WILL LAY CORNER STONE.

Odd Fellows of Southport Preparing Elaborate Celebration for Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving Day at Southport will be of more than usual interest this year, and especially interesting to members of the Odd Fellow fraternity, from the fact that on that day Atlantic Lodge No. 43, of Southport.

will lay the corner stone for a handsome building, which is being erected there for the use of the order. The day and Monday; light northerly ceremonies attendant upon the laying of the stone will be of an interesting nature, and the ladies of Southport will serve a lunch for the benefit of visitors. A large deputation of Wilmington Odd Fellows will attend the exercises, and for the benefit of those and others who wish to go down on that day Capt. Harper will run an excursion on the steamer Wilmington.

Dr. Honnett's office for the practice of his profession is at No 20, West Ninety-Fourth street. He is an earnest worker and the STAR wishes him success.

Back From Tennessee.

Mr. Will. L. Miller, the enterprising manager in Wilmington for the Acme Tea Chest Company, of Glas- Tex.

and upon motion of Mrs. Stone, of Texas, it was decided to present crosses to veterans only on the birthdays of Jefferson and Lee and on Memorial Day.

Mrs. W. H. Overman, of North Carolina, chairman of the committee on an official organ for the U. D. C., asked that the committee be continued. It was suggested that the convention settle the question and the merits of the Lost Cause, of Louisville, Ky., and the Confederate Veteran, of Nashville, Tenn., were presented. It was at length decided that for the ensuing year at least, there was no cause to change from the Veteran and that publication was adopted by the convention.

The Emblem, Motto and Flower Committee reported through Mrs. J. E. Cantrill, of Kentucky. A five pointed star was determined upon as an emblem and the motto was decided upon as "Think, Love, Pray, Dare and Live," each of the words to occupy a place at one of the points of the star. In explanation of their selection. Mrs. Cantrill said: "To act without thought is folly; to act without love is unholy; to act without prayer is not religious; all thought, all love, all prayer without execution is ineffective or cowardly; to live in flesh or in memory." The report was unanimously adopted. The cotton plant was decided upon as the official flower and the report of the committee was adopted with thanks.

At this juncture Mrs. W. M. Parsley presented Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, who wished to bid the convention farewell. She was led to the front of the stage and on account of her hoarseness, she said through Mrs. Weed, the president, that she had enjoyed being one of the convention during the week and hoped that the following year would be one of prosperity and pleasure for the U. D. C. Upon motion it was made the duty of Stone wall Jackson Chapter, of Charlotte, to see that "the mother of the Confederacy" should be at the Louisiana convention next year.

Mrs. Taylor Ellyson, of Richmond, in the name of the Confederated Memorial and Literary Society, thanked divisions for the care of their respective rooms in the Museum at Richmond. Mrs, Cantrell, of Kentucky, moved suspension of the rules and the entry upon the election of officers, which motion was unanimously carried. In the meantime reports of the Historical and Memorial committees were continued until next convention.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

President-Mrs. J. A. Rounsaville, of Rome, Ga. First Vice President-Mrs. Mollie M. McGill Rosenberg, of Galveston, secretary, Mrs. Cooley, of Florida, nominated Mrs. W. H. Overman, of North Carolina, who protested bitterly. Mrs. Cone Johnson, of Texas, nominated the present incumbent, Mrs. Hickman, seconded by Mrs. Overman. She was the choice of the convention in a vote of 504 to 368. Immediately upon her election Mrs. Hick man resigned, but the convention refused to accept the resignation, whereupon she finally consented to serve. The vote was by standing and resulted 45 to 42. Mesdames Stone, of Texas, and Merchant, of Virginia, nominated Mrs. McSherry, for corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Overman nominated Mrs. Cooley, of Ficrida. Mrs. Cooley declined the nomination and asked her friends to support Mrs. McSherry. Mrs. Randolph, of Richmond, nomnated Mrs. Thomas, of Atlanta, for re-election to the office of treasurer, bat she declined. Mrs. McSherry nominated Mrs. Leigh, and the vote was finally made unanimous. For thesame office, Missouri nominated Mrs John M. Phillips, of the same State, Mrs. Stone, of Texas, nominated Mrs. S. E. Gabbrill, of Atlanta, as custodian of the "Crosses of Honor," and her choice was unanimous upon motion of Mrs. Johnson, of Texas. Mrs. Gabbrill was allowed a secretary at a salary of $100 for services, and the same amount was allowed the custodian.

