

STORM WARNING.	the public, and the rates are thorough-	himself, as Mephisto," will be an an-	ing trespassers therefrom, paying tax- es thereon, etc. That defendants	equity discussed on the hearing has	the past several years and has given	last night about 10 o'clock and cleared	Vollers & Hashagen.
Northeast storm signals were order-	ly satisfactory.	a big audience. His appearance	have filed entries on parts of said land,	been purposely avoided, lest their con- sideration at this time should, when	Brown and and an and a started at the started at th	on her return trip this morning."	tonoro de manandom.
sdup at 3 P. M. at points along the	In this connection the following	here will be rendered more at	trespassed thereon, cut timber, which	the contentions, rights and equities of	regretted that he will not remain in	- The Swedish barque Anders	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · coast from Wilmington to Norfolk.	from the Charleston Evening Post	tractive by the new and gorgeous	is the chief value of the lands to plain tiff irrepararable damage and depre-	the parties are more fully disclosed,	charge, it will be gratifying to theatre-	passed out at Southport at 9 A. M. yes-	Corn, Oats, Hay, Provisions.
A disturbance was moving northeast	will be read with interest:	scenery, newly composed music and a flae choir of voices. Special interest	ciation of complainant's interest.	embarrassed the parties of the court by a premature consideration or dis-		terday. The New York steamer passed	/eb 16 t/ward off the South Atlantic coast.	"The battalion of Naval Reserves of North Carolina are now arranging	will be manifested in the new lyric	That to establish complainant's	cussion. The final hearing will prob-	of the institution will fall into such	up from Georgetowu at 8 P. M. Fri-
High northeast shifting to northwest	for a trip to the Exposition, which	and choral prologue, which reveals	rights would involve it in a multiplicity of suits, endless litigation,	ably be had within the next 60 days	competent hands as the successful bid- ders yesterday. Mr. Schloss, in addi-	P see a second sec	FIIINTAIN DENSI will be taken during the month of	rounded by his host. The chanting of	delay and irreparable damage, and it		tion to managing the house here, is	- The Norwegian steamship Syng	FOUNTAIN PENS!
FORECAST FOR TO DAY.	April. Commander H. M. Chase ex pects to bring a large number of men,	an invisible choir, the succession of	seeks this remedy to establish its title,		also managing the new opera house,	was cleared yesterday for Kingston, WASHINGTON, Feb. 15For North	and during their stay in Charleston	croud checels dispersing, and the huat	remove all clouds and enjoin trespass- ers in one action. That while com-	and adjudged that as to the Gardner-	"The Grand," in Greensboro. It has	Jamaica, with a cargo of lumber and	Thave a full line of
	they will be entertained by the La	pleasing to the eve and ear alike, while	plainant is informed as to the location	Lacy Lumber Co., the restraining or- dar heretofore granted, be and the	a continue consolity of 1 050 while the	shingles consigned by the Chadbourn fresh north to northwest winds	favette Artillery and the Chicora Rifles, of the South Carolina Naval	Lewis Morrison's descent to earth is	of its own lines and boundaries,	same is hereby modified and dissolved	house here will comfortably take care	Company.	Waterman's Ideal Foun-
	Reserves."	preceded by a strongly dramatic scene.	(which are not set out in the bill but appear in the grants and p'ots attached)	on the said Gardner Lacy Company's	of 1,200.	- The February term of the Su-	tain PENS,
Port AlmanacFebruary 16.		The entire production is, without ex- ception, the finest ever given "Faust"	and the fact of defendant's and others	entering into bond in the sum of $10,- 000 conditioned that it shall, if so re-	There was a rumor yesterday that	perior Court of Cumberland county, for the trial of civil cases only, con-	tain FENS,
Bises	NEW PAYETTEVILLE STEAMBOAT.	in this country, and Lewis Morrison	tresspassing and committing acts of spolation within its boundaries, it has	quired, by order of this court account	Manager Schloss was at the head of a	venes in Fayetteville Monday, Judge	and can give you any style of
San Sets 5.41 P. M.A		himself will positively appear as Me- phisto. Sale of seats beg ns Tues-	been unable to accertain the particular		syndicate which would shortly begin the erection of a new Opera House in	W. S. O. B. Robinson presiding.	point. All Pens fully guar-
Day's Length	Work On the Company's Wharf-Boats	day morning. No advance in prices	grants and deeds, if any, under which	lands claimed by or which it shall be	Wilmington, large and modera in	- The funeral of the late Benj.	anteed and sold at Manufac- turers' prices, from $2.50 up.
High Water Wilmington 4 30 A. M.	That Plied the Cape Fear.		defendants pretend to justify and de- fend, defendants in equity and good	adjudged by the court, the New Jersey	every respect. A STAR representative	A. McClammy will be conducted at 10	turors prices, rion w.oo up.
	A CONTRACTOR AND AND THE REAL ADDRESS AND AND A CONTRACT AND A CONTRACT AND A	SNOW STORM YESTERDAY.	conscience should require to disclose,	and N. C. Land and Lumber Co. was and is the owner and entitled to the	last night asked him if there was truth	A. M. to-day from the late residence,	DODDT O D.DOGOTT
The Sultan of Turkey has con-	The work of constructing a wharf	SHOW STOKE TESTERDAT.	fully and completely, the grants, en-	possession. Said restraining order is	in the report. He replied: "Nothing	No. 619 South Seventh street. The	ROBERT C. DeROSSET, for the Fayetteville and Wilmington Steamboat Company will begin in		tries, claims or deeds under which they claim the right to trespass	continued in full force and effect as to	to speak of," and added that no step	interment will be on Wrightsville · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	about two weeks. The wharf will be	All Trains Late Awaiting Connections.	upon the said lands, cutting and	land claimed by complainant and not included within the boundaries of the	in that direction was being taken that	Sound.
	on the river front, as it will be impossi-	Wilmington Experienced None of the	removing timber therefrom—and defendants cannot show any superior	land to which the Gardner-Lacy Co.,	he knew of. It is generally believed,	- The Bell Telephone Company	107 Market St.
	ble to dredge out the proposed basin in	inconveninces of the Blizzard.	title to complainant. That said lands	claims title. It is further ordered that unless the	however, the new theatre will be one	will extend its service to Carolina	Bell 'Phone 26 feb 2 tf
Texas is going to put her con-	time to receive the boats, though the		are assessed for taxes in complainant's	N J. and N. C. Land and Lumber Co	of the attractions of the city in the	Beach next season. The company al-
Acad to going to put not out	basin idea will not be abandoned and	Wilmington was fortunate yester-	name at $61,000. Then follows the	shall within 20 days from the entering	next few years.	ready has a line to the Government	WE OFFER will be eventually completed. The en-	day in escaping the snow storm which	prayers for relief. A temporary restraining order was	of this order formulate issues and take steps to have its title to said land,		station at the beach, but that has not	WE OFFER other beet patches so far reported.	ing and lowering of freight to and	prevailed almost everywhere else in	granted, returnalle on the rule day in	claimed by the Gardner-Lacy Co.,	MR. ST. JOHN FILLYAW DEAD.	been used since 1898.
