

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. LXX.—NO. 116.

WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 6, 1902.

WHOLE NO. 10,905

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION
One Year, by Mail, $5.00
Six Months, " 2.50
Three Months, " 1.25
Two Months, " 1.00
Delivered to Subscribers in the City at 45 Cents per Month.

Guaranteed Best, Every Day
Circulation Larger Than That of Any Other Daily Newspaper Published in Wilmington.
OLDEST DAILY NEWSPAPER IN THE STATE.

The Morning Star.
OUTLINES.

In a collision of two steamers on Lake Erie, one of the vessels was sunk and three lives were lost. A story that another operation upon King Edward will have to be performed after the coronation is denied. The coronation is reported a very general weather forecast in the condition of the weather is given. Standard Oil Co. has declared a dividend of five dollars per share. Negro convicted of criminal assault in Westmoreland, Va. court, sentenced to be hanged Sept. 9th. Association of the Georgia Central by the St. Louis and San Francisco R. R. is being built in Washington. The strike situation at Shenandoah, Pa. is not materially changed; the many rumors of disturbances at various points keep the soldiers on the alert. A small schooner disabled, from Cape Verde Island, crowded with people, was picked up at sea by an Italian steamer and towed into New York. —New York markets: Money on call was steady at 3/4 @ 3/8 cent; four weeks, middling uplands 8 1/2; cotton was shade lower; wheat—spot, No. 2 red 75 3/4; corn—spot, No. 2 64 1/2; oats—spot unshelled, No. 2 54; rosin steady, strained common to good $1.57 @ 1.60; spirits turpentine steady.

WEATHER REPORT
U. S. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE,
WEATHER BUREAU,
WASHINGTON, D. C., AUG. 6, 1902.
Geographical data for the 24 hours ending 9 P. M.:
Temperature: N. 79 degrees;
W. 80 degrees; maximum, 90 degrees;
minimum, 73 degrees; mean, 82 degrees.
Rainfall for the day, .03; rainfall deficit of month to date, .44.
COTTON REGION BULLETIN.
The weather has continued warm with slightly higher temperature in most districts. Local rains have fallen in the central and eastern sections and clear weather has continued in the west.

LOCAL DOTS.
—The Gibson excursion to Wilmington via Bennettsville, Maxton and Fayetteville, will reach here to-day.
—Mr. John F. McNair, who came in on the K. S. yesterday, reports crop prospects fine in Richmond and Robeson counties.
—Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure left yesterday to assist Rev. B. M. Mann, of Clinton, in a series of revival services at Oak Plains, near Magnolia.
—The river steamer A. P. Hurt having waited on the New York steamer for freight, did not clear for Fayetteville until yesterday afternoon.
—Mr. Spencer LeGrand, assistant auditor of freight receipts of the Atlantic Coast Line, arrived yesterday from Norfolk with seven of the clerks in his office, who will have places in the general offices of the company here.
—The first brick for the new home of the Bell Telephone Co., near Second and Princess streets, were laid yesterday. The foundations are such as give evidence of a strong, substantial building, fully suited to the purposes for which it will be used.
—Blanche Dixon, Ida Fields and Sophia Miller, a trio of colored damsels, were placed in jail by Constable Sheehan yesterday for trial in Justice Fowler's court to-day. Louise Hicks, also colored, was arrested and committed to the jail for a disturbance occurred in the vicinity of Seventh and Nun streets.
—The Crescent Cigar Store, in charge of those clever young men, Messrs. Louis G. Bieser and Robert H. Morris, is presenting to customers a handsome cigar case with the compliments of the season. The souvenir is designed to call special attention to the El Belmont clear Havana cigars with which the Crescent will be glad to fill the case, or with any other standard favorite.
—"Black Maria" Being Repaired.
The police patrol wagon, known in official circles as the "wagon" and in common parlance as the "Black Maria," was sent to Brown's carriage shop yesterday afternoon for repairs, the same to be paid for by the Aldermen personally, since the Board of Audit and Finance will approve no bills for the improvement. It will be out in a day or two, the same luxury to the "drunk and down" as it was of yore.
THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.
Report of the Treasurer for the Month of July, 1902.
Receipts—New Hanover Co., $125; Mrs. M. E. Bridges, $25; Mrs. Ellen Lattimer, $2.50; William Lattimer, $2.50.
Disbursements—Secretary's salary, $25; Catherine Kennedy Home, $12.50; groceries, $120.25; rent for those in need, $8.50; cash, $4.50; janitor, $2; nourishment for sick, $2; railroad fares, $5.25; wood, $1.20; postage, 25c.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
Levi McMillan & Co.—Notice.
Geo. R. French & Sons.—Notice.
BUSINESS LOCALS.
Lost—Gold leaf watch pin.
Wanted—A house, at once.

DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION TO A. C. L. EMPLOYEES.

New Clerks in Coast Line General Offices Received Most Cordial Welcome to Y. M. C. A. Last Night.

The reception last evening at the Y. M. C. A. in honor of the new clerks, who recently arrived in the city to work in the general offices of the Atlantic Coast Line, was a most charming affair indeed and was attended by upwards of a hundred and fifty young people, more than half the number of whom were strangers in the city.

The visitors were received and given a hearty welcome to the Association's splendid home by a receiving committee headed by Dr. N. M. Weisel, the capable physical director and acting secretary of the Y. M. C. A. There were also in the receiving party a gratifyingly large number of the Directors of the Association who entered heartily into the spirit of the hour.

An enjoyable musical programme was rendered by the Munson Male Quartette composed of Messrs. A. S. Holden, second base; C. H. Cooper, first tenor; R. C. Bank, second tenor; J. S. Williams, first base, and E. H. Munson, accompanist. The programme was an exceedingly delightful one and included a special solo by Mr. C. H. Cooper and a duet by Messrs. Holden and Bank, both of which were charmingly rendered.

Refreshments were served in a most pleasant manner, and to the delight of all. The committee which had this particular branch of entertainment in hand was composed of Messrs. W. A. Little, chairman, W. L. Williams, J. J. Loughlin, J. Love Davis, A. J. Mitchell, J. A. McGeachy and I. W. Murphy.

The visitors were given an opportunity of going over the entire building, including the splendid gymnasium and bathing apartments. They were all much pleased with the many advantages offered by the Association and many signified their intention of connecting themselves with the organization.

SIMMONS CHAIRMAN.

Re-elected to Lead Democratic Hosts by State Committee Last Night.

THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE. Those from the Several Districts—County Election Boards Named on the Democratic Side—Joint Senatorial Campaign Discouraged.

[Special Star Telegram.] RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 5.—The State Democratic Executive Committee selected by the recent State Convention met to-night and organized by re-electing Senator Simmons chairman, J. Fields, of Raleigh, was chosen secretary instead of P. M. Pearsall, resigned. The attendance was unusually large, every member except one being represented in person or by proxy. Twenty-eight were present and eleven by proxies.

The following central campaign committee, four from each Congressional district, were chosen as follows: First District—E. F. Lamb, R. W. King, R. R. Cotton, L. Q. Lawrence. Second District—H. A. Gilliam, J. W. Grainger, I. E. Green, T. W. Mason. Third District—C. E. Foy, F. G. Hargett, T. C. Whitaker, A. Willis. Fourth District—F. S. Spruill, E. A. London, B. H. Bunn, Rocky Mount; John W. Thompson, Raleigh. Fifth District—A. M. Seales, J. S. Carr, J. R. Webster, A. W. Haywood. Sixth District—E. J. Hale, N. A. McLean, O. C. Lyon, H. B. Short. Seventh District—M. L. Johs, Geo. Warburton, S. W. Finch, E. L. Stevenson. Eighth District—R. A. Crowder, J. R. McClellan, W. H. Boyer, W. O. Field. Ninth District—Dr. R. J. Brevard, J. H. Weddington, Maj. H. F. Schenck, J. T. Avery.

Tenth District—G. Gallert, W. T. Crawford, F. S. Johnson, E. J. Justice. There was general and very unfavorable discussion upon the question of joint caucuses of Democratic candidates for United States Senator with Senator Pritchard. It was decided to leave the matter with the chairman, who will propose any joint discussion on the ground that it will only help to draw crowds for Pritchard.

