AT THE C. W. POLVOGT CO.'S

Semi-Annual Opening of Millinery and Dry Goods at Wilmington's Popular Front Street Emporium.

Hundreds of ladies yesterday visited the fashionable dry goods emporium of the C. W. Polvogt Company on Front street and were charmed with the exquisite display of Fall and Winter millinery and other goods. The occasion was the semi-annual opening of that popular store and all records were broken both in neatness of display and in point of attendance. The opening will continue to-day and the enterprising management of the store, the salesmen and the salesladies most cordially invite their friends and the public to visit the store.

The millinery department in charge of Miss Crossler was never more complete with fashion's latest fancies and all that is new in the art fastidious. The decorations, too, are exquisite and to look upon the wealth of beauty, if for no other purpose, is well worth the time it takes to go over the conveniently arranged apartment.

Not only is the gala attire in evidence in the millinery parlors, but all over the store it is as neat as a new pin. Mr. G. Henry Haar and Messrs. R. C. Platt and A. L. Price have wrought wonders in the decorative art and upon every hand are exhibiting their cleverness. "The Race for Public Patronage," designed by Mr. Haar, is novel and pleasing to the eye.

To enumerate all the creditable displays is forbidden by space. The finest lines of cloaks, suits and furs are to be seen and in the centre of the store is a linen counter artistically arranged. Laces are also shown in abundance and the dress goods department never had more attractive fabrics.

A cordial invitation is extended the ladies to visit the store to-day.

A Night With Justice Bornemann.

Although Squire Bornemann has his headquarters in the extreme north-eastern section of the city, he had a distress call last night about 10:30 o'clock from the uttermost confines of Deep Neck, in the far south-western section of the city. Ernest Bland, colored, sought out the "Dry Pond" justice and told him that Almora Hill, a South Carolina negro, had invaded a house in which he was sleeping and made him jump through a window for fear of his life. A woman in the same house was attacked and beaten with an axe. Justice Bornemann made haste to Constable Sheehan's house and informed him of Bland's narrow escape from being the victim of a tragedy. Mr. Sheehan was sick and couldn't respond to the call, so Justice Bornemann sallied forth, came up with Policeman H. P. Merritt in the vicinity of the scene of the scared negro and a meat axe and together the two soon had the bad negro in the clutches of the law. He confessed all and went to jail for preliminary trial before Justice Bornemann at noon to-day.

LOCAL DOTS.

The W. C. T. U. will meet this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. building. A full attendance is desired.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Martha Elizabeth Holley, of this city, to Mr. Joe N. Britain, also of Wilmington.

Dr. Blackwell has received and accepted an invitation to deliver his address on "The Young Man Himself" before an interdenominational mass meeting of young men of Charleston, S. C., December 14th.

The Fire Commission, composed of Mayor Waddell, Chief of Police Furlong and Chief Schnibben, of the Fire Department, yesterday visited the plant of the Standard Oil Co. in reference to the storage of gasoline and other combustibles. A conference will later be held as to what action, if any, is necessary to restrict the storage of these products.

HON P. M. SIMMONS TO SPEAK.

Will Address Voters of New Hanover in Court House Next Monday Night.

Hon. Furnifold M. Simmons, North Carolina's only Democratic Senator, last night telegraphed Chairman Geo. L. Peschau, of the County Democratic Executive Committee, that he would arrive at Wilmington next Monday, and speak in the Court House at night. He speaks at Snow Hill, Greene county on the Saturday preceding.

Chased By Mounted Officer.

Rufus Peice, a colored stevedore, was bound over to the Superior Court by the Mayor yesterday, charged with making an assault with a deadly weapon upon Wm. Hall, a negro drayman, at whom he became incensed because the drayman allowed his horse to almost run over some colored women. Peice rode a three-pound iron ball in a handkerchief and used it as a slung shot on Hall. Policeman T. G. Evans gave chase to the negro on a bicycle, which he pressed into service, and caught him at Second and Orange streets.

AGAINST RAILROAD.

The Penny Damage Suit in the Superior Court is Being Bitterly Fought.

MOTION MADE TO NON-SUIT.

Motion Not Sustained by Judge Bryan, and Defendant Will Introduce Evidence This Morning—Witnesses for Defendant Heard.

