COTTON BY STEAMER FROM GEORGETOWN, S. C.

Planter Arrived Yesterday With Cargo for Sprunt & Son-Receipts Continue Heavy-News on the Wharf.

Cotton receipts yesterday were 3,792 bales against 1,034 on the same day last year. The rush of the fleecy staple to market has had a bad effect on the receipts of naval stores. The transportation lines have about all they can do to handle the cotton and are paying as little attention as possible by necessity to the movement of spirits. rosin, tar and crude. The receipts of all of these were very light yesterday. Not a single barrel of rosin was brought in, which is something extraordinary. Tramp steamers are piling up at the compresses here for cargoes and Messrs. Sprunt & Son find themselves with plenty to do to get the cotton here. The steamer Planter. Capt. Bennett, arrived yesterday from Georgetown, S. C., with a cargo of 478 bales and it was being discharged last night at the compresses. She will return to Georgetown to-day. The British steamer Haslingden, 1,220 tons, Capt. Willis, from Bermuda, arrived yesterday to Messrs. Sprunt & Son for a cotton cargo. The Hashlingden is the smallest of the six steamers now in port for cotton, but she is staunch and has a good carrying capacity for her size.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

Steamer Master Appeared in Behalf o His Sailors--Special Officer Dropped from Force-Cases Heard.

At the request of Capt. Reeder, master of the British steamer Vauxhall Bridge, now in port for a cargo of cotton, Mayor Waddell, in the municipal court yesterday, investigated charges that Policemen Howard and McClammy had been unmerciful in clubbing one of his sailors last Friday upon the occasion of the sailor's arrest on Nutt street. The officers were exonerated of any blame in the matter and were discharged. The sailors were Mohammedans and neither of them could speak English. An interpreter from aboard the ship was necessary at the trial. The costs previously paid in the case by the sailor, were returned, however, as he was shown to have been only a peacemaker in the disturbance out of which the arrests

Wm. Godwin, a special officer on the force, who was sworn in some time ago, was relieved of his badge by the Mayor vesterday as the result of an investigation in the police court of charges against Mr. Henry Woebse for being asleep in a cart in front of his store Saturday night. The special officer arrested him and brought him to the station house over Mr. Woebse's

The Coming of Craig and Pritchard To-morrow Night Hailed With Pleasure.

CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES.

They All Came Up from Southport Yesterday - Mr. Patterson's Appointments-An Incident With the Negro Monday Night.

With the passing of the New Hanover independent movement, of which one hears very little nowadays, and the passing into history of the Cou gressional discussion and the Senatorial convention the same day at Southport, political interest locally just now is centered in the joint debate to-morrow night in the Academy of Music between Senator Jeter C. Pritchard, of Madison county, and Hon. Locke Craig, of Buncombe.

The opening day of the joint canvass by these gentlemen at Kinston Monday is reported to have been as lively as could be expected under the circumstances with prospects of very much livelier times ahead. Yesterday the candidates spoke in the morning to a large crowd at Smithfield and in the afternoon they went over to Fayetteville where they will speak this morning at 11 o'clock, probably arriving here at 7:30 o'clock to-night. From Wilmington they go to Rocky Mount and Raleigh.

Mr. Craig will be introduced by J.O. Carr, Esq., and will open the debate here. According to the compact entered into by the speakers the first will have an hour and fifteen minutes, the second will have an hour and twenty minutes, then the first speaker will have a rejoilder of fifteen minutes.

The report from Greensboro that friends of the other Democratic candlwould stay away from the speaking as a kind of rebuke to Mr. Craig for acin fact on the streets yesterday and all rousing welcome here.

The Raleigh News and Observer of yesterday says:

Mr. Geo. Rountree, of Wilmington, who is in the city, speaking yesterday of the report sent out from Greensboro that Mr. Locke Craig would get the cold shoulder in Wilmington in the debate to be had there on Thursday with Senator Pritchard, said that there was not a word of truth in it, and there will be a great attendance to hear Mr. Oraig.

There was some feeling at first, said Mr. Rountree, "that this appearance of Senator Pritchard would tend to crystalize an independent move ment, but this is exactly what is to be desired, for it will be seen at once that it is the same old crowd of Radicals that always fight the Democrats. No, Mr. Locke Craig will be welcomed in Wilmington, and not given a cold shoulder or a freeze-out.

