TO GET MORE COTTON SPLENDID PROGRESS IN

All-Rail Shipments to New England States, It Is Said, Are at An End.

STEAMSHIPS TO CARRY 'IT.

Wilmington and All South Atlantic Ports, it is Claimed, Will Be Benefitted. Causes Suggested for Abandonment by the Railroads.

[Savannah News, 31st.]

As a result of the withdrawal of two New England railroads from an arrangement to join other roads in allowing through all-rail rates on cotton shipped from the South to New Englandimill points, all the South Atlantic ports will very probably get more cot-

Shippers will have to ship by the ocean lines to New York and Boston and there let the Boston, Maine, and the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroads receive the cotton for distribution to the mills. In fact, these railroads say this is what they want Southern shippers to do: To the railroads bringing the cotton to the ports and to the ocean liners all this is perfectly agreeable. It is per-fectly agreeable to Savannahians, for it is estimated to mean much more cotton for coastwise export. The circumstances that have combined to throw the South's shipments of New England cotton to the water routes were not expected to result this way at the start. For a long time the railroads have been put to delays and large expense on account of the bottling up of cars, and the delivering of cars to connecting lines without get-ting them back within reasonable time. This led to car famines, and the result of these are known in this section, especially in the cotton country, when hurried shipments are de

To avoid this the roads imposed rental charge for the time a car is on a foreign line with a view to having the foreign line return it at the earliest possible moment. This charge seems to work all right with all railroads, except the B. and B., and the N. Y., N. H. and H. They withdrew from the arrangement, giving what appear to be good reasons, showing that they are put at a decided dis advantage.

The claim of these roads is that cotton is shipped to New England points over their lines in foreign cars, that in some cases this is in advance of the requirements of mills, and that these cars must he on the sidings until the consignees need the cotton or have storage room for it. At other times it is claimed that brokers ship cotton on to New England before it is sold and eave it in the cars until sold. Al this time these railroads have to pay heavy rental or penalty for the use of the car, which would be heavy charge for them to carry, and one they cannot well estimate.

To get around the trouble the roads mentioned withdrew well in advance of the cotton season from the through all-rail rate understanding, and urge that cotton be shipped by water to them at either New York or Boston, where they have large and commodious warehouses, and can take care of t until it is wanted at the mills. Then too, they say in their circular that they can make more money on the cotton if shipped by water and delivered to them at New York and Boston.

A local representative of the Ocean Steamship Company stated yesterday that this action by the New England roads means much for Southern ports. whose cotton exports are sure to be argely increased.

Clerks Coming To-day.

A number of the clerks for the auditing department of the Atlantic Coast Line reached the city from Savannsh yesterday, but a much larger crowd is expected to day; in fact the auditing offices in the Georgia city were not closed yesterday as was expected, but to-day will find all the force here and ready for work. The Coast Line has very generously interested itself in the coming of the young men and has, so far as possible, secured comfortable homes for them in this city. Wilmington welcomes the young men who are arriving and will arrive to-day and hopes each of them will be pleasantly situated.

Delightful Lawn Pete. A delightful lawn party was given vesterday afternoon and evening by the young ladies of the N. N. S. Society on the lawn of the parsonage of Fifth Street Methodist church. The children were received during the afternoon and from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock last night the older guests were received. The lawn was attractively decorated and lighted with Japanese lanterns for the occasion, and fruits and other refreshments were served in elegant style. The young ladies of the society, who arranged the event. were Misses Mamie McGirt, Mag Landin, Sudie Williams and Annie Gas-

Complimentary River Party. In compliment to guests of Miss Mabel Powers at Wrightsville, Mr. H. W. Malloy gave a delightful excursion on the steamer Navassa yesterday. The party went down the river and a pleasant time was experienced were: Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Powers, Miss Cay, Miss Calhoun, Miss New man, Miss Alexander and Miss Mabel Powers, of Atlanta; Messrs. COUNTY ROAD-MAKING Turspike Will Be Fully Repaired, Beginning Next Week--Then Comes Market Street Outlet to the Country.

