Admiral Dewey thinks the Court of Inquiry over which he is presiding is on trial by the American people, and he is quite right.

St. Louis is a great apple market and center of distribution. So far this season 360,820 barrels have been received, and still they come.

Canada contains 200,000 more square miles than the United States, but hasn't much more population than the State of New York, just across the line.

A South African dude has put in an appearance in Paris, with 365 suits of clothes. The original South African dude had only one suit and that wasn't tailor-made.

A lot of fellows in Brooklyn, N. Y., have been doing a profitable business in copper. They have been converting it at the rate of 18 cents worth of copper into $1.30 cents. But the detectives caught on to them and the business is temporarily suspended.

Nikola Tesla, who says he has solved the problem of wireless telegraphing any distance, is putting up a plant at Wardencliffe, Long Island, to generate electricity and says he will soon be sending dispatches to Peru or China. As a claimant Nik is a success, but we are not going to bet on him till we hear from some of those dispatches.

The officials of the Illinois Central Railroad Company are making special efforts to induce Western people to settle along its lines in Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana. They get up excursions and give cheap rates to encourage Western people to visit those sections and give them time enough to look around and get posted.

When the Russian thistle made its appearance in the Dakotas and adjoining States, the farmers thought a great calamity had struck them, and petitioned Congress to appropriate $1,000,000 to extirpate it. But they wouldn't part with the thistle now for anything because they have discovered that when out green it makes splendid feed for stock. It doesn't always do to condemn a stranger on first sight.

It takes foreigners a long time to catch on to the American vernacular. A consignment of cigars, known as "Wheeling Stogies" was classed in an English customs house as "leather manufactures," while a consignment of "Ginger Snaps" was classed in Holland under the head of "distilled or brewed" truck. Snaps sounded so much like "Schnapps," with which the average Hollander is somewhat familiar.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY FAIR.

Prospects Very Bright for the Event—A Good Many Fine Race Horses.
The Cumberland County Fair will open this morning and the prospects are for the most successful event in the history of the Fair Association. Many Wilmington people will no doubt attend.
The Fayetteville Observer of yesterday afternoon says: "Never in the history of the Cumberland County Fair has there been so many fine race horses here. There are three horses to one at any previous fair. The managers of the races desire it understood that the races will take place fair or foul weather."

Trip Around the World.
Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Thomas, of New York, who are making a trip around the world on a heavy water, and who were recently arrested in Newport News because Mrs. Thomas had adopted male attire for convenience sake, arrived in Wilmington yesterday and are guests at the Fulton House. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left New York on July 1st and have gone thus far on their journey, earning a livelihood and traveling expenses as they go. They came to Newport News on a sloop about twenty-two feet in length and during their temporary detention on suspicion by the police authorities their small craft was wrecked. They are now proceeding down the coast aboard vessels upon which they pay fare.

Aged A. C. L. Porter Dead.
Sherman Carter, the veteran colored porter in the general offices of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city, died yesterday morning at an advanced age. Sherman had been employed by the Coast Line for the past half a century, having fired an engine on the W. & W. road before the war. He had been a porter in the general offices for about 20 years and was well thought of by the hundreds of employees to whom he was always polite and respectful. The clerks in the several offices raised a subscription yesterday with which to purchase a floral offering to be laid upon the aged negro's grave at the funeral to day.

A VERY BUSY TERM.

Trial Docket in Superior Court Is Found to Be Exceedingly Heavy.

SEVERAL IMPORTANT CASES.

Will Be Next Impossible to Dispose of All Matters in the One Week Allowed—Assault on Policeman Chadwick Sentenced.

Judge Allen, presiding, and Solicitor Duffy, prosecuting, at this week's term of the Superior Court, are exhausting all their efforts to clear the unusually large docket of the seventy odd cases that are for trial in the one-week session. To this end Judge Allen has ordered that each day's work shall be commenced at 9:30 A. M. and an index to the length of the sessions may be inferred from the fact that yesterday court did not take a recess for the day until 7 o'clock. The jail has some thirty odd prisoners in it and to save the county the expense of their keep until next term and for humane reasons Judge Allen is conducting the week's business with as much dispatch as possible.

