WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1902.

THE HOLIDAY TRADE.

Wilmington Merchants Are Already Enjoying Blessings of Christmas Season.

MANY ATTRACTIVE DISPLAYS

Shopkeepers Are a Little Earlier Than Usual This Year, But the Public Doesn't Mind - A Time of Joy and Gladness.

One has only to pass one of these bright afternoons or evenings along the retail shopping district of Wilmington to be convinced that the Yuletide is fast approaching. The streets are lined with holiday buyers, principally ladies, and about each counter in every store where holiday wares are for sale there are groups of eager, enthusiastic shoppers, who are on the qui vive for some article or articles that will be pleasing to this or that friend, relative or acquaintance; for Christmas is essentially a season of gift-giving and that the gift shall be something appropriate and, perhaps, not too costly are always important items that enter into the consideration of a purchase.

This year, if anything, the shopkeepers have their wares on display a little earlier than usual, a fact which the buying public seems to have appreciated, for already many merchants say their sales of Xmas goods have gone away ahead of what they were this time last year. From early morn to dewy eve-a slightly shop worn expression-clerks are as busy as bees and they find little consolation in the knowledge that Christmas is yet nearly two weeks off and that the rush will grow more and more intense until the greatest of all Amer can holidays is passed. Among the early Christmas shoppers this year are many people from the country, who came down on morning trains and return in the evening. The greater number this season is construed to corroborate the current opinion that not in a long time have times been so prosperous in the country. People from the smaller towns want something a little better than usual and they come to the larger markets for their purchases. The city people are also buying more kevishly and earlier this year than usual, so shopkeeyers say, and the indications are that Christmas 1902 will be one of the happiest of the new century. Holiday novelties that were put on the counters early and met with especial popular favor from the start have all been sold by some merchants and new orders made with instructions to rush them in time for Christmas week, when the trade will reach its zenith.

Not a few of the stores have inau. gurated "holiday openings" and these have proved very popular. Next season will probably see all the stores falling into this custom. The book stores and jewelry stores, of course, are receiving the bulk of the gift trade, but it is not confined to them alone. Nearly all the stores where dry goods and notions are sold are 'right there with the goods," too, and have attractive holiday lines. The clothing and shoe stores and hardware establishments are also getting their share of the novelty trade and the drug stores, as a rule, have an attractive line of novelties that will sell. Of course, the fruit and confectionery establishments will do a land office business, but as most of the goods sold by them are of a perishable nature, their "big days" will come Christmas The grocers are not to be forgotten in the count and the same is true of the bakers, but their day is to come next and the week after. The good housewife always has a tempting menu for Xmas dinner, supper and breakfast ting it. as well, and the grocer, baker and fruiter must all contribute their share of delicacies.

Many of the stores have already been forced to increase their delivery facilities and still greater increases will have to be made next week. It is Christmas and the atmosphere is full

Schooner Mabel Darling Here From Brit ish West Indies With Cargo Oranges

The annual coming to Wilmington of the "first fruit vessel" from the British West Indies, is looked forward to by the average small boy with almost as much pleasant anticipation as the Christmas tide. It is no wonder. therefore, that the British schooner Mabel Darling was greeted cordially yesterday by half a hundrad young Americas as she came up to the Custom House wharf and tied up for the sale of her cargo, which consists of 150,000 oranges, 1,500 cocoanuts, 300 conk shells and four barrels of sea coral, the two last named items, of course, being for decorative purposes.

The schooner is in command of Capt. Sweeting and the cargo is owned by Capt. Robert Ranger, both of whom are aboard. She is of 111 tons burthen and was loaded at Harbor Island, clearing from Nassau. She comes annually to Wilmington and always disposes of her cargo at good prices. Upon completion of her discharge she will be loaded with shingles by J. A. Springer & Co.

THE TURNPIKE BEING IMPROVED.

Good Roads Train Being Used - Progress on the Market Street Extension.

The good roads train of the county went to work yesterday on the Wrightsville turnpike. Chairman Mc-Eachern, of the Board of Commissioners, says it will be put in first class condition from Wilmington to the sound and will be kept that way. Asked about the progress of the permanent improvement of the Market street road, he said that he hoped to complete the link between Wilmington and the railroad crossing, a distance of about three miles, next week. The work was commenced at the crossing and is being brought this way. There are now between 75 and 80 convicts on the force, all told, and they are doing a great work. There is perhaps no better organized or controlled squad of convicts in the State than that of New Hanover. The men behind them know how to get the work out of them in a humane way and they are get-

REWARD FOR BISHOP.

