CORONER'S JURY OF INQUEST.

Grattan Pearce, Negro Stevedore, Confessed to Shooting and Held for Higher Court-Woman Protector Held for Perjury -- Others Released.

Thomas King, an old colored man who has been employed in the scavenger system of the city for the past 20 years, was shot to death early yesterday morning at the house of Priscilla Bradley on the southwest corner of Sixth and Nixon streets. Grattan Pearce, a colored boarder at the house, has confessed the shooting and is held without bail for the higher court.

The old man, King, in company with another negro named Frank Onslow, went to the house of the Bradley woman in the early hours of the morning to give the premises sanitary attention. As the work was completed King was fired upon by Pearce, who was returning to his home, and passenger agent of the Seaboard Air heard a noise in the back yard.

The negroes arrested were Priscilla Bradley, who keeps the house, and Pearce, Dock Lewis, Joe Sloan, and Sandy Moore, a colony of young negroes from Rocky Point, who have been working in the city and boarding at the house. Immediately after the death Dr. C.

D. Bell, the coroner, was notified and a jury of inquest was empanelled consisting of D. A. Kelley (foreman), J. F. Sellars (secretary), W. B. Brown, Jere Hand, Geo. C. Dew and Z. H. Barnes. The jury viewed the body at the hospital yesterday morning and in the afternoon held an inat the City Hall. Dr. performed an autopsy at the hospital and found that the wounds were from a gun loaded with duck and buck shot. Three shot passed through the right hand; a buck shot went entirely through the right thigh and three shot were found on the inside of the left knee. The fatal wound was by a buck shot which entered about two inches to the right of the right nipple, went anterior to the lung and shattered the fifth rib, rebounding, going through the heart and lodging in the ventricle causing an internal hemorrhage from which

It is also unreasonable to suppose that Pearce would have shot the man, heard his cries, laid the gun quietly down and gone into the the house to sleep. The body of Corporal William La-

Artillery, whose tragic death by drowning near Fort Caswell on Christmas eve has been noted in these columps, was recovered by two colored fishermen at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon about 800 yards from the boat house at the life saving station and about 100 yards from the spot where he lost his life nearly ten days before. The negroes were in a boat and were fishing with a gill net in the river with a very heavy lead line. The net suddenly touched some heavy object under water and upon pulling it to the surface the men were horrified to find that it was the body of the dead soldier. As soon as possible they took the body to the Fort and laid it upon the new dock where it was soon identified as that of Corporal

LaClair. Comrades tenderly re moved the body to a place just back of the non-commissioned officers quarters and there a tent was raised Plans were immediately set on foot to ship the remains to the young soldier's home at Uniontown, Pa., and Sergeant H. C. Rentsch and two other officers came up to the city to make all arrangements for embalming the body. They came on the steamer Southport by special charter and Undertaker J. F. THE CELEBRATION

OF LEE'S BIRTHDAY.

Cape Fear Camp of Veterans Has Named Committee of Arrangements-Pension Law Needs Revision.

The appointment of a committee to co-operate with the ladies of Cape Fear Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, in their arrangement for the proper celebration of General Lee's birthday was the most important item of business transacted at last night's special meeting of Cape Fear Camp of Veterans. The committee appointed consists of

W. R. Kenan and Capt. L. S. Belden, In the hands of the joint committee is the whole matter of arrangement and the nature of the celebration will be determined upon very soon. General Lee's birthday this year comes on Sunday, January 19th, but it has been decided to hold the celebration on Monday, January 20th, the day following. The question of pensions was intro-luced at the meeting before adjournment and it was shown that by reason of the increased number of pensioners this year and the comparative inadequacy of funds many worthy names had to be dropped from the list while many others less worthy were retained. This dropping of names was by the State Board, which, of course, without being acquainted with all the persons, were unable to make a more discreet discrimination. It was suggested that when it becomes necessary to revise the list as sent up by the County Board, it would be best for the State Board to refer the matter again to the local organization, which would be in a better position by reason of acquaintance to judge of the applicants. The matter was referred to the present committee of the camp, which consists of Mr. Owen Fennell, Col. W. L. DeRosset, Capt. Geo. W. Huggins, Capt.O. M. Fillyaw and Mr. A.G. Hankins and they were instructed to do all possible toward a correction of legislation in this respect.

Commander Metts presided at the neeting last night. Sergeant Major R F. Hamme kept a record of the proceedings in the absence of Adjutant Henry Savage, and there was a goodly number of comrades in attendance.

DANCY'S APPOINTMENT.

Jas. H. Young Says It is Much in Doubt. Carolina Company's Charter.

[Special Star Telegram.] RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 3.-H. P. Cheatham, retiring recorder of the District of Columbia, is in Raleigh, the guest of Jas. H. Young, colored. Young says the appointment of Dancy to succeed Cheatham is much in doubt now, and strong pressure is being brought to bear on Senator Pritchard to recommend Young, who now has a clerical position in the revenue office here. Cheatham gives credence to Young's claim. The application for a charter for the Carolina Company, Wilmington, reached the Secretary of State this morning, but was returned to Wil mington to have certain technical changes made before issuance of the charter. The organization is not given to the press.

I Am Just As Thankful

For a small order as I wou'd be for one amounting to $300.00, for when you see the design, filish and construction of my goods a larger order is sue to follow, in fact, that is the way I have built up my business to its present mammoth proportion. No better time to be convinied of the truth of the above statement than now by buying a small New Year's Gift for some loved one or friend.