There are four important cases on the docket and it is doubtful if more than two of them can be tried at this term. The negro Wallace, is charged with murder; H. Hauser is charged with house burning; E. Tiner is charged with burglary, and the case of N. L. Smith is also to come up at this term. Counsel for the negro Wallace have tendered the solicitor a proposition to submit to murder in the second degree which would mean a 30-year sentence, but Mr. Duffy has not yet accepted the proposition. This would seem a very satisfactory adjustment of the affair, and would save the expense of a very long trial. The case of H. Hauser will perhaps be taken up to day.

The most important case yesterday was that against John "Red" Potter for the assault upon Policeman E. R. Chadwick. He submitted to the charge and was given 12 months on the chain gang. In another case against him for assault upon Wess Odom, some time prior to the assault upon Officer Chadwick, he also submitted and judgment in the matter was suspended. In a third case against Potter for carrying concealed weapons he was given 30 days on the roads. Other cases were tried yesterday as follows:

Wm. Brown, assault and battery with deadly weapon; verdict, guilty of simple assault.
Wm. Brown, assault and battery with deadly weapon; verdict, not guilty.
Moses King, larceny; four months on county roads.
M. Martin, carrying concealed weapons, 30 days on county roads.
Wm. Brown, assault and battery with deadly weapon; verdict, guilty of simple assault.
Wm. Brown, assault with deadly weapon; 30 days on public roads.
Riley Smith, assault and battery with deadly weapon; verdict, not guilty.
Wm. Ferguson, assault with deadly weapon, 60 days on public roads.
John R. Potter (3 cases), assault with a deadly weapon; submitted; judgment, 12 months on county roads in first case; judgment suspended in second case, in which Wess Odom was prosecuting witness, and defendant sentenced to 30 days on the roads in a case found by the grand jury against him for carrying concealed weapons.
Lawrence Crawford, larceny, guilty; judgment open.
Richard Davis, carrying concealed weapons; verdict guilty and judgment suspended on payment of costs.
Burt Green, assault with deadly weapon; 60 days on roads.
Jim Foard, assault with deadly weapon; verdict guilty.

When court adjourned the evidence was all submitted in another important case upon which argument will begin this morning. An unusually large number of tales jurors were summoned for the trial of the Hauser case to-day.

Convention of U. D. C.
Arrangements have been made by which the Seashore Hotel will be thrown open to guests in the event the city hotels are unable to accommodate the large number of delegates that are expected for the general convention, Daughters of the Confederacy, this month. A schedule on the Seacoast railroad will be arranged to suit. It is estimated that at the convention at Richmond, some time ago there were 5,000, and at Birmingham last year there were between 2,000 and 3,000.

Bought a Cotton Mill.
The Great Falls Cotton Mills of Rockingham, N. C., were bid in at receiver's sale Monday by Mr. D. L. Gore, of this city. The price paid was $37,245, and the sale is subject to confirmation of the court within ten days. The property originally cost about $150,000, and should the sale be confirmed it is believed that Mr. Gore will greatly improve and perhaps enlarge it.

AUDIT AND FINANCE BOARD.

Regular Meeting Last Night, At Which All Members Were Present—Many Unimportant Matters Heard.

All members were present at last night's regular semi-monthly meeting of the Board of Audit and Finance and a lengthy session was held but the business transacted was principally routine in its character and unimportant.

A request was received from the Board of Aldermen for an increase of the salary of the Superintendent of Streets to $1,200 instead of $1,100, but no action was taken. Alderman Johnson also asked that the wages of the street hands be increased from $1 to $1.25 per day, but no action was taken in that matter likewise.

The contract awarded by the Aldermen to S. F. Hayward & Co., for the erection of the Fourth street fire alarm tower for $140, was concurred in.

The increase from $10 to $20 per month in the pay of the assistant in cleaning the Front street market house was likewise approved.