More Than $500 is the Price of the Travelling Man's Liberty To-day.

RELATIVES EMPLOY COUNSEL

Believed in Charlotte That Man Who Killed Mr. Tom Wilson Will Surrender Himself-Case That is Creating State Interest.

Four hundred dollars is the price set by the State of North Carolina upon the liberty of Arthur L. Bishop, the young travelling man, well known here, who shot and almost instantly killed Mr. T. J. Wilson, a road overseer, in his own home in Charlotte on Wednesday night. This is in ad dition to substantial rewards offered for the murderer by the city of Charlette and the county of Mecklenburg, the exact amounts of which could not be ascertained last night. The supplementary reward by the Governor was offered yesterday upon the request of the Mayor of Charlotte and the Board of County Commissioners of Mecklenburg.

It is believed that the offer of a reward will have the effect of bringing Bishop from his hiding place although immediately after the shooting he disappeared in an alley almost as completely as if the earth had opened and swallowed him up.

The opinion is current in Charlotte, according to press dispatches, that Bishop is secreted in that city. If he attempts to leave, the police are confident that his arrest will be effected. It is moreover believed in Charlotte that Bishop will this morning give himself up to the authorities and that no friend or person connected with him directly or indirectly will receive a cent of the reward. A dispatch last night from Charlotte says that yesterday a brother of the young travelling man, in Petersburg, sent a representative to Charlotte and employed Col. Hamilton C. Jones and Mr. E. T. Cansler, two of the best criminal lawyers in the State to defend Bishop. This is construed to mean that the relatives of the fugitive know of his whereabouts and are planning for his surrender.

It was reported here yesterday that Bishop was in Wilmington, but the best information is that the report was untrue. Inquiries at Petersburg last night also brought forth the information that he was not in that

Will Join the Middleton Co.

Mr. Martyane and Prof. Schedman, who were here last week and contributed the principal features of the vaudeville performance of "The Great Martynne Company" at the Academy of Music, will join the Middleton Stock Company here to-day and will leave with it to-morrow for its threenight engagement at Florence. Mr. Martynne was the speciacular dancer with his company and Prof. Schedman owned the trained dog show which closed each performance. The Martynne Company closed its season yesterday at Kinston.

Seaboard Medical Association

The Seaboard Medical Association, embracing a large area in North Carolina and Virginia, will meet next Monday in Wilson and a number of Wilmington physicians will be in attendance. Among those who will read papers and their subjects are: Dr Frank H. Russell, "Pelvic Abscess," with report of a case; Dr. Edward J. Wood, "Hemorrhage and Perforation in Typhoid Fever," D. Joseph Akerman, "Report of Some Surgical Cases," and Dr. Pride J. Thomas, "Report of a case of Tubercular Disease with Amputation at the Hip Joint."

Alleged Freight Discrimination.

President J. W. Hanes, of the Winston Salem Chamber of Commerce. has addressed a communication to the trades bodies of the State, asking them to send a committee to a meeting to be held at some central point in North Carolina early in January to formulate their grievances in regard to the alleged discrimination in freight rates by the railroads and to arrange to lature of the State for relief. It is not known with what success the movement is being re eived.

AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

Very Clever Production of Paust-Matinee and Night Performance.

The Middleton Stock Company last evening at the Academy of Music gave an excellent production of "Faust," the thrilling piece made famous by Lewis Morrison. Of course the presentation of the play was not up to the standard of Mr. Morrison's production -nobody could reasonably expect that at the prices-but it was good enough and a little better for the best of repertoire companies. Mr. Charles Middleton in the role of Mephisto was very clever and the other prominent members of the cast were not very far behind.

This afternoon at a special matinee for which the prices will be ten and twenty cents, the company will present the exceedingly funny comedy, "My Uncle from Japan." The doors will open promptly at 2:15 P. M. and the curtain will go up at 2:30. This evening the company closes its engagement here with "John Martin's Secret." The prices will remain the same as during the week.
