Richmond woman who has taken her sixth husband must have some taking ways. She doesn't seem to be a failure, either.

There is a report current in Georgia that Tom Watson, ex-Populist, is to pack into politics, but as a Democrat this time; probably a Tom Watson Democrat.

The Shah of Persia has reduced the number of his wives from 1,100 to 30. With this reduction in his harem expenses he hopes to get on the $50,000,000 hard cash which he has stowed away.

The denizens of Bob's Bar Field, Kentucky, near the Tennessee river are somewhat excited over an enterprising "turned in," which has put out 1,000 barrels a day. The owners see in imagination a fortune on every farm.

According to the school rolls there are in this State 687,599 per-sons white and black, of school age. Wake county leads with 19, Mecklenburg comes second with 14, Buncombe third with 14,501, Robeson fourth with 14,501, and Guilford fifth with 13,652.

German bacteria artist who has been figuring on it says there are about twelve million bacteria in one drop of water and nearly that many in a glass of beer. Now imagine the number of bacteria a healthy boy would have in his system after a half hour interview with the Pops for the spoils.

Mayor Pritchard says he wants to see the Pops because he isn't a Populist. As a matter of fact he is probably a better Republican than Pritchard. At least there is a record of his ever having "held his principles in abeyance" to pool with the Pops for the spoils.

Watch for the answer.

DIED OF APOPLEXY.

Somewhat Tragic Circumstances of Death of Laboring Man on the Streets.

MR. GEORGE W. PICKETT.

Cart Driver Became Suddenly Ill and Persons Thought He Was Intoxicated—Colored Man Came to His Rescue

Mr. George W. Pickett, a member of the street force of the city and driver of one of the carts employed in that department, suffered a stroke of paralysis while on his duties at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and within two hours and a half he died at the James Walker Memorial Hospital.

The circumstances surrounding the death of the man were somewhat tragic in their nature. He was on Front street with his cart and was seen suddenly stagger and almost fall. People passing thought the man was under the influence of liquor and offered no assistance. At length a colored man was touched at the piteous condition of the old man and offered to help him. Coming to his side he found Mr. Pickett speechless and knowing that he was in the employ of the city, took his arm and started with him up Princess street to the City Hall. Some one in the meantime had taken the sick man's cart to the vacant lot east of the old Court House where all the city vehicles were being driven in after the day's work. It was while passing the enclosure that his fellow laborers recognized Mr. Pickett and came to his assistance. The colored man, after putting the sufferer in the hands of his friends, disappeared without giving his name or particulars of finding the man otherwise than related above.

Mr. Pickett was taken to the City Hall, a certificate of admission to the hospital was quickly secured from Dr. C. T. Harper, city superintendent of health, and he was hurried in the patrol wagon to the institution in which he died two hours later. He never regained consciousness and was practically dying from the stroke of apoplexy when he reached the hospital. His entire left side was affected and his power of speech was gone from the first.

Deceased was 57 years of age and boarded with two children, both small, at 917 South Eighth street. His wife died a year or two ago. His brother, Mr. Robert T. Pickett, is foreman of the street force and took charge of the remains at the hospital last night. The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Market Street M. E. church, the services being conducted by Rev. J. W. Potter, the pastor.

Mr. Pickett was a hard-working man of good character and his death will be generally regretted. He had been a faithful member of the street department for several years.

THE RURAL PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

County Teachers' Association Arranged Programme for Next Saturday—Vocal Training Continued.

The next regular monthly meeting of the New Hanover County Teachers' Association will be held Saturday, December 20th, in the Cape Fear Academy building, on Third street. The programme for the occasion was announced yesterday, and it embraces a number of interesting features. "History" will be discussed by some competent person yet to be selected, and "How to Teach English Grammar" will be treated by Prof. Catlett. "How to Teach Fractions" will be the subject of an interesting address by Mr. F. M. Foy, of Scott's Hill. "How Should Recitations Be Conducted? Hold the Attention of a Class" will be treated in a paper by Miss Bettie Herling, of Castle Haynes.