viller beet pateries ao tar reported.	from the steamers at any stage of water	the State for the twenty-four hours	F. bruary, 1902. The subposes, bil and restraining order were returned, served	tried by a jury, the said restraining		- Dr. Blackwell's subject at the	فحر will be here within two weeks and will be used in the construction of the	preceding.	on 58 of the defendants, naming them	order heretotore granted herein, shall and the same is hereby vacated and	Passed Away Yesterday in Jacksonville,	morning service of the First Baptist	300 Bags Pure Wheat are better than the men, in which		While the weather was altogether	where the questions involved were	dissolved and this cause is held for	FisRemains Will be Interred Here.	church to-day will be "Life;" at the	ovo Dago ruio mincai respect the Filipino women are just	From sile whatt a statuard gauge	disagreeable and the thermometer took	heard—counsel appearing on both sides.	further orders.	Mr. St. John Fillyaw, once a resi-	evening service, 7:30 o'clock, "John track will be run to the company's property on Dunaldson street, where	a tumble to 23 degrees, the conditions	Upon an examination of the record	THOS B. PURNELL, U S. Judge, Etc.	dent here, but for the past twenty	Calvin and Presbyterianism, the Hu-	Bran $1.50 Cash.
inte the women of other countries.	will be situated the distributing ware-	were much better than if the city had	it appears Mrs N. J. Schulken,	Dated Feb. 11th, 1902.	years a citizen of Florida, died yester-	genots and the Covenanters."	Dian wi.00 Ousn.
Santos Dumont has been doing	nouse. At the wharf, a large receiv-		one of the defendants, filed an answer Jan. 31st, in which she denies the title		day about noon in a private sanita-	- Rev. J. R. Marshall will	W. B. COOPER, ing warehouse will be situated. A dummy steam engine of 45-horse pow	trace of fine "hominy" snow at 3 A.	of complainant to parts of the land re-	PROWINENT SPEAKERS COMING.	rium in Jacksonville, whither he had	preach at Southside Baptist church to-er, with passenger and treight cars,		ferred to, set out her muniments of title thereto and raises issues of fact		gone a short time before for treat-	day at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. At the morning service his subj-ct will be	Progressive Senter must take a mation to make a	will be run between the two ware-	almost all disappeared with the slow	which constitute an apparently good	President Winston, of A & M College, Ra-	ment. Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, of Wil-	"The Happy Christian;" at the even	feb 16 tf Wilmington, N. C.
		almost all disappeared with the slow		100 M ( 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	mington, a brother of the deceased, bouses The steamer City of Fayetteville.		defence at law. A court of equity can-	leigh, and D. A. Tompkins, Charlotte.		ing service. "The Christian's Gain."
summer dash for the North pole	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed mue, will		defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up	leigh, and D. A. Tompkins, Charlotte.	left Friday night to be with him, but	ing service, "The Christian's Gain." - Miss Mary C. Darby, postmas-	AL MA CO
	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good	The joint committee from the Pro-	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before	- Miss Mary C. Darby, postmas-	Cherallout summer dash for the North pole and capture it.	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the prencipal landings.	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid-	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchange and Chamber of Com- merce recently appointed by those	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died.	- Miss Mary C. Darby, postmas- ter, received a letter yesterday from	Oper fouse and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint-	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs.	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchange and Chamber of Com- merce recently appointed by those	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last	- Miss Mary C. Darby, postmas-	Cherge Jouse aummer dash for the North pole and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchange and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson-	- Miss Mary C. Darby, postmas- ter, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH.
A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us vesterday, that about 1855 two mag-	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been tiled before the return day. On the	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchange and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning	- Miss Mary C. Darby, postmas- ter, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial As- sociation, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds col-
aummer dash for the North pole and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent boats, TheSpray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the U-po	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been tiled before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com-	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchange and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson-	- Miss Mary C. Darby, postmas- ter, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial As- sociation, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds col- lected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby re-	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER
aummer dash for the North pole and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated We are left in ignorance of the St.	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent boats, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the U-po freer, between Fayetteville and Wil-	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been tiled before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- bany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill.	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchange and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery.	- Miss Mary C. Darby, postmas- ter, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial As- sociation, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds col- lected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby re- quests the STAR to announce that all	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Glen McDonough's Play,
A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated we are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss.	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- mificent brais, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the C.pp Bear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been tiled before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- bany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchangs and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo.	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years	- Miss Mary C. Darby, postmas- ter, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial As- sociation, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds col- lected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby re- quests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER
A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated we are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss.	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent brais, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the Cap- fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re-	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been tiled before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- bany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill.	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchange and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College,	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate	- Miss Mary C. Darby, postmas- ter, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial As- sociation, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds col- lected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby re- quests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Glen McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER."
A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated we are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent boats, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the U-pp Fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fail at Charlotte	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been tiled before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- pany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little"	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchange and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins,	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two	- Miss Mary C. Darby, postmas- ter, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial As- sociation, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds col- lected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby re- quests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." tompany of fifty. Complete scenic equip- ment
A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated we are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is just recovering from a case of a broken	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent boats, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the Capp Fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were enuidered fine boats even up there.	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fall at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe.	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been tiled before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- oany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract,	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchangs and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers	- Miss Mary C. Darby, postmas- ter, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial As- sociation, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds col- lected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby re- quests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice. PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Glen McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER."
