S. C. NEGRO ARRESTED ON VERY SERIOUS CHARGE.

Sandie King, Wanted in Darlington County, Captured by Wilmington Police. Requisition Papers for Him.
 Sandie King, colored, 30 years old, was arrested early yesterday morning by Policemen Wood and Huggins at Fifth and Howard streets, upon a warrant forwarded to Chief of Police Furlong by Sheriff Geo. P. Scarborough of Darlington county, S. C., charging the negro with an attempt at criminal assault upon a young girl on Suggs' plantation, near Darlington, July 14th, 1902. King admits his identity, but denies the serious charge against him. Adverses from the South Carolina sheriff fail to state whether the girl upon whom the assault was attempted is white or colored.
 Requisition papers for King were honored by Governor Aycock several days before his arrest and although the fact was quite extensively published in the papers, the accused made no attempt to escape. He was employed at the Cape Fear lumber mill.
 Sheriff Scarborough was telegraphed by Chief Furlong of the arrest and an officer is expected for the negro at any time.

LOCAL DOTS.

Rice birds have made their appearance on the city market.
 A colored vagrant was sent to the roads by the Mayor for 30 days yesterday.
 The steamer Highlander passed Elizabethtown at 7:30 P. M. yesterday and is expected here this morning.
 Only seven bales of cotton were received yesterday. They came from points on the W., C. & A. railroad.
 The Southport Standard says 6 miles of telephone poles are already delivered at Navassa for the Southport and Wilmington line.
 The store of the Atlantic Coast Lumber Co. in Georgetown was burned a few days ago, entailing a loss of between $30,000 and $40,000.
 Two new six-inch cannons, each weighing 7,500 pounds, arrived this week from Washington and were sent down to Fort Caswell on the steamer Compton.
 It is said that Col. B. W. Wrenn, formerly passenger traffic manager of the Plant System, is to be general agent of New York Life Insurance Company in Brooklyn.
 Southport Standard: "Capt. S. S. Davis, who piloted the schooner W. H. Bailey from here to New York about a month ago, returned on the same schooner last week, having made a safe trip with the ship."
 Mr. Alfred Klesse, of New York, who recently took a position as boat maker with Munson & Co., is an ascrob of some reputation and would like to interest some of the local talent in that line.
 By deed filed for record yesterday D. L. Gore and wife transferred to T. B. Cowan for $650, lot beginning in the western line of the right of way of the W. & W. railroad, near its intersection with Fifth street, 30x63 feet in size, more or less.
Kinston Naval Reserves.
 The Kinston Division, Naval Reserves, disbanded Wednesday night by mutual consent of the members. Immediately after the disorganization steps were taken toward organizing an infantry company and a temporary organization was effected with Dr. H. D. Harger, Jr., captain; W. R. Bond, first lieutenant, and R. B. Roase, second lieutenant. The swords carried by Lieutenants LaRoque and Harper were voted them unanimously as was also the drum of the Division to Drummer Tilgham. The Kinston sailors are well known and popular in Wilmington. Their disbanding is a source of regret.

Returned on Excursion Trains.

A number of the delegates to the Congressional Convention returned on the Fayetteville excursion train, which reached here at 10:30 A. M. yesterday. Among those in the party were Messrs. J. M. McGowan, F. T. Skipper, E. F. King, Louis H. Skinner, Janus Davis, J. B. Mercer, C. L. Taylor, J. J. Fowler, A. B. Robinson, Wm. J. Bellamy, Col. Walker Taylor and Dr. N. M. Oubret.

First Cotton Steamer.

The British tramp steamer Tuska, 1,999 tons, Capt. Smith, arrived yesterday from Baltimore. She is the first steamer this season for a cotton cargo, and is consigned to Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son. The first cotton steamer last year did not arrive until two weeks later. The season from present receipts appears to be about that much in advance of last year.

Mr. Greenwald Removed.

Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Greenwald left yesterday for Philadelphia to make that city their future home. For 25 years Mr. Greenwald has resided here and was one of Wilmington's most highly esteemed citizens.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

IT IS PATTERSON.

