ELECTIONS IN THE STATE.

Clinton and Gudgey Are Safe—House and Senate Largely Democratic—Railroad for Duplin and Pender.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 5.—Latest returns from the Tenth District show that Gudgey has probably 280 majority over Moody. Klutz telegraphed to-night that he has 1,700 majority over Blackburn in the eighth. Two judicial districts, the thirteenth and fifteenth, elected Republican solicitors. Eight out of fifty State Senators will be Republican. The House of Representatives will have not more than seven-and-a-half Democrats. It is estimated to-night that Clark will fall 3,000 behind the regular Democratic ticket.

A charter was granted to-day for the Kingston and Carolina Railroad Co., having for its object the construction and operation of a railroad from Kingston through portions of Lenoir, Duplin and Pender counties to some suitable point on the old Wilmington and Weldon railroad. The length of the road will be about sixty miles. The Board of Directors named in the articles of agreement is composed of W. O. Swift, C. F. Harvey, J. V. Lynch, H. Tull, J. M. Farrott, of Kingston, P. F. Laban, of New York. The capital is $500,000.

(By Associated Press.)

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 5.—Semi-official figures, with one county lacking, give the Democratic State ticket a majority of 64,366. Democrats elect 45 of the 60 State Senators. The House is 97 Democrats, 21 Republicans, one Independent Democrat and one doubtful.

Ten Democratic Congressmen are elected by the following majorities: First, Small, 10,553; Second, Claude Kitchin, 11,374; Third, Thomas, 6,015; Fourth, Fox, 11,000; Fifth, W. W. Keitt, 7,955; Seventh, Page, (no opposition); Sixth, Patterson, 4,680; Eighth, Klutz, 1,651; Ninth, Webb, 5,092; Tenth, Gudgey, 341.

WAYNE GIVES 2,000 MAJORITY.

An Apt Quotation From John R. Smith—Election News at Tarboro.

[Special Star Telegram.]

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Nov. 5.—The official vote for Wayne county will be canvassed at 10 A. M. to-morrow. Because of the fact that several precincts have only reported majorities, the official vote is not obtainable to-night. I have just gone over the tabulated report with Chairman Daniels and the estimate of last night will not be materially changed by the official count. The Democratic majority for the judicial, State and Congressional tickets will be 2000 or above.

The Democratic majority on the county and legislative ticket will range from 1,800 to 2,000. Clark runs behind the State ticket but very few votes.

In some townships he actually led the ticket. Hill received about 650 votes in the county from all sources. Grant, the independent candidate for sheriff, carried his township by a small majority, while the balance of the Democratic ticket received a majority.

John R. Smith, Republican, says of result: "The Lord chasteneth whom He loveth, but this time He has whipped us like the devil."

TARBORO, N. C., Nov. 5.—Complete returns from twelve precincts out of fourteen, give Clark 1,643, Hill 98. No opposition to the Legislative ticket.

700 MAJORITY IN ONSLOW.

Fourteen Precincts Give That, With Six Yet to Hear From.

[Special Star Telegram.]

JACKSONVILLE, N. C., Nov. 5.—Returns from fourteen precincts out of twenty in Onslow give 840 for the entire Democratic ticket and 140 for the entire Republican ticket. Six precincts are yet to hear from. The lightest vote in years was cast, some precincts not voting half the registration. There was very little scratching.

SAMPSON WENT TO THE BAD.

Estimated From Latest Returns That County is 400 Republican.

[Special Star Telegram.]

CLINTON, N. C., Nov. 5.—It is estimated here from the best advices to-day that Sampson county is 400 Republican. The Populist vote which has lately turned Republican, body and soul, is responsible therefor.

Miss Foster to Mr. Edwards.

Friends in the city have received handsomely engraved invitations reading as follows: "Mrs. Mary O. Foster requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Norma, to Mr. J. Daniel Edwards, on Wednesday, November the nineteenth, in the year nineteen hundred and two, at half after five o'clock, First Baptist church, Wilmington, North Carolina. At home Wednesday after December the first, 217 Red Cross street."

Two Carnival Weddings.