The Board of Education has acted favorably upon the suggestion of the Association at its last meeting to retain Prof. D. M. Bain as teacher of vocal music in the rural schools. Prof. Bain was first employed for three months as an experiment. He has given such eminent satisfaction and the innovation has proved so decidedly popular that the Board of Education will continue his employment until the close of the scholastic year.

DIED IN FAR AWAY MISSOURI.

Mr. David Alderman, a Native of This County—Large Family Connection.

News reached the city yesterday of the death in far-away Missouri of Mr. David Alderman, a native of this county, who has many relatives throughout Eastern North Carolina, among them four nephews, Messrs. J. W. William H., George F., and Allison Alderman, of this city. The St. Joseph newspaper, in giving an account of Mr. Alderman's death, which occurred on Dec. 2nd, says:

"David Alderman, an old and well known citizen of St. Joseph, died at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at his home, No. 408 Adelphi street. His death was due to old age and general debility."

Mr. Alderman had been a resident of St. Joseph for the past 34 years, and conducted a sale and feed stable. He retired from active life two years ago. "He is survived by his second wife and four children. The children are Charles Alderman, of St. Joseph; Mrs. Mary Highsmith, of Sparta, Mo.; James Alderman and Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, both of Dover, Okla."

"Mr. Alderman was 78 years old and was born in New Hanover county, N. C. He was the youngest son of a family of fifteen children. All his brothers and sisters are dead. In 1849 Mr. Alderman removed to Sparta, Mo., where he took up the work of a farmer. He remained on the farm until 1868 when he removed to St. Joseph and entered the sale and feed business, buying and selling horses. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock this morning from the late residence and the interment will be in Register cemetery, where Mr. Alderman's first wife was buried."

AT Y. M. C. A. TUESDAY EVENING.

Mr. S. M. Spedon, Editor of Talent, Will Appear in Star Course.

There is much interest in the appearance Tuesday evening in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium of Mr. S. M. Spedon, editor of Talent, New York city. The Louisville Courier-Journal in a recent issue said:

"The members of the Standard Club were entertained last night by S. M. Spedon, the subject being 'Things We Laugh and Wonder At,' with character sketches in crayon. His descriptive recitations would provoke laughter in the most sober-minded, and his crayon caricatures of various persons in the audience were very clever. While thus drawing portraits of poets he recited poems written by them, and altogether furnished a most novel entertainment." Tickets can be secured at DeRosse's book store.

About the Cigar Factory Location.

Mr. C. M. Logue, president of the United States Cigar Co., Pittsburg, Pa., who sometimes ago wrote to the Chamber of Commerce asking what inducements the city would offer for the location of one of its factories here, has written a second letter in reply to one from the Chamber of Commerce, stating that the company will not take any definite action in regard to the location of any further plants in the South until after the middle of January. At that time President Logue said he hoped to visit Wilmington and make a personal investigation of the conditions regarding labor, etc.

The Manchester Robbery.

Fayetteville Observer: "The Atlantic Coast Line detectives have dropped the Manchester robbery case, as well as the local officers—Deputy Sheriff Monaghan and Officer Benton—with the assertion that there is nothing for them in their official capacity to work on. The detectives, who made an investigation after the latter officers, have formed the same conclusions of those officers, confirming their diagnosis of the case in every particular. It now develops that none of the $800 missing belonged to the railroad or the express company."

Wants to Begin Anew.

Oscar Johnson, who has travelled the "world o'er," has returned to Wilmington and says he will be here for the remainder of his days. Not a great many years ago he served his time as a machinist in the Coast Line shops and was making good wages and saving his money; he was stricken with paralysis, his entire left side being rendered useless to him. Then he became a dependent and went on the road. Now he has returned and wants employment of some kind that will suit his feeble condition. He is given lodging at the City Hall but wants an opportunity to earn an honest living. He is not a dissipated man and his affliction is his only bar to his active and useful life. Sergeant Ward and a number of policemen yesterday made a purse, gave him a number of articles of clothing and now they want to give the man an opportunity to carry out his good resolution. If anyone has a position, the duties of which the unfortunate man can perform, they would be glad to hear at the police station.
