FUNERAL OF MRS. WHITING. | WALTER RALEIGH MONUMENT A NEW SOCIAL CLUB.

'The Assembly" is the Name and It Was Organized Last Night.

LIST OF THE OFFICERS.

Organized for the Purpose of Contributing to Enjoyment of a Limited Number of Members-Series of Entertainments Given Each Year.

"The Assembly" is the name of a new social club organized in Wil mington last evening and one that promises to contribute largely to so ciety's gaiety each year. The organization was under most favorable auspices and attended by much enthusiasm.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President-Mr. Gabriel Holmes. Vice President-Mr. T. M. Emerson. Secretary and Treasurer-Mr. Geo. . Peschau.

Leader-Mr. H. H. McIlhenny Board of Governors-Messrs Gabriel Holmes, T. M. Emerson, Geo. L. Peschau, Frank H. Stedman, H. M. Chase, Warren G. Elliott, D. H. Lippitt, George Rountree and J. J. Blair.

The purpose of the club is to give a imited number of entertainments and dances each season and, although young, will advance rapidly to the front rank of social organizations in the city.

Last night the plans of the club were discussed at some length and the salient features of a constitution and by laws were decided upon. The membership will be of an exclusive nature and the number of members will be restricted. All the functions given under the auspices of the club will be of an elaborate nature, but fewer in number than is generally given by similar organizations in the ity. The age limit of members twenty-five and the membership will, therefore, be of the older set of society young people.

The first of a series of entertain ments will be given during the Christmas holidays and another, most probably, during the Eastertide. "The Assembly" already has upon its roll of membership some of the most prominent young people of the city and will no doubt be a welcome addition to the society realm of the Cape Fear.

Meetings of the club will be held at stated intervals.

LIGHT INFANTRY ELECTION.

wo Lieutenants Chosen After Spirited Con. test Between Friends of Candidates.

Pursuant to orders issued by Col. W. B. Rodman, commanding the Second Regiment, North Carolina State Guard, the Wilmington Light Infantry last night held an election of officers to fill vacancies as the result of which Second Lieutenant N. E. Gillican was chosen First Lieutenant to succeed Lieut. John VanB. Metts, resigned, and Mr. George P. James was elected second lieutenant to fill the vacancy made by the choice of Lieut Gillican for first place.

There was a spirited contest between friends of Lieut Gillican and Mr. Cuthbert Martin for the first lieutenancy but the first named was elected by the close vote of 23 to 21, denoting an unusually large number of members present as the result of the enthusiasm felt. The selection of Mr. James for second lieutenant was unanimous.

Rev. J. A. Dorritee, of Charlotte, who is here conducting the Y. M. C. A. services, is chaplain of his home company of heavy artillery and was in encampment with the "boys" here last Summer. The battery will go as a body to Charleston to attend the Exposition in that city and Mr. Dorritee says it is not improbable that the men will come to Wilmington and make the trip by water if satisfactory arrangements can be made. Services Yesterday Afternoon From Saint James' Church-determent in Oakdale. Daughters of Confederacy.

In the presence of a very large gathering of friends and relatives the order for the burial of the dead over the remains of the late Mrs. Catherine D Whiting was impressively said yester day afternoon at 3 o'clock by the rec tor, Rev. Frederick H. T. Horsfield at St. James' Episcopal Church.

The church was well filled with peo ple and perhaps no more impressive services were ever conducted in Wil mington. Mrs. Whiting was known and loved by a very large number of people and many of them were pres ent to pay a last sad mark of their esteem. The members of Cape Fear Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, at the call of their president, Mrs. W. M. Parsley, assembled at the W. L. I. armory at 2 o'clock and attended the funeral in a body. Mrs. Whiting was a member of the Chapter and was devoted to its aims and ob jects. One of the prettiest of the many beautiful floral emblems that were laid upon the casket was sent by the Daughters of the Confederacy. I was a large wreath of white roses in the center of which was a miniature Confederats flag. After the services at the church the funeral cortege moved slowly to beautiful Oakdale cemetery, where all that was mortal of the distinguished lady was committed to earth beneath a mound banked with beautiful flowers tenderly laid upon the grave by loving friends.

