"Moonshining" must be an appetizing business in Kentucky. The still hunters went on a hunt recently and captured a female shiner, who was so large in circumference that the court house doors were too small to pass her and she had to be tried out in the yard. She was several yards around the waist, or the section where the feminine waist usually is.

Nobody in Florida seems to know just how many Seminoles there still are in that State. The Sems are very still at present, so still that no census taker has ever been able to find many of them, and as they suspect the white folks who want to number them, of some sinister purpose, they won't give any figures. The estimates run all the way from 200 to 600. But there are enough for all practical purposes.

A Virginia contemporary commenting upon the verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of that negro fiend in Wayne county who was shot to death for the usual crime, remarks that if that is the sentiment of the people of this State Inching ought to be legalized. Perhaps that wouldn't be a bad idea. The Boers took that view of it, when they made it lawful to hoot a raper on sight, and found it worked pretty well.

A writer in one of the magazines kindly informs people on the places to keep away from when the lightning is sporting around. With the bolts frisking about as they have been doing for some time, it isn't 80 much where not to go as where to go that people are interested in. When the lightning goes into one's house and hunts a fellow up in bed to hit him, as it did in one of our upland counties a few weeks ago, about the only safe place would seem to be down in a well or some other hole in the ground.

After Negro Crap Shooters.

The police are straight behind the crap shooters. Saturday Joe Hill and Governor Mosely, colored, were arrested at Second and Brunswick streets, charged with engaging in their favorite diversion. Hill was given 30 days on the roads and Moseley couldn't pay a fine of $5 and also went to the rock crushing plant for 15 days. Elias H. Hargett and Elias Smith, also colored, were caught in a "little game" on MacRae street Sunday and they gave bond for trial in the Mayor's Court next Thursday. Yesterday the police succeeded in coralling the following additional "shooters:" John Keal, Gealy James J. Nick Bird and Galloway Moore. The Smith negro will have to answer the additional charge of assaulting Policeman Frank George, when the officer first attempted to arrest him.

Several Offers to Sell Bloodhounds, Bu Commissioners Took No Notice of Same--Greenville Citizens Want Public Road-Tax Books.

The Board of County Commissioners held its regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon, Chairman D. Mc-Eachern and all members having been present, viz: Messrs. F. A. Montgomery, Gabriel Holmes, W. F. Alexander and H. L. Vollers.

A. Millis was allowed to list land in Cape Fear township without liability to double tax, provided the tax is paid during the current two weeks. Messrs. M. S. Willard, C. W.

Worth, James and Frank Canady, residents of Greenville Sound, appeared before the Board and requested the laying-out of a public road leading from the turnpike near the Martin place to Lietgen's landing. The matter was continued in the hands of the committee.

Thos. J. Ashley, white, of Wilmington township, was relieved of poll tax on account of physical disability.

The action of the chairman and a majority of the Board in appointing L. D. Cherry to survey certain lands for O. M. Fillyaw and W. M. Cherry in Cape Fear township, was approved. Mr Cherry was also appointed to survey lands of S. E. Carter in the same town

The reports of the Register of Deeds. Clerk of the Superior Court and Superintendent of Health were received and approved. That of the health superintendent shows that during August 194 patients were treated in the office and 40 visits were made to 33 patients at their homes. The county institutions were reported in good sanitary condition with no acute sickness in the home or in the jail, and only a few cases of chills and fever in the convict camp. A few cases of typhoid fever are reported.

County Attorney W. B. McKoy was allowed $75 for professional services in the county road bond litigation. Sophia McKenzie, colored, of Harnett township, was allowed $1 per month and her name was placed on the out-door poor list. Offers from several desiring to sell bloodhounds were read, but the Commissioners took nor proposed any action. One of them was an offer from "Hurricane" Branch to sell two thoroughbred pups sired by "Tiger," the famous man trailer used in the Cropsey case.

After drawing the list of jurors for the October term of the Superior Court as published in another column, an adjournment was taken until Thursday, when the tax books will be received from the compilers and turned over to the sheriff for collection. The compilation is complete, but the sheets are now being bound and will not be ready until later in LABOR DAY OBSERVANCE BY WILMINGTON PEOPLE.