License was issued yesterday for the marriage of Miss Ruth Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moore, of Maimo, Brunswick county, to Mr. Fred H. McKoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. McKoy, of Crony, N. C. License was issued by the Register of Deeds Tuesday for the marriage of Miss Fannie May Ashley, daughter of Mrs. Nettie Ashley, of Ashpole, N. C., to Mr. Lucas P. Ballenger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien P. Ballenger, of Boardman, N. C.

'T'WAS PYTHIAN DAY.

Carnival and Merchants' Fall Festival Yesterday Exceeded All Expectations.

THE PARADE LAST NIGHT.

It Was a Brilliant Affair—Crowds the Most Intense Ever Seen on the Streets—Mont Pever Eruption To-Night—Fakirs Ousted.

'Twas Pythian Day at the Carnival yesterday and the best of them all. The crowds were larger; the people were in better humor; the weather, barring a slight sprinkle early last night, was more suitable to outdoor amusements; the shows were seen to better advantage and there was one great, big, splendid feature to "cap the climax"—the grand K. of P. street parade last night at 8:30 o'clock.

Reduced rates obtained on all railroads yesterday and every train from the surrounding country only served to swell the gay multitude in the Carnival district. The crowd down town last night was the largest ever seen without qualification.

The Carolina Central, Newbern and W. C. & A. trains brought in a large number of excursionists in the early afternoon and the trains last night were late because of heavy rain travel. The A. & Y. alone brought down 800 Carnival visitors and this in the face of the fact that the Cumberland Fair is now going on in Fayetteville. To-day the crowds will be larger and although it seems almost impossible to break the record of yesterday, it looks like it's going to be done.

Yesterday there was a hushed cry raised about the indecency of certain shows on the midway and a delegation of ministers had started down town to make complaint to the fair management, but the Executive Committee had already acted. The shows were visited and every semblance of immorality connected with the performance was promptly suppressed. The K. of P. order stands for no such as was complained of and the prompt action of the Executive Committee was without coercion or intimidation. The order upholds nothing immoral and the 500 Pythians of the city desire that emphatic assertion. The same may be said of the alleged gambling devices—the reporter says "alleged," because he didn't play any of them—and all such were promptly suppressed night before last. Yesterday an effort was made to stop the target shooting, cane and knife racks, etc., and they were stopped for a while, but were later allowed to proceed as they were unmolested in the Carnival last year.

Purged and made clean, all the shows will be open "at the old stand" to-day as usual.

The parade last night was the most elaborate ever essayed in Wilmington and to Chairman Jno. J. Fowler and his enterprising committee is due unbounded praise for the happy manner in which every detail passed off. The procession was about six squares in length and moved with mechanical perfection. Of course the cynosure of all eyes was the Queen and her maids of honor, all of whom were elegantly costumed and carried their honors gracefully and handsomely. The float was designed by Richards, the scenic artist, and was handsomely executed in Pythian colors. The lighting effect was grand. Under the canopy was suspended one of the powerful Klutz lamps of the Turrentine Light Co., and it was given the personal attention of Mr. Frank P. Turrentine, of Charleston, an expert in that line. The Queen, Miss Mamie McGirt, wore an exquisite gown of white silk and the costumes of her maids of honor, Misses Edna Fleet, Isabel Strathers, Lily Horne, Bella Lawther and Clara Adkins, were none the less magnificent and in keeping with the handsome float in which they rode, drawn by four large milk-white horses with elaborate trappings and led by four Cuban attendants in servile dress.

A platoon of police headed the parade and the start was from Third and Chestnut streets at 8:40 o'clock. Hollobush's and the Second Regiment bands came next and discoursed martial airs as the procession moved gracefully down Third to Red Cross to Front and up Front to Orange street. The streets were literally thronged and the pageant was cheered to the echo as it passed. Following the band came Chief Marshal Jno. J. Fowler and assistants in carriages and on horseback. Next came the W. L. I. in command of Capt. Alex. P. Adrian and the Naval Reserves in command of Lieut. H. M. Chase and N. N. Davis. Then followed the Boys' Brigade in command of Col. Walter Taylor and the Queen's float, escorted by a mounted and uniformed detachment from the Uniform Bank P. of P. consisting of Maj. W. F. Robertson (commanding) and Sir Knights O. W. Polvogt, W. E. Perdue, John H. Rehder, J. J. Hopkins, and J. P. Queloh. Six little pages in costume had a place in the float as honorary escorts. Next in the procession came three hundred or more local and visiting Pythians on foot and bearing torch lights of glory. The Fire Department came next and last and contributed wonderfully to the splendid display. There were six double teams drawing apparatus and every Wilmingtonian felt proud of their Department in command of Chief Schnibben as it passed in review.

