Kentucky, too, is coming to the front with oil gushers. One was "turned in" in Knox county a few days ago which spouted oil to a height of 100 feet. This knocks most of the Beaumont spouters out.

It seems to us that with the number of Americans there are in the Philippines, some one ought to start a coach ship. Part of the cargo of the transport Kilpatrick, which sailed from San Francisco a few days ago, was four thousand coffins.

R. E. Cahill, who has just resigned the superintendency of the Missouri Pacific railroad to accept a better job, began the railroad business in 1874 as a water toter on a construction train. He has no Kentucky prejudice against water.

Aguinaldo is at large now, but he doesn't go to large much. He is afraid that some of the friends of Gen. Luna, whom he had assassinated, will be lunatic enough to reciprocate and jab a knife into him. He is thinking about emigrating.

A Washington dispatch says J. S. Clark, recently appointed surveyor of the port of New York will have the job of securing Southern delegates for Roosevelt in the National convention. Getting them is one thing; holding them another.

The Federal Sugar Refining Company, recently organized with a capital of $50,000,000, claims to have a new process by which sugar can be refined for $5 a ton less than by any other method. If this be so it ought to be able to give the old Trust a jolt.

Representative Klutz, of Salisbury, expresses the belief that Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, is the most available man for the Democrats to nominate for the Presidency. He has made no enemies in the party and in 1897 carried New York by 50,000, the year after McKinley had carried it by 200,000.

Mr. Blair, of River Edge, N. J., had his 90th birthday party a few days ago. When he was born in 1812 his father was rowed from New York to Staten Island by a young man to whom he paid a quarter for the job. Later in life that young man was known as Commodore Vanderbilt.

EDGAR BROCK BURKHIMER HAS ENTERED INTO REST.

A Useful and Admired Life Brought to an End Yesterday About Noon—The Funeral This Morning.

Sadness was brought to the hearts of many in Wilmington yesterday when it was known that Mr. Edgar Brock Burkheimer had passed from this life into the great beyond. It was hard to contemplate, and yet much harder to realize, that "Ed" Burkheimer, whose congenial presence we had so often enjoyed and whose heart and hand always went forth for sweet charity's sake, had gone forever. And yet while our hearts went out in deepest sympathy to the loved ones in their great hour of darkness there came consolation in the belief that such a useful and devoted life as that of "Ed" Burkheimer's must surely reap a great reward from Him who deemed it best to call back the soul he gave.

The deceased had only been sick about ten days, but even that short time was sufficient for the dreaded typhoid fever to claim him. The end came yesterday just fifteen minutes past noon at the family residence, No. 114 North Fourth street.

Edgar Brock Burkheimer was born in Wilmington July 15th, 1863, and spent all of the almost thirty-nine years of his life at home. He married Miss Emma Piver, to whom he made a loving husband. She, with a daughter eleven months old, is left to mourn his loss. He also leaves a mother, Mrs. S. V. Burkheimer, three sisters, Mrs. A. Alligood and Misses Maggie and Hattie Burkheimer, and two brothers, Messrs. W. L. and H. D. Burkheimer. All are of this city except the last-named.

The deceased was a young man of many endearing qualities, the most prominent of which was his marked devotion to his dear old mother. His life to his family and to the public, was alike exemplary, and his great host of friends loved him for his charming, unpretentious ways, and admired him for the manly, sterling character that was always his.

In lodge work he was well and popular known and he was a member of Eryota Tribe No. 5, Improved Order of Red Men, Wilmington Lodge No. 139, Independent Order Odd Fellows, Jeff Davis Council No. 63, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, Live Oak Camp No. 6, Woodmen of the World, and the Electrical Wire Workers. Of the last mentioned he was one of the first presidents of the Wilmington branch, and had just been selected as Sachem of Eryota Tribe of Red Men.

The deceased will also be remembered as one of the most active members of the old Atlantic Fire Engine Company, of which he was for a long time first assistant foreman. This, of course, was before the day of our paid department. About the same time he was one of the most valued members of the Wilmington Light Infantry.

The deceased was chief inspector for the Bell Telephone Company in this city and as such was highly thought of by his employers.

