The deceased gentleman was born in Lumberton, N. C., and had made that his home practically all his life with the exception of several years he sed blockade of Venezuela has had spent in Wilmington, when he was employed by the firm of Williams & Murchison, and a short residence lately in Greensboro. For several sessons he bought cotton for Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son, of this city, and his duties in that and other capacities frequently brought him to Wilmington where he was well known and much esteemed. He was of a jovial disposition, an even temperament and was a true friend. He took a lively interest in his community, State and country, and although he never sought political preferment, his counsel was often asked and his opinions invariably respected. He was a student of human nature, and his judgment of men and affairs was usually sound. The news of his death was received in Wilmington with sincere regret.

TOBACCO WAREHOUSE CO.

Directors Met and Began Business-Traffic Committee of Commerce Chamber. Receipts Cotton Increasing -- Vessels Arrived and Departed.

A meeting of the Directors of the Wilmington Tobacco Warehouse Co. was held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms yesterday morning, President W. E. Worth presiding. Members in attendance were Messrs. Geo. O. Gaylord, Jos. H. Watters, W. B. Cooper, R. R. Stone and M. W. Jacobi. The secretary reported the full amount of stock subscribed and a sufficient amount paid in to justify the Directors beginning business according to the by-laws adopted by the stockholders. The company was then declared duly organized for business and all past actions of the embryonic company were confirmed with the exception that Mr. J. N. Gibbons, of Wilson, was made manager of the warehouse and Mr. James Dodd was elected assistant to the manager. The company will decide upon a site for the plant and begin building at an early date.

The Traffic Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, consisting of Mr. J. Allen Taylor (chairman), Mr. C W. Worth and Mr. R. A. Parsley met yesterday at 12:30 P. M. for the purpose of considering an invitation from President J. W. Haynes, of the Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce, to send a representative to a meeting to be held at some central point in the State for the purpose of taking some action in regard to alleged freight rate discrimination in North Carolina. The matter was gone carefully over by the committee yesterday, but no definite action was announced.

Cotton receipts continue gratify- to the city. ingly large. For the week ended yesterday 15,457 bales were received, against 8,192 bales on the same week last year. Since Sept. 1st, this year, 256,821 have come on the market, or an average, including Sundays, of 2,350 each for the 109 days. This record has not been approached before in the history of the port. The receipts since Sept. 1st to a corresponding date last year were 199,029 bales. The naval store receipts also show up well for the week ended yesterday.

Yesterday's receipts of tar were the heaviest of any single day in two years -709 barrels, most of which was brought down on the steamers Highlander and Johnson. Tar has been a very scarce article on the naval store market during the present season and that the receipts are increasing is gratifying to naval store men.

Schooner Lottie R. Russell, hence for Port-au-Prince with cargo of lumber, passed out at Southport at 7 P. M. Thursday. The Norwegian steamer Europa, hence with cotton cargo for Manchester, the great spinning centre of the world, passed out at Southport at 2 P. M. yesterday.

The Dutch steamer Zeeburg, 1,958 tons, Capt. Stasse, arrived yesterday from Germany, with cargo of potash for the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Co. She is tue largest that has ever entered and one of the few vessels of her nationality that come to this port.

The tug Alexander Jones, towing the disabled schooner Glenfield, of Jacksonville, Fla., arrived at New York at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. The tow was a remarkably quick one. The Glenfield will proceed, after repairs, to Providence, R I.

A PRETTY BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Little Miss Lucile Polvogt Delightfully Eatertained Her Friends Last Evening. In celebration of her ninth birthday Miss Lucile Polvogt, the pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Polvogt, last evening charmingly entertained a number of her young friends at the hospitable home of her parent. No. 513 Princess street. There were also in attendance a number of little Miss Polvogt's grown-up friends, and a delightful evening was spent. The reception room was effectively decorated in pink and green, while in another, where refreshments were served, the color scheme was red and

The little hostess upon the occasion received very many handsome presents and was the recepient of many happy congratulations. The guests were delightfully entertained at games and with music and other pleasant features. Herskey's chocolates in neat packages, caught with red and white ribbon, were given as souvenirs of an evening replete with pleasure.

Elks' Christmas Entertalament.

The Elks' Santa Claus, who will dispense good things to the children of the city at the City Hall next Friday evening, found that his pack for Wilmington was so large that he had to send an installment in advance. He appointed Mr. H. J. Gerken his representative to take charge of the big box in advance and yesterday the pack was opened at Mr. Gerken's store and everything was placed in readiness for tying the presents on the tree. The Elks as emissaries of Santa Claus were busy yesterday in visiting various sections of the city and distributing cards of admission to the entertainment. The indications are that the attendance will be very large.

TESTIMONIAL TO PASTOR.

