NEWS OF THE SHIPPING.

American Schooners Northbound at Southport for Harbor—Steamship Cleared.
The schooner Adelia Thacker, Port Tampa for New York, Abbie C. Stubbs, Brunswick for New York, and Sylvia C. Hall, Savannah for New York, arrived at Southport yesterday morning for harbor. They encountered a stiff northeaster Tuesday night and anchored off the bar for more favorable weather.
The British steamship Slingsby, Capt. Whalley, cleared yesterday afternoon for Bremen, Germany, with a cargo of 11,185 bales of cotton, consigned by Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son. She will sail this morning. The cargo is valued at $462,000.

Schooner Ran Amuck.

Yesterday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock, as the tug Narcissa was bringing the schooner Ida C. Schoolcraft down the river from the Powers & Gibbs' factory to the Cape Fear Lumber Company, the tug broke her wheel ropes as she let go the hauler to go alongside, and the schooner went crashing into a hoisting derrick belonging to the Wilmington Compress, upsetting the apparatus generally. It was fortunate that serious damage did not result to the schooner, but prompt work on the part of the crew on both vessels prevented a catastrophe.

South Atlantic Lumber Association.

Tuesday, November 5th, instead of Monday, November 4th, is the date for the special meeting of the South Atlantic Lumber Association at Red Springs, N. C., notice of which has been given in these columns, together with a statement of the object of the meeting, which is explained to be a consideration of the alleged shortage of railroad cars in the long leaf pine section of the territory embraced by the organization. Indications are that the meeting will be largely attended.

Dr. Alderman in North Carolina.

Numerous friends in Wilmington will be interested in the announcement that Dr. Edwin Anderson Alderman, president of Tulane University, New Orleans, is visiting at the University of North Carolina, of which institution he was for some time the popular president. About 600 students gathered in Gerrard Hall at Chapel Hill when he arrived and later escorted him to the hall where he delivered a very pleasing address to an enthusiastic body of his former students.

FIFTH WARD WATER.

Believed That Work Will Begin Very Soon On Extension of the System.

PROPERTY OWNERS GLAD.

Amended Contract to Meet Objections of Board of Audit and Finance Now Ready for Its Approval—Contracting Firm Ready.

The arrival in the city yesterday of Mr. Wm. McLean, of Philadelphia, president of the contracting firm of Wm. McLean & Co., and the recent signing of the amended contract by the Mayor and City Attorney, are construed to mean that in an incomparably short time work will begin on an extension of the water works system into the Fifth ward, plans for which were long ago accepted and the contract awarded.
The work was held up until October 1st by the law preventing excavations from being made during the summer season and since that time the Board of Audit and Finance had not seen proper to approve the contract in its original form, which was declared too verbose and in conflict with the city contract with the Clarendon Water Works Company, which stipulates that the laying of new pipe for any extension shall be under the supervision of the company's engineer instead of the engineer of the city as was provided in the Fifth ward contract. The original paper was referred to the Aldermen and the objections of the Finance Board eliminated by the drawing of a condensed contract and the naming of Mr. Jno. H. Sweeney as engineer to supervise the work. It is now believed that the Board of Audit and Finance will see its way clear to let the work go on and the beginning of actual work on the extension will be hailed with pleasure by property owners in Fifth ward, who thus far have enjoyed only meagre protection from fire losses.
According to the original plans the pipe laying will begin on Fourth street between Church and Castle, near the middle of the block, and extend to Dawson street. From the middle of the block to Castle street a six-inch main is already laid, but it will be replaced by a twelve-inch main, which will extend on to Dawson. On Dawson the new pipe will be laid up to Eighth street and down Church to Fourth, completing the "loop." Eight-inch pipe will be laid on Dawson between Fourth and Seventh streets and six and eight-inch mains on the remainder of the loop. A hydrant will be placed on each block.
Messrs. McLean & Co. already have much of the material on the ground, and are only waiting for the word "go." The city was fortunate in contracting for the work months ago, since which time there has been a heavy advance in all material of the kind to be used.

JUNIORS WILL CELEBRATE.

Arranging Bazaar to Argue Entertainment Fund for Grand Council.

Jeff. Davis Council No. 63, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, is preparing to give an elaborate bazaar very soon, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the entertainment fund for the meeting of the Grand Council of the State in this city about the middle of February. There will be more than 150 delegates present and the sessions will continue for three days. The local Council desires that its hospitality will know no bounds on this occasion and consequently have begun preparations early.

A Singular Coincidence.

Business has not been brisk in the office of the Register of Deeds for the past week, but yesterday afternoon a queer coincidence took place, which served to relieve the monotony experienced by the clever deputy register for several days. Two colored men came in almost exactly at the same hour and asked for marriage licenses. Strange to relate, the age of the prospective groom in each instance was given at 23 years and the same rule applied to the prospective brides, who were each entered up at 18. Thus far seventeen marriage licenses have been issued this month.

