AN AUTUMN WEDDING

Miss Eleanor Warfield Kenly became the Bride of Mr. Carl K. Bacon, of Boston.

MARRIED LAST EVENING.

Ceremony Performed by Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, of the Presbyterian Church. A Reception to Friends and Guests—Bridal Tour.

Perhaps no early Autumn wedding in Wilmington in several years has quite approached in degree of social importance the marriage of Miss Eleanor Warfield Kenly to Mr. Carl K. Bacon, of Boston, which was celebrated at 8:30 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Kenly, No. 405 South Third street, this city.

The handsome Kenly residence was charmingly decorated for the event by Rehder, the florist, and a myriad of incense-burners made the wedding scene a lovely one indeed. The ceremony was witnessed only by relatives of the bride and groom and a few very intimate friends, but a reception followed, beginning at 9 o'clock, which was attended by many of the leading society folk of the city.

The hall of the residence was beautiful in a decoration with bamboo and palms. In the front parlor the mantel was banked with maiden hair ferns and white and pink carnations. The mirrors were draped with smilax and bamboo and palms entered into an artistic arrangement in other parts of the room. In the rear parlor the mantel was banked with Bostonian ferns with white chrysanthemums and pink carnations. Two ribbons, forming an entrance from the front to the rear parlors, where the ceremony was performed, were caught up at each end with pink carnations and asparagus.

The wedding marches were skillfully played by Miss Anna Sprunt, and to Lohengrin the party was ushered in. The ceremony was performed beautifully by the Rev. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

The bride was attended as maid of honor by her sister, Miss Edna Kenly, and the bridesmaids were Misses Zedie and Meta Kenly, of Baltimore, cousins of the bride; Miss Lucy Bacon, of Winchester, Mass., sister of the groom; and Miss Crapster, of Maryland. The costumes were elegant.

The groom's best man was his brother, Capt. James Bacon, in charge of the U. S. Corps of Engineers at Jacksonville, Fla., and the ushers were Messrs. William J. Bellamy, James M. Stevenson and H. G. Lattimer, Jr., of Wilmington; Mr. Harry Bacon, of New York, and Mr. Ed Sears, of Boston.

The reception which followed the ceremony was of an elaborate nature. Music was furnished by Hollowbush's Orchestra and in the dining room refreshments were served. The curtains and doors in the dining room were draped with bamboo while the mantel was banked with cocon palms and pink carnations. The tables were dressed with bridesmaid roses and wild smilax.

Mr. and Mrs. Bacon left at midnight on General Manager Kenly's handsome private car "302," attached to a special train for Washington and New York. The couple will spend their honeymoon in the latter city, going later to their future home in Boston.

The bride as Miss Kenly was a young lady much loved and admired by many friends in Wilmington. The groom is a native of Wilmington and one of the late Capt. Henry Bacon, who was at one time in charge of the Corps of U. S. Engineers at this station.

Young Mr. Bacon is a now a member of the firm of Willitt & Co., Boston, one of the largest wool importing and exporting concerns in the United States.

There were here to attend the wedding besides those in the bridal party, Mr. W. W. Kenly, of Baltimore, uncle of the bride; Mrs. Elizabeth K. Bacon, of Winchester, Mass., mother of the groom; Mr. Harry Bacon, of New York, a brother of the groom; Miss Mary Holladay, of Virginia, and Lieut. Purnell, Medical Corps, U. S. A.

Rev. E. O. Watson Coming. The men of Wilmington will have an opportunity to hear Rev. E. O. Watson, of Charleston, next Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. Rev. Mr. Watson is considered one of the most forceful and eloquent preachers in South Carolina. He comes to Wilmington especially for his engagement at the Y. M. C. A. and he will be prepared to deliver such an address as is seldom heard here. In addition to Mr. Watson's speech there will be a male quartette composed of Messrs. W. L. Williford, first tenor; Chas. Dushan, second tenor; Geo. F. Alderman, first bass, and R. H. Grant, second bass. A male choir, led by Mr. Williford and assisted by Miss Cannie Chastan at the piano, Mr. Jones, violin, and Mr. Albert Doshier with the cornet, will be features of the musical programme.