The funeral, which will be attended by all the lodges to which the deceased belonged, will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from St. Andrew's Presbyterian church.

A particularly sad feature of this death is that it occurred within a year after the death of Mr. John Burkheimer, a brother.

LOCAL DOTS.

It is not likely that the street cars will be running to the cemetery before Fall.

The police yesterday afternoon once again arrested Henderson Hays for being drunk.

Complimentary sailing parties to fair visitors are nightly occurrences at Wrightsville Beach.

Christian Science service will be held at Masonic Temple, Room 10, this evening at 8:15 o'clock.

The Lumberton baseball team did not materialize with the excursion and consequently there was no game yesterday afternoon.

The S. P. Cowan Livery Company yesterday placed a handsome new, rubber-tired bus in the place of the one used by the Orion hotel. It is a thing of beauty.

In response to a telegram, Mrs. W. A. Johnson left yesterday morning for Clinton to join her husband, Col. Johnson, at the bedside of his mother, Mrs. Mary Johnson.

Applicants for county teachers' positions will do well to read carefully the advertisement of Prof. Washington Catlett, county superintendent of public instruction, in to-day's issue.

THE SUPERIOR COURT

To-day Will See the End of a Very Brief Term for Trial of Criminal Cases.

A DULL SESSION YESTERDAY.

One White Man and Several Negroes Were Tried for Various Offences—The Grand Jury Will Make Their Report To-day.

The present term of the Superior Court has about run its course. It will probably terminate by noon to-day; at any rate it will end this afternoon. The docket, which was a small one, is finished except for about three cases. The trial of these cases and the report of the grand jury is all the business that remains.

Yesterday's session was about as devoid of interest as the one Monday. No really important case was tried. The morning session was consumed in trying the three negroes, Ed. Holland, Robt. Hicks and Sam Long, Jr., charged with shoplifting from the Gaylord Racket Store. Each of the defendants was convicted and sentenced to 12 months on the roads.

In the afternoon the only case to create interest was one of disorderly conduct against Mary L. Wolf, appealed from Justice Bornemann's court. This was a case instituted by a man named Hugh Owens, who now stands charged in Justice Bornemann's court with poisoning cats owned by Mary Wolf.

The court reversed the decision of the lower tribunal, thereby exonerating the defendant.

Another case of some interest was one of cruelty to animals against a young white man named William Pigford.

It was shown that the accused a short time ago hired a horse from Messrs. Orrell & Carroll's stables and together with several drunken comrades badly abused the animal by driving him about to exhaustion. He kept the horse a number of hours longer than bargained for and when one of the stablemen went after the animal he attempted to assault him with a knife.

Pigford was convicted, but the jury asked for mercy. He was then tried for an assault and again found guilty. However, in deference to the request of the jury and as it was shown that Pigford was subject to temporary strokes of paralysis, Judge Bryan only imposed a sentence of thirty days in jail in one case and suspended judgment in the other.

The negro house servant, Lou Johnson, sent up from the police court for stealing jewelry, was convicted and given four months in jail.

Geo. Sheridan, colored, was found not guilty of assault with a deadly weapon and discharged.

Ernest Brown, colored, plead guilty of attempting to assault his sweetheart with a knife and was fined $5 and costs.

Court, shortly before 6 o'clock, took a recess until 9:30 o'clock this morning.

LUMBERTON EXCURSION.

Reached the City Yesterday Morning and Spent the Day.

A big excursion from Lumberton and intermediate points on the Seaboard Air Line was with us all day yesterday and it was as nice a lot of jolly and clever visitors as ever put foot in Wilmington.

The excursion train, consisting of six passenger coaches and a refreshment car, arrived in the morning and left on the return trip last night shortly before 8 o'clock. The excursionists, numbering 170, spent some time at the day in Old Ocean and enjoying the delightful sea breezes. Only a short while, just before "train time," was spent in the city.

The excursion was run under the management and personal direction of Dr. R. T. Allen and Mr. Frank Gough and was a model one for good behavior and pleasure. These two clever gentlemen seem to know exactly how to conduct a successful excursion.