FUNERAL OF ROBERT H. M'KOVY.

Military Honors by Naval Reserves—Services From St. James' Church.
Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in Saint James' Episcopal church the order for the burial of the dead was impressively said by the Rev. Frederick H. T. Horsfield, the rector, over the remains of the late Robert Hassell McKovy, who died early Tuesday morning at his residence in this city.
The church was well filled with friends and relatives of the deceased gentleman, among those in attendance having been the Wilmington Division, Naval Reserves, under command of Lieut. H. M. Chase. The late Mr. McKovy was militia short time ago, a lieutenant of the division and at Oakdale cemetery where the interment took place, the company fired three volleys and blew taps out of respect to their deceased comrade. The floral offerings by friends were numerous and very beautiful. A very pretty one in anchor design was sent by the Naval Reserves.
The pall bearers were as follows: Honorary, Hon. A. M. Waddell, Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy; Col. George L. Morton and George Rountree, Esq.; active, Capt. H. H. McIlhenny, Messrs. B. M. Emple, S. T. Ashe, R. F. Haman, J. H. Boatwright and H. McLean Green.

Closed His Restaurant.

Mr. J. B. Worsley, who formerly conducted a restaurant and cafe on Princess street, yesterday closed his place of business and has removed to Southport where he will engage in the hotel business, having rented the Brunswick House. Mr. Worsley left yesterday for Southport and will open his new hotelery at once.

DEATH AT ROCKY POINT.

Mr. Julian D. Bell Died Suddenly Yesterday Afternoon—Once a Resident and Well Known in Wilmington.

Relatives in the city yesterday received news by telegraph of the death of Mr. Julian D. Bell, a prominent citizen and an extensive strawberry grower, of Rocky Point, N. C. Later upon the arrival of his brother in the city last evening it was learned that Mr. Bell died rather suddenly about 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He had just finished dinner and gone to the railroad station for his mail. Returning home, he complained of being unwell and retired to his bed. He asked that his brother, Mr. J. Quincy Bell, who lived near, be summoned and within half an hour he was dead, death resulting from heart failure.
Mr. Bell is very well known in Wilmington and has a host of friends as well as a number of relatives here. He resided in Wilmington until a few years ago and was one of the most successful commercial travelers in the city. He married Miss Lizzie Fowler, of this city, a sister of ex-Mayor Jno. J. Fowler, and she with two children, Misses Jennie B. and Katie Estelle Bell, survive him. He is also survived by three brothers, Dr. C. D. Bell, of this city; Mr. J. Quincy Bell, of Rocky Point, and Mr. Frank Bell, of Lillington, N. C. All of them have the sincere sympathies of many friends in their bereavement.
Mr. J. Q. Bell arrived in the city last evening and arranged for the funeral to take place from the late residence at two o'clock this afternoon. The interment will be in the family burying ground near the home. Among those who will leave this morning to attend the funeral are Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. J. Fowler, Mr. R. F. Fowler and Mr. J. Quincy Satchell, a nephew of the deceased. Other friends will also likely attend.

Installation of Grace M. E. Church Organ Will be Signaled by Engagement of Eminent Concert Organist.

The Organ Fund Society of Grace M. E. Church, which has been giving pleasing local entertainment, and has been laboring hard for several years, will culminate all their efforts soon in the grandest musical recital with which the city has ever been favored. They expect, before many weeks have passed, to place in their church the best, most complete pipe organ that has ever graced the city. On the occasion of the recital the people of Wilmington will be given the opportunity of hearing one of the greatest organs of America, Mr. William C. Carr, who is organist and director of the Guilford organ school and organist and choir master of the "Old First" Presbyterian church of New York, will introduce this grand new organ to the people.
The N. Y. Press clips from the Bethlehem (Pa.) Times, Oct. 8th, 1901, the following: "Nothing but superlative praise can be said of Mr. Wm. Carr's ability and mastery both in the art of interpreting and in that of composing. He ranks decidedly among the foremost musical artists of the country. His pedaling is marvelous. He beats the pedals as familiarly as he does the key-board, and makes them responsive to the sentiment of the music. It is certainly a delightful experience to listen to him."
The people of Wilmington are fortunate in having an opportunity to hear Mr. Carr, and the Organ Fund Society is to be congratulated in securing him for one night.
The night after his appearance the best local talent of the city will furnish some of their delightful music, making two concerts in one, both for the same ticket, which will be sold at the astonishingly low price of 40 cents. The ladies of the church have the tickets in book form, and all will do well to secure them at once, as the church will furnish only a limited number of seats. The exact date will be given later.

GREENWOOD REVIVAL.

Series of Services at First Baptist Church Attracting Very Large Crowds.