and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated We are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is just recovering from a case of a broken neck. This is the third case of that	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent boats, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the Capp Fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fail at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been tiled before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- oany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchang. and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M.	- Miss Mary C. Darby, postmas- ter, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial As- sociation, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds col- lected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby re- quests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." Company of fifty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 St
and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated we are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is just recovering from a case of a broken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent boats, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the U-po Fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running be-	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fail at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen-	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been tiled before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- oany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres,	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchang. and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs.	- Miss Mary C. Darby, postmas- ter, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial As- sociation, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds col- lected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby re- quests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice. PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." Company of fifty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 St
and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated We are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is justrecovering from a case of abroken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and We have not read of their mending	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent boats, TheSpray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the Capp Fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running on the river. She has been running be- tween Fayetteville and Wilmington	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fail at Charlotte was reported as deep as 164 inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex-	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been tiled before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- oany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres,	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchang. and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs. Ella K. Hill and Mrs. W. H. Nor-	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial Association, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds collected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby requests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>Mr. C. W. Yates went to Bal-</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." Company of fifty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 St
and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated we are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is just recovering from a case of a broken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent boats, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the U-po Fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running be-	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fail at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex- perienced a fall of eight inches, the	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been tiled before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- bany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres, of which it (and those under whom it claims) had for more than seven years been in open, notorious continuous	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchang. and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the time for his address.	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs.	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial Association, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds collected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby requests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>Mr. C. W. Yates went to Baltimore yesterday.</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." Company of fifty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 st
and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated We are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is just recovering from a case of a broken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and we have not read of their mending broken necks in any other country,	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent brans, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the Cape Fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a org the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running on the river. She has been running be- tween Fayetteville and Wilmington for the past 40 years.	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fail at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex- perienced a fall of eight inches, the heaviest in years. The ground was	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been tiled before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- bany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres, of which it (and those under whom it claims) had for more than seven years been in open, notorious continuous and exclusive possession under color	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchang. and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the time for his address. Both gentlemen are authorities, rec-	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs. Ella K. Hill and Mrs. W. H. Nor- throp, all of this city. Mr. Fillyaw	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial Association, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds collected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby requests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>Mr. C. W. Yates went to Baltimore yesterday.</li> <li>Jno. F. Harrison, of Fayetteville, is at The Orton.</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." Company of fifty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 St
and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated we are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is justrecovering from a case of a broken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and we have not read of their mending broken necks in any other country, Gov. Taft says the American mule	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent boats, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the Copp Fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running be- tween Fayetteville and Wilmington for the past 40 years.	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fall at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex- perienced a fall of eight inches, the heaviest in years. The ground was dry and was completely covered in a	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been filed before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- bany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres, of which it (and those under whom it claims) had for more than seven years been in open, notorious continuous and exclusive possession under color title. It claims the timber interest on	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchang. and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the time for his address. Both gentlemen are authorities, rec- ognized the country over, upon the	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs. Eila K. Hill and Mrs. W. H. Nor- throp, all of this city. Mr. Fillyaw left Wilmington about twenty years ago, and had resided in Florida since. He had been a resident of the city of	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial Association, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds collected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby requests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>Mr. C. W. Yates went to Baltimore yesterday.</li> <li>Jno. F. Harrison, of Fayetteville, is at The Orton.</li> <li>Mr. J. A. Flanner, of Clinton,</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." Company of fifty. Complete scenic equip- ment. Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 St Constant of the American Bevolution." Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 St
and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated We are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is justrecovering from a case of a broken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and we have not read of their mending broken necks in any other country, Gov. Taft says the American mule would be a good thing to send to the	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent boats, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the Copp fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running be- tween Fayetteville and Wilmington for the past 40 years.	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fail at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex- perienced a fall of eight inches, the heaviest in years. The ground was dry and was completely covered in a few minutes after the fall began at 8	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been filed before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- oany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres, of which it (and those under whom it claims) had for more than seven years been in open, notorious continuous and exclusive possession under color title. It claims the timber interest on all these lands, has established a lum- bering camp and constructed a tram-	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchange and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the time for his address. Both gentlemen are authorities, rec- ognized the country over, upon the subjects they are expected to treat,	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs. Ella K. Hill and Mrs. W. H. Nor- throp, all of this city. Mr. Fillyaw left Wilmington about twenty years ago, and had resided in Florida since. He had been a resident of the city of Jacksonville the past few years. His	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial. Association, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds collected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby requests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>Mr. C. W. Yates went to Baltimore yesterday.</li> <li>Jno. F. Harrison, of Fayetteville, is at The Orton.</li> <li>Mr. J. A. Flanner, of Clinton, arrived last evening.</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." Company of fitty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 St Mednesday, Pebruary 19th. Positive appearance of LEWIS MORRISON HIMSELF