Rev. Jao. H. Hall Received Substantial Token of Appreciation From Priends. Mr. Shamburger Here.

Rev. Jno. H. Hall, retiring pastor of Fifth Street M. E. church, this city, left yesterday, accompanied by his family, for his new charge at Rockingham, N. C. They left via the Seaboard Air Line at 3:20 P. M., and a large number of friends gathered at the station to bid them good-bye. Rev. Mr. Hall and his interesting family, consisting of Mrs. Hall and four children, are deservedly popular and it was sad for the congregation and the community to give them up.

A most pleasing and fitting incident of the departure of Mr. Hall took place yesterday at the home of Mr. W. A. McGowan, where the family had been spending a few days while arrangements were being made for the transfer of the parsonage to Rev. F. M. Shamburger, the new pastor. As event. the family sat down to dinner, a short time before leaving, Mr. Hall was surprised to find under his plate a purse containing $25 in gold and a new crisp $50 bank note. The surprised pastor had no time to ask for explanations, for Mr. McGowan arose and begged him to accept the same as a slight token of appreciation of a faithful pastor and an esteemed Christian gentlemap. He also explained that the purse was given to Mr. Hall by some members of his congregation and other friends in Wilmington. Mr. Hall was almost overcome by the kind expression and responded feelingly to Mr. McGowan's remarks of presentation. There are few pastors who have come to Wilmington and labored with of Mr. Hall. Rev. F. M. Shamburger, the new pastor of Fifth street church, arrived with his wife, two little daughters and a niece from Rockingham, Thursday, They were met at the station by Presiding Elder John, Messrs. W. A. Mc-Gowan, B. F. King and T. G. Landin. They are receiving a cordial welcome

NOTES OF Y. M. C. A. WORK.

Series of Lectures by Dr. McClure -The Junior Members Will Entertain.

The men of the city will be pleased o learn that the Y. M. C. A. has secured Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure to deliver a series of three addresses on Sunday afternoons beginning tomorrow.

Dr. McClure is a man who has a great interest in young men and in meaking to them is always practical and sympathetic. Advice from him is al ways acceptable and no young man should fail to hear him. Mr. Kimbrough Jones, of the Hollowbush Orchestra, will play a violin solo at the meeting to-morrow. Mr. A. H. Yopp will assist at the piano for one month. This assures good music and a good song service will be conducted under his direction. The junior members of the Association will entertain their friends this afternoon with a gymnastic exhibition. This will afford their parents and friends an opportunity to gain a knowledge of the means that are being used for their physical development. The programme is quite elaborote and includes exercises of a great variety, showing an all-round course of exercises, which can result a nothing less than the development of an all-round and symmetrical manhood, physically speaking. The programme is as follows: 1. Calisthenics by the class. 2. Boxing, Utley King and Victor Grainger. Maize Running by the class.

Thrown From a Bicycle.

Miss Nannie Watters, the accident Wednesday afternoon. She was riding her bicycle on Orange, near Third street, and turning to pass a vehicle, she lost control of the wheel and ran into the curbing of the sidewalk with terrific force. She was thrown over the handle bars and struck her head on the rock with force sufficient to render her unconscious. The gentleman in the buggy which she was trying to pass when the accident occurred, took her to the home of her parents, where she remained unconscious until Thursday afternoon. Yesterday she was very much improved, her friends will be delighted to know.

I. armory' Before announcing the object of the meeting Commander Woodward spoke of the illness of Comrade Roberts of this city, and said that officers of the Camp had visited him at his home on Castle street. The Sick Committee of the Camp was instructed to give Comrade Roberts all the attention necessarv and make his declining days as agreeable and pleasant as possible.

Commander Woodward announced the death of Adjutant General Moorman, of the United Confederate Veterans, at his home in New Orleans and asked Comrade W. L. DeRosset, his personal friend, to make a few remarks which he did and offered a very feeling resolution which upon motion of Comrade J. I. Metts, was unanimously adopted. Copies of the same were ordered sent to the bereaved family, General Jno. B. Gordon, the city papers, the Atlanta Constitution, the New Orleans Times-Democrat and the Confederate Vet-

The celebration of General Lee's birthday was then suggested and according to a mandatory provision of he constitution of the Camp, it was decided to celebrate the anniversary with fitting ceremony. Upon motion of Comrade Metts a committee of five Veterans was appointed to confer with a like committee from Cape Fear Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, relative to the celebration. The committee was named as follows: Comrades James I. Metts, T. D. Meares, R. W. Price, Clayton Giles and J. H. Boatwright.

By permission of the Camp, Dr. W. D. McMillan presented and had read a paper prepared by the late Dr. W. W. Harriss relative to the gallant and heroic conduct of a Wilmington boy, Charles Banks, at the bombardment of Fort Sumter in 1864. Upon motion