MINISTERIAL UNION FORMED.

The Meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Yesterday Morning Productive of That Result. Number of Professions and Conversions Last Night.

Interest grows apace in the series of revival services now in progress at the First Baptist church by Evangelist Greenwood, diva S. Blackwell. All the meetings yesterday were more largely attended and last night the services began to bear fruit in a number of public professions and conversions.
The prayer meeting down town yesterday afternoon between the hours of 12:30 o'clock and 1 o'clock was very hopeful and accomplished well the purpose for which it was designed, i. e. catching the attention for a moment of those passing, "on the wing," so to speak. It was noticeable that an entirely new audience, though not large, was present and a very deep interest manifested.
The afternoon meeting at the church at 3:30 o'clock was more largely attended than before. Mr. Greenwood spoke with much effect upon the general subject: "The Church, the Bride of Christ."
The night service was a very profound one. The subject of a very powerful discourse by Mr. Greenwood was "The Vital Touch to the Life of Christ." A large congregation heard the sermon, and an "after meeting" in the main auditorium resulted in five public professions and one restoration. For the after service nearly the whole congregation remained, demonstrating the very wide scope of interest.
The services to day will be at the usual hours, and the invitation is urged upon all people, regardless of denomination, to attend the meetings.
At the instance of Dr. Blackwell, several of the ministers of the city met in the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday morning at 11 o'clock for the purpose of converting the meeting into something of a union type. It was deemed inadvisable to make a union meeting of the services in the strictest interpretation of the word, but a goodly number of pastors were present, enjoyed a pleasant conference with Mr. Greenwood and promised him their personal and sincerest co-operation in his efforts for good.
Incidentally the committee, which was appointed upon the occasion of the memorial service some time ago, brought up the matter of organizing an Interdenominational Ministerial Association, and so perfect was its harmony with the spirit of the meeting that the Union was formed at once by the election of the Rev. Dr. Blackwell as president and the Rev. Dr. A. G. Voigt as secretary.
Dr. J. M. Wells, Dr. A. G. Voigt and Rev. J. N. Cole were appointed a committee to draw up a constitution and by-laws. The committee will make a report at a meeting to be held at 10 o'clock next Monday morning.
Those present at the meeting were Rev. J. M. Wells, Ph. D.; Rev. A. G. Voigt, D. D.; Rev. C. S. Blackwell, D. D.; Rev. J. N. Cole and Rev. John H. Hall.

STATEMENT BY MR. WESCOTT.

Richmond Dispatch Publishes Interview Regarding Recent Marriage.

[Richmond Dispatch, 29th.]
Mr. R. M. Wescott, of Wilmington, N. C., father of Miss L. E. Fowler, whose marriage occurred here on Monday, the 21st instant, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Wescott, who appears to be a very pleasant gentleman, feels that injustice has been done by the report of the marriage which appeared in the Dispatch.
Mr. Wescott, after acquaintance with his son-in-law, declares him a perfect gentleman, and feels that his daughter's happiness is quite safe in his keeping. He takes exception to the Dispatch's suggestion of "love at first sight," declaring that he knew the acquaintance of the young people had existed over a period of several weeks before the marriage.
After the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Fowler went to Petersburg, where they are residing in the home of Mr. Robertson, a most estimable lady, at No. 15 West Tabb street, and where they have been residing.
Mr. Wescott declared that the bride was not urged to return home. After learning of the marriage he extended congratulations and invitation to Mr. and Mrs. Fowler to visit the bride's home at Wilmington.
After reaching Richmond Mr. Wescott, who insists that there was no secrecy, and no occasion for secrecy, explained the following certificate from Rev. Mr. Spooner, which the Dispatch, at Mr. Wescott's request, publishes herewith:
"This is to certify that on the 21st day of October, 1901, at my parsonage, 2303 East Broad street, Richmond, Va., I united in marriage Mr. Herbert L. Fowler and Miss Nellie M. Wescott, under authority of a civil license, duly and properly issued by the clerk of the county court at Henrico, and that the license has been properly endorsed and returned and filed in the records of the court."
"GEORGE H. SPOONER, Church, South."

Judge Waddill's Action in Case of the Mutual Fidelity Company.

A special to the Richmond Dispatch from Norfolk has the following with reference to a company which formerly operated in Wilmington: "Judge Waddill in the Federal Court to-day sustained the motion of the defence to dismiss the receiver for the Mutual Fidelity Company, known as the 'Get Rich Quick.' His decision was based on the ground that both the plaintiff, residing in Columbus, Ga., and the defendant company, a Delaware and Maryland corporation, being non-residents of Virginia, the court has no jurisdiction. Mr. John G. Tilton, heretofore appointed receiver, was discharged and the assets of the company were accordingly divided for his fees and the costs of court."