About the Congressional Campaign. The Congressional candidates who pulled off the joint debate at Southport Monday night came up on the steamer Wilmington yesterday. All were apparently pleased with the turn of affairs in Brunswick. Col. Slocumb left last evening, via Wilson, for his home at Fayetteville and Mr. Mc-Kethan will leave for his home in the same city this morning. Mr. Patterson remained in the city, and is shaking hands with his New Hanover constituents. He will return to his home at Maxton to-day. Mr. Patterson was asked yesterday if there were any arrangements for other joint debates between the Congressional candidates. He said he knew of none, but that he would speak individually at Tar Heel, Bladen county, on Friday night, and at White Oak, Bladen county, on Saturday night. Other appointments will be made later, including Wilmington. Persons who came up on the boat yesterday told of an ugly incident of the speaking Monday night. The colored brethren, emboldened perhaps by the appearance of a few Republicans, were present to the number of about 25 or 30, and one of the contingent, made even more brazen by a cheap grade of liquor, interrupted Mr. Patterso's speech by shouts of "That ain'," etc. Mr. Patterson paused a moent; some one yelled "Put him out," and that was enough, for Mr. Nigger had departed simultaneously with the rising of several gentlemen

ust Exhibit Your Ticket.

The Atlantic Coast Line yesterday ssued an order that in the future no persons will be allowed to pass under the passenger shed proper at the Front street station without exhibiting their tickets to the gateman and having the same punched. The officials of the road found the order necessary in view of the heavy travel during the Fall and Winter, and Gateman Piner says he will observe the rule to the letter.

POLITICALLY. SPLENDID OPENING AT

PARIS MILLINERY STORE

Popular New Emporium Crowded With Ladies Yesterday in Search for Pashion's Fancies.

The Fall and Winter millinery season in Wilmington had a most auspicious opening yesterday and last evening at the handsome new Paris Millinery Emporium, No. 121 Market street, which was thronged with ladies from the time the store opened at 10 o'clock in the morning until it closed near 11 o'clock last night. Mr. M. Braddy, the proprietor of the store, who has just returned after several years in New York, was given an enthusiastic welcome by his former lady friends and customers, and Madame Connelly, the gifted New York head milliner, was the recipient of very many compliments upon her excellent display of hats and other millinery offerings. There were hundreds of designs in fashionable head gear in variety and beauty enough to satisfy the most exacting. For a novice to essay a description would be to do an injustice to all that is fashionable and up-to-date.

Orders amounting to about $600 were taken during the day and many visitors made selections for which they will call and give an order later. Mr. Braddy informed a representative of this paper last night that within 15 minutes after his doors were opened yesterday morning he counted 300 ladies and children in the place and very nearly that number continued to come and go while the opening was in progress. The store was handsomely decorated for the event and last night the shelves and counters were a perfect flood of light, which combined with so much that was new and bright | Sterling. in the millinery art to make a scene lovely indeed. Music is being furnished during the opening days, which will continue dates for the Senate in Wilmington until 11 o'clock to-night, by a special orchestra and ice cream and lemonade are being served free of cost to all cepting Pritchard's challenge to a visitors. Madame Connelly has five joint discussion, found no foundation expert trimmers and salesladies to assist her in the millinery department agreed that the speakers would have a and in all there are eleven young lady lady clerks. The number is sufficient guarantee that every lady will receive due attention when she visits the store. Mr. Braddy and Madame Connelly extend a cordial invitation to the public and the ladies especially to visit the store to-day or this evening.

DEATH OF MRS. O. S. ELLIS.

She Was the Wife of a Former Well

Known Wilmingtonian .- The Funeral. Friends in this city have heard with sincere sorrow of the death of Mrs. C. Myers. S. Ellis, of Savannah, Ga., which occurred last Tuesday night in New York, whither she had gone in company with her husband, Capt. C. S. Ellis, several months before for treatment. 'The remaining members of the family, all of whom are well known in Wilmington, were spending the Summer at Isle of Hope.

Mrs. Ellis is survived besides her husband by five children, the eldest of whom are Miss Kate Ellis and Mr. Charles Ellis, and one sister, Mrs. Frank L. George. She was a devout member of the First Baptist church and a directress in the Savannah Female Orphan Asylum and in the Port Society. Every movement for the betterment of mankind found in Mrs. Ellis a true friend, and she was besides a lady of charming personality.

The remains were carried to Sayannah last Friday morning and the funeral was conducted the same day from the late residence at 121 Gwinnett street, east.