The magnificent shell road leading to Wrightsville, recently purchased by the county, is to be substantially repaired and put in A1 condition at

That was the statement of Road Commissioner McEachern to a STAR reporter yesterday when asked as to the progress of the work on the Castle Haynes road, which is now practically complete. The hands will be transferred to the shell road and it will be patched in places and otherwise improved, so that it will possibly be the finest causeway in the whole State. The people are as a unit in commendation of Chairman McEachern and members of the Board for the purchase of the road and the appreciation of the public is manifest from the large number of people now seen driving over the turnpike each afternoon. When repairs to the shell road are completed, work will be commenced on the Market street outlet to a splendid country, thickly settled. It is probable that the Castle Haynes quarry will be continued in operation and the product shipped in railroad cars to the various switches and stations on the Newbern railroad, which is easily accessible from all points on the Market street road, and an extremely low reight rate has been secured.

All that now remains to be done to the Castle Haynes road is the macadamizing of a fill about five miles from the city, which will be allowed to settle before a rock surface is put on. The people of New Hanover are rightly proud of the progress the county is making in road building.

FUNERAL OF MAJ. A. WEILL.

it Will Take Place This Afternoon from the Temple of Israel.

The funeral of the late Maj. Abraham Weill, whose sad death was noted in these columns yesterday, will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock from the Temple of Israel and the remains will be laid to rest in Oakdale. The services will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. S. Mendelsohn, rabbi of the Temple, who was a personal friend and associate of the deceased gentleman.

Mrs. Eliza Waxelbaum, of Atlanta, Ga., a daughter of Maj. Weill, accompanied by her husband, arrived last evening, and the other children of the deceased, except those barred from coming by distance, will reach here this morning.

The veterans of Cape Fear Camp No. 254, U. C. V., and members of Cape Fear Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will attend the obsequies in a body in recognition of Maj. Weill's eminent service to the Lost Cause in the purchasing department of the government during the war and in appreciation of his hospitality in entertaining President Jefferson Davis and family upon their memorable flight from Richmond after the surrender.

A FIRE AT CAROLINA BEAGH

Bottage of Mr. D. McEachern Burned Wednesday Night-Loss About $2,000.

The handsome Summer cottage of Mr. Duncan McEachern at Carolina Beach was completely destroyed, with its contents, by fire, which started from the explosion of a lamp in one of the bed rooms upstairs Wednesday night about 11:30 o'clock. The family had not retired for the night and all the occupants of the house, including several guests, escaped without injury. The explosion of the lamp was probably due to a gust of wind which blew the flame down into the bowl containing the kerosene.

Only a few trunks and other household goods were saved, the remainder of the contents, including a fine piano, going up in smoke and causing a total loss of at least $2,000. The contents of the building were insured for $300 and $1,200 was carried on the building, all with the agency of Mr. John VanB. Metts, of this city.

THE ACME TEA CHEST COMPANY.

Operations Begun Again Up the Cape Fear. A Big Industry.

The Pender Chronicle of this week has in its Canetuck news the following in regard to a Wilmington enterprise that will be read with interest: "The Acme Tea Chest Co. has begun work on another cargo of sweet gum logs, which it expects to have ready for shipment about Oct. 1st. This business has proven a blessing to our community, as it furnishes employment with good wages for most of the Fall and Winter months. Nearly all the sweet gum timber on the Cape Fear river was bought by an English syndicate, and after being cut and carried to Wilmington on large lighters the bark is taken off and then oaded on large steamers and ship to Glasgow, Scotland, where it is veneered for tea chests. There must be a fancy price received for it there, for besides the great expense of getting it out and transported to Wilmington, we learn from reliable authority that the freight on it to Glasgow is $18 per

FOR MAYOR PRO TEM.

Alderman W. B. Cooper Chosen at Caucus of Board Wednesday Night.

VOTE WAS FIVE TO FOUR.

Mr. E. F. Johnson Was Second Man in the Race-Selection Will Be Ratified at Regular Meeting Next Monday Night.

An important caucus of the Board f Aldermen was held Wednesday night in the Mayor's office at the City

The meeting was important because was for the purpose of electing a Mayor pro tem., which question has been hanging file for some time; in fact, ever since the resignation of Alderman W. C. VonGlahn was pressed by him and accepted by the Board some time ago.