It will require all of to-day's and perhaps part of to-morrow's session of the Superior Court to complete the trial of the Penny damage suit against the Atlantic Coast Line, which was entered upon yesterday. At the close of yesterday's proceedings the plaintiff had introduced only three witnesses and rested and argument was had before Judge Bryan upon a motion by defendant to quash, which was overruled. Evidence in behalf of the railroad will be introduced this morning and this will probably be followed by further testimony for the plaintiff in rebuttal.

Both sides exhausted their number of peremptory challenges and made many for cause before the jury to try the issues in the case was finally selected yesterday morning. This required until about noon and resulted in the following having been empanelled: I. W. Solomon, John Dyer, W. H. M. Koch, E. H. Sneed, Charles D. Foard, Ike K. Pinner, W. E. Koonce, Richard J. Jones, F. A. Montgomery, Geo. Harris, Walter G. MacRae and C. D. Gilbert.

The following issues were agreed upon and submitted:

1. Was the plaintiff injured by the negligence of the defendant?

2. Did the plaintiff by his own negligence contribute to his injury?

3. What damage, if any, has the plaintiff sustained?

Mr. E. F. Penny, the plaintiff who sues for $30,000, was the first witness introduced. He related that on Sept. 16th, 1898, he took passage on one of defendant's trains for his farm at Leland, Brunswick county, the first station beyond Navassa; that an altercation with an unruly negro and the conductor, the late Capt. Sam Carmon, took place in the second-class coach in which he was riding, and that while leaving the car at his destination the negro, who was ejected from the train, fired at the conductor, but by mistake the ball hit the plaintiff; that the wound was in his groin and in consequence thereof he suffered much bodily harm and is still suffering at times; that the ball until this day has never been extracted, though diligent search has been made for it by physicians and he yet fears fatal consequences.

The next witness was Mr. Cyrus VanAmringe, baggage master on the train, who testified that the negro, Sam Callaway, who has since been sent to the penitentiary, boarded the train at Wilmington, and was drunk and inclined to be rowdy under the front street station shed; that at Navassa the late Capt. J. W. LaMotte, who has since died, and also Capt. Sam Carmon, had trouble with the negro; that he saw Mr. Penny shot at Leland, and witnessed the ejection of the negro prior thereto.

Mr. Carl Stern, a passenger on the same train, also testified to the shooting, and Mr. H. C. Lumsden, a relative of Mr. Penny, testified as to plaintiff's great bodily suffering.

At this juncture the plaintiff rested his case, and counsel for the railroad made a motion to non-suit upon the ground that the evidence was insufficient. The motion was made under the Hinsdale Act, but was not sustained by Judge Bryan. The jury was sent out of the room while the questions of law involved in the motion were argued by Messrs. Rountree & Carr, Bellamy & Peschau and Davis & Davis for the Coast Line, and Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy, E. K. Bryan, Herbert McClammy, A. J. Marshall and Eugene S. Martin for Mr. Penny.

At 5:30 o'clock after ruling upon the motion Judge Bryan ordered the jury to resume its place in the box and asked defendant's counsel if they desired to begin with their witnesses. Mr. Davis said they would wait until morning and accordingly a recess was taken until 10 A. M. to-day.

The evidence in the case is being taken by Miss Shrier as official court stenographer.

The following salesmen were ordered summoned for service to-day: J. C. Springer, Hanson Banton, H. M. Emerson, W. W. Blair, A. E. Carter, B. F. Hall, R. O. Grant, Jno. W. Murray, William Blanks, C. T. Grant, H. Lucy Hunt, J. F. Garrell, W. A. Sanders, Jas. H. Curtis, C. O. Covington, Bartley D. Baldwin.

Another Brunswick Conviction.

Mr. W. H. Phillips, Democratic nominee for the Legislature from Brunswick county, arrived in the city last evening. He says there is still another convention called to meet in his county. The "Conservative Democrats" have issued circulars calling a convention of all voters of their persuasion to meet at Lockwood's Folly shop to-morrow. A full county and legislative ticket will be nominated. The Republicans so far have held no convention, but they largely participated in the distribution of the offices by the "Citizens' Mass Convention" at Lockwood's Folly a short time ago. They were doubtless satisfied with the result of that meeting, but may later call the fourth convention in Brunswick this year.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Marchion bank building on Chesnut street; Services this evening at 8 o'clock. All are invited.

THE GORDON-SHAY OPERA CO.

Attraction at the Academy To-night that Will Likely Draw Fashion and Beauty of the City—Paul Gilmore

Miss Rosa Cecilia Shay's "Carmen" will be witnessed at the Academy of Music here to-night with the most intense interest. The enthusiasm over the young artist in Richmond and Norfolk was unprecedented since the days of Emma Abbott. The great beauty, of the singer of course, lends greatly to her performance.

