TERMS IN STATE PRISON.

One Defendant Gets 25 Years, Another 10 and Another 3-Civil Suit for Damages Compromised-Proceedings of the Day.

Three cases in which the defendants, all colored, were originally charged with capital felonies, were disposed of in the Superior Court yesterday. One of them for burglary was given 25 years in the penitentiary; another for the same offence was given 10 years in the penitentiary and the third, for murder, was given term here, he is to be returned to the three years in the State prison. All submitted to the crimes with which they were charged, in a lesser degree, and under all the circumstances surrounding the cases, the ends of justice appear to have been pretty well met in the manner of their disposition.

J. H. Williams, colored, charged with burglarizing the rooms of some fellow workmen with whom he formerly boarded, received the longest sentence-twenty-five years. Williams entered the house of the negroes in Thompson's alley, in "Brooklyn" and stole a number of articles of clothing and a cheap ring. The case went over from the Mayor's court and all the negroes implicated work in the lumber mills about Wilmington. It was thought that Williams was wanted. when arrested here, for several crimes committed at his old home near Roseboro, Sampson county, but that information proved incorrect. By appointment of the court, Williams was defended by Marsden Bellamy, Jr. Esq. and C. D. Weeks, Esq.

Orange Jessie, colored, sentenced to - Miss Hattie Bunn returned to ten years, will go up for a case almost burglarized a negro house and stole a lot of clothing, etc., but the charge of burglary could not be sustained and Solicitor Duffy consented to a verdict

Mr. Montgomery will move his family to Point Caswell and has rented the large two-story residence of Mr. Sessom at that place. His departure and that of his family from Wilmington will be sincerely regretted by numerous friends. Four-Year-Old Son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hammond, 414 Orange Street, Badly Injured Yesterday Evening.

The little four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hammond, who recently moved to Wilmington from Savannab, was very severely burned last night as the result of the overturning of a lamp in the sitting room of the family residence, No. 414 Orange

The lamp was on a centre table in the room and the boy was playing about on the floor. His mother and grandmother were in the room with him at the time but in an unguarded moment the little fellow ran against the table and upset the lamp in such a manner that it fell on him. The mother was frightened almost beyond her wits, but she managed to put out the fiames that almost covered the child and ran with him to the nearest physician's office, where temporary remedies were applied. Later the child was taken to the residence of Dr. T. B. Kingsbury, where a friend of Mrs. Hammond is boarding, and Dr. W. E. Storm, the family physician, was called in. The child was found to be badly burned on the right side, leg, chest and face. Dr. Storm gave the patient all the relief known to medical science, and at last accounts the little fellow was doing very well. The nervous shock received by the mother put her in a very serious condition, but she, too, is thought to be doing very well. Mr. Hammond was at home sick when the fire occurred, but he ran down from his room upstairs and fought the fire until the department arrived in response to an alarm from box 48 at 6:10 P. M.

THE NICHOLS, S. C., TRAGEDY.

Coroner's Jury Returned Verdict Indicating Suicide by Sarvis-The Girl Claims Secret Marriage to Boy.

A few days ago reference was made in these columns to a double tragedy enacted at Nichols, S. C., about 65 miles from Wilmington. The mystery surrounding the affair is partially cleared up in the following special in vesterday's News and Courier:

MARION, S. C., Nov. 26.-Dr. J. C. Mace, coroner, held an inquest Monday night over the body of Dustan H. Sarvis, the young man who is alleged to have committed suiside at Nichols, this county, on the afternoon of that day. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that the deceased came to nis death from the effects of a pistel shot wound, self-inflicted. This xonerates Miss Josephine Burns com the charge of having done the Miss Burns was present at the in-quest and testified that Sarvis was her husband, baving been secretly married to her in the town of Mullins on the night of Sept. 23, the night the Rev. Sam Jones lectured in that town. It was understood that the marriage was to be kept a secret until Christmas, but in some way the young lady's family heard of it and insisted that it be publicly acknowledged by Sarvis. Monday afternoon she went to see Sarvis at his office in the Atlantic Coast Line depot, in which Sarvis occupied the position of telegraph operator to beg him to acknowledge the marriage. She told Sarvis ber family were indignant and would insist upon his recognizing her as his wife. She told him her brother was determined that the marriage must be at once publicly acknowledged and that he had armed himself to enforce his demands. To show Sarvis how terribly in earnest her brother was she showed him s pistol which her brother had recently procured. This pistol she had taken out of her brother's trunk to keep him from using it. She says Sarvis refused to acknowledge the marriage, but, on the contrary, told her that the alleged marriage was a mock one; that the man who performed the ceremony was not a magistrate, as he had assured her, and that there was no legal marriage between them. The conversation continued for some time and, failing to induce him to acknowledge her as his wife, she rose to leave.

As she was about to leave Sarvis remarked to her that she ought not to be going about with a pistol in her hands, and asked her to give him the weapon. This she did, whereupon he fired at her and then turned the pistol upon himself shooting himself through the neck. When shot she reeled a little distance before falling. This is substantially her account of the affair.