Nominated for Congress at the Fayetteville Convention Early Yesterday Morning.
310TH CONSECUTIVE BALLOT.
 Cumberland Cast Her Strength With Robeson and Made the Choice With Scattering Vote—Side Lights of the Convention.
 [Special Star Correspondence.]
 FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 21.—Gilbert E. Patterson, of Robeson county, received the nomination on the 310th ballot at 6:45 this morning. The ballot stood:
 Bladen, 23; Brunswick, 18; Columbus, 27; 1-10; Harnett, 22; New Hanover, 69. Total, 149 2/10.
 Patterson—Bladen, 4; Columbus, 26 8/10; Cumberland, 54; Harnett, 8; Robeson, 23. Total, 174 8/10.
 Brown—Bladen, 4.
 Hale—Bladen, 4.
 The chair appointed Stephen McIntyre, of Robeson; W. A. Stewart, of Harnett, and N. A. Sinclair, of Cumberland, a committee of escort, who, through Mr. Sinclair, presented Mr. Patterson to the convention. In accepting the nomination Mr. Patterson said it was the proudest moment of his life. "That when he had taken his seat in the halls of Congress there would be no county or section with him; no Upper Cape Fear or Lower Cape Fear; only he would be the representative of the Cape Fear District."
 The following Executive Committee was named: E. F. McCulloch, of Bladen; Geo. H. Bellamy, of Brunswick; H. O. Moffitt, of Columbus; N. A. Sinclair, of Cumberland; Geo. K. Grantham, of Harnett; Geo. L. Morton, of New Hanover, and E. F. Moore, of Robeson.
 The committee held a meeting and organized by the election of Geo. L. Morton, chairman, and E. F. Moore, secretary.
 The closing scenes of the convention, while exciting, were free from the semblance of bitterness. The several candidates were each strong men and they have cause to be proud of the loyalty of their friends. Especially is this true of Mr. Bellamy. His supporters were ever on the alert and their loyalty was the remark of the opposing elements of the convention. Major Wm. H. Bernard, who led the fight for Mr. Bellamy, fought manfully and well, but this veteran of many successful political battles was confronted by a condition and not a theory. To quote him, "we met the issue and we were defeated. The candidates and their friends must needs have regrets—it is but natural—but in this short life, of such grave concern, one cannot afford to cherish disappointment to the end that the cherishing shall engender malice toward the more fortunate. Condition of the mind that count with the wisdom of years he will make a record for himself in the halls of Congress of which the Sixth district will be proud."
 Side Lights of the Convention.
 The permanent chairman, Mr. J. H. Myrover, made a model presiding officer. He is a giant in intellect if not in stature, and is, while firm, both kind and courteous.
 The hospitality of this people knows no bounds. Eager were they at all times for the comfort of their guests. Not forgetful, even, of minor things. An interesting character of the convention was Mr. Zachariah Prevette, of the Robeson delegation. He was rotund of figure, vociferous of voice and led in the speech making that was not heard. And when once, amid the clamor of go on, he had yielded the floor and another "mounted" the stand, Mr. Prevette led the racket that sent the brother to his bed. He is a big fellow, but we vote him a clever, good fellow, whole-souled and as big hearted as he is big stomach. Slide view our new made friend bears a striking resemblance to the Hon. Grover Cleveland, the gentleman who once figured prominently in the affairs of the nation.
 Another interesting character of the convention was the bald-headed brother from Some Where, who went taking in the barber shops of the city in quest of a hair cut at a bald-head reduced rates. I think he was a friend of my friend Jno. A. Oates, of the North Carolina Boysie, but this is denied by Jno. A. Oates. This brother should have been the recipient of out-cries for the trimming of his locks was but the effort of a moment. The honoral fraternity thought so little of him and would come so seldom he was not a fit subject for a cut—from regulation prices.
 The service given representatives of the press by the Western Union and Postal Telegraph agencies here deserves more than a passing notice. The Western Union ran a wire into Convention Hall and kept messengers at hand to do the bidding of "us poor, perspiring quill-drivers." No where in the State have we been so well cared for as here. The apology duly rendered by one that is sleepy and tired, too. C. J. R.

Agent for Steamer Pearce.

Mr. T. D. Love, general manager of the Merchants' and Farmers' Steamboat Co., has been made agent for the steamer Franklin Pearce, which was recently built to ply between Shalotte, N. C. and Wilmington. Mr. Love is this week taking a trip over the new route as guest of the steamer's master, Capt. W. A. Sneli.

Fort Fisher Memorial.

Southport Standard: "A movement is on foot to erect a monument at Fort Fisher to the memory of the Confederates who were slain there. This site has an historical interest of great importance. Yet it is one of the most sadly neglected spots known where an event of such great importance was enacted. The movement is late, but not too late."

A Negro Injured.

Alex. Bannerman, a negro employed by Flynn & Co. in loading cross ties on the schooner H. E. Thompson, screws the river, was seriously wounded yesterday morning by having ten cross ties fall on him. His legs were badly bruised. He was immediately sent to the hospital.