The State Board of Elections to-day announced Democratic members of the County Boards. Those of counties in the Sixth Congressional district are as follows: Hanover—G. H. Smith, W. B. McKoy, Wilmington. Brunswick—E. L. Stanley; Southampton—D. D. Gallaway; Columbus—H. Coleman, Jr.; Fair Bluff—D. S. Cowan, Jr.; Onslow—Bladen—Richard B. Cromartie, Elizabethtown; J. D. Gilliam, White Hall.

Robeson—Dr. J. L. McMillan, Red Springs; Dr. J. P. Brown, Ashpole. Scotland—J. T. Bosstick, Conclawa; W. A. Cumberbund, W. C. Hall, Fayetteville; W. G. Holmes, Fayetteville; Harnett—J. M. Davis, Linden; V. L. Stephens, Dunn. The Republican appointees were given in yesterday's correspondence.

E. C. PISCATORIAL ASSOCIATION.
Annual Meeting Held in This City Yesterday—Officers Re-elected.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the East Carolina Piscatorial Association was held in this city yesterday noon at the office of Geo. H. Howell, Esq., the secretary and treasurer.

Those in attendance were Dr. E. Porter, of Rocky Point, (president); Dr. W. H. H. Cobb, of Goldsboro; Capt. J. A. F. Divine, Meigs; Geo. H. Howell and B. D. Cronly. The business transacted was of a routine nature and of no interest whatever to the general public.

The Board of Directors of the Association met subsequently and re-elected Dr. E. Porter president and Geo. H. Howell, Esq., secretary and treasurer.

Burglary Yesterday Morning.
Between midnight and daybreak yesterday morning a negro burglar visited the home of Mr. J. A. White, No. 208 North Sixth street, but beyond that frightening the female occupants of the house and stealing a small sum of money from Mr. White's room, the intruder made an exit without injury. The presence of the negro in the room was discovered by Mr. White's daughter, who screamed at the top of her voice. Mr. White hastily ran into the room from an adjoining one and only had time to catch sight of the intruder as he made his exit through the blind he had broken to enter. Mr. White describes the negro as being very dark and wearing a slouch hat.

Mr. Strange, the Representative.
In the special telegram from Raleigh, published in the Sunday STAR, by an erroneous transposition the name of Mr. Wm. Dunn, of Newbern, was given as one of Governor Aycock's appointees to the Farmers' National Congress at Macon, Ga., representing the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association. Mr. Dunn represents some other agricultural interest, while Mr. E. H. Strange, of Fayetteville, is the sole representative from the E. O. T. and F. G. Association.

Entertained Last Night.
Quite a number of young people assembled at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Taylor, 118 Market street, last night, the occasion being a watermelon party, given by her daughters, Misses Annie and Ida. Music, games, etc., were indulged in until about 11:30 o'clock, when refreshments were served. The young people enjoyed a most delightful evening.

CENTRAL FIRE STATION NOT YET POSSIBLE.

Opposition Encountered at Yesterday's Regular Meeting of Board of Audit and Finance—Other Matters.

The Board of Audit and Finance, of the city, met in regular semi-monthly meeting yesterday afternoon, all members having been in attendance as follows: Chairman H. O. McQueen, Messrs. Jesse Wilder, C. W. Yates, S. P. McNair and J. A. Orrell.

A communication conveying information of the action of the Aldermen at their previous night's meeting was read and the items taken up in their order. The matter of building the central fire station upon the present site of the Chemical Engine house on Fourth street, near Dock, received a "blank eye" from the start. O. D. Weeks, Esq., counsel for certain property owners in the locality of the proposed new station, was present and spoke against the practicability of the establishment of the new station. Alderman W. E. Mann spoke very strongly in favor of the proposition and the Board's former action upon the matter was recalled from the minutes.

It was stated by the clerk, who read from the record, that the Board had at first agreed to the building of the central station only upon condition that the Local Board of Underwriters would withdraw its objection and that enough fire department real estate would be sold to defray the expense of the new building, neither of which conditions had been satisfied. It was, therefore, ordered by the Board that the matter again be referred to the Board of Audit and Finance will not consider the matter until satisfied that the Underwriters do not object, and then only upon condition that property is sold to defray the expense.

