NEXT YEAR AT HIGH POINT.

Annual Election of Officers-Excursion Down the River-1he Orphanage Matter - The Proceedings in Detail.

It was during the early hours of this morning that the business of the eleventh annual meeting of the State Council, Jr. O U. A. M., was con cluded and adjournment was had to meet in 1903 at High Point, N. C. Many delegates will leave on to-day's trains for their respective nomes and it is believed that all of them will cherish pleasant recollections of Wilmington and the enterprising citizens who compose the local Council. The "Juniors" were found to be a busy set of folks and there was very little time for the entertainment, but what there was of it was of an exceedingly nospitable nature and the local committees deserve unstinted praise for the excellent manner in which they performed their every.

The session of the Council yesterday morning opened at 9 o'clock and continued until 1 P. M., State Councillor C. B. Webb, of Statesville, presiding.

Minutes of the previous day's meetng were read and approved.

The special committee, consisting of H. E. Shore (chairman), C. V. Voils and B. A. Baber, to whom the offi zers' annual statements were referred on the preceding day, brought in a report | him below for a minute. Captain and same was accepted. On motion of Junior Past State

Conneilor B. S. Nissen, of Winston-Salem, a special committee was ap pointed, consisting of Geo. E. Hood, of Goldsboro, Charles Josey, of Ashe | his manner of approach to a gentleville, G. W. Robbins, of Rocky man under the circumstances. Mount, and B. S. Nissen, of Winston, to present to Capt. Jno. W. Harper, of the steamer Wilmington, a token of the Council's appreciation of his graceful generosity in placing his splendid steamer at the disposal of the visitors for an excursion down the river and about the harbor. Fifteen dollars was unanimously appropriated out of the Council's funds for this purpose, and yesterday afternoon, while the "Juniors" and their friends were enjoying the hospitalities of the trip, the presentation of a handsome cut-glass water set to Captain Harper was made in a neat little speech by Major Geo. E Hood, to which the gallant steamboat master replied in words of warmest appreciation. The presentation took Captain Harper un-wares and was made in the cabin of tha Wilmington, in the presence of a large number of the visiting brethren. The remainder of the morning sesion and a large part of the afternoon ession was taken up with a discussion of the orphanage question. Rev. J. C. Troy, of Durham, was given the floor for 15 minutes to present the claims of Durham for the establishment of the orphanage and also to acquaint the "Juniors" with his ex cellent paper, Trojan's Notion. Mr. W. D. Gaster was granted a similar privilege to present the claims of Fayetteville for the orphange and in the midst of a general discussion which ensued, a recess for dinner was taken at 1 P. M. At the afternoon session the orphanage question was again taken up and there were a number of speeches by different representatives in regard to the subject. A motion at length prevailed to lay the matter on the table indefinitely.

It was explained that already the State Council is contributing about $900 per year to the national Jr. O. U. A. M. orphanage in Tiffio, Ohio, and until this association can be broken up, it was deemed advisable not to decide to establish a State institution for the present at least. North Carolina Juniors, however, thus far have derived no benefit from the Ohio orphanage.

The election of officers was next entered upon and completed last night as follows:

State Councilor-C. E. Bennett, Winston-Salem. State Vice Councilor-Geo. E. Hood.

State Junior Past Councilor-C. B. Webb, Statesville. State Council Secretary-S. Vance, Winston-Salem. State Council Assistant Secretary-3 H. Fu ghum, Wilson. Council Tressurer-J. T.

Winston-Salem. Night Session and Banquet.

The party returned from the river trip at 6 P. M. and last night at 8 o'clock a sumptuous banquet was served in the ledge room and annex in compliment to the visitors. The committee in charge was composed of Mesars. Walter E Yopp, G. C. Simmons, W. M. Sneeden, J. T. Burke and Jos F. Craig and their work was well done. Tables in the shape of a triangle, an emblem of the order, were laden with tempting edibles and the visitors enjoyed themselves to the "fullest" extent. The menu was as follows: Cold Beef Tongue, Turkey, Celery, Balad Fried Chicken, Ham, Bologna Sausaga Pickles,

Roast Beef,

Ice Cream, Assorted Pies Macaroons and Cakes, Oranges, Apples, Bananas, Counciler Wm. J. Bellamy, of Jeff

Davis Council No. 63, presided and here was much merriment and speechmaking at the table.

Rev. E. F. Sawyer, of Elizabeth City, in behalf of State Councilor C. B. Webb, presented to Guilford Council No. 3, of Greensbore, a handsome bible. Guilford Council was the banner organization of the State under Mr. Webb's administration and the token was especially appropriate and fitting in every respect. The gift was received in choice words by Rev. W. H. Roach, State Chaplain, who is a member of that Council.

Councilor Wm. J. Bellamy, in behalf of Mr. J. T. Burke, of Jeff Davis Council, this city, presented to Secretary Sam F. Vance a handsome alumioum ink stand and pen holder, neatly inlaid with silver, and in the form of a crab a souvenir of Wilmington. The clever secretary, who has four times been elected to the position which he so acceptably fills, responded in words befitting the sentiment which prompted the testimonial of his efficiency.