aummer dash for the North pole and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated We are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is justrecovering from a case of abroken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and we have not read of their mending broken necks in any other country, Gov. Taft says the American mule would be a good thing to send to the Philippines. Is he looking to the	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent boats, TheSpray and The Scot- tish Chief , were put on the U-po Fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running be- tween Fayetteville and Wilmington for the past 40 years.	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fail at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex- perienced a fall of eight inches, the heaviest in years. The ground was dry and was completely covered in a few minutes after the fall began at 8 P. M. Friday.	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been filed before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- oany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres, of which it (and those under whom it claims) had for more than seven years been in open, notorious continuous and exclusive possession under color title. It claims the timber interest on all these lands, has established a lum- bering camp and constructed a tram- way with iron rails, engine and log-	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchange and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the time for his address. Both gentlemen are authorities, rec- ognized the country over, upon the subjects they are expected to treat, and it will be a real pleasure and	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs. Ella K. Hill and Mrs. W. H. Nor- throp, all of this city. Mr. Fillyaw left Wilmington about twenty years ago, and had resided in Florida since. He had been a resident of the city of Jacksonville the past few years. His health had been very poor for a long	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial. Association, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds collected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby requests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>Mr. C. W. Yates went to Baltimore yesterday.</li> <li>Jno. F. Harrison, of Fayetteville, is at The Orton.</li> <li>Mr. J. A. Flanner, of Clinton, arrived last evening.</li> <li>Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Craft are</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." Company of fity. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 8t College College Mednesday, February 19th. Positive appearance of LEWIS MORRISON HIMSELF and his excellent company of players, inc ud-
aummer dash for the North pole and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated we are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is justrecovering from a case of a broken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and we have not read of their mending broken necks in any other country, Gov. Taft says the American mule would be a good thing to send to the Philippines. Is he looking to the mule to help solve the problem over	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent boars, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the Cape Fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the fine boars of the old times running be- tween Fayetteville and Wilmington for the past 40 years. A Church Sociable. Mrs. H. Rehder will give a sociable for the benefit of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in the Luther Memorial Build-	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fall at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex- perienced a fall of eight inches, the heaviest in years. The ground was dry and was completely covered in a few minutes after the fall began at 8 P. M. Friday. The steamer Hurt arrived from Fayetteville at 8:30 o'clock last night	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been filed before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- oany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres, of which it (and those under whom it claims) had for more than seven years been in open, notorious continuous and exclusive possession under color title. It claims the timber interest on all these lands, has established a lum- bering camp and constructed a tram- way with iron rails, engine and log- ging outfit, five or six miles long, and	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchange and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the time for his address. Both gentlemen are authorities, rec- ognized the country over, upon the subjects they are expected to treat, and it will be a real pleasure and source of great profit for the business	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs. Ella K. Hill and Mrs. W. H. Nor- throp, all of this city. Mr. Fillyaw left Wilmington about twenty years ago, and had resided in Florida since. He had been a resident of the city of Jacksonville the past few years. His health had been very poor for a long time, but only during the past six	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial. Association, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds collected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby requests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>Mr. C. W. Yates went to Baltimore yesterday.</li> <li>Jno. F. Harrison, of Fayetteville, is at The Orton.</li> <li>Mr. J. A. Flanner, of Clinton, arrived last evening.</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." Company of fitty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 St Mednesday, Pebruary 19th. Positive appearance of LEWIS MORRISON HIMSELF
and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated We are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is justrecovering from a case of a broken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and we have not read of their mending broken necks in any other country, Gov. Taft says the American mule would be a good thing to send to the Philippines. Is he looking to the mule to help solve the problem over there? The mule generally gets in	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent brais, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the Cape fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running be- tween Fayetteville and Wilmington for the past 40 years. A Church Sociable. Mrs. H. Rehder will give a sociable for the benefit of St. Paul's Lutheran Onurch in the Luther Memorial Build- ing next Fr.day from 3 to 11 P. M. A	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fall at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex- perienced a fall of eight inches, the heaviest in years. The ground was dry and was completely covered in a few minutes after the fall began at 8 P. M. Friday. The steamer Hurt arrived from Fayetteville at 8:30 o'clock last night and reported a heavy fall along the	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been filed before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- oany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres, of which it (and those under whom it claims) had for more than seven years been in open, notorious continuous and exclusive possession under color title. It claims the timber interest on all these lands, has established a lum- bering camp and constructed a tram- way with iron rails, engine and log- ging outfit, five or six miles long, and prepared timber for market in ways described, some'rafted, some cut down,	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchang. and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the time for his address. Both gentlemen are authorities, rec- ognized the country over, upon the subjects they are expected to treat, and it will be a real pleasure and source of great profit for the business element of Wilmington to hear them.	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs. Ella K. Hill and Mrs. W. H. Nor- throp, all of this city. Mr. Fillyaw left Wilmington about twenty years ago, and had resided in Florida since. He had been a resident of the city of Jacksonville the past few years. His health had been very poor for a long time, but only during the past six months did his illness become of a	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial Association, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds collected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby requests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>Mr. C. W. Yates went to Baltimore yesterday.</li> <li>Jno. F. Harrison, of Fayetteville, is at The Orton.</li> <li>Mr. J. A. Flanner, of Clinton, arrived last evening.</li> <li>Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Craft are spending a while at the Charleston Exposition.</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." tompany of fitty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 3t Constitute appearance of LEWIS MORRISON HIMSELF and his excellent company of players, inc ud- ing Miss BOSABEL MORRISON, in the origi- nal famous production of
