ONCE LIVED IN THIS CITY.

Ex-Governor Lindsay, of Alabams, Who Died Thursday, Once Taught School in Wilmington.

The death on Thursday of ex-Gov. Robt. B. Lindsay, of Alabama, was noted yesterday in the telegraphic columns of the STAR and the news was received here with much regret by a number of older citizens, who knew him as a resident of Wilmington about 1845. He was born and lucated in Scotland, and came to Wilmington in the forties to take charge of the academic department of the Old Fellows' School, a flourishing educational institution here at that time. He and his brother had previously been teaching at several points in Eastern North Carolina. The OJd Fellows' School was conducted in the building now occupied by Mr. E. M. Gregg, on Princess street, back of the City Hall.

Soon after leaving Wilmington Mr. Lindsay began practicing law in Alawealth. As a teacher, he was a thorough disciplinarian, but contrary to the rule, he was well liked by his ers between this city and New York. ing, Mr. John McLaurin, Capt. Owen Fenneli, Capt. J. Alves Walker and Dr. W. J. Love, of Wilmington; Mr. Jno. H. Hall, of Goldsboro, Col. H M. Drane, of Armour, and Mr. N. W. Schenck, of Virginia.

Mr. John McLaurin, an ardent admirer of the noble Scotsman and ex-Governor, now has an excellent picture of him in the office of the Register of Deeds. The picture was presented to Mr. McLaurin about 1871, when he was in attendance upon the General Assembly in Huntsville, Ala ; the Governor having been an ardent Presbyterian.

LONDON WHARF SOLD

Acquired by Messrs. D. L. Gore and C. W. Worth for New Steamship Company.

PURCHASE PRICE WAS $10,000.

Sale Was Confirmed This Week at Term of Forsyth County Superior Court Once Belonged to North State Land and Improvement Co.

The valuable property fronting on the river between Chesnut and Grace streets and known as the London wharf, has been purchased by Messrs $10,000. The sale was a private one and was made by Mr. J. C. Buxton, of Winston, upon the occasion of his recent visit to Wilmington. It was not known when he left the city that the sale would be confirmed, but this necessary action was taken at this week's term of Forsyth county court at Wins-

The "London wharf" is one of the most valuable realties in the city. It was formerly owned by the North State Construction Company and has several times been sold, but the sales for one reason or another were never confirmed. The re-sale this time was on account of the fire which swept all the buildings off that wharf last Summer. Confirmation to the Atlantic Coast Line Company was then pending. The property fronts on the river about 150 feet and is about 165 feet deep, extending to the rear of the buildings on Water street. The various sales at auction for the past several years were made by Mr. H. E. Fries, receiver of

Mr. Gore and Mr. Worth, in making property would be conveyed to the company when the line of steamers is put in operation. Both Messrs. Gore and Worth are largely interested in the new steamship enterprise.

BENJ. A. M'CLAMMY DEAD.

Passed Away at His Home in Wilmington Yesterday Afternoon-Valued Citizen and Devout Christian.

Mr. Benjamin A. McClammy, a well known and highly esteemed resident of Wilmington, died yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at his home on Seventh, between Castle and Queen

Mr. McClammy about six months ago suffered a severe stroke of pa ralysis while in his store one evening and had never regained his strength since. Thursday, two weeks ago, up to which time he showed signs of ultimate partial recovery, he suffered two very violent attacks of something like convulsions, and he sank rapidly until death came to relieve his pain yesterday afternoon. Mr. McClammy was a valuable citizen in many respects and his taking away is greatly deplored. Early in life he connected himself with the Methodist Church and had lead a most devout Christian life ever since. He was charitable, kind, and possessed of many amiable traits which made him hosts of friends. He was in the 54th year of his age at the time of his death and had lived in Wilmington for s long time. He was never married and leaves of his immediate family two sisters and two brothers surviving him. Tuey are Mrs. Etta Harris and Miss Eliza McClammy and Messrs. J. D.

and C. W. McClammy. Deceased was engaged for the past ten years in the grocery business, and last conducted a store on Fifth between Castle and Queen streets. Prior to that time he was pressman for the MORNING STAR for 16 years and was a most valued employe.

Mr. McClammy had been a member of the Board of Stewards of Fifth Street M. E. church for many years, and that body is requested to meet Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the residence of the deceased to attend the funeral which will be held at 10 A. M. The interment will be in the family burying ground on Wrightsville

Mr. St John Fillyaw III. A telegram was received in the city yesterday announcing that Mr. St. John Fillyaw, of Jacksonville, Fla., is sinking. He has been sick for the past few months and has been undergoing treatment in a sanitarium at many friends in Wilmington. He is a brother of Capt. De Leon Fillyaw. and Mr. Oscar M. "The Jolly Pathfinders."

Rentfrow's Jolly Pathfinders will conclude a signally successful week's engagement at the Opera House this evening with the splendid comedy success "Below Z ro." At a special bargain matinee this afternoon "Cinderilla" or "The Crystal Slipper" will be presented, and the prices will be only 10 and 20 cents. Each child attending the performance will be given an attractive present. To-night $15 in gold will be given away to some one in the audiance.

COTTON AND NAVAL STORES.

Comparative Statement of Receipts Compiled from Produce Exchange.