The pall bearers were as follows: Col. Jno. W. Atkinson, Col. Jno. D. Taylor, Col. A. M. Waddell, Col. W. L. DeRossett, Col. Jno. L. Cantwell, Capt. J. L. Boatwright, ex-Judge O. P. Meares, Dr. W. J. Love, Capt. W. R. Kenan, and Capt. C. B. Denson, of Raleigh; active, Dr. G. G. Thomas, Eugene S. Martin, Esq., Mr. T. O. Bunting. Capt. James I. Metts, Junius Davis, Esq., Capt. L. S. Belden, Mr.

THE WRONG MR. WRIGHT.'

One of Broadburst's Roaring Comedie This Afternoon and To-night-Mr. Goldstein Monday Evening.

"The Wrong Mr. Wright" comes to us endorsed by all the leading critics. It comes with the recommendation of entertaining theatre-goers for more than twenty weeks in London, England, and fifteen weeks in New York city, as well as long engagements in Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago and San Francisco and it heralded as being the best, brightest and merriest comedy that has emanated from the ertile brain of that clever playwright, Mr. Geo. H. Broadhurst, who has given us "What Happened to Jones" and "Why Smith Left Home." The piece is said to be brimful of bright and witty dialogue, catchy and spirited music, brilliant and dazzling costumes and startling and up-to date specialties, and this, too, without in any way detracting from the original amusing situations. Mr. John Allison is ably assisted by the following well known people, Maud Allison, Florence Marion, Ada Morton, H. G. Hockey, George L. Kennedy, Chas. Flynn and ames Newton Drew. The Gay Mr. Goldstein-Manager Henry Greenwall will present his three stars, Mary Hampton, Thos. J. Keogh and George C. Boniface, Jr., all of whom are well known to local playgoers, having been seen here in-dividually at the head of their own companies, in the comedy novelty "The Gay Mr. Goldstein" at the Opera House next Monday night. "The Gay Mr. Goldstein" is said to be one of the most amusing farces of the season. and is a representation of the refined Hebrew, surrounded by all the elements of refinement. Supporting these three stars are Barry Maxwell, Francis M. Ball, S. J. Broughton, Alma Powell, Claire Armstrong, Frances Brooke and other players of note, who have been selected from among the foremost artists. Seats will be on sale this morning at Ger-

ARRANGEMENT COMMITTEE.

Organization Less Than a Year Old, But It is Very Much Alive __ Meeting Last Night at Which the Event Was Thoroughly Discussed.

A poultry and pet stock show will be given in Wilmington during the first week in January. That will be welcome news indeed o fanciers throughout Eastern North Carolina and the success of the venture is vouched for by the Wilmington Poultry and Live Stock Association, which was organized in this city a little less than a year ago with a competent corps of officers, and an outlook that will brove its brightness when the fair comes on.

The decision to give the show was reached last night at an enthusiastic meeting of the Association held at the Bonitz Hotel upon which there were in attendance a goodly number of members, whose enthusiasm knew no

All preliminaries will, of course, have to be discussed later, but it is enough to know that the fair will be held and that behind the project are some of the best known fanciers in the city and county.

After a decision to hold the show was reached at the meeting last night the next step was to appoint a committee of arrangements and commit to their keeping all the details of the show. This committee was appointed as follows: S. J. Davis, Frank L. Huggins and John C. Boesch. These gentlemen will decide upon a location for the show and arrange all other preliminaries of whatsoever nature. Ed. Ashenback Leaves Raleigh for Savannah to Begin Work Organizing. [News and Observer, 22nd.]

Mr. E. M. Ashenback left last night for Savannah, where he begins work with the organization of the naw tri-State league, which is to be composed of leading baseball cities in North and South Carolina and Georgia. The letters received with reference to the organization of this league gives strong evidence that it will be s success. Mr. Ashenback will spend several days in Savannah and then he will go to Augusta, Charleston, Columbia and possibly Spartanburg and Greenville, S. C. The North Caro-lina points will not be visited at the present. The towns in this State that are considered for membership in the league are Charlotte, Winston-Salem. Greensboro, Wilmington and Raleigh. Mr. Ashenback is one of the best known baseball players in the county. He has played in all the cities men-tioned, and he is the man to undertake organization of the league. He is well liked and popular with the public. A meeting of those interested in the proposed league will probably be held at some point in South Carolina in the near future. There are several managers of experience and standing who have applied for franchises.

A CARD OF THANKS.

I wish in this way to express my thanks to the dear friends who have so kindly assisted me, in raising the amount necessary to liquidate the debt