Capt. Ellis, the bereaved husband once lived here and now owns a valuable place on WrightsvilleSound, where his family have several times spent the Summer. The death of Mrs. Ellis caused much sorrow among many friends in Wilmington.

TOBACCO BOOTH FOR THE FAIR.

Pythian Carnival Promoter Thinks It

Good Thing and Makes a Suggestion. "While all this tobacco warehouse gitation is going on," remarked a Pythian Carnival enthusiast yesterday, "why don't you suggest in the paper that the Merchants' Association, tory. Chamber of Commerce and the Navassa Guano Co. join in maintaining a tobacco booth here during our Fair? It would be a drawing card. Stock it with bright yellow leaf, the kind that could be grown and sold here and get Little River Transportation Company an expert tobacconist to take charge at Little River, S. C., to morrow, the of it and explain to the farmers how steamer Compton, which arrived yes-are needed. "It is a great scheme," spoke the Navassa company and first vice president of the Chamber of Commerce, and he's right in for it. All it needs of shape."

The suggestion appears to be a good one and one that will no doubt be duly investigated.

Brunswick Superior Court.

No important cases had been reached in Brunswick Superior Court yesterday. To-day the murder trial of the negro charged with burning a woman to death at Navassa several months ago will be commenced. Messrs. Herbert McClammy and Marsden Bellamy, of this city, appear as counsel for the negro and will make a strong plea for his life.

THE COUNTY SCHOOLS

Fall Terms of All Outside of the City Will Begin Next Monday Morning.

ROSTER OF THE TEACHERS.

Pew Changes from Last Year-Prospects for a Very Pine Attendance and Good Work-Several Improvements During Vacation Days.

The schools of New Hanover county, outside the city, will begin their Fall terms next Monday. The prospects for a fine attendance was never better, and the patrons of the schools in the county were never more thoroughly imbued with the educational spirit. During the Summer the teachers and pupils have enjoyed a delightful vacation, and the committees of the various districts and the Board of Education have grasped the opportunity to make many improvements while the schools were not in session.

A rousing educational rally was held in August on Middle Sound, a new building was erected on Greenville during the vacation, and at all the school houses more or less improvements have been made.

Prof. Washington Catlett, the enterprising superintendent of public instruction in this county, yesterday completeted the roster of teachers for the new scholastic year. There are few changes, as will appear from the following list in the several town-

Vestibuling Street Cars.

All the closed cars of the C. R., L & P. Co. are being vestibuled in con formity to the order of the Corporation Commission some time ago. Last Fall and Winter the Wilmington street rail way was exempted from vestibuling its cars by a special order granted, with the provision that all the cars would be vestibuled another year. Four of the cars have already been completed and all of them are being overhauled and repainted.

THE PYTHIAN MUSICALE A DELIGHTFUL SUCCESS.

Programme of Merit and an Entertainment of High Order-Audience Not Large But Appreciative,

> Every promise as to the excellence of the entertainment was made good last night in the "Pythian Musicale" at the Academy of Music which really deserved a much larger patronage than it received. However, the audience was very enthusiastic and nearly all the numbers on the splendid programme were warmly encored.

> Hollowbush's Orchestra, which supplemented the printed programme, was never better, and contributed largely to the success of the event. The programme as observed was as follows:

Double Mixed Quartette, "Troubadour" (M. Watson), by Miss Annie Adrian and Miss Norma Foster, sopranos; Mrs. Greene Fenley and Mrs. A. M. Waddell, altos; Messrs. C. H. Cooper and R. C. Banks, tenors; Messrs. James S. Williams and H. K. Holden, bassos.

y Miss Hattie Taylor. Songs-"Little Boy Blue" (Nevin) and "Dandelion" (Chadwick), by Miss Norma Foster.

rranged by Dudley Buck, Misses Bryan, Foster, Mrs. Fenley and Mrs. Waddell. Piano Solo-"Caprice" (Heller), by

Female Quartette-"Annie Laurie,"

Mr. James Craft. "Studies in Grace with the Fan" by Miss Foster.

Violin Solo-"Concerto No. 9" (De-Beriot), by Mr. Kimbrough Jones. Male Quartette - Messrs. Cooper, Banks, Williams and Holden. Accompanists-Miss Corbett and

Mr. Munson. The "Studies in Grace with the Fan" by Miss Foster were executed with calcium effects from the bal cony, and were exceedingly pretty and graceful. The entire entertainment was among he best given here by local talent in ome time.