State Councilor Webb was called spon to explain a joke which the "Juniors" got on him atoard the boat resterday afternoon. Mr. Webb was delegated by the committee in charge of the gift to Captain Harper to go up in the pilot house and inform him that he was wanted in the cabin, where the presentation was to take place. Mr. Webb ascended the hurricane deck and going to the window he beckoned to Captain Harper and said to him that he would be glad to see Harper, knowing nothing of the committee's intention, very naturally and generously replied, "No, thank you, Mr. Webb, I never drink anything!" The "boys" carried Mr. Webb high on

When the banqueting was over, the tables were cleared away and the Council settled down to business again and carried things with a rush until early this morning.

The decision to meet at High Point next year was upon an invitation by telegraph to Secretary Vance from Mayor J. J. Cox, of that city. The delegation from High Point also worked faithfully that end.

Upon Death of President McKinley.

A resolution on the death of Will am McKinley offered by C. B. Webb, of Statesville Council No. 46, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, was adopted by the State Council as Whereas, in the recent untimely death of William McKinley, President of the United States of America, by the cruel and treacherous act of the assassin, our country has sustained an awful and irreparable loss. Whereas, the act was the deliberate and pre meditated design of anarchy.

Therefore, be it resolved, by the State Council of the Junior of United American Mechanics, that in the death of William McKluley, President of the United States, the people have lost a true and upright Christian gentleman; the United States, a most wise and just President; that American in stitutions such as the Junior Order United American Mechanics, suffer and deplore this great and awful calamity.

Be it further resolved that the Junior Order United American Mechanics deeply sympathize with the bereaved family of the late President; that a memorial be sumitted to Congress to secure legislation against anarchy, and hat the North Carolina Representatives in Congress be asked to urge Congress to adopt such measures as will effectually extripate this most horrible element.

The afternoon session adjourned at P. M., and almost every visiting Junior in the city became the guests of Capt. Harper for the excursion trip down the river as far as Brunswick river and North as far as Hilton bridge. The visitors were delighted with the diversion from business and express themselves as extremely grateful to Capt. Harper for his many courte-

GENERAL TOON DEAD.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Died in Raleigh Yesterday Afternoon.

HIS DEATH WAS SUDDEN

Recovering From Long Iliness fie Wa Attacked With Acute Indigestion. Council of State Met-Brilliant War Record.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 19.-Genera C. F. Toon, Superintendent of Public Instruction, died suddenly at 10 clock this morning of heart failure, brought on by a long and severe attack of pneumonia. General Toon had sufficiently recovered from his ilness to be able to walk about the house and had been out driving once. He got up to breakfast this morning but was soon thereafter taken with acute indigestion. Physicians were quickly summoned and gave temporary relief. General Toon remarked that he was much better, but believed he would lie down for awhile. He had scarcely gotten his head on the pillow when his face became purple and life went out instantly without the least evidence of pain.

The Council of State was called together at noon and resolutions were adopted as follows: Resolved, "That in the death of Gen. Phomas Fentress Toon, late Superintendent of Public Instruction, we, his associates in the executive department of the State Government, have lost a wise and faithful counsellor and friend, and the State one of her most careful and efficient officers. Brave in war, loyal in peace, his heroic spirit is at rest, and North Carolina mourns the loss of a noble son.

"That we tender the relatives of the deceased our deepest sympathy in their great sffl ction.

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and also spread upon the minutes of the Council of State." Gen. Toon's children were all notifled by wire of his death. All are expected here to-morrow. Until they come no arrangements as to the funeral will be made. He will probably, how ever, be buried in Raleigh.

The Council of State asked that the body be allowed to lie in state in the rotunda of the Capitol, but the family prefers that this be not done.

The news of General Toon's death came to many friends in Wilmington as a profound shock. He had frequently visited here and numbered many of Wilmington's citiz ins as his comrades in arms during the Civil War. Last Summer he was at Wrightsville Beach in attendance upon the Teachers' Assembly and has several times visited Wilmington in an official Thomas Fentress Toon was born in Columbus county June 10th, 1840. He was a son of Authony F. Toon, Esq., of Irish and Welsh extraction and Mary McMillan Toon, daughter of Ronald McMillan, of Scotland. May 20th, 1861, General Toon enlisted as a private in Columbus Guards No. 2, a company raised by his half-brother, the late Capt. Wm. H. Toon, who was afterwards major and Lieutenant-Colonel of the Twentieth North Carolina. After enlistment he returned to Wake Forest Colege and graduated June 1861. On June 17th, 1861, he was elected First Lieutenant and on July 22nd, 1861, he was elected captain of his company, vice Capt. W. H. Toon elected Major. Oa Feb. 26th, 1863, he was elected colonel of the Twentieth Regiment and on May 31st of the following year he was appointed Brigadier General. On June 4th, 1864, he was assigned to command of Johnston's North Carolina Brigade. He followed the for tunes of Lee, Jackson, Gordon, Early and Ewell in all important engage ments, unless deterred by some of the five wounds received in battle. Gen. Toon had lived in Robeson county and had been engaged in teaching from 1891 uutil elected State Superintendent of Public Instruction