and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated We are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is justrecovering from a case of a broken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and we have not read of their mending broken necks in any other country, Gov. Taft says the American mule would be a good thing to send to the Philippines. Is he looking to the mule to help solve the problem over there? The mule generally gets in his work if you give him half a	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent brais, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the Cop- fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurf is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running on the river. She has been running be- tween Fayetteville and Wilmington for the past 40 years. A Charch Sociable. Mrs. H. Rehder will give a sociable for the benefit of St. Paul's Lutheran Onurch in the Luther Memorial Build- ing next Friday from 3 to 11 P. M. A select programme of music will be ren-	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fail at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16½ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex- perienced a fall of eight inches, the heaviest in years. The ground was dry and was completely covered in a few minutes after the fall began at 8 P. M. Friday. The steamer Hurt arrived from Fayetteville at 8:30 o'clock last night and reported a heavy fall along the river to within thirty miles of Wil-	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been filed before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- oany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres, of which it (and those under whom it claims) had for more than seven years been in open, notorious continuous and exclusive possession under color title. It claims the timber interest on all these lands, has established a lum- bering camp and constructed a tram- way with iron rails, engine and log- ging outfit, five or six miles long, and prepared timber for market in ways described, some, rafted, some cut down, other trees belted preparatory to being	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchang. and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the time for his address. Both gentlemen are authorities, rec- ognized the country over, upon the subjects they are expected to treat, and it will be a real pleasure and source of great profit for the business element of Wilmington to hear them. The speaking will most likely take	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs. Ella K. Hill and Mrs. W. H. Nor- throp, all of this city. Mr. Fillyaw left Wilmington about twenty years ago, and had resided in Florida since. He had been a resident of the city of Jacksonville the past few years. His health had been very poor for a long time, but only during the past six months did his illness become of a more serious nature. He has a num-	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial. Association, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds collected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby requests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>Mr. C. W. Yates went to Baltimore yesterday.</li> <li>Jno. F. Harrison, of Fayetteville, is at The Orton.</li> <li>Mr. J. A. Flanner, of Clinton, arrived last evening.</li> <li>Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Craft are spending a while at the Charleston Exposition.</li> <li>Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Fow-</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." Company of fitty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 3t Mednesday, Pebruary 19th. Positive appearance of LEWIS MORRISON HIMSELF and his excellent company of players, inc ud- ing Miss BOSABEL MORBISON, in the origi- nal famous production of FLACUST, aumer dash for the North pole and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated we are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is justrecovering from a case of abroken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and we have not read of their mending broken necks in any other country, Gov. Taft says the American mule would be a good thing to send to the Philippines. Is he looking to the mule to help solve the problem over there ? The mule generally gets in his work if you give him half a chance.	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent brais, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the C.p. Fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running on the river. She has been running be- tween Fayetteville and Wilmington for the past 40 years. A Church Sociable. Mrs. H. Rehder will give a sociable for the benefit of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in the Luther Memorial Build- ing next Friday from 3 to 11 P. M. A select programme of music will be ren- dered at 8 P. M. by the best musical	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fail at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex- perienced a fall of eight inches, the heaviest in years. The ground was dry and was completely covered in a few minutes after the fall began at 8 P. M. Friday. The steamer Hurt arrived from Fayetteville at 8:30 o'clock last night and reported a heavy fall along the river to within thirty miles of Wil- mington. At Elizabethtown the fall	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been filed before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- oany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres, of which it (and those under whom it claims) had for more than seven years been in open, notorious continuous and exclusive possession under color title. It claims the timber interest on all these lands, has established a lum- bering camp and constructed a tram- way with iron rails, engine and log- ging outfit, five or six miles long, and prepared timber for market in ways described, some; rafted, some cut down, other trees belted preparatory to being felled. On the same day, being the return day, this defendant demurred	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchang. and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the time for his address. Both gentlemen are authorities, rec- ognized the country over, upon the subjects they are expected to treat, and it will be a real pleasure and source of great profit for the business element of Wilmington to hear them. The speaking will most likely take	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs. Ella K. Hill and Mrs. W. H. Nor- throp, all of this city. Mr. Fillyaw left Wilmington about twenty years ago, and had resided in Florida since. He had been a resident of the city of Jacksonville the past few years. His health had been very poor for a long time, but only during the past six months did his illness become of a more serious nature. He has a num- ber of friends here who will regret ex-	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial. Association, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds collected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby requests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>Mr. C. W. Yates went to Baltimore yesterday.</li> <li>Jno. F. Harrison, of Fayetteville, is at The Orton.</li> <li>Mr. J. A. Flanner, of Clinton, arrived last evening.</li> <li>Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Craft are spending a while at the Charleston Exposition.</li> <li>Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Fow-</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." tompany of fitty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 8t Mednesday, February 19th. Positive appearance of LEWIS MORRISON HIMSELF and his excellent company of players, inc ud- ing Miss BOSABEL MORRISON, in the origi- nal famous production of
aumer dash for the North pole and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated we are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is justrecovering from a case of abroken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and we have not read of their mending broken necks in any other country. Gov. Taft says the American mule would be a good thing to send to the Philippines. Is he looking to the mule to help solve the problem over there ? The mule generally gets in his work if you give him half a chance.	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- mificent boats, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the C.pp Fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running on the river. She has been running be- tween Fayetteville and Wilmington for the past 40 years. A Church Sociable. Mrs. H. Rehder will give a sociable for the benefit of St. Paul's Lutheran Onurch in the Luther Memorial Build- ing next Fr.day from 3 to 11 P. M. A select programme of music will be ren- dered at 8 P. M. by the best musical talent. The music is in charge of Mrs.	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fall at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex- perienced a fall of eight inches, the heaviest in years. The ground was dry and was completely covered in a few minutes after the fall began at 8 P. M. Friday. The steamer Hurt arrived from Fayetteville at 8:30 o'clock last night and reported a heavy fall along the river to within thirty miles of Wil- mington. At Elizabethtown the fall was six inches. The steamer had to tie	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been tiled before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- oany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvali" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres, of which it (and those under whom it claims) had for more than seven years been in open, notorious continuous and exclusive possession under color title. It claims the timber interest on all these lands, has established a lum- bering camp and constructed a tram- way with iron rails, engine and log- ging outfit, five or six miles long, and prepared timber for market in ways described, some; rafted, some cut down, other trees belted preparatory to being felled. On the same day, being the return day, this defendant demurred to the bill, which demurrer will be	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchang. and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the time for his address. Both gentlemen are authorities, rec- ognized the country over, upon the subjects they are expected to treat, and it will be a real pleasure and source of great profit for the business element of Wilmington to hear them. The speaking will most likely take place in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, and the public will be invited.	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs. Ella K. Hill and Mrs. W. H. Nor- throp, all of this city. Mr. Fillyaw left Wilmington about twenty years ago, and had resided in Florida since. He had been a resident of the city of Jacksonville the past few years. His health had been very poor for a long time, but only during the past six months did his illness become of a more serious nature. He has a num-	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial As- sociation, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds col- lected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby re- quests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>- Mr. C. W. Yates went to Bal- timore yesterday.</li> <li>- Jno. F. Harrison, of Fayette- ville, is at The Orton.</li> <li>- Mr. J. A. Flanner, of Clinton, arrived last evening.</li> <li>- Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Craft are spending a while at the Charleston Exposition.</li> <li>- Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Fow- ler, of Atlanta, arrived in the city yesterday.</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." Company of fifty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 8t Constitute appearance of LEWIS MORRISON HIMSELF and his excellent company of players, inc ud- ing Miss BO3ABEL MORBISON, in the origi- nal famous production of ELAUSIA