The opera will be presented with an attention to every minute detail seen in metropolitan productions. The costumes, which are all new, were made after original drawings and the handiwork that were used by a road company. The scenery which includes several magnificent settings, will be brought here on a special car from Raleigh. From a scenic standpoint the production promises to be a revelation.

Miss Shay, it will be remembered by all those who have heard the talented young artist, is a daughter of Judge Shay, the famous criminal lawyer of Cincinnati. The beautiful young singer is, of course, the very apple of his eye, and he and Mr. Gordon have surrounded her with a wealth of scenery and an array of brilliant costumes of lavish stage expenditures. Some idea of this wealth of environment may be gathered from the simple statement that the production of "Faust" alone cost more than $38,000.

The performance in Richmond attracted a most fashionable audience, including Governor Montague and many others.

The Richmond Dispatch, in discussing the performance of "Faust," makes the statement that Miss Shay's performance was criticism, and declares that there is no other organization on the road that begins to be compared with this, which Manager J. Saunders Gordon has so successfully equipped this season.

DAY'S NEWS ON THE WHARF.

Steamer Planter Arrived from Georgetown.

Cotton receipts yesterday, 3,303 bales; same day last year 4,404. The steamer Planter, Capt. Bennett, arrived late yesterday with a cargo of cotton for Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son.

The Clyde steamer Onida is a day late, and was expected to arrive here last night or early this morning. The steamer Haves is here waiting on the Onida for a cargo of New York freight for Fayetteville.

The Hall Tie and Lumber Co. made a record for handling coastwise yesterday that will be hard to beat. They loaded into the schooner John R. Teel in ten hours five thousand and ten cypress ties. These average 30 feet each, which is equivalent to 190,000 feet of lumber, board measure, for the day's work.

The Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce met yesterday, President Chadbourne, Secretary Kyle and Messrs. H. W. Malloy, I. M. Bear, G. J. Doney and L. B. Rogers having been in attendance. A vote of thanks was extended to the committee, which provided the handsome new quarters for the Chamber, and the Secretary was instructed to subscribe for a leading financial paper in the West and one in New York. These are to supplement the list of papers already received by the Chamber. It was stated that members of the body were privileged to transact business with any person, whether members of the Chamber or not, in the writing apartment to the left of the entrance to the rooms.

To Take Railway Testimony.

A copy of the order in the suit of the Inter-State Commerce Commission against the twenty-two railroads to enforce the ruling in the Wilmington Tariff Association's suit was received by Clerk W. H. Shaw, of the U. S. Circuit Court yesterday. It is ordered by the court that the complainant and defendant be allowed 60 days in which to take proof in chief and 30 days thereafter in which to take proof in rebuttal. Further that each party must take testimony and exhibit before taking proof shall give 15 days notice to the opposite party of the names of the witnesses to be examined, of the officer or special examiner same to be taken, and the time and place of the taking of the testimony. It is further ordered that the parties to the cause may by stipulation in writing agree upon a special examiner or examiners to take the testimony.

The Superintendent's Hours.

For the information of the public the STAR is requested to state that the office hours of Superintendent John Jay Blair are as follows at the various public school buildings in the city: Monday at the High School from 2 to 5 P. M. Wednesday at the High School from 9 to 11 A. M. Thursday at Hemenway from 9 to 10:30 A. M. Friday at the Union School from 9 to 10:30 A. M. Saturday at the High School from 9 to 12 A. M. The superintendent's regular office, of course, is at the High School, but the above schedule will be found convenient to all who desire to see him at any of the buildings.

OPENING AT REHDER'S

Magnificent Display of Millinery and Dry Goods at Popular Department Store.

THROGGED WITH LADIES.

Annual Event Was the Most Talked-of Affair in Wilmington Among the Ladies Yesterday—Concert by Hollowbush's Orchestra.

The semi-annual display of millinery and dress goods at the popular department store of Messrs. J. H. Rehder & Co., 615-619 North Fourth street, began yesterday morning at 10 o'clock and will continue in all its splendor until 7 o'clock this evening. It is saying a great deal to lay down the proposition that this season's opening is fully up to the standard of similar events in former years, but, if anything, the present effort has exceeded all others in point of styles shown and elaborateness of display.