News Train Delayed. On account of a washout in a section of track about 50 feet long, near Dixon, Onslow county, N. C., the News Train, due here at 12:15 P. M. yesterday did not arrive until after 4 o'clock. The "Wise Woman" company, which appeared at the Academy of Music last night, was aboard the delayed train.

THE SPEAKING LAST NIGHT.

Hon. Dan Hugh McLean Spoke on State Issues to Small Crowd—Scored the Independents.

The crowd which heard Hon. Dan Hugh McLean at the Court House last night on the political issues of the day was necessarily small on account of the great number of counter attractions. However, the few who were present, numbering about one hundred and fifty, heard the simon pure Democratic doctrine expounded in the bold, fearless manner so characteristic of the speaker.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Geo. L. Peschau, of the New Hanover Democratic Executive Committee, who asked Sheriff Frank H. Stedman to introduce the speaker. The Sheriff Stedman was very graceful in his words of presentation and referred to the service of Mr. McLean to his party and to his wide popularity in the State.

After expressing pleasure at meeting a New Hanover audience and saying that he came not so much as a politician but as a friend, he went into a discussion of the issues, emphasizing the importance of the approaching election, because the State is just now entering upon a new era and it behooves Democrats to stand together and reap the reward of their efforts. His first ally was at the independent movement. "When you scratch one of these Citizens," said Mr. McLean, "you scratch a Republican." They are just like the late Populists, who all went over into the Radical camp. The Republican party and Populist party married in fusion and the devil officiated at the ceremony. The speaker next went into the Republican record in North Carolina and exhorted Democrats to rally to the support of the ticket from State to township. The Republicans before their overthrow polluted everything they touched, even the penitentiary. He told of the mismanagement of that institution and the disclosures made by the investigating committee of which he had the honor to belong. The Democrats upon assuming charge had to appropriate $50,000 to clothe the 900 convicts, who were all Radicals, for Democrats don't get in the "pen." Governor Russell's removal of Jno. R. Smith from the penitentiary and his appointment of the same man to the head of the great agricultural interests of the State was denounced. The Jim Young scandal was also touched upon and other Republican misdeeds in the State called to the attention of his hearers.

Mr. McLean incidentally paid a tribute to Judge Clark for his historical work, in extolling the Democrats for their attitude towards Confederate pensions. He also made a whack at "Judge" Hill, of Halifax, and passed on to a denunciation of Pritchard for his deserters' bill.

Mr. McLean concluded with a brilliant defence of the Democracy, and took his seat amid great applause. He spoke for a little less than an hour, devoting his speech entirely to State issues.

The band stand is being erected on Front, between Market and Princess streets. A splendid concert by Hollowbush and the Second Regiment's bands will be given one night of the Carnival and both bands will be in the parade.

All persons who have received contributions for the Carnival country store are requested to communicate with Mr. J. F. Woolvin either by phone or mail before Friday, so that he can call and get them in plenty of time.

Visitors to the city who desire accommodations during fair week should communicate with Col. Walker Taylor, chairman of the Information Bureau. He will be glad to give rates, locations, etc.

Naval Reserves' Entertainment.
The entertainment last night in the Naval Reserves' armory by Prof. S. K. DeVaney was a great success. His feats in legerdemain and the like were marvellous and entertaining. He received many congratulations from his audience, which numbered about one hundred. Refreshments were served during the performance and many expressed a hope that the entertainment would be repeated in the near future.

The Academy Last Night.
"A Wise Woman," as presented by Miss Marie Lamour and an all-star cast, greatly pleased a small audience at the Academy of Music last night. The comedy was fresh, bright and sparkling. It should have been given a much larger patronage by all means.

