The Morning Star. WIND AND RAIN STORM PREVAILED YESTERDAY.

> The Elements Looked Angry and Some Little Damage Was Done-At the Beaches and at Sea.

The storm predicted by the Weather Bureau Sunday came on full time during the early hours of yesterday morning and the wind and rain was fierce. The maximum velocity attained was 25 miles, but gusts came along that must have reached nearly twice that rate. Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock there was another hard blow, accompanied by rain, but it was the last reminder of the storm that had passed up the coast.

At the beaches the velocity of the wind was terriffe, but it caused no alarm and did not the slightest damage. Capt. Farr, of the schooner G. M. Brainerd, from New York, came over

In the city a few branches were torn from trees, but the only real damage reported was from the plant of the Hilton Lumber Co., near the park. Two tall sheet iron smokestacks were blown down and a part of the roof over the planing mill was torn off. The damage, however, will be quickly repaired, but it will be at a cost of perhaps several hundred dollars.

Encampment Committee from Fifth Regi-

Maj. W. W. Barker, Capt. P. S. Parrott and Capt. F. M. Hadley, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga., line officers of the Fifth Georgia Regiment, arrived in the city Sunday and went down to Wrightsville beach to inspect proposed sites for the annual encampment of their regiment in July. They returned home yesterday afternoon very much pleased with the outlook here and have definitely decided to recommend "the hammocks" as a suitable place for the outing. Their action was telegraphed last night to a meeting of the officers of the regiment, and it is expected that the committee's recommendation will be favorably acted

At a meeting last Thursday in Atlanta the vote was 12 to 4 in favor of "the hammocks" but it was decided to send another committee there to look more fully into the matter. A number of the staff officers of the regiment previously visited the place about two weeks ago. The encampment will last about 10 days from July 17th-27th and will bring about 600 men to the beach with the Fifth Regiment Band of Atlanta, one of the finest in the South. An artillery company will also probably come. The committee which visited Wilmington yesterday came two to three in favor of St Simon's Island but after seeing "the hammocks" and the delightful beach, they went back unanimous for Wrightsville. In order to get the place in readiness for the coming of the Georgia troops about $500 in cash will be required and it is expected that following a definite announcement that the regiment is coming, this amount will be forthcoming at once. The encampment would, being thousands of dollars to the city while only hundreds are required to

CREATED A SENSATION

IN THE POLICE COURT.

Negro Incensed by Sentence to Roads Rose Up and Struck His Presecutor-Heavy Monday Docket.

There was a bad negro in the police court yesterday. His name is Jesse Beatty and when he was sentenced to the roads for 30 days for an assault upon Rufus Davis, colored, Saturday night, he arose from the prisoner's box and dealt his prosecutor two furious blows under the jaw before the Mayor and court officers could recover themselves from the unexpected manifestation of the negro's audacity. The Mayor added a $50 fine or 30 days more on the roads for contempt of court and the officers hustled the prisoner down stairs and into a cell. Beatty was arrested by Policeman M. Jones near Davis' stables, where he was employed. He was walking with some negro women, when he says Davis came and peered into their eyes, pudence.

Silas McGee, colored, arrested Saturday night by Policeman Frank George for disorderly conduct, and Jno. Atkinson, colored, arrested Sunday morning at foot of Chesnut street by Policeman Holt, were each found with a deadly weapon upon their persons and were bound over to the higher court. In default of bond they went to jail.

Two colored women, charged with keeping a disorderly house in Wallace's alley, were each fined $20 and costs or required to leave the city at their option. They chose the latter course. A negro man arrested in the house was fined $10 or given 30 days on the roads. He took the roads. Jim Anderson, George Thomas and Monroe Davis, all colored, were mixed up in a watch stealing affair, but the defendants were discharged for lack of evidence.

The death of Mrs. Cutlar had been expected for several days, but the news of her passing away will cause a very sad blow to hundreds who have anxiously inquired of her condition from hour to hour. She was a lady of sweet, gentle disposition and was loved and admired in a wide circle of friends attracted to her by her charming personality and noble Christian character. Her husband, a few friends and a devoted mother, Mrs. Carter, were at her bedside when she breathed her last. Mr. Louis Cutlar, brother of Mr. DuBrutz Cutlar, was also with the family in their hour of sorrow, having arrived a few hours before from Marion, N. C. Besides the relatives mentioned Mrs. Cutlar leaves a sweet little daughter, aged only one week, who is yet too young to realize the sad loss it has sustained. Mrs. Cutlar was born July 26th.

1878, and was a daughter of the late Lee Masten and a grand-daughter of the late Col. Joe Masten, so well known throughout Western North Carolina. She was educated at St. Mary's College, Raleigh, and was married Nov. 18th, 1896.

Funeral services will be conducted at 6 o'clock this evening and the remains will be taken on the northbound A. C. L. train to Mrs. Cutlar's former home at Winston-Salem, N. C., for interment.

With the exception of one inning in which Sweeney allowed Ashenback's Sluggers to get all the hits of the game, yesterday's exhibition of the National sport was of the "jam-up" variety. Both pitchers were in magnificent form and regardless of who won the game, the contest was an interesting one. The tall and arrogant John Rishop, the star sting driver of the Hornets, was pitted against Sweeney and those were terrible odds.

The first two men who faced Swee ney-Weaver and Graham fanned the ozone and big "Red" Armstrong could get the leather no further than second, whence it went in short order to "Billie" Dommel before the big fellow could connect with the initial cushion. Wilmington had a beautiful chance to score in its half of the first, but failed. Holland flew out to right and McGinnis drew a pass. Dommel flew to left and Lawson got life on error of second. Deiters drew a the hope by flying to short. Sweeney pitched but three balls to retire the Bruiz Cutlar, Esq., which occurred at Charlotteans in the second and Wilmington went down in its order with the exception of an error by Cooper

Cooper, Lehman and Bishop were down in their order in the third and it was the same with Wilmington. In the fourth Sweeney took a "boomberschute" ride and the visitors piled up four runs on the only five hits of the game. Weaver walked and was sacrificed by Graham. Armstrong singled to left, scoring Weaver and O'Stein hit safely to right. Brouthers drove a three-bagger between centre and left field and Armstrong and O'Stein crossed the plate. Ashenback singled to left bringing Brouthers in. Cooper fanned; Lehman singled to left but Tall Bishop ended the agony by popping a beautiful one to Lawson. A quick double of Deiters' hit to third killed the effect of Lawson's previous single to left and Kairns fanned for Wilmington in its half of the fatal spasm. There was no more run-getting until the eighth when Weaver fanned for Charlotte and Graham ran out three strikes to first, when Fisher dropped the ball. A passed ball by Fisher allowed Graham secon and after Armstrong had walked he scored on O'Steen's long fly out to right. Brouthers fanned. Umpire Sherman was in decidedly poor favor with the spectators. He was not popular when he left here for Newbern last week, and he certainly added nothing to his popularity yesterday. His apparent misjudgments of strikes and balls easily rattled the pitchers.

Kairns, the new player, was in right and accepted several brilliant chances without an error. Hines received a sprain Saturday and was not in the game, but once in a while he appeared on the coach line where he is a past The score follows:

Deputy Collector C. M. Babbitt, of Newbern, and Deputy Marshal C. O.