The ladies flocked to the store yesterday in hundreds and last night the throngs were simply immense. It reminded one of holiday times when lady shoppers turn out en masse. Their going was not in vain, either, for the popular management of the store had lots to entertain them and a wealth of beauty for them to look upon.

The decorations this year are exceedingly pretty. The color scheme is white and lilac and it is carried out admirably all over the store. The design for the millinery department is by Mr. Carl B. Rehder and that for the remainder of the building by Mr. Clayton Moore. In the millinery department, aside from the variety of lovely creations in the millinery art, are two pretty booths, superbly decorated and filled with palms and other flowers from the yards of Mrs. H. Rehder, the florist. A number of striking novelties in straw bows and straw ribbons also add to the effectiveness of the decorations. These came from the National Florists' Association, which met in Asheville in August, and were furnished by Mrs. Rehder.

But to come to the display of millinery itself, one is overwhelmed with the beauty of it all. Miss Sarah Gardner, the accomplished milliner, has a greater variety and a greater wealth of styles than ever before. She had a delightful visit to the fashion centers North in the early Autumn and has shown discriminating taste and rare good judgment in the selection of a stock. A few of the many styles are the "Chinese Honeymoon," "Ping Pong Saliors," "Shepherdess," "Sarah Bernhardt" and the "New Square." The latter is an exquisite square creation, with military pomps. The flat effects and Roman shapes are very much in evidence and are proving quite popular. There was nothing but praise and admiration for the new styles yesterday by the hundreds of ladies who came and went, many of them having been from out of the city. There are also many ready-to-wear hats. The effects this season are generally flat and trimmed in birds' wings, tips and plumes. Rehder has everything in the latest novelties and the most fastidious can be pleased.

The ceiling of the millinery department is handsomely covered and entwined about with autumn leaves. The windows also present an attractive appearance.

In the dress goods, silks and velvet marked, the display is none the less marked. Mr. Claude Moss is the clever salesman in charge. The columns in the centre of this spacious apartment are handsomely decorated with crepe paper in handsome designs.

On the second floor of the building there is also a pleasing and elaborate display of carpets, rugs and matings in charge of Mr. Thos. Farrow.

The domestics are under the special care of Mr. Robert Bowden, and the clothing department is in charge of Mr. E. Clayton Moore. In the latter department is carried a nice line of Vital Brand ready-to-wear suits that are said to equal custom made goods. The manager takes commendable pride in the department and numbers his friends and customers by the score. The gent's furnishing and hat department is in charge of the clever Mr. Thos. B. Powers, and he has a most fetching display. Mr. Lynn Moore is in charge of the shoe, and he is making a neat display of the famous Crawford for men and women.

Mr. Anson Alligood is in charge of all the retail department as head salesman and Mr. Carl Rehder, the junior member of the firm, has charge of the wholesale department. Mr. W. P. McGough travels all this section and is building up a splendid jobbing trade.

A notice of the opening would be incomplete without a reference to an exquisite display of roses, carnations and cut flowers, grown by Mrs. Rehder. The display was made at night by Mr. Will Rehder in the dry goods department and it attracted no end of admiration.

WATSON SPEAKS TO-NIGHT.

Large Crowd Will Hear Distinguished Commoner in the Court House.

Hon. Cyrus B. Watson, candidate for the United States Senate and one of North Carolina's foremost public men, will address the citizens of Wilmington in the Court House to-night at 8:30 o'clock. He will be introduced by ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, and the public is cordially invited to the meeting.

Mr. Watson will reach here at noon from Lumberton, where he spoke yesterday. From Wilmington he goes to Burgaw, Kenansville and Kinston on succeeding days.

Meeting of White Teachers.

Prof. Washington Catlett, county superintendent of public instruction, has arranged for a meeting of all the white public school teachers in the county at the Court House at 10 A. M., Oct. 25th. The meeting will be similar to a series held last year from time to time for the mutual good of all concerned.

CITY BOARD AUDIT & FINANCE.

Regular Meeting Last Night at Which Various Routine and Unimportant Matters Were Disposed Of.

The City Board of Audit and Finance met last night but transacted only routine and unimportant business. Chairman McQueen and Messrs. C. W. Yates and J. A. Orrell were present; also Aldermen Sweeney, Murrell, Tencken and Von Glahn, who came to urge concurrence in several matters previously passed upon by their Board.