FROM VIRGINIA COURT TO THE MARRIAGE ALTAR.

Young Geo. W. Phillips Weds Rich Widow, Who Not Long Ago Had Him Arrested in Wilmington.
 The Richmond Times or yesterday has the following interesting little romance concerning the marriage of young Geo. W. Phillips that will be read with interest here:
 The marriage here yesterday of Mrs. Jessie P. Lambert, of Petersburg, and Mr. Geo. W. Phillips, of Wilmington, N. C., which adds another to the list of those going to prove that true love never did run smooth.
 Accompanied by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Northington, the couple came over yesterday on the midday train from Petersburg. Mr. Northington was also of the party. A marriage license was secured at once in the Hastings Court and the ceremony followed a little later.
 Mrs. Lambert is a charming widow of the Cockade City, and is thirty years old. Phillips is just twenty-three.
 Phillips came to Petersburg not many months ago, and has been boarding at the home of the PEARL AKERS, in that city, a sister of Mrs. Lambert, at whose home Mrs. Lambert was living. The widow and Phillips soon formed an affection for each other. Mrs. Lambert entrusted many valuable articles to the young man's keeping. She at length gave him a choice of $500 to have changed for her and Phillips got the change, but took it with him to other parts.
 When he could not be located in Petersburg, Mrs. Lambert swore out a warrant charging him with the theft of a gold watch, gold bracelet, a diamond pendant, a gold snake ring with diamond head and $50 in money. Phillips was at length arrested at Wilmington, N. C. He agreed to go to Petersburg for trial, saying he could vindicate himself. Before leaving Wilmington he telegraphed Mrs. Lambert for trial. She would withdraw the charge he would return all her valuables to her. The widow did not answer the telegram and said she would let the law take its course. The warrant was sworn out July 24th, Phillips was arrested the next day and brought to Petersburg July 26th. He was taken to the jail and his sister, Miss Jennie Alice Phillips, went with him to Petersburg to do all she could to secure his release.
 The trial at length came up in the Mayor's court at Petersburg, Virginia, presided over by Judge J. H. McNeill. Mr. W. B. McMillan, who represented Mrs. Lambert, stated to the court that his client wished to say the warrant was sworn out on the ground of apprehension, and that she was satisfied the young man did not intend to steal her property. Mrs. Lambert further stated that Phillips had returned her jewelry and that she was also in a sense a loser, as she gave it to him to purchase her some articles. Mr. Charles Hall, who represented Mrs. Phillips, asked that she be released and it was done. Mrs. Lambert said soon after the trial that if she had known any thing of what had been done out to Phillips she thought it would have run her mad.
 Mrs. Lambert, formerly Miss Jessie Rossie, is the widow of W. B. Lambert, who died about three years ago, leaving a young child, which was inherited by his wife and one child.
 Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will make their home in Durham, N. C.

TWO EXCURSIONS YESTERDAY.

Fayetteville Military at the Beach; Also Excursion from Dunn—Steeper Ride.
 The Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry excursion reached the city yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock and went through to the beach where the soldiers and their friends spent a delightful season. There were about 300 in the party, including the military company in uniform. Among those in the party were Messrs. Chas. McArthur, O. W. Rankin, David Currie, Joe McKeithas, Alex. Elliott, F. McGee Prior, P. S. Taylor and A. B. McMillan of the Phi Lambda Upsilon Society. The excursion returned last night at 8 o'clock.
 Hatch Bro's excursion from Dunn, N. C. arrived a little later than the Fayetteville train and that party, numbering 286, also went through to Wrightsville. In the afternoon they came up and went for a river trip on the steamer Wilmington. Returning a heavy squall struck the steamer this side of Carolina Beach. A few of the visitors were frightened but, of course, the boat rode the storm out safely and without accident to those on board.

Purchase Tug Boat.

The Charleston Post says Capt. Thomas F. Webb, who has been the first mate of the steamer Commodore Perry and formerly master of the United States tugboat Argonaut, has left that city to close up a purchase of the steamer tug Book belonging to Capt. Herbert Ward of this city. Capt. Webb will engage in towing about Wilmington during the coming Fall and Winter, but expects to return to Charleston with his boat next Spring.

Mr. Thos. H. Robbins Married.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mr. Thos. H. Robbins, of this city, and Miss Clara Hodges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. A. Hodges, of Fenwick county. The ceremony was performed in Wilmington by the Rev. Geo. B. Webster, pastor of Bladen Street Methodist Church, in the presence of a few friends.

Threatening Evening Cloud.