The Twentieth Regiment with, which Gen. Toon served, was composed of companies from Brunswick, Columbus, Cabarrus, Duplin and Sampson counties. His regiment either by companies or as a whole, was first station ed as Smithville, Fort Caswell and Wilmington, until 1862, when it was detailed for service in Virginia, arriving at Richmond a few days before the battle of Seven Pines, 1,012 strong. The regiment entered the fight and the first man wounded was Alonzo Williams, of Columbus, the ball passing through his body and striking General Toop, then captain of Company K. The regiment participated in various battles later and returned with the division to camp on the York River railroad below Richmond. It was left then by General Lee to watch the remaining forces of McClellan. The iment next joined the army on the march against Pope as soon as those troops left Westover. In July or August. Gen. Toon's command left for the army of Northern Virginia and was engaged in watching Porter and holding his force in check while the battle of Manassas was being fought. Lieutenant Colonel W. H. Toon resigned his command February, 1863, and upon his resignation Maj. N. Slough, Senior Captain Jno. Brooks and Capt. T. F. Toon were continued, of course, and will be ordered before a Board of Examinataion. Major Slough and Captain Brooks waived their rights to promotion and requested the board to recommend Captain Toon, which it did. General Toon was five times wound-remained true to the Confederacy until his death.

General Toon was twice married and by the first wife five children survive. His second wife also survives him. He also leaves two half-brothers, Messrs, Archibald and A. F. Toon, both residing in Columbus county. Wilmington's esteemed townsmen, Mesars. V. P. Toon and Luther Toon are pephews of his. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of friends throughout the State. The splendid reception to have been tendered Governor Aycock and his staff at Southern Pines last night by a wealthy Northern man, was called off on account of the death of General Toon. Col. Walker Taylor and Maj W F. Robertson, members of the Governor's staff, received telegrams to that effect yesterday.

PRETTY WEDDING IN PENDER.

Miss Hipes Became the Bride of Mr Mc-

Fadyen Yesterday Afternoon. At the residence of Mr. E A. Hawes near Atkinson, N C, yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, a pretty home wedding was celebrated when Miss Carrie Hawes Hines, of Pender, was led to the altar by Mr. John B. McFadyen, of Bladen, and they were made man and wife by the Rev. A. M. McFadyen, of Clarkton.

The parlors of the home were beautifully decorated for the event and the party entered in the following order: The bride attired in a handsome mode gown, leaning on the arm of her cousin, Mr. E. A. Hawes, and preceded by Miss Maggie Hawes and Mr. Bascom McFadyen and Miss Mary Moore and Mrs. John Hawes. The groom entered on the arm of his brother and best man, Mr. Graham McFadyen.

The wedding marches were skillfully played by Miss Mattie Hawes and after the service an elegant wedding luncheon was served.

The bride and groom arrived in Wilmington last evening on their way to Charleston to spend their honeymoon at the Exposition. The bride is a sister of Mrs. P. Heinsberger, of this city.

Three Pires Yesterday. The department responded to three alarms yesterday. The first, at 10:15 o'clock from box 52, was caused by the burning out of a chimney at 610 South Eighth street. The second, at 12:46. called out the department by an alarm from box 35. A spark from a chimney in the residence at No. 906 Princess street, occupied by F. B. Andrews, caused a loss of $5. The alarm from box 43 at 9:17 P. M. was on account of fire on steps leading to the basement of an unoccupied house belonging to Miss Mary C. Darby, 223 South Second street. There was no damage. Chief Schnibben and the Fire Committee desire to say to the people that in many instances an alarm could be avoided on account of the burning out of a chimney, etc., if a little more time was taken and the telephone used to call out the chemical engine. It is a great expense to the city when the entire department is called out for a slight blaze.

Were in a Collision, Rev. E. F. Sawyer and Mr. Wesley Williams, of Elizabeth City, did not join the ranks of "Juniors" in the city to attend the State Council meeting until yesterday. They left home aboard the steamer Ocracoke via Newbern and on the Neuse river night before last their boat was in collision with the two-masted schooner Maria, which was sunk with a cargo of general merchandise the crew and passengers hardly escaping with their lives Mr. Williams and Rev. Mr. Sawyer represent Worth Bagley Council No. 60. Mr. Williams is also Grand Treasurer of the Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows.

Death of An Infant.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Conway deeply sympathize with them in the loss of their little 14-days-old infant, Edward S. Jr., whose death occurred yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the family residence at the rear of the Wilmington Light Infantry Armory, on Princess street. The funeral will be held from the residence this morning at 10:30 o'clock by the Rev. Frederick H. T. Horsfield, rector of St. James' parish, and the interment will be in the family burying grounds on Wrightsville Sound. Mr. Conway is the efficeint and faithful janitor at the W. L. I armory.