Bill of Mr. A. D. Wessel, amounting to $15.50 for underpinning his residence on Fifth street, made necessary by excavations by the city was disapproved. Action of the Aldermen in abating poll tax upon Ellis Bonfarrah, listed erroneously, was concurred in. The action of the Aldermen in appropriating $37.50 for a clerk at Fourth street market until April 1st, was also approved.

A bid of Maj. W. F. Robertson for extending the water main from Sixth and Church to Sixth and Castle streets and for the establishment of a hydrant at the latter point, was accepted. The amount named is $387. Messrs. Sweeney and Von-Glahn spoke in reference to the advisability of such a hydrant. Coupons to the amount of $115, which had been paid, were burned by the Board.

In regard to the removal of the hydrant from between the tracks of the Carolina Central railroad on its yards in the city to Nutt and Brunswick streets, the committee was instructed to advertise for bids and award the contract in due form and the bill for same would be approved.

WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY MEETING.

Strong Fight Expected on Proposition to Move James Sprunt Institute.

Wilmington Presbytery will convene at Mount Williams' Church, near Bannerman's Bridge, in Pender county, to-day, and many pastors and laymen will leave to participate in the proceedings.

Rev. A. McFadyen, of Clarkton, arrived yesterday and Rev. J. C. Story is expected up from Southport to-day. Dr. J. M. Wells and Mr. B. G. Worth, of the First Church; Dr. A. D. McCure, of St. Andrew's, and Rev. C. W. Traywick, of Immanuel Church, with probably others, will represent the Wilmington congregations and all will leave this morning.

The most important action of the Presbytery will be upon the proposition to move the James Sprunt Institute from Kenansville to Wallace. There is a strong sentiment on each side and a hard fight over the question is expected.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Miss Edna Gasque, of Marion, S. C., is visiting at Capt. H. C. Twining's.

Miss Louise Bunting is the guest of her friends, the Misses Hinsdale, of Raleigh.

Mr. Edward N. Vogle, of Philadelphia, is in the city shaking hands with his numerous friends.

Hon. F. A. Woodward, of Wilson, was here yesterday en route to Clarkton on professional business.

Mr. W. R. Newberry, a prominent merchant of Magnolia, Duplin county, was in the city yesterday.

The numerous friends of Mr. Joe E. Bunting were glad to see him out yesterday, after a severe illness of six months.

Mr. J. M. Penny, A. C. L. agent at Orrum, N. C., was here yesterday on his way to Rocky Mount to enter the hospital. He has been in poor health for some time.

J. T. Bland, Esq., of Burgaw, Hon. R. T. Bennett, of Wadesboro, and Maj. Jno. D. Shaw, of Rockingham, are among the out-of-town attorneys in attendance upon New Hanover Superior Court this week.

Mr. Anson Alligood is in charge of all the retail department as head salesman and Mr. Carl Rehder, the junior member of the firm, has charge of the wholesale department. Mr. W. P. McGough travels all this section and is building up a splendid jobbing trade.

A notice of the opening would be incomplete without a reference to an exquisite display of roses, carnations and cut flowers, grown by Mrs. Rehder. The display was made at night by Mr. Will Rehder in the dry goods department and it attracted no end of admiration.

Likewise it would be unfair to omit one of the most pleasant features of the climax of the opening last evening—the delightful concert by Hollowbush's splendid orchestra. During the evening the following programme was skillfully rendered:

Overture, "Record Breaker," by Leonard.

Elly Gavotte," by Innes.

So "The Stokes," by Chopin.

"Inter-mezzo-Pastello," by Lorraine.

March.

"A Georgia Watermelon Party," by Chaup.

"Palms," cornet solo, by C. W. Hollowbush.

"Xylophone," solo, by Fred Poulé.

Waltz, "Lorraine," by Milton.

March, "The Bumblebee."

About the Carnival.

The Executive Committee of the Pythian Carnival and Merchants' Fall Festival will meet to-night at 8:30 o'clock, in the parlors of the new Castle Hall, over the Murohison National Bank, and a full attendance is desired. Mr. W. S. Layton, manager of the Layton Carnival Co., after a satisfactory conference with the committee, left yesterday for Richmond. He says he will bring the best he can to Wilmington, for he takes a particular pride in the city. His father now lives at Castle Haynes. He is a hustler from the word "go," and says he will give the people a week brim full of entertainment.

River and Harbor Work.

The tug Cynthia, attached to the Cape Fear river and harbor improvement, is on the way to Skinner's presence, in on the extensive work that is paratory to be commenced by the government.