> When the election of officers had been completed Mrs. Overman, of North Carolina, asked that Mrs. Stonewall Jackson be made one of the hon orary presidents with Mrs. Goodlette for life and a motion to that effect was carried amid much enthusiasm.

Resolutions were adopted during the evening, thanking the retiring officers for their devoted ser vices. Practically all of them had a silent understanding with the convention that they would not stand for reelection.

Upon motion of Mrs. Latham a neat resolution of most gracious thanks rising vote of appreciation was accordwas tendered the convention to Wilmington and the various organizations that contributed to their pleasure during the convention sessions. among those named being the Y. M. C. A., Cape Fear Chapter, Carolina Yacht Club, Colonial Dames, the railroads, Capt. Harper of the steamer Wilmington, Wilmington Light Infantry, Veterans and the press of the city.

Upon motion of Mrs. McCullough, of Virginia, $500 was appropriated out of the funds of the U. D. C. for the Jefferson Davis Monument, the same payable after Feb. 1st, 1902.

Upon motion of Mrs. Randolph, of Richmond, a resolution was adopted having for its purpose a correction of the evil of the indiscriminate conferring by veteran camps of titles upon | ments to the by-laws, aimed at facilipersons, thereby deprecating those tating work of conventions, some of discussion ensued, but only one of the amendments-that more fully defining the duties of the secretary-was adopted. One of the amendments was by Mrs. Parsley, of Wilmington, which was designed to facilitate the work of the Credential Committee acter merits. and obviate prolonged discussion in this regard, as was noted here upon the opening of the convention. The convention adjourned at 5:30 o'clock, having been in continuous session since 9:30 A. M. Many of the

Night Session of the Convention. Many of the officers and delegates were still in the city, and it was decided to hold a night session, which continued until 12 o'clock, the convention at that hour formally adjourning by singing the doxology.

Mrs. Werd called the session to order at 8:30 o'clock and much time was consumed in reading the minutes ef the day meeting.

The president read cordial greetings from R. B. Haughton, of St. Louis, Commander-in chief of the United Sons of Veterans. A loving tribute was paid to the Daughters and the President was instructed to most graciously acknowledge the greetings through the corresponding secretary. Upon motion of Mrs. Randolph, it was determined in the future to entirely devote the first and second days of future conventions to business. Mrs. T. M. Worcester, of Cincinnati, Obio, read a beautiful letter from Miss Florence Tucker Winder, formerly of Raleigh, N. C., but now president of R. E. Lee Chapter, U. D. C., of Columbus. The letter contained beautiful sentiment and was dramatically read with splendid effect by Mrs. Worcester. A report was likewise read from Ohio giving data concerning a Confederate cemetery near Columbus where 2,000 unknown dead are buried. It was shown that Col. Norse, of Columbus, has been caring for these graves and a ed him by the Daughters and also to Miss Winder for the tender sentiment expressed in her letter. R. E. Lee chapters of Alabama and Virginia asked to be permitted to send individual greetings. Mrs. Randolph made a, motion which prevailed, to the effect that Southern representatives in Congress and in the Senate be urged to use their best endeavor to grant the Daughters privilege of moving the graves of their unknown dead and of bringing them home to the Southland from National cemeteries when it was desired. The motion was adopted and a committee appointed to confer with the Confederate Memorial Association in this regard. .

Mrs. Cooley offered several amend-