A few of the visitors noted among the many were Mr. E. L. Prevett and family, Mr. L. E. Whaley and wife, and Messrs. Gerald Pittman and John D. McMillan, Jr., Lumberton; Mr. N. A. Currie and family, Mr. D. L. Blue and family, Miss Ella McNair, Miss Annie Wooten, Miss Cromartie and Dr. Clark, Clarkton, and Mr. S. A. L. Johnson and family, Abbottsburg.

A CHARMING AFFAIR.

First of the Social Evenings Largely Attended and Decidedly Successful.

The latest attraction for members of the Young Men's Christian Association is the "Social Evenings" to be given twice a week, and which was inaugurated successfully last night. The entertainment last night consisted of playing games, prominent among which was ping pong. About 10 o'clock the "wind up" took place in shape of serving delicious refreshments, headed by ping pong lemonade, with Panama finish.

These social evenings will be Tuesdays and Fridays of each week and the committee who will be in charge will consist of Messrs. J. L. Davis, Albert and Wilbur Dasher, J. J. Loughlin, J. H. McGeachy and W. A. Little.

MEETING OF WHOLESALE GROCERS' ASSOCIATION.

Always Abreast of the Times Our Grocery-men Join the Southern Association. A Splendid Co-operative Plan.

It now looks as though the wholesale grocery-men of the South will soon be operating together on a scale that will bring protection and a furtherance of their interest almost to perfection. Of course, the grocery-men of Wilmington are right in the movement.

Yesterday morning the Wholesale Grocers' Association of this city held an important meeting along this line. The meeting was called by Mr. J. Allen Taylor, the president, who presided, with Mr. James S. Hooper secretary.

The object of the meeting was to consider the advisability of the members of the local association joining the Southern Association; and to hear the views and improved plan upon which it is proposed to conduct the grocery society.

Mr. James W. Lee, of Birmingham, Ala., addressed the meeting as a representative of the Southern Association and fully and satisfactorily explained the reorganized plan upon which that association proposes to work. He showed that it is the same plan that has so successfully marked the associations of the Western and New England States. The membership, he stated, has already increased from 169 to 450 and that it was safe to count on the roster numbering 600 out of a possible 750, and that when this membership mark was reached the Southern Association would be a power and would give splendid results for co-operating and building up of the trade.

At the meeting were represented the J. C. Stevenson Co., Worth Company, Taylor Company, D. L. Gore Company, Adria Company, S. P. McNair and Peter McQueen, and each of these firms became members of the association.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Lee canvassed our other wholesale houses and obtained their membership. He left to-night for Raleigh.

Mr. Lee is a business man of recognized ability and is president of the Birmingham Wholesale Grocers' Association.

A CORRECTION CORRECTED.

MR. EDITOR—In your paper of yesterday was printed an article signed by H. McD. Robinson and N. A. Sinclair, Esq., which purported to be a correction of an error in the original reports sent out to the press as to the nominations made by our county (Cumberland) convention last Saturday for Associate Justices. Having stated that a mistake was made in reporting the county unanimous for Connor and Walker, they proceeded to give the actual facts (from their view point) and concluded with the statement that "each of the gentlemen named (Connor, Walker and Brown) is entitled to his proportionate part of Cumberland county, to-wit: Connor, 37.4, Walker, 14.4, and Brown, 13.44." The best evidence of the action of the convention on this question is the minutes of the convention. The following extract is taken from the minutes, which are duly signed by the chairman and two secretaries, to-wit:

"The following nominations were thereupon for Associate Justices, to-wit: Hon. H. G. Connor, by Z. B. Newton, Esq.; Hon. George H. Brown, by H. McD. Robinson, Esq.; Hon. Platt D. Walker, by ——. On a vote being taken by show of hands, the following vote was received: Connor, 85; Walker, 70; Brown, 61. Whereupon, the Chair ruled that Messrs. Connor and Walker had received the highest vote and were endorsed by the convention."

It was well understood by the convention that the contest was between Connor and Brown for the eastern judgeship, the one receiving the highest vote to be declared, under the unit rule, the unanimous choice of the convention for the Eastern judgeship, while under the same rule, Hon. Platt D. Walker was declared the unanimous choice as the Western candidate. Now here is a simple proposition for my friends Robinson and Sinclair to solve, both of whom are expert mathematicians: How can a county convention, working under the unit rule, by a simple proposition for endorsement to a Congressional candidate, and then, by the same unit rule, when there are but two candidates for Associate Justice, be named, divide the vote of the county between three candidates for the same office?