Local Carpenters and Joiners and Those of Southport Made Delightful Occa-

Labor Day 1902 will perhaps go down in the annals of Wilmington as having been more generally and appropriately celebrated yesterday than ever before. The more elaborate observance was by the laboring people themselves and as the holiday was especially set apart in their honor, they should have made the most of it. In the celebration in Wilmington yesterday, however, all citizens joined the workingmen in the spirit of the hour and were glad to see them have a day of recreation and patriotic ob-

About 150 members of Southport Union, Carpenters and Joiners of America, their families and friends came up on a special trip of the steamer Wilmington at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning, accompanied by the Post band of Fort Caswell. They were met at the whar! by a deputation of prominent members of Local Union No. 899, of this city, and escorted to local headquarters in the MacRae building, where a cordial address of welcome was delivered in pleasing manner by Mr. J.

E. Smith. The exercises at the Hall having been completed, the two unions formed in line, and, after a short parade, headed by the band, the party left on the cars for Wrightsville beach, where the chief events of the day took place.

One of the notable features was the annual address by the Rev. R. B. John, presiding elder of the Wilmington District, M. E. Church. Rev. Mr. John spoke in the pavilion at the beach and was introduced by President Gordon, of the local Union. Mr. John began his highly entertaining address by saying this is the best age the world has ever seen. It appreciates the man more than ever for what he is doing. He cited the progress in surgery as an instance, ago when operations were performed by the ordinary barbers of the day. Gradually the profession advanced until now it is at the head of all professions. So it is with all forms of manual labor, for the happiness and comfort of mankind has made them all honorable callings. The study of social questions has given dignity to all kinds of labor. It is from the ranks of the sons of toil that all great men have sprung. To-day it is the sons of the rich that are to be pitied rather than the sons of the poor. Rev. Mr. John quoted from President G. Stanley Hall, at the head of an eminent New England college, who said that there is no strong character unless there is a strong will and there can be no strong will without a vigorous muscle. The fact is well recognized now throughout the world and it has become so that no edccation is complete without tndustrial train-

Mr. John's remarks were listened to with great pleasure and profit. The address was followed by a sumptous dinner at the hotels on the beach and the afternoon was given over to athletic sports of a lively nature. It was late in the afternoon when the carpenters and friends returned to their homes, all voting the day one well spent and enjoyable in every particular.

In the city the day was marked by the closing of the banks, Custom House and Produce Exchange and several departments of the Atlantic Coast Line. The holiday was well kept, and it is right and proper that it should have been

SEASON'S COTTON RECEIPTS AS POSTED YESTERDAY

Excepting Years of 1898 and 1899, When Yield in Territory Was Phenomenal, Figures Break All Records.

The actual receipts of cotton at the port of Wilmington for the crop year ended Sept. 1st., as posted yesterday on the exchange of the Chamber of Commerce, are shown to have been 284,722 bales against 258,561 bales during the year preceding. With the exception of the crop years ending in 1898 and 1899, when there was a very large production in the territory contiguous to Wilmington, the past season's receipts break all records since 1890 as will appear from the follow ing table covering 13 years at this port year were 269,652 bales against only 259,495 on the year previous. The domestic exports were only 7,846 bales against 35,359 in 1901, but what was lost in coastwise shipments was made up in foreign exports, the figures being 261,806 bales and 225,136 bales, the difference being in favor of the year just ended.

kets precipitated a discussion as to the granting of a license to J. F. Garrell & Co. to conduct a meat market at Fourth and Nun streets. Mr. Marsden Bellamy, counsel for Mr. Garrell, was present and urged the granting of the icense. He presented a petition from several citizens in the neighborhood in support of his contention that the application should be granted. Mr. Hashagen presented a counter petition and Mr. Bailey called attention to the fact that the opening of these outside markets had a tendency to depreciate the renting value of the city markets. It was finally decided by the Board to grant the license. The vote was 6 to

At this juncture Mr. Hashagen arose and said he thought the matter had been referred to the Finance Committe, of which he was chairman, and that only the Independent Ice Company would submit a bid and that was 25 cents per hundred, delivered in any quantity and any where. Mr. Murrell said the Public Building Committee was glad to be relieved, and upon motion the contract was ordered to be made with the Independent Co.

