CONDEMNATION PROCEEDINGS

he Platt Heirs Receive $5,700 for Deep Water Terminal-Big Deed of Trust Filed by Another Company That Will Build in Brunswick.

Yesterday mention was made in these columns that condemnation proceedings had been instituted before the Clerk of the Superior Court of Brunswick county to gain possession of certain property in Southport from the Platt heirs for the Southport, Wilmington and Durham Railroad Co., one of the several corporations chartered recently for the purpose of building a line of railway from Wilmington to Southport, and ultimately to the coal fields of Virginia. The matter was terminated yesterday at Southport when a board of appraisers consisting of Messrs. M. O. Guthrie, E. B. Stevens and William Weeks warded to the owners of the property $5,700 for the plat which consists of 38 acres on the river front at deep water

Maj. W. A. Guthrie, of Durham, appeared for the railroad company, which is understood to be backed by the Seaboard Air Line, and Messrs. Junius Davis, John H. Gore, Jr., and Robert W. Davis appeared for the property

Another important development in the Southport railway situation yesterday and one which sent town lots sky high in our enterprising little neighbor city at the mouth of the Cape Fear, was the filing with the Register of Deeds, of Brunswick, of a deed of trust from the Cape Fear Terminal Railroad Company to the Lincoin Savings and Trust Company, of Philadelphia, to secure a bond issue of $800,000. The deed is upon the Miss Octavia Boatwright with Mr. proceeding. Other attorneys will also ranchises, roads to be built by the company, etc. It is said that this company will also build a line of railway through Brunswick to Clarkton and will develop the trucking industry along the line.

CLOSING THEATRE ENGAGEMENT.

Grahame-Goodwin Comedy Company is "East Lynne" - Matinee To-day.

That "East Lynne" is still popular was attested by the large audience at the Academy last night. The Grahame-Goodwin Comedy Company presented the drama in a highly creditable manner.

The engagement of the company closes to-day with two performances. At a special matinee this afternoon "Peck's Bad Boy" and "A Fatal Wedding" will be presented. The doors will open promptly at 2:15 o'clock. The admission will be 10 and 20 cents.

To-night the popular drams, "Jesse James," will be given. The play deals with the life and death of the noted outlaw, but is devoid of sensationalism. For this evening's performance seats are now on sale at Plummer's.

Social Circle of St. Paul's.

The Social Circle of St. Paul's Episcopal church was entertained on Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. Weeden, on Church St. The exercises at this social gathering were of more than usual interest, consisting of music, singing, recitations, readings and games. Everything was done by Mr. and Mrs. Weeden to contribute to the enjoyment of their guests, and the young people of the congregation feel that they are greatly indebted to their nost and hostess in so generously placing their attractive home at their disposal. After the amusements of the evening, the dining-room was thrown openand bountiful refreshments were served. Although all the gatherings of this social organization of St. Paul's are enjoyable, yet the present one was especially so, and will linger pleasantly in the memories of all present. The rector, who, is always present, and who superintends the exercises, is deserving of much praise for his efforts to add to the social enjoyment of the young people of his charge.

A Negro and a Hog.

Geo. Robertson, colored, is locked up at the police station for trial by the Mayor to-day and it is all on account of a hog. The "swine" died on Robertson's hands a few days ago and either for convenience sake or because the "porker" was a pet in the household, the carcass was buried in Robertson's own back yard, No. 1117 Meadow street. Now that was a long ways out and it was Robertson's pig and his own premises, but the neigh bors, who had acute olfactories, soon got on to the fact that the negro had had a funeral over his way, and straightway they went to the Health Department with their troubles. Inspector Hewlett was delegated to inquire into the matter and the hog was exhumed. Robertson's arrest fol-

The german was in honor of Capt. and Mrs. E. W. VanCourt Lucas, decided social favorites in Wilmington, who will leave soon for Memphis, Tenn. For that reason the function was of more than the usual interest and was pleasant to a degree seldom attained. Those present and dancing

MRS. M. E. IRVIN, CLAIMANT.

Says Property Belongs to Her by Deed of Trust Executed in 1856-Many Defendants Are Named-Counsel Will Appear on Both Sides.

A summons has just been issued for suit in the Superior Court in this county which involves the title to the land upon which the seaside resort, 'Summer Rest," is located.

The suit is one of the largest in the history of the county. The plaintiff is Mrs. Mary E. Irvin, of Wilmington, and she sues to dispossess a large number of property owners at the resort mentioned, who will fight the matter in the court until the bitter end, in the event it is pushed. The defendants are Messrs. Pembroke Jones. W. B. Blanks, E. O. Toomer, Dr. Will Pritchard, of New York, estate of the late 'M. Cronly, Frank Gause, Owen and H. L. Fennell and Mrs. Mamie E. Fennell, the Gilbert heirs, L. A. Blue and wife, Mrs. Annie E. Bowden and a number of others.

The tract of land involved makes practically a clean sweep from Baron Inlet to Lee's Creek. The property is claimed under a deed of assignment made in 1856 by the late Benj. Motte to Bernard Bax ter, by the provisions of which it was transferred to Baxter in trust for the assignor's wife and her descendants. Some of the defendants say the proceeding is an unheard-of one and has no foundation in law. The claimant, however, appears equally confident of success and has employed E. M. with Mr. H. B. Peschau; Mr. and Mrs. Koonce, Esq., of Onslow, to prosecute G. Herbert Smith; Miss May Ella the matter. Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan Rankin with Mr. Thos. B. Willard; and L. A.
