Sixth Annual Meeting of the E. C. F. & T. G. Association Held Here Yesterday.

THE TRUCK GROWERS

THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Mr. H. T. Bauman, the Shipping Agent, Presented a Well Prepared Report Giving Interesting and Valuable Statistics of Shipments.

The sixth annual meeting of the East Carolina Fruit and Truck Growers' Association was held in the Court House, this city, yesterday, President W. L. Hill, of Warsaw, presiding, and a goodly number of the stockholders in attendance.

Morning and afternoon sessions were held, but the business transacted was principally of a routine and private character. The Executive Committee and Board of Directors had held previous sessions and had the business in good shape to come before the general meeting. The morning session was entirely taken up with a hearing of the reports of officers and those of the directors and Executive Committee. The year's business was settled in a most satisfactory and harmonious manner.

At the afternoon session, which began at 2 o'clock with an increased attendance, the Association elected the following Board of Directors to serve for the ensuing year: J. A. Westbrook. Mount Olive; J. B. Oliver, Mount Olive; I. L. Faison, Faison; W. L. Hill, Warsaw; D. W. Fussell, Rose Hill; B. F. Fussell, Teachey's; J. S. Westbrook, Wallace J. H. Moore, Burgaw; Dr. E. Porter, Rocky Point: W. E. Springer, Wilmington: H. T. Bauman, Wilmington: W. E. Thigpen, Chadbourn; M. F. Leonhart, Chadbourn; H.L. Struthers, Grists; S. H. Strange, Fayetteville; Dr. Geo. F. Lucas, Currie.

The directors subsequently met and elected other officers as follows: President-W. L. Hill, Warsaw.

Vice President-W. E. Springer, Secretary-H. T. Bauman, Wil-Treasurer-S. H. Strange, Fayette-

Executive Committee-W. L. Hill Warsaw, (chairman); J. A. West-brook, Mount Olive; J. S. Westbrook, Wallace; W. E. Thigpen, Chadbourn, and W. E. Springer, Wilmington. The meeting adjourned at 4 P. M and most of those in attendance left on the evening train for home. Ex-Judge W. R. Allen, counsel for the Association, was among those in at-

One of the most interesting reports read at the meeting was that of Mr. H. T. Bauman, the clever and energetic shipping agent of the Association, who has done wonders towards making trucking profitable in Eastern Carolina. The year's work was carefully reviewed and presented in a most intelligible and satisfactory manner. His estimate of the acreage in November, 1901, was shown to have been practically correct, and the maximum figures of 400,000 crates would have been easily reached but for the drought and other causes. Extracts from the interesting report are "The shipping commenced by Express April 16th, the first full crate moving from Rocky Point, the next from Montague on the 20th, and the next from Chadbourn on the 23d First shipments by refrigerator cars from the W. and W. R. R. and Chadbourn section were simultaneous this season, both moving on April 26th.

The movement from all sections this season was quick and snappy, consuming practically 27 days. The season opened a week earlier and closed 10 days sooner than last year.

"The weather and other condition were favorable this season for picking were ravorable this season for picking and shipping, and every berry that was made was easily disposed of. The weevil, however, got in its work and played havoc with many fields. This evil coupled with the fact that last Fall's setting did not get fully rooted before the cold weather set in, and when the Spring country. and when the Spring opened the and when the Spring opened the plants had the double duty to perform of making roots and berries and only partially succeeded when the intense cold weather of March, notably 17th and 18th, caused another back set, when blooms and berries were killed in great numbers. All these conditions operated to cut off the production.

"The record shows a shortage of between 12,000 and 15,000 crates from last year's shipments and this with the increase in the Chadbourn section of some 30,000 crates represents about the shortage on the W. & W. R. R. this last year was 325,000; this year, about 310,000. Refrigerator shipments last season 268,298 crates; this season, 268,741. Number of refrigerator cars used last year, 1,122; this year 1,174. Average last year to the car, 240 crates; this wear 220. Last season we want this year 229. Last season we went into 48 markets; this year 53 markets. The average sales on platforms amounted to about 40 per cent.

"The shipments on the Cannon Ball train, where the delivery was on time, were good and the results satisfactory. With few exceptions the shipments on the pick-up train, were very unsatisfactory. The delivery by Express was as bad as usual. * * The shipments by Express fell off some 10,000 crates this season.

"The extra train put on this season to move the shipments from the Chadbourn section was a success and came into So. Bocky Mt. promptly each day, arriving 10.30 A. M. The advantage Mechanics' Home Association—New series.

"The service of the Fruit Growers' Express was a great improvement over last season, the supply of cars ample, and the ice situation safe. * * * "We all recognize the general ser-vice of the A. C. L. refrigerator and express service as far as Richmond to have been good. Beyond that point t was the worst we have ever had in the way of despatch and prompt de-liveries. I think these companies should have full credit for the service

"The establishment this year at Wilmington of a new and commodious ice plant by the Independent Ice Com-pany was a new feature and added to the security of a full ice supply. The building of the new ice house at Mt. Olive by the Armour Co. greatly benefitted the shippers at that point in the proper loading and care of their ber-

"The success of our organization and the magnitude of our business has so impressed the S. A. L. R. R. Co., that a representative of that road approached me this Spring with the suggestion that it wanted a like organization, with some other features added, on their line, which would give their truckers encouragement in adding to their acreage and variety of crops; that the systematic and intelligent manner in which our Association handled this business was the key note to the sucbusiness was the key note to the suc-cess which we had attained and they would like me to take this in hand for them. As I informed this gentleman, my whole time, interest and pride was in perfecting as much as possible the organization of the E. C. T. & F. G. A. and looking to the success of all the growers in the territory where we operated, I could not in justice to them and myself effect this organization and therefore would have to decline."