Alderman Johnson was present, among other things urging the change in the employment of health officers so that there will be three inspectors at all times instead of four in Summer and two in Winter as heretofore. A communication from the Board of Health was read also, urging the change and the Board of Audit and Finance at length agreed to adopt the plan provided another minor employee in the sanitary department is dropped.

This was agreeable to all parties concerned. The new officer is Mr. E. W. Hewlett, he having been previously elected by the Aldermen, subject to the concurrence had last night. Mr. Hewlett has been in the service for some time and gave such eminent satisfaction that the Board of Health were loath to give him up.

After auditing various bills for current expenses the board adjourned.

PRODUCE EXCHANGE MANAGERS.
Regular Monthly Meeting Yesterday—May Consolidate With Tariff Association.
Matters of no very general importance engaged the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Managers of the Produce Exchange which was held yesterday afternoon and upon which there were in attendance President Pearsall, Secretary Cantwell and Messrs. L. B. Rogers, G. J. Boney and Col. Walker Taylor.

The treasurer's report, duly approved by Mr. W. B. Cooper for the finance board, was received and ordered on file.

President Pearsall reported progress in the matter of the consolidation of the Produce Exchange with the Tariff Association. He was granted further time.

THE COUNCIL HANGING

Governor Aycock Replies to Suggestion of His Responsibility for Negro's Death.

PARDON, NOT COMMUTATION.

That Should Have Been Asked If the Prisoner Was Not Guilty—Supreme Court Decisions—Proclamation for Thanksgiving.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 5.—Governor Aycock today issued a statement in reply to Father Marion, the Catholic priest, who officiated at Louis Council's execution in Fayetteville and dramatically declared the negro's innocence despite the Governor's warrant to the contrary. Governor Aycock says he is in no wise responsible for the execution of Council. The jury found him guilty, the judge sentenced him to death. He granted several respites for complete investigation. Continuing, the Governor said: "I sent for Mrs. West to visit me, and cross-examined her in the presence of the council of State; sent Judge Womack, a conservative, careful man, to Fayetteville to investigate the crime and the facts; have exhausted every means to ascertain Council's guilt or innocence, and am today firmly convinced of his guilt, but under the constitution I am bound to act under my convictions, not theirs."

"I regret the remarks of Father Marion, as no doubt he does now. It was unfortunate that he suggested I was responsible for the death of an innocent man. If Council was innocent the jury should have said so. Father Marion and those closest to the prisoner should have asked pardon and not commutation to life imprisonment, as they did. If Father Marion was certain of Council's innocence, as he declared at the execution, he was derelict in his duty not to ask for pardon; for to imprison a man for life, for an offence he did not commit, is little less grave than his execution."

"The law of this State against the crime for which Council was executed will always be enforced; and the law against lynching likewise will be enforced. There is no occasion for the execution of law by people in mobs. The people are strong enough in their organized capacity to punish crime and I shall not be deterred by adverse criticism from letting the law take its course when I believe the prisoner guilty."

Supreme Court.
The Supreme Court to-day handed down the following opinions of interest in Eastern North Carolina, viz: Knight vs. Hatfield, from Moore, affirmed; Rayner vs. Railroad, from Cumberland, affirmed; McDougald vs. Lumberton, from Robeson, error; Carter vs. Lumber Co., from New Hanover, error; Carter vs. Railroad, from Columbus, affirmed.

Thanksgiving Day.
Governor Aycock to-night issued a proclamation designating Thursday, Nov. 28th, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer and urging the people to assemble on that day and thank God for manifold mercies, and ask protection and guidance in the future, and give to the needy, and especially widows and orphans. The preamble says: "In this year, when the nation was startled by the death of its President at the hands of an assassin, He has given us strength to continue our form of government without friction or danger and thereby made incumbent upon us ever to turn towards Him in the hours of trial, and those who turn to Him always find strength. It is needful, therefore, and proper that we meet aside at least one day in the year in which to express gratitude to Him for past favors and invoke His aid for the future."