Of course, the caucus was private, but the STAR violates no confidence. save that of a stray tally sheet, which declares Mr. W. B. Cooper's election to the position by a vote of five to four. only nine of the ten Aldermen having been present. Mr. E. F. Johnson was the other candidate for the position.

It is expected that the action of the caucus will be ratified unanimously, at the regular meeting of the Board Monday night. It is learned that there was a strong fight between friends on the Board of Messrs. Cooper and Johnson, who are both spoken of as possible mayoralty timber in the next municipal campaign. For this reason the outcome of the contest, friendly in the extreme, was watched with much interest by the public.

HARBOR MASTER'S JULY REPORT.

Slight Falling Off in Shipping from Same Month Last Year.

Williams, harbor master of the port of Pikeville; L. T. Cottingham, Maxton; Wilmington, shows arrivals of vessels of 90 tons and over during the month as follows : American-Nine steamships, 11,934 ions: 9 schooners, 3,829 tons. Total ressels, 18; total tonnage, 15,763. Foreign-One barque, 598 tons; one brig, 196 tons; one schooner, 199 ions. Total vessels, 3; total tonnage,

The grand total of vessels for the nonth was 21, with a combined tonnage of 16,754. The report this month shows a slight falling off in shipping from July 1901, but a material increase over July 1899 and 1900.

CASE OF GEORGE W. PHILLIPS.

Desires to Return Misappropriated Property and Be Discharged-His Sister. The Petersburg correspondent of resterday's Richmond Dispatch says: The case of the young man, George W. Phillips, charged with robbing

Mrs. Jessie P. Lambert, will be called in court to-morrow. The impression is that he will waive examination and ask to have his case sent to the Corporation Court. His sister arrived here this morning from Wilmington, N. C., to be with him. The young man desires to make restoration of the stolen property and he may not be harshly prosecuted.

Let's Have the "Black Maria."

Citizens are making a kick over the enforced retirement of the "Black Maria" from its sphere of usefulness, because there is no money with which to repair it. They say it would be eminently better as a means of transporting criminals to the lock-up than to drag the offenders through the streets, grating upon the sensibilities of all whom they pass. The Board of Audit and Finance, however, perhaps bases its objection to paying repair bills upon the fact that such action would be a point against it in the suit now in court to enforce payment for

A Bold Highwayman.

While on his way to market with a wagon load of vegetables about 5 o'clock yesterday morning, Mr. J. F. Klein, a young white man of East Wilmington, was held up by an unknown highwayman, who cursed him violently and threatened to "burn powder" if the young man bothered him. The highwayman calmly surveyed the driver, wagon and contents; said he would take some green corn and departed with about three dozen ears. Young Kiein had no means of protecting his property and the boldness of his assailant made him all the more helpless.

Case of J. M. Rand. Norfolk Landmark: "It is probable that Detective George M. Heppel will return to this city without J. M. Rand, the check flasher wanted here. As stated in the Landmark when Deective Heppel departed, there are several charges pending against Rand in that city and naturally the Baltimore police are anxious to hide him away for a while, Detective Heppel will re-turn home this morning. Assistant Cashier Godwin, of the Norfolk National Bank, went to Baltimore and positively identified Rand as the man who deposited a bogus draft in that

MISS BURROUGHS' DROWNING.

A special to the Atlanta Journal from Conway, S. C., gives the particulars of the drowning of Miss Burroughs near that city Friday and the brave attempt to rescue her by Milton Reid, who is well known in this city. The Journal says:

Miss Ruth Burroughs was drowned in the surf at Myrtle Beach, a popular South Carolina resort near Conway, daughter of one of the wealthiest and most influential families in this section. She was universally admired. The ebb tide, made more dangerous by a strong northeast wind, caused the breakers to be unusually heavy. A tremendous wave swept Miss Bur-

Mr. Reed, who is an expert swimmer, went to her rescue, while her escort went ashore calling for help. In the confusion much delay was caused. The boat house was finally broken open, but before a boat could be launched and the struggling swimmer reached, he and his unconscious burden sank 20 yards from shore.

Mr. Reed floated into shallow water still feebly moving and was dragged out insensible. Miss Burroughs' body was recovered this morning three miles down the beach.