The next attraction at the Academy will be Quinlan & Wall's Imperial Minstrels Friday night. The engagement will be the minstrel event of the season and will, no doubt, be largely attended. This company numbers over two score and is one of the largest and most expensive on the road. The street parade, which will not take place until 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon as the company does not arrive until 1:45 P. M. from Savannah, will be a gorgeous affair. The performance will be given on a scale of magnificence, staged as it will be, with elegant scenery and superb electrical effects.

In the first part—"A Reception in the Diplomatic Legion"—there are twelve star singers, aside from three boy sopranos. The vocal director is Joe Birnes. Other prominent ones of the singing party are Joe Brockel, Jack Sample, Jack Leonard, Ed Yeager, Chas. Rolfsen, Steve Frideau, Walter S. Brower, Master Newcomb and Master Sodaro. The two latter are boy sopranos, the first named a favorite from Kentucky, only seven years old, and with long black curls hanging down over his shoulders, Buffalo Bill fashion. The last named is an Italian youngster direct from Venice, ten years old. The songs rendered at every performance will comprise all the popular hits of the day.

The advance sale of seats will commence to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock at Plummer's.

Emerson to the lady making the lowest score, was won by Miss Mary Calder, with Miss Alice Boatright, a close second. It was a tie between the two up to the eighth hole, but Miss Calder won out in the ninth by the remarkable low score of one "approach" and one "put" in 40 yards. The scores were as follows:

Miss Mary Calder..... 31 in 8
Miss Alice Boatright..... 34 in 9
Mrs. J. V. Grainger..... 38 in 8

Mrs. E. W. Van G. Lucas..... 37 in 8

The presentation of the trophy to Miss Calder was by Mr. Emerson in the handsome new club house, just after the contest.

Another feature of the afternoon on the grounds was the presentation to Maj. E. W. Van G. Lucas by the club of a handsome silver loving cup as a token of the appreciation and esteem of its members. The formal presentation was by Mr. John Jay Blair, and Maj. Lucas responded in most feeling and grateful terms. He leaves in a few days for Memphis, Tenn., and it was in view of this fact that the token was presented.

The Delgado Stockholders Will Meet Next Week to Consider the Question.

A special meeting of the stockholders of the Delgado Cotton Mills is called to be held in the office of the company at Delgado on Nov. 7th, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of considering the matter of going into the "Fries Mill Merger," the progress of the formation of which has been noted from time to time in the telegraphic columns of this paper.

The form of contract that will be proposed is in the hands of the Board of Directors of the company and will be shown and explained to stockholders at any time. Mr. John S. Armstrong, president of the Atlantic National Bank, has been suggested as a stockholder who will be easily accompanied by the requisite power of attorney, etc.

It is now regarded as almost a certainty that the unanimous consent of the stockholders, required, will be received to enter the merger and as a consequence of this, the STAR is informed Delgado stock has jumped from $83 per share to away above par.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 28.—The State Fair opened to-day very auspiciously. The weather conditions were ideal. The crowds are by far the largest ever seen on an opening day. Governor Aycock made a powerful speech, and a choir of 300 children sang State and National airs. The exhibits are unusually complete, and the Midway up-to-date. The people are pouring in by the thousands. The street pageants and general programmes to-morrow and Thursday give promise of the greatest in the history of the Fair Association.

GATTIS-KILGO SUIT.

Supreme Court Granted a New Trial in the Damage Suit.

[Special Star Telegram.]
RALEIGH, N. C., October 28.—The Supreme Court handed down an opinion this afternoon, granting a new trial in the Gattis-Kilgo damage suit, on the ground that it was improper for the judge of the lower court to allow certain excepted evidence to go to the jury and then even after argument was all in to withdraw it by telling the jury not to consider it. Such evidence the court holds would be bound to bias the minds of the jury.
