The fracas occurred on the train coming over to the pier for the return trip on the steamer. Capt. The women are Linda King, Minnie Wright, Rosa Parker and Annie Pollock. All were lodged in jail for a hearing before Justice Farlong Friday at 10 A. M. Smith later gave bond and was released. Messrs. BELLAMY GAINING STRENGTH

Opposition Concedes Him Eleven Mor Votes Over Previous Day's Count, When That Break Comes -Big Crowd from New Hanover.

[Special Star Telegram.]

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 19. Delegates and friends of the respective candidates line the streets and crowd the hotel lobbies. The Sixth Congressional convention meets at noon to-morrow in the armory building and will be called to order by C. C. Lyon, of Bladen county. J. B. Underwood, Jr., of this city, will deliver the address of welcome. It is purely a matter of speculation as to who will be the permanent chairman or the successful candidate before the convention.

The opposition to-night concedes to Bellamy a gain on first ballot of 11 votes over last night's concessions and hold that the ballot will be Bellamy 116, Patterson 82, Hale 63, Brown 58. Bellamy's friends have not changed their contentions of last night to wit: That he will have on first ballot not less than 125 votes outside of the 131 votes claimed by them from Cumberland and that he will be nominated on the second or third ballot."

The convention bids fair to be one on the order of "A Breezy Time," minus the farce. As I see it to-night the situation is a peculiar one It seems to be the field against Bellamy. Current rumor is that a combine has been perfected to prevent the nomination of Bellamy. Robeson, Columbus and Cumberland each have a candidate and with their combined 179 votes control the situation on the early hismust come and when it does, guessing the field are beginning to leave for tion (but not admitted by Bellamy's friends) that they control their delega- | Funeral of Miss Carney, tions and can throw them to whom they please, but the third is not so fortunately situated. Bellamy's friends hold that when the break comes his nomination will soon follow. At a late hour to-night the several delegations are yet holding caucuses.

There was another heavy movement of the "faithful" to Fayetteville from Wilmington yesterday morning, while not a few went on the afternoon train via Chadbourn and Elrod, N. C. One or two also left last night, via Wilson. The rear guard will leave this morning and will reach Fayetteville shortly after the convention is called to order, but perhaps not too late to take a hand in the skirmish for permanent organization, etc., which will likely occupy the convention until late in the afternoon. Balloting for a nomination may not begin until night, and then the first real news of interest to the public will begin to be wound off.

Mr. Bellamy was the first candidate, outside of Fayetteville, to reach the scene. Mr. Patterson, of Robeson, reached the convention city at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning and Mr. Brown, of Columbus, arrived in the afternoon. Maj. Hale, was, of course, already on the ground. Delegates were arriving on every train last night, and it is estimated that fully four hundred people, outside of the Cumberland delegation, will be present today when the convention is called to Colored Georgia Excursionists.

The steamer Compton took about 300 of the Atlanta colored excursionists on a trip to Southport and out to sea yesterday. The band went along with the party and made the welkin ring with martial airs. At the park yesterday afternoon the Atlanta colored baseball team defeated the "Original Black Stockings," of Wilmington, in a score of 19 to 3. In one inning the Georgians piled up 9 runs. Only seven innings were required for the visitors to roll up the enormous score. The two teams will try conclusions again this afternoon and to-morrow.

Dr. McClure on Vacation.

Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, the beloved pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, left yesterday morning for Bal timore, where he will spend his annual vacation as a guest of his warm personal friend, Mr. J. S. Johnson, a wealthy business man of Baltimore. Dr. Mc-Clure contemplates taking a yacht trip with his host, cruising along the Atlantic and touching at Philadelphia, Cape May, Atlantic City and other interesting points. Upon his return Dr. McClure will stop at Goldsboro Aug. 31st to preach the annual sermon at Salem Presbyterian church.

The funeral will be conducted at 11 o'clock this morning from the family residence and the interment will be in Bellevue cemetery. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of numerous friends in their sorrow.

HE DRANK LAUDANUM

Owen C. Burriss, Young Carpenter, Died by His Own Hand Yesterday.

DESPONDENT SOME TIME.

Pretending He Wanted Drug for Medicinal Use, He Swallowed a Fatal Dose-Funeral and Interment on Myrtle Grove Sound.

Despondent because he was out of work and because he had been drinking rather heavily for three weeks, Owen C. Burriss, a young carpenter of this city, who lives with his wife and one child at No. 911 South Third street, Monday night went to the drug store of Mr. James M. Hall, Sixth and Castle streets, purchased three ounces of laudanum and drank the poison on his way to the home of his father, where he died shortly after midnight yesterday morning from the effects of the overdose of the deadly drug. The young man was very popular with a wide circle of acquaintances in the city, and his untimely death, accompanied by the tragic circumstances, was heard yesterday with profound sorrow by many. He was a son of Mr. Sylvester Burriss, Fifth and Wright streets, one of the best known citizens of the Fifth Ward. Young Burriss was 28 years of age and had been married only about two years. Until three weeks ago he was employed at his trade in assisting with the work of the government on Bald Head island and returned to the city. evidently very cheerful. Later, he became depressed and in his despondency he committed the rash act which ended his earthly career. He gave no reason for his wishing to to take his own life, and in purchasing the laudanum said he wanted it to rub his side with. He had left the store but a few minutes when he turned the bottle to his mouth and carrying out his purpose.

Burriss was hurried to the home of his father, and soon relapsed into a stupor from which he never recovered. Dr G. Kirby Collier came as quickly as possible to attend the patient, but it was too late to save his life.

Dr. C. D. Bell viewed the remains of young Burriss yesterday morning, but no inquest was deemed necessary. Impressive funeral services over the remains were conducted at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence of the unfortunate young man's father by the Rev. C. B. Paul, pastor of Southside Baptist church. The remains were taken to Myrtle Grove Sound and interred in the Horne burying ground.