and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated We are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is justrecovering from a case of a broken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and we have not read of their mending broken necks in any other country, Gov. Taft says the American mule would be a good thing to send to the hilippines. Is he looking to the nule to help solve the problem over there? The mule generally gets in his work if you give him half a chance. It is said that 2,000,000 frogs are	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- mificent boats, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the Copy froar, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running be- tween Fayetteville and Wilmington for the past 40 years. A Church Sociable. Mrs. H. Rehder will give a sociable for the benefit of St. Paul's Lutheran Onurch in the Luther Memorial Build- ing next Friday from 3 to 11 P. M. A select programme of music will be ren- dered at 8 P. M. by the best musical talent. The music is in charge of Mrs. E Schulken and there will be no	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fall at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex- perienced a fall of eight inches, the heaviest in years. The ground was dry and was completely covered in a few minutes after the fall began at 8 P. M. Friday. The steamer Hurt arrived from Fayetteville at 8:30 o'clock last night and reported a heavy fall along the river to within thirty miles of Wil- mington. At Elizabethtown the fall was six inches. The steamer had to tie up there Friday night on account of	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been tiled before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- oany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvali" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres, of which it (and those under whom it claims) had for more than seven years been in open, notorious continuous and exclusive possession under color title. It claims the timber interest on all these lands, has established a lum- bering camp and constructed a tram- way with iron rails, engine and log- ging outfit, five or six miles long, and prepared timber for market in ways described, some; rafted, some cut down, other trees belted preparatory to being felled. Oa the same day, being the return day, this defendant demurred to the bill, which demurrer will be more properly considered on the hear-	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchang. and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the time for his address. Both gentlemen are authorities, rec- ognized the country over, upon the subjects they are expected to treat, and it will be a real pleasure and source of great profit for the business element of Wilmington to hear them. The speaking will most likely take place in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, and the public will be invited. Those present at the committee meeting yesterday were Collector B.	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs. Ella K. Hill and Mrs. W. H. Nor- throp, all of this city. Mr. Fillyaw left Wilmington about twenty years ago, and had resided in Florida since. He had been a resident of the city of Jacksonville the past few years. His health had been very poor for a long time, but only during the past six months did his illness become of a more serious nature. He has a num- ber of friends here who will regret ex- ceedingly to learn of his demise.	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial Association, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds collected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby requests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>- Mr. C. W. Yates went to Baltimore yesterday.</li> <li>- Jno. F. Harrison, of Fayetteville, is at The Orton.</li> <li>- Mr. J. A. Flanner, of Clinton, arrived last evening.</li> <li>- Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Craft are spending a while at the Charleston Exposition.</li> <li>- Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Fowler, of Atlanta, arrived in the city yesterday.</li> <li>- Dr. W. H. Whitehead, of</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." tompany of fitty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 3t Constitute State State Mednesday, February 19th. Positive appearance of LEWIS MORRISON HIMSELF And his excellent company of players, inc ud- ing Miss BOSABEL MORBISON, in the origi- nal famous production of FACUSE . With its worderful electric and calcium effects. The Marvelous ' Brocken Boene." Feb 16 3t
and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated we are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is just recovering from a case of a broken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and we have not read of their mending broken necks in any other country. Gov. Taft says the American mule would be a good thing to send to the Philippines. Is he looking to the nule to help solve the problem over there? The mule generally gets in his work if you give him half a chance. It is said that 2,000,000 frogs are laughtered annually in this country.	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent boats, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the U-po Fear, Detween Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running be- tween Fayetteville and Wilmington for the past 40 years. A Church Sociable. Mrs. H. Rehder will give a sociable for the benefit of St. Paul's Lutheran Ohurch in the Luther Memorial Build- ing next Friday from 3 to 11 P. M. A select programme of music will be ren- dered at 8 P. M. by the best musical talent. The music is in charge of Mrs. E Schulken and there will be no charge for admission. Refreshments	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fail at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex- perienced a fall of eight inches, the heaviest in years. The ground was dry and was completely covered in a few minutes after the fall began at 8 P. M. Friday. The steamer Hurt arrived from Fayetteville at 8:30 o'clock last night and reported a heavy fall along the river to within thirty miles of Wil- mington. At Elizabethtown the fall was six inches. The steamer had to tie up there Friday night on account of the weather and did not leave there	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been filed before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- oany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres, of which it (and those under whom it claims) had for more than seven years been in open, notorious continuous and exclusive possession under color title. It claims the timber interest on all these lands, has established a lum- bering camp and constructed a tram- way with iron rails, engine and log- ging outfit, five or six miles long, and prepared timber for market in ways described, some, rafted, some cut down, other trees belted preparatory to being felled. On the same day, being the return day, this defendant demurred to the bill, which demurrer will be more properly considered on the hear- ing on the next rule day. Other de fendants do not answer the rule and	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchang. and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the time for his address. Both gentlemen are authorities, rec- ognized the country over, upon the subjects they are expected to treat, and it will be a real pleasure and source of great profit for the business element of Wilmington to hear them. The speaking will most likely take place in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, and the public will be invited. Those present at the committee meeting yesterday were Collector B. F. Keith, Mr. M. W. Jacobi and Rep-	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs. Ella K. Hill and Mrs. W. H. Nor- throp, all of this city. Mr. Fillyaw left Wilmington about twenty years ago, and had resided in Florida since. He had been a resident of the city of Jacksonville the past few years. His health had been very poor for a long time, but only during the past six months did his illness become of a more serious nature. He has a num- ber of friends here who will regret ex- ceedingly to learn of his demise. The Jolly Pathfisders.	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial Association, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds collected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby requests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>- Mr. C. W. Yates went to Baltimore yesterday.</li> <li>- Jno. F. Harrison, of Fayetteville, is at The Orton.</li> <li>- Mr. J. A. Flanner, of Clinton, arrived last evening.</li> <li>- Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Craft are spending a while at the Charleston Exposition.</li> <li>- Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Fowler, of Atlanta, arrived in the city yesterday.</li> <li>- Dr. W. H. Whitehead, of Rocky Mount, registered at The Orton</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." tompany of fitty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 3t Constitute State State Mednesday, February 19th. Positive appearance of LEWIS MORRISON HIMSELF and his excellent company of players, inc ud- ing Miss BOSABEL MORBISON, in the origi- nal famous production of FACUST . With the worderful electric and calcium effects. The barvelous ' Brocken Boene." Feb 16 3t
and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated we are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is justrecovering from a case of a broken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and we have not read of their mending broken necks in any other country. Gov. Taft says the American mule would be a good thing to send to the Philippines. Is he looking to the mule to help solve the problem over there? The mule generally gets in his work if you give him half a chance. It is said that 2,000,000 frogs are slanghtered annually in this country for epicures who are fond of that	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- nificent brais, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the Cop- frear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurf is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running on the river. She has been running be- tween Fayetteville and Wilmington for the past 40 years. A Charch Sociable. Mrs. H. Rehder will give a sociable for the benefit of St. Paul's Lutheran Onurch in the Luther Memorial Build- ing next Friday from 3 to 11 P. M. A select programme of music will be ren- dered at 8 P. M. by the best musical talent. The music is in charge of Mrs. E Schulken and there will be no charge for admission. Refreshments will be served.	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fail at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex- perienced a fall of eight inches, the heaviest in years. The ground was dry and was completely covered in a few minutes after the fall began at 8 P. M. Friday. The steamer Hurt arrived from Fayetteville at 8:30 o'clock last night and reported a heavy fall along the river to within thirty miles of Wil- mington. At Elizabethtown the fall was six inches. The steamer had to tie up there Friday night on account of the weather and did not leave there until 8 A. M. yesterday.	