Q. E. NIMROCK, Fayetteville, N. C., July 8, 1902.

A CONFEDERATE VETERAN.

Another Gallant Old Warrior Who Wore the Gray Has Passed from This Date Death.

Yesterday afternoon at 1:20 o'clock Mr. Geo. W. Bishop, in the 60th year of his age, died at the residence of his son, Mr. Geo. A. Bishop, on Wrightsville road. He was sick for over a year and the end was not unexpected.

The deceased was a gallant Confederate soldier, having enlisted with the Cape Fear Rifles and served with distinction with the Third North Carolina Regiment. He was born in Wilmington Jan. 23, 1843. He is survived by a loving wife and three devoted children, Mrs. W. D. Rice, of Rocky Mount, and Miss Mary N. Bishop and Mr. Geo. H. Bishop, of this city.

The funeral will take place at 5 o'clock this afternoon at the lodge in Oakdale cemetery.

Official Permit is issued. A special received by the STAR last night from Raleigh says the Adjutant General yesterday issued an official permit to enter the Fifth Georgia Regiment to enter North Carolina bearing arms for the purpose of going into camp at Wrightsville July 17th for ten days.

IS LEAGUE SHAKY?

Reports from Raleigh Indicate That Things Are Not Smooth.

NO NEWS ABOUT WILMINGTON

Still Hunting for Some Towns to Take the Franchise—Rais Prevosted Games at Raleigh and Charlotte—Greensboro Beat Durham.

From what can be learned up to the present there is no change in the baseball situation relative to the deceased Wilmington team.

The following special to the STAR from Raleigh shows that everything is still in statu quo:

"There is no change in the baseball situation to-night. Mr. R. C. Rivers has been sent by President Busbee to Goldsboro and Wilson to see what these towns will do about taking the franchise. President Busbee is out of the city to-night. Fear is entertained by many here that the league is on the ragged edge. The fate of the Wilmington orphans will probably be settled to-morrow. It is not believed that Wilson or Goldsboro will take hold. The are no further developments as to reorganizing as Wilmington team."

The Wilmington orphans as they are now "dubbed" did not play in Raleigh yesterday on account of rain. For the same reason there was no game at Charlotte. The only game played was at Greensboro where the locals "shot out" the Durham Bulls. The score was 6 to 0.

The G. O. C. distinguished himself right on the start with Newbern. His work in center in Monday's game was spoken of as a feature and with two men out, he made a timely single, scoring two runs. He was also credited with a sacrifice.

Karns is now manager pro tem of our late aggregation. Newbern is still leading the league with a thousand per cent. Kelly's Kritters are in second place.

A Good Woman Gone.

Mrs. Sarah S. Price, aged 45 years, passed into eternity yesterday morning at 6:45 o'clock, after an illness of typhoid fever. Her death occurred at the residence of her brother, Mr. Asa W. Allen, No. 119 Chesnut street, and there the funeral will be conducted this morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The deceased was a most estimable lady and one greatly beloved by a large circle of friends. She leaves to grief her departure a mother, Mrs. E. A. Silva, of this city, and four brothers, Mr. Jesse J. Wood, of Goldsboro, Mr. F. A. Wood, of Camden Junction, S. C., and Messrs. O. E. Wood and Asa W. Allen, of this city. Four daughters are also left to mourn. They are Mrs. Emma Batton, of Wedgefield, S. C., Mrs. Ellen Bell, of Scotia Hill, and Misses Namones A. and Mary S. Price, of this city.

ANOTHER BURGLARY.

Mr. James Northam Loses a Handsome Gold Watch and a Sum of Money.

Burglars are still on their rounds. Monday morning the residence of Mr. James Northam's father at East Wilmington was broken into and robbed. The burglary occurred early in the morning, but about the only valuables stolen was a handsome gold watch, the property of Mr. James Northam, and several dollars in change.

The burglar or burglars made good their escape with the stolen articles and have not as yet been discovered.