The awarding of the contract to A. G. Call for repairing Sixth street bridge at $110 was concurred in, the money to come from the regular Streets and Wharves appropriation and the contractor to execute bond in the sum of $100.

The matter of repairs to the Opera House was referred again to the Public Building Committee of the Board of Aldermen, with instruction that the Board would consider no proposition to make repairs until specifications are submitted as to what is needed and cost of the same. Mr. Robert H. Cowap, the lessee, was present and urged the repairs, which he said were greatly needed, and that action should be promptly taken in view of the fact that the theatrical season will open the middle of next month.

The matter of the establishment of a hydrant at Sixth and Castle streets was urged by Alderman W. E. Mann, the plan being for the Clarendon Water Works Co. to lay the one block of pipe and receive $50 per year for the water supply for nine years, the length of the present water works contract. The question was referred back to the Aldermen to ascertain if it would not be cheaper for the city to lay the main and receive the nine years' water rental fees, as per terms of the water works contract.

The general tax ordinance as finally adopted by the Aldermen was passed by the Board of Audit and Finance. In view of the controversy over which is the lowest bidder for the ice contract and the further fact that no contract now exists for the city's ice supply, it was ordered that no more bills for ice will be paid until a contract is entered into.

The usual bills for current expenses were added including one of D. Newman & Son amounting to $5.38 for buttons for police uniforms. Adjournment was taken subject to call of the chairman.

COMMERCE CHAMBER TO MOVE.
Headquarters Will Be Established at New Location Soon—Meeting to-morrow.

The usual monthly meeting of the Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday afternoon in the Exchange rooms on Water street, acting-President H. W. Malloy in the chair. Members present were Messrs. E. B. Rogers, S. P. McNair, I. M. Bear and Mr. James Kyle, secretary and treasurer.

About the only matter of importance considered at the meeting was the question of removal of the Chamber's headquarters and the Exchange to a more convenient and suitable location. There was much discussion of the matter and Mr. Rogers was made chairman of a committee to push the matter to a conclusion. The committee has several locations in view, but none of them will be made public until a lease is consummated.

IT WAS JUSTIFIABLE.

Verdict of Coroner's Jury Which Inquired Into the Death of Frank Clayton.

MR. ROGERS EXONERATED. An Autopsy Performed Revealed Extreme Fatality of Wound—Authoritative Statement of the Shooting—The Negro's History.

After examination of a number of witnesses and inquiring into all the circumstances pertaining to the death of Frank Clayton, colored, who was shot mortally on Monday night by Mr. Charles R. Rogers on Mr. Oscar Pearsall's plantation Saturday night, a jury of inquest at the city hall yesterday morning returned a verdict fully exonerating Mr. Rogers as follows: "We, the coroner's jury, having been duly summoned, and sworn by Dr. C. D. Bell, coroner of New Hanover county, to inquire what caused the death of Frank Clayton, do hereby report that from the investigation and evidence of witnesses that the death of Frank Clayton came by a pistol shot in the hands of Mr. Charles Rogers, and that it was justifiable homicide."

The jury was composed of S. H. Terry (foreman), G. T. King, E. O. Allen, Robert Hines, H. B. Bailey and J. P. Sellers, (secretary). The verdict was reached after the jury had viewed the body at the Memorial Hall, where Clayton died at 7 P. M. Monday, and after several witnesses had been examined at the City Hospital, all of whom corroborated Mr. Rogers in his version of the shooting, which was officially recorded as follows: "On Saturday afternoon Mr. Pearsall came in the field where I was working in East Wilmington and asked me to water his horse as he was going to the Sound and nobody was there. At sunset I went over to his field and saw his horse in the yard. I went to my house and saw a strange yellow negro coming towards me. He had a stick under his arm. I watched him as he came on. He passed the house about 50 yards and turned around and came back a few steps. I never thought any more about him and remained some time at the barn, a quarter of a mile distant from my house. When I was coming back Mrs. Dale, who is staying with my wife, motioned to me from the piazza and I hurried to her. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go out. He went through the yard in the direction of the house, thinking something serious might be the matter. At the door she told me a negro was in the house and that he was cursing and using bad language. When I got in the dining room he stood beside my wife who was sitting at the end of the table, and was eating a biscuit. I asked him what he wanted to eat. I told him he had it and asked him to go