Mr. Bauman's excellent report closes with thanks to the officers and Board of Directors of the Association for their many courtesies during the year and a suggestion that the annual meetings be held a little later, in order give time for the compilation of more extended and valuable statistics.

The First Cotton Blooms.

The first cotton blooms seen in Wilmington this season came yesterday to Mr. S. P. McNair, the well known wholesale grocer, from Mr. R. R. Royal, of Kelly's, Bladen county, N. C. They were plucked June 15th from a five acre tract belonging to Mr. Royal in French's Creek township. Mr. Mc-Nair placed the blooms on the Produce Exchange yesterday with this en-

"Mr. Royal is evidently an upto-date farmer; plants his cotton crop early when land has sufficient moisture to bring him good stand and does not depend on the lazy man's theory that cotton planted first of May saves one working and picking during harvest."

Burled in Winston-Salem: N. G. Winston Sentinel, 17th: "The renains of Mrs. DuBrutz Cutlar will be brought here for interment in the Salem Cemetery. They will leave Wilmington this evening and will arrive to-morrow morning. They will be accompanied by the mother, who has been with her daughter for more than a week, Miss Florence Blater, aunt of deceased, and husband, Mr. DuBrutz Cutlar. The funeral services will be conducted from St. Paul's Episcopal church at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning by Rev. Harris Mallinckrodt At the request of Mrs. Cutlar, before her death, Mrs. Carter will bring the little daughter home with her.

In the Police Court. In the municipal court yesterday Charley Pittman, iwhite, was fined $20 or given 20 days on the roads for an alleged unprovoked assault upon Health Inspector S. L. Mann at Sixth and Castle streets. Peter Pearson, white, was required to pay the cost in a case against him for committing a nuisance on Fourth and Brunswick streets, and A. H. Murphy and J. R. Roberson were each required to pay the costs for an affray Tuesday night on Second between Market and Dock streets.

Here For Cotton Cargo. The British steamer Whitehall, 1.313 tons, Capt. Heppell, arrived Tuesday evening, light, from Bermuda, and will receive a cargo of cotton from Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son. It is of rare occurrence that a big steamer comes so late in the season for a cargo, but the advanced prices the past month have brought a steady stream to the port, so that Messrs. Sprunt & Son found it necesnary to get another steamer to take it

Wilmington 7 31 grata in yesterday's game, and that fact was brought rather forcibly to the attention of Mr. E. M. Ashenback, manager of the Charlotte team, which lost a beautiful struggle to Wilmington by the score of four runs

The intended funny incident by the said Mr. Ashenback resulted in his being put out of the game by the umpire in the seventh inning and the loss of many friends in Wilmington, were he had heretofore reached some measure of popularity. It happened in this way: Wilmington had things coming her way in a jiffy and the astute Ash was not in the most amiable frame of mind. The seventh inning opened with Cooper going out, third to first. Lehman. next up for Charlotte, made a drive between centre which was fielded so swiftly by McGinnis that the batter was retired at second on a beautiful throw. The play was so

Charlotte players were "guying" Mc-Ginnis about letting the ball in play go by and throwing in a dead ball to out Lehman. Weaver, for Charlotte, good-naturedly went in the diamond to look at the ball, and while Person, next up, was at the bat, John Bishop and several other Charlotte men went around the diamond toward centerfield to look for the ball, which they told McGinnis he had let go by and thrown in the dead ball. Although warned by some of his men on the bench, Ashenback got a ball and went down to the fence, laid it down and picked it up, as proving his case against McGinnis. In an instant the spectators in the grand stand and bleachers who had seen McGinnis field the ball clearly, went in almost unbroken ranks into the field. At this stage of the proceeding. Ashenback threw up his hands in "holy horror" and said he did it only in a joke. He was promptly put out of the game by Umpire Sherman, and until their dy ing day a majority of those who saw the game will never believe that jesting was Mr. Ashenback's original purpose He was in bad odor with the spectators anyway, for he had just refused a runner to crippled Mathison, who was forced to play because of the unex. Charlotte last year." pected jump of Deiters yesterday morning to Marion, S. C. He also had some discouraging gab on the field about Wilmington, but he probably didn't would take from Wilmington a substantial amount above the guarantee from the series of three games here. The game was a beautiful one and was won on its merits. Of the general team work and individual playing, reference is made elsewhere. With three men on bases a beautiful double from Lawson to Mathison retired the visitors in the third inning without a run, but in the next spasm the lonesom came on Graham's single, Fisher's er ror and a passed ball. The locals came back at 'em in the same inning and scored two on a bunch of hits by Dommel, McGinnis and Mathison. In the next a third tally came for the locals on a pass to Holland, and a two-base hit by Dommel to centre. In the eighth the fourth run came for the winners on a wild throw of Lehman to first, giving Lawson life and McGinnis' beautiful single to centre. The