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been filed before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- bany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres, of which it (and those under whom it claims) had for more than seven years been in open, notorious continuous and exclusive possession under color title. It claims the timber interest on all these lands, has established a lum- bering camp and constructed a tram- way with iron rails, engine and log- ging outfit, five or six miles long, and prepared timber for market in ways described, some, rafted, some cut down, other trees belted preparatory to being felled. On the same day, being the return day, this defendant demurred to the bill, which demurrer will be more properly considered on the hear- ing on the next rule day. Other de fendants do not answer the rule and the bill may for the present be taken	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchange and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the time for his address. Both gentlemen are authorities, rec- ognized the country over, upon the subjects they are expected to treat, and it will be a real pleasure and source of great profit for the business element of Wilmington to hear them. The speaking will most likely take place in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, and the public will be invited. Those present at the committee meeting yesterday were Collector B. F. Keith, Mr. M. W. Jacobi and Rep- resentative M. S. Willard, of the	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs. Ella K. Hill and Mrs. W. H. Nor- throp, all of this city. Mr. Fillyaw left Wilmington about twenty years ago, and had resided in Florida since. He had been a resident of the city of Jacksonville the past few years. His health had been very poor for a long time, but only during the past six months did his illness become of a more serious nature. He has a num- ber of friends here who will regret ex- ceedingly to learn of his demise. The Jolly Pathfinders.	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial Association, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds collected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby requests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>- Mr. C. W. Yates went to Baltimore yesterday.</li> <li>- Jno. F. Harrison, of Fayetteville, is at The Orton.</li> <li>- Mr. J. A. Flanner, of Clinton, arrived last evening.</li> <li>- Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Craft are spending a while at the Charleston Exposition.</li> <li>- Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Fowler, of Atlanta, arrived in the city yesterday.</li> <li>- Dr. W. H. Whitehead, of Rocky Mount, registered at The Orton yesterday.</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." tompany of fitty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 3t Constitute State State Mednesday, February 19th. Positive appearance of LEWIS MORRISON HIMSELF and his excellent company of players, inc ud- ing Miss BOSABEL MORBISON, in the origi- nal famous production of FACUST . With the worderful electric and calcium effects. The barvelous ' Brocken Boene." Feb 16 3t
and capture it. A St. Louis teacher of Spanish has been find $28 for kissing his pupils, but as the number of pupils or the number of kisses is not stated we are left in ignorance of the St. Louis valuation of a Spanish kiss. A young athlete in New York is just recovering from a case of a broken neck. This is the third case of that kind reported in this country, and we have not read of their mending broken necks in any other country. Gov. Taft says the American mule would be a good thing to send to the Philippines. Is he looking to the nule to help solve the problem over there? The mule generally gets in his work if you give him half a chance. It is said that 2,000,000 frogs are laughtered annually in this country.	The steamer City of Fayetteville, the first boat of the proposed nue, will maintain a regular scaedule and will stop at all the principal landings. In speaking of the proposed new steamer and its luxurious appoint- ments, a gentleman remarked to us yesterday, that about 1855 two mag- mificent boats, The Spray and The Scot- tish Chief, were put on the C.pp Fear, between Fayetteville and Wil- mington, but they were too long to make the bends in the river with any degree of success, and they soon re- turned to New York, where they ran a ong the Long Island coast and were considered fine boats even up there. The Hurt is now the only one of the fine boats of the old times running on the river. She has been running be- tween Fayetteville and Wilmington for the past 40 years. A Church Sociable. Mrs. H. Rehder will give a sociable for the benefit of St. Paul's Lutheran Onurch in the Luther Memorial Build- ing next Fr.day from 3 to 11 P. M. A select programme of music will be ren- dered at 8 P. M. by the best musical talent. The music is in charge of Mrs. E Schuiken and there will be no charge for admission. Refreshments will be served.	drizzling rain which followed. All trains during the day were delayed from one to three hours and last night most all outgoing trains were provid- ed with snow ploughs. Passengers who came from the South reported a good fall as far this way as Cerro Gordo, in Brunswick county, while on the Carolina Central the fall was heavy as far down as Lumberton. The fail at Charlotte was reported as deep as 16 ‡ inches. In the Western sections of the State the storm was reported very severe. The A. & Y. train last night did not arrive until 9:30 o'clock and passen- gers reported that Fayetteville had ex- perienced a fall of eight inches, the heaviest in years. The ground was dry and was completely covered in a few minutes after the fall began at 8 P. M. Friday. The steamer Hurt arrived from Fayetteville at 8:30 o'clock last night and reported a heavy fall along the river to within thirty miles of Wil- mington. At Elizabethtown the fall was six inches. The steamer had to tie up there Friday night on account of the weather and did not leave there	defence at law. A court of equity can- not try these issues. In short, sets up defences upon an apparently good legsl title which must be tried by a jury on the law side of the docket. To a rule to show cause, she makes no specific answer, but her answer is con- sidered in this connection, having been filed before the return day. On the return day the Gardner-Lacy Com- oany answered with many affidavits and demurred ore tenus to the bill. This defendant claims to be the owner in fee of certain tracts, the "Bur- nett Little" tract, 80 acres, the "Elijah Little" tract, the "Nathan Little" tract, the "Formey Duvall" tract, the "Narlow and Williams" tract, the "Samuel Evans" tract, 100 acres, and the "Noah Williams" tract, 100 acres, of which it (and those under whom it claims) had for more than seven years been in open, notorious continuous and exclusive possession under color title. It claims the timber interest on all these lands, has established a lum- bering camp and constructed a tram- way with iron rails, engine and log- ging outfit, five or six miles long, and prepared timber for market in ways described, some, rafted, some cut down, other trees belted preparatory to being felled. On the same day, being the return day, this defendant demurred to the bill, which demurrer will be more properly considered on the hear- ing on the next rule day. Other de fendants do not answer the rule and	The joint committee from the Pro- duce Exchang. and Chamber of Com- merce, recently appointed by those bodies to invite a speaker of national reputation to address the business men of the city on the commercial issues of the day, met yesterday noon in the Carolina Insurance building and decided to invite President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, at Raleigh, and Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte. President Winston will be asked to come first and name a date early in March, and Mr. Tomp kins will be invited later and extend- ed the same courtesy of selecting the time for his address. Both gentlemen are authorities, rec- ognized the country over, upon the subjects they are expected to treat, and it will be a real pleasure and source of great profit for the business element of Wilmington to hear them. The speaking will most likely take place in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, and the public will be invited. Those present at the committee meeting yesterday were Collector B. F. Keith, Mr. M. W. Jacobi and Rep-	left Friday night to be with him, but had barely reached his bedside before his brother died. Captain Fillyaw telegraphed last evening that he would leave Jackson- ville with the remains this morning and would reach here to-morrow. The funeral will most likely be held at the cemetery. Mr. St. John Fillyaw was 51 years of age, and leaves of his immediate family a wife, three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, Mrs. Ella K. Hill and Mrs. W. H. Nor- throp, all of this city. Mr. Fillyaw left Wilmington about twenty years ago, and had resided in Florida since. He had been a resident of the city of Jacksonville the past few years. His health had been very poor for a long time, but only during the past six months did his illness become of a more serious nature. He has a num- ber of friends here who will regret ex- ceedingly to learn of his demise. The Jolly Pathfisders.	<ul> <li>Miss Mary C. Darby, postmaster, received a letter yesterday from Senator Pritchard, State Chairman of the McKinley National Memorial Association, which stated that he would have to make his report of funds collected on Feb. 20th. Miss Darby requests the STAR to announce that all contributions for this purpose may be made at the postoffice.</li> <li>PERSUNAL PARAGRAPHS.</li> <li>- Mr. C. W. Yates went to Baltimore yesterday.</li> <li>- Jno. F. Harrison, of Fayetteville, is at The Orton.</li> <li>- Mr. J. A. Flanner, of Clinton, arrived last evening.</li> <li>- Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Craft are spending a while at the Charleston Exposition.</li> <li>- Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Fowler, of Atlanta, arrived in the city yesterday.</li> <li>- Dr. W. H. Whitehead, of Rocky Mount, registered at The Orton yesterday.</li> <li>- Mr. B. F. Aycock, of Golds-</li> </ul>	MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH. KATHRYN KIDDER in Gien McDonough's Play, "MOLLY PITCHER." "The heroine of the American Bevolution." tompany of fitty. Complete scenic equip- ment Carriages may be ordered for 10:45 Prices 25c to $1.50. feb 14 8t Constitute State Mednesday, February 19th. Positive appearance of LEWIS MORRISON HIMSELF And his excellent company of players, inc ud- ing Miss BOSABEL MORRISON, in the origi- nal famous production of DEADSE . With the worderful electric and calcium effects. The Marvelous 'Brocken Boene." Feb 16 3t

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

though in some mentions of the		reached to within a short distance of	presented which it would be prema-	Deadure Bachange Mr. I W Non	the rin-roaring comedy, "Below Z tro."	the South.	member, I Renovate Mattresses, Law Car-though in some portions of the	Opera House-"Faust."	TT/1 - in stan	ture to consider now and which the	Produce Exchange. Mr. J. W. Nor-	The fif in mold offered by the com.	- Mr. N. L. Overstreet, of Lake	member, I Benovate Matresees, Lay Car- pets and Matting, Hang Window Shades, Make Awnings, do Paper Hanging and every kind of Upholstering and Bepair State the frog grows spontaneously.	N. F. Parker-Ciose outs.	AA HURLINK COM.	court has no intention or disposition	wood, appointed by the latter bouy,	The provin gold onered of the com		Make Awnings, do Paper Hanging and
	N. F. Farker-Close outer		to even consider at this time. The	found it inconvenient to attend.	pany went to air. mrness reschau.		Work.