Local cotton receipts yesterday were 2,233 bales. For the week ending February 14th, the receipts were 8,592 bales against 2,296 bales for the corresponding week last year. Receipts for the present crop year amount to 252,028 bales, against 288 575 bales for the corresponding period last year, which is 13,453 bales ahead of last year. Spot cotton advanced to 82 cents per pound yesterday. The quotations for the same day in 1901 was was 91 cents. The naval stores receipts for the week ending yesterday were consider ably less than for the corresponding week in 1901. During the past week the receipts were : Spirits, 79 casks: rosin, 1,753 barrels; tar, 1,676 barrels; crude turpentine, 99 barrels. For the corresponding week last February, the receipts were : Spirits, 261; rosin, 2,-703; tar, 1,756, and crude 289.

Traced Back to Revolutionary Times. Kathryn Kidder's ancestors both on the maternal and paternal side can be traced back to B-volutionary days. This fact is worthy of note in view of her impersonation of Molly Pitcher, the heroine of the American Revolution. Molly, it will be remembered, was the sturdy country girl who snatched the ramrod from her dead husband's hand at the battle of Mon mouth and took his place, loading and firing the cannon throughout the engagement. The well known play-wright, Glen MacDonough, has succeeded in constructing a most successful comedy drama, with Molly as the central figure. The role is one that cails for much versatility and talent. There is probably no American actress better suited for "Molly Pitcher" than Kathryn Kidder, who will appear in his city on Monday night at the Opera House. Miss Kidder is supported by an unusual strong company which has been selected by her manager, George H. Bronnen, with particular reference to the New York run, which will commence shortly after her appearance here. The com pany includes Lester Lonergan, Oliver Oliver, Ethelwyn Hoyt, Jean Cham-blin, Morion Ashworth, T. C. Hamil-Jacksonville. The news of his illness ton, Orr S. Cash, Seymour Stratton,

St. Valentine's Day, when Cupid held high carnival, came and went yesterday in much the same manner as in years gone by. In former times it was the custom for the ardent swain to send to his lady love and vice versa. a missive of more or less elaborate design and containing verses more or less suitable to the spirit of the occasion. But this custom, like many others, is found to be fast passing away with the progressiveness of the age and now from one to another instead of the old fashioned valentine is a token of more substantial nature and not anonymously sent. And much more acceptable, it might be added, for there are few women who do not prefer a box of candy or a bouquet of violets or roses to the most gorgeous specimen of card board, celluloid or anaemic verse.

The indefatigable small boy was also on hand with his comic valentine. These were strictly up-to-date this year. The pictures on them were often bad-very bad-and the verses were even worse. But the small boy is no art critic and the pictures and verse were to his liking and he bought, inflicted them on his friends and nobody

Last night as usual there were many private valentine parties and receptions as well as those more of a public

Perhaps one of the most elaborate It was very largely attended and was beautiful beyond description. The decorations were in pink and evergreens artistically arranged with hearts of the same color. During the progress of the reception, which lasted from 8 to 11 o'clock, delightful refreshments were served. These consisted of ice creams and cakes in heart designs and in other forms appropriate to the day.

There was also a delightful programme of musical selections in the auditorium, which was rendered with splendid effect. Miss Mary Cole sung in splendid voice "I Cannot Help Being Loved," composed by Clayton Johns. Mrs. W. L. Latta also charmingly rendered "Bonnie Sweet Bessie" and responded to an encore with "My Old Kentucky Home." Miss Clara Woodward also sang in captivating manner "Time, It Will Tell," a composition by H. W. Petrie. Miss Lizzie Kirkham also entertained splendidly with a number of instrumental solos. Miss Amelia Bellamy was chairman of the general committee of arrangements and the special departments were in charge of ladies as follows: Chocolate-Mrs. E. C. Holt and

Mrs. Warren S. Johnson. Cake-Mrs. George. Harriss, Miss Martha Williams, Mrs. R. C. De-Rosset, Miss Fanny Taylor and Miss Kate O'Hanlon.

The committeess were assisted in a general way and very ably by Mrs. W. H. Northrop, Mrs. H.C. McQueen, Mrs. R. W. Hicks, Miss Sallie Jackson, Miss Mary Croswell, Miss Atha Hicks, Miss Agnes McQueen, Miss Re na Johnson, Mrs. T. C. Lewis, Miss Eiza Howell and Miss Maggie Brown. The reception was altogether one of the most pleasing church functions given in Wilmington in many years.

At the First Baptist Church. A sprightly programme was rendered by the Girls' Guild of the First Baptist church last night to a fair and appreciative audience. Miss Jennie Stanland gave a piano solo in good style. Miss Sallie Oldham recited and was complimented with a hearty encere. Little Miss Ila Rountree rendered a piano solo and answered an enthusiastic recall. Miss Isabel Barr sang the "Owl Song" with pleasing effect. The little comedy "Gossip" in one act was rendered to the delight of the house by Misses Louise K. White, Cora Meredith, Ethel Holden, Mary Belle Taylor, Rosa Meredith and Lillian Johnson. Many requests came up to have the young ladies repeat the programme, which they kindly consented to do next Friday night in connection with the Novelty Club's entertainment at the same place.
