetteville Yesterday—Governor Aycock Has the Appointment of Date for Execution—Five Reprieves.

It now appears that Lewis Council, the negro rapist of Cumberland county, will hang for his crime despite heroic efforts to the contrary. His last respite by Governor Aycock was until day after to-morrow, November 1st, but now it seems that either from the discovery of an error in the death warrant or from a stay of execution by virtue of a rehearing in the Supreme Court, secured by ex-Judge E. K.
Bryan, of this city, the negro will not hang until a date to be named by Governor Aycock. The petition to rehear the case in the Supreme Court was decided adversely to the condemned man yesterday afternoon, and the date for the execution left with Governor Aycock. Judge Bryan has spent the past two days in Fayetteville in the interest of his client, and the Fayetteville Observer of yesterday afternoon has the following to say of the error in the death warrant:

A strange error has just been discovered in the warrant for the death of Lewis Council, issued by the Governor. It was thought that Council was to be executed on November 1st.
On August 13th last, Sheriff Burns received a document from the Governor in the shape of a reprieve and a death warrant, and it directed the Sheriff to execute the sentence on Saturday, November 1st.

The day of the receipt of this document Sheriff Burns, accompanied by Father Marion, repaired to Council's cell and read it to him. The document was then placed in the safe and nothing more thought of it until yesterday when Mr. John C. Thomson, the sheriff's clerk, took it out to look over it again, in view of the day set for the execution.

He then discovered that the instrument read Saturday, November 1st.
Now, November 1st comes on Friday.
This discovery has left the sheriff in a quandary, and he has telegraphed the facts in the case to the Governor.

The stay of execution now amounts to the fifth respite which has been granted the negro since his trial in December, 1900, and each one has come just as final preparations were being made for the execution. Upon Council's conviction he was sentenced to hang on March 5th. The prisoner's counsel, Col. T. H. Sutton and A. S.
Hall, Esq., took an appeal to the Supreme Court and this served as a stay of execution and upon the finding of no error by the higher court, the Governor set June 24th as the day upon which the prisoner should hang. Six days before the execution would have taken place another respite came until July 15th. Four days before the deferred execution until July 22nd.
Three days before the negro would have hung under the Governor's second respite, he was reprieved the third time until August 12th. The fourth respite, which came on August 9th, gave the negro until November 1st to live and now two days before the day for his death the fifth respite is had.

The following special telegram was received by the STAR last night:

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 29.—The Supreme Court to-day affirmed the judgment of the lower court and refused to allow a rehearing in the Lewis Council case from Cumberland, which means that Council will certainly hang. The Governor has already granted four respites during the legal fight for the negro's life, waged nearly a year. The cause of the effort for a rehearing was an affidavit from the sheriff to the effect that the woman laid him before Council's arrest that he was not the negro who outraged her. The statement was made in the executive office this evening that the Governor would soon announce the date of the execution.

In the case the petition to re-hear was dismissed and the former ruling affirmed, the Governor to fix the date of the execution later. Associate Justice DeLoag dissenting from the opinion by a majority of the court.

Other eastern cases were passed upon to-day as follows: Trimmer vs.
Gorman, from Columbus, error; Smith vs. Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, from Sampson, error.

Superintendent Myers Resigned.

Richmond Dispatch, 29th: "Major E. T. D. Myers, for many years Superintendent of the Northern Division of the Atlantic Coast Line railway, said last night that he had resigned that position to take effect November 1st, next Friday. Major Myers does this to give all his time to the new R.
E. and P. road, which now to all purposes extends from Richmond to Quantico as formerly, but to Washington. Major Myers also said that there would be no successor to him on the Coast Line."