Mr. Carey, President of the Na-	Geo. O. Gaylord-Activity.	Miss Miller to be Married.	only question for consideration at this	President Winston who will first	At the matinee yesterday afternoon	at The Orton.
tional (D. Fresident of the Ma-	J. H. Rehder & CoSpecial.		time is, shall the restraining order be	speak, is pleasantly remembered here	each child was presented with an ap-	- Mr. George R. Thompson and	N. F. PARKER, tional (Beet) Sugar Manufacturing	D C DeRosset-Fountain pens.	Friends in the city have received in-		speak, is pleasantly remembered here	monsiste off The company leaves	- Mr. George h. Inompson and Company, of Colorado, threatens		Literiana from Ma and Mrs Gideon	This only when complainent in his	as having delivered the annual ad-	propriate girt. The company leaves	wife, of Old Brunswick, came up to	Furniture and Furniture Novelties that if (longer colorado, chicadons	W. D Cooper a unt D Lat 1	T Miller of Winston N C to	bill alleges a joint liability or commu-	dress at the Wilmington High School	to-day for Sumter, S. C.	the city yesterday.	I dinitaro and i dinitaro notoritov, that if Congress make concessions	TOMETO CO MANDA	I do to to be able to be able to the second se	I nity of interest that the auswer of one	lost TOON		1 (1996) - 2000 T. R. M. 1997 (1997) (1997) (1997)	111 Market street. Inter-State 421.
" Cuoan sugar, the Republican	Masonic-Meeting Concord Chapter.	the marriage of their usugater, miss	defendant will enure to the benefit of		Marrie D'T and A T Will	- Mr. S. H. Fishblate left last	Bell 'Phone 613 Inter-State 421. feb 9 tf Campaign managers need not expect	O. W. Vates & CoFountain pens.	Eva May, to Mr. T. Wirt Jackson, of	other defendants, (Bates Fed. Eq pro.		- Messrs. R. L. and A. L. Will-	night for a trip to the North to pur-any managers need not expect		Orford N. U. The ceremony will be	33() and authorities cited.) Here Lucro	runse beng is bee.	iams and Tench C. Coxe, of Fayette-	chase his line of Spring clothing.	Concord Chapter No. 1, R. A. M. any more of his "sugar." Remarks	BUSINESS LOCALS	1 Minudan Alexandra Rah	seems to be no community, but a great	Mr. miner an and altiman of	ville, were passengers on the delayed		Concord Chaptor Ho. 1 H. W. W.
like that have some effect.	BUSINESS ECCARD	I can the to Contonour	diversity of interest on the Dart of the	and the second s	staamen Waat which amired at 8:90	- Mr. C. W. Polvogt left last
		27th. at 4:00 o clock, in Centenary	defendants, diverse defences, hence the	New Hanover, was found dead in bed	Steamer Hurt which arrived at 0.50	night for the North. He will join	REGULAR MONTHLY COMMUNICATION
Gan m	Wanted-Agents.	Mathodist Episcopal courcit, Willston.	defenses set up by Mrs Schulken and	at his nome near the third ton house	o'clock last night.		W. A. MARTIN, Gov. Taft says "every declaration	Lost-Pocketbook.	Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will be at home	the Gardner-Lacy Company do not ef	on the shell road yesterday morning.		Mrs. C. W. Polvogt, who preceded	feb 16 1t Secretary.
Jupathy with the F linings con	Wanted-Hustlers.	Miss March 6th at Oxford, Miss Miller	fect the other defendants, except in so	Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, went down	The sale of The Johnson's stock will	him about two weeks ago.	Teb to to titutes a great obstacle to the suc-	Piano-Hard to duplicate.	the te te Wilmington	for as other defendants are connected	a to a back back and anoth man	continue at J. H. Behder & Co.'s	-Mr. R. Y. McPherson, of Ra-	The Annual Meeting
Can a great obstacle to the suc-	Piano-Hard to duprionto.	has many irienus in tritantes, ton,	A second se	and viewed the body, but as death was	this week.		The Annual Meeting our efforts " and that ffant	BUT Dale-Dicam manual J.	where she has often visited.	fundants the hill is taken pro confesso	IFOM DELUTEL CAUSES DO INQUES WAS		leigh, agency director of the New	The second se
The south and the the Till and the	Dienographer		and the injunction continued to the	necessary. The luneral services and		York Life Insurance Co., is in the	Of the Carolina Yacht Club will be Wounds their sensibilities." In that	Wil Gas Light Co -Gas heaters.	Warne lady should visit J. H.	hearing.	interment will take place to-day.	For LaGrippe and In-	city on an official wisit. Mr. W. N.	held Monday, February 17th, 1902, at
and their sensibilities." In that				and the second sec	fluenza use CHENEY'S		8 P. M. in New Hanover County Court Rander & Co.'s m innery Department this week. Their cut prices on Hats	title of completeent denies all allogs-	The second s		tation of the New York Life in this	room. H. R. SAVAGE, play mum. The U.S. Senators will	1 case Cannon Cloth to be fired out		tions of trespass, alleges she is not	Read J. H. R hder & Co.'s ad. It		tative of the New York Life in this	feb 9 2t su Purser.
take notice and dry nn	at Ska per yd. this week at J. H.	and Kibbous mould be of interest	and has not cut timbers, and sets up	will interest you.	For sale by H rdin's Palace, Pharmacy.	I territory.	100 0 As BU Fursur.
toulce and dry nn	Debder & Clo 's	them.	a second s				8