A dense, black cloud from the northwest came over the city quickly yesterday evening at 6 o'clock and caused some apprehension on the part of the more timid, but no damage resulted. There was a heavy blow, followed by a cool, refreshing downpour of rain, which greatly relieved the intense heat of earlier in the day. At Elizabethtown the wind and rain was very threatening, but did no damage. The cloud was remarkable for the absence of electricity, the quickness with which it came up and was dispelled.

Handsome Country Place.

Mr. George Darden, of this city, has one of the prettiest and most delightfully situated country homes in the vicinity of Wilmington. It is "Ferndale," five miles from Wilmington on the Cape Fear river. Mr. Darden has a nice track farm on the place and besides attending to this and deriving a neat revenue and a whole lot of satisfaction, he conducts a business in the city, driving to and from his farm each day. He has recently entertained a number of his friends in his handsome new home.

The River Improvement.

Southport Standard: "A party of surveyors in the Engineer Department have been down the past week with the Mary Lily, making surveys around the harbor and the bar, preparatory to the work that is to be started on the river this Fall."

AFFAIRS OF THE CITY

Audit and Finance Board in Postponed Regular Meeting Yesterday Afternoon.

REPAIRS TO OPERA HOUSE.
 Bids for Material Improvements to Theatre Approved—Alderman Mann's Hydrant Allowed—Bond for Repair of Sixth Street Bridge.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Board of Audit and Finance, postponed from Tuesday on account of the lack of a quorum, was held yesterday afternoon, the members in attendance having been Chairman H. C. McQueen, Messrs. Jesse Wilder and J. A. Corbett.
 The meeting was not an important one, the most noteworthy action, perhaps, having been the approval of bids for very material repairs to the Opera House, which have long been needed.
 Mr. Robert H. Cowan, lessee of the house, was present and presented the bids, plans and specifications for the work as agreed upon by the Public Building Committee of the Board of Aldermen. The repairs include repapering the walls down stairs and the boxes over the stage; re-plastering the ceiling above the dress circle and the purchase of a new base for the stage floor.
 The work will cost in the neighborhood of $200 and it is expected that it will be completed in time for the opening of the theatrical season. The work is in addition to very decided improvements being made by Messrs. Cowan Bros. upon their own account.
 The question of establishing a hydrant at corner of Sixth and Canal streets for the benefit of the fire station at that point was again introduced by Alderman Mann. The matter was referred to a previous meeting to the permanent committee of the Board of Aldermen, with a request to ascertain the cost of running the main the block necessary for the connection. After discussing the matter again, it was decided to place the hydrant at corner of Sixth and Church streets, where there would be no necessity for extending the main.
 The bond of A. G. Call for the faithful execution of his contract to repair Sixth street bridge, in the sum of $100, with Geo. O. Shepard, Jr., as surety, was presented and approved. Coupons due July 1st and amounting to $16,775 were burned by the Board, the same having been paid.
 After auditing bills for current expenses, adjournment was had, subject to call of the chairman.

Returns of the Delegates.

Sleepy, tired and completely worn out as the result of an all-night session, members of the New Hanover Convention who did not return on the excursion train in the morning, got home last night from Fayetteville at 8:30 o'clock, the train having been an hour behind time. The delegates appeared unanimously in their opinion that the unit rule adopted by the convention by which a large and respectable minority from several counties was gagged, was largely responsible for Mr. Bellamy's defeat. However, the New Hanover contingent appeared to accept the defeat gracefully.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanby Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hanby, No. 720 Dock street, entertained last evening in honor of their friend, Miss Daisy Robbins, of Durham, N. C., and their niece, Miss Ruth E. Tyler, of Newport News, Va. Among the happy party were Miss Ann Higgins, Elizabeth Burt, Sallie Enoch, Lottie Smith, Ella White, Alice Smith, Carrie White, Bessie Montgomery, Daisy Robbins and Ruth Tyler; Messrs. James S. Williams, James H. Taylor, King Corbett, Eugene Phillyar, Joe King, R. Rubright, Alfy Harry Reu and Dr. N. M. Wetzel, Mr. and Mrs. S. Burt.

 In order to make room for the goods I purchased at the Furniture Exposition I will close out my High Grade Furniture at prices that will astonish and interest you. This is well known that I never advertise any but facts, and that no FAKE SALE of any kind or character has ever been conducted by me. My custom ever since I have been in business is to mark the lowest spot cash price on every article in my store in plain figures. For this sale the cut price is marked in the same way. Invariably under the regular price, that there can be no deception. This is an opportunity I offer you but once a year. Call—see—examine—compare and the result will satisfy you.