Upon motion of Mr. Tienken it was resolved that the Board adhere to its ormer action in regard to establishing water hydrant at Sixth and Castle streets and not at Sixth and Church as proposed by the Board of Audit and Finance. It was explained that one of the chief desires in having the hydrant located at Sixth and Castle was to furnish water for the engine station on that corner. need of the permanent improvement of the northern end of Second street, south of the railroad, along which there are a number of fine residences and an abominable street. He asked that work next be commenced on that. That let down the gap for a perfect fusillade of requests for street improvement by the several Aldermen for their respective wards and Mr. Johnson, chairman of the committee, cried out for no instructions if possible; the committee would do the best it could and might be hampered in its work by instructions. Mr. Johnson said he thought the most urgent need upon the completion of the Red Cross improvement was on Chesnut, between Seventh and Tenth streets, where grading had been done, and the city was in danger of damage suits by washing rains. No instructions were given, and Mr. Johnson later asked to supplement his report by saying that lately an expert paver had come from Columbia, S. C. and was laying some splendid concrete sidewalks down town, notably in front of J. W. Murchison & Co.'s store and the Atlantic National Bank. As chairman of the committee he said he had agreed for the city to pay part of the expense inasmuch as the sidewalks in that section had already gone to pieces. The work was costing 90 cents a square foot.

Mr. Mann said he was a member of the Streets and Wharves Committee, and that was the first he had heard of any agreement for the city to pay a part of the cost. He was opposed to it, and said he thought he could express a similar sentiment for his colleague, Mr. Bailey, also a membenof the committee, who had retired previous to the report.

Mr. VonGlahn said he had never closed arc light system and that the heard of such a proposition or preceother lights were in very satisfactory | dent as Mr. Johnson had claimed for understanding that it would lay brick sidewalks when citizens furnished all material, but as for the city's paying a part for a sidewalk around private premises he had never heard of it. The Mayor also said that Mr. Von-Glahn's idea was his understanding of the standing agreement.

> Mr. Johnson said he thought the laying, grading, curbing, etc., was about one half the cost of a sidewalk and he would recommend the payment by the city of that proportion for the concrete work.

The recommendation brought forth perfect storm of disapproval and Mr. Johnson withdrew his recommendation, expressing the hope that something might be done by which the city could get a good long stretch of this concrete sidewalk. In Columbia, the city laid at its own expense about four miles of such sidewalk.

The reports of committees having been exhausted, reports from other departments were called for. The Superintendent of Health, Dr. C. T. Harper, reported that during the month 42 deaths had occurred, 14 white persons and 28 colored; 52 births. 19 white, 33 colored. One case of scarlet and 7 of typhoid fever occurred during the month; 3,310 inspections were made by the health officers; 732 lime and acid orders issued; 5 fumigations made; 1,120 cart loads of garbage removed; 1,518 premises attended by

The chief of the Fire Department reported four alarms during the month and a total damage of not more than $50.

The cattle weigher reported 250 head of cattle weighed and inspected and the payment into the treasury of $37.50 revenue therefrom. The City Attorney reported the collection of $446.09 back taxes since last report. The Local Board of Fire Underwriters reported an infraction of the building ordinance by the erection of a frame, composition roof structure near the yards of the Coal, Cement and Supply Co. The matter was referred to the Fire Commission, composed of lice departments. Two propositions from John H. Whiteman to lease for ten years the city wharf back of Front street market house, at a rental of $100 per year, were not granted.

There was a warm fight over the granting of a liquor license to Elijah Walton at Tenth and Grace streets. Petitions pro and con were presented and the relative merits of the two afforded a subject of rapid fire discussion. Mr. Johnson led the movement against granting and Messrs. Mann and Hashagen for granting. A. J. Marshall, Esq, appeared as counsel for Mr. Walton, and a vote resulted in a tie. The Mayor cast the deciding 189,840 priate $387 for extending the main to 160,098 that point, that amount being the bid of the Clarendon Water Works for 189 325 of the Clarendon Water W Cooper and Murrell.