The Programme for To-day.

To-day is Mont Pever Day, so called for the brilliant display of fireworks that will take place on the river front at 8 o'clock to-night. Eight o'clock is the official hour given out last midnight and is not subject to change, unless the weather interferes. This display was secured by the Pythians at an additional cost of $500, and it will be a grand affair. It will take place at foot of Market street from three barges in the middle of the stream. Every precaution will be taken by Chief Schnibben and his fire ladders to prevent a conflagration. A limited number of seats will be sold by the Pythians at the foot of the street at 25 cents each, but to all who choose to stand, the exhibition will be free. All the shows will cease operation while the eruption is in progress. The steamer Wilmington will also take a limited number of passengers and move out into the stream for 15 cents each. The management of the pyrotechnics requests that no vessels come nearer than 100 yards to the barges. An extra car load of fireworks for the eruption came yesterday.

Yesterday, Chief Baldwin, the balloonist, was taken suddenly ill a short time before the hour for the ascension, hence that free attraction had to be abandoned. To-day, however, at 5 o'clock, the ascension and parachute leap will be made, to the delight of hundreds. Lotto, the high diver, will make two of his phenomenal leaps as a free attraction at 10 A. M. and 10 P. M. Market, between Second and Third streets. At Front and Market the free trapeze performances will be in progress hourly during the day. At Front and Chestnut, the free trapeze work by the Adams will take place at 3 P. M. and 8 P. M.

The paid attractions will open at 1 and 7 P. M. All Knights, who can serve as ticket takers, for this afternoon's shows will please report at Pythian Headquarters at 1 P. M., and those who will serve at the night shows will report at 7 P. M. Also all paid ticket takers, who have been serving, will report at the above hours.

More As to the Gambling.

In reference to the alleged gambling devices in operation on the streets Tuesday the STAR learns that the Executive Committee of the K. of P. Carnival and Merchants' Fall Festival, took summary steps to stop it the same night, and that a special meeting of the Executive Committee was called yesterday morning and the following resolution was unanimously passed:

"That this committee having become aware of the gambling games going on in the streets, do hereby emphatically condemn the same, and request the Mayor and Sheriff to suppress them promptly and effectually."

The records of the Pythians was promptly complied with by the authorities and a vigilant watch is being maintained to see that the law is enforced in every particular.

Additions to Carnival Crowds.

The Southern train which arrived at 12 o'clock last night from Florence brought about 400 passengers for the Carnival. All hotels and boarding houses, catering to transient patronage, are full and the Public Comfort Committee's service will be required to-day to find homes for the visitors while in the city. Col. Walker Taylor is in charge of the Information Bureau and to him all applications should be made. The crowds from the country are with us for certain by a "very large majority."

INNES AND HIS GREAT BAND.

Something of the Versatility of the Man Who Controls and Directs the Peerless Organization.

Innes, who will be here with his band, at the Academy Saturday night is a most remarkable person. Although he is recognized as a genius, it may be said that he "blew himself" into fame with his trombone. Then, just when he had attained an easy position as soloist, he quit the business and started anew in his present field. Within a few years his band became quite as much of a sensation as his solo playing had previous been. Innes is a creative power in any field. He is forever doing something new. His hand occupies a distinctive sphere. Having the capabilities of an orchestra through its strange instrumentation, it still retains the brilliancy and martial spirit of the ordinary concert band. When on the platform directing his band Innes looks thoroughly musicianly. When off the

First—It is a safe bank.

Second—It is a bank for all the people, rich and poor, men, women and children.

Third—It is courteous to depositors and aims to accommodate them.

Fourth—It pays 4 per cent. interest on deposits, compounded quarterly.

Fifth—It invites accounts from all who wish to save or invest money.

restrum, he looks like anyone else. He will, off-hand, score an overture, write a good magazine article, or make a rattling good after-dinner speech. These are fortunate facilities, and are probably due to the fact that his early struggles compelled him to be his own business manager, press agent, organizer and band director, all rolled into one. The advance sale of seats will commence at Plummer's to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock instead of 7 o'clock as heretofore.
