Crownshield will retire from the navy, but he will not take the navy with him.

Only 2,000 out of the 17,500 bills introduced in the last Congress successfully the gauntlet ran.

Missouri's poultry and egg crop last year shelled out $17,000 more than all the farm stuff she sold, not counting what she consumed.

It is reported from Washington that President Roosevelt has been persuaded to equip himself with a hip pocket artillery annex, to be prepared in case of emergency.

A Philadelphia "blind" street beggar was arrested a few days ago for scorching on a bicycle. The witness against him was another "blind" beggar, who saw him.

Reed Smoot, the new U. S. Senator from Utah, started out in the saddle as a bobbin boy in a woolen mill in Provo City. And now the bobbin boy bobs up in the Senate.

A man working in a bucket on a dam at Ogdensburg, N. Y., fell in the bucket, Monday, a distance of 125 feet, to the rocks below. The sudden stop jarred him some, but that's all.

Senor Sangullini, in the Cuban Congress, declares that Cuba can get along without any reciprocity treaty with this country. Maybe so. But she could get along a good deal better with it.

The Amer of Afghanistan has started on the work of reform by discharging all but four of his wives. But this may be a mere economizing scheme. He has also issued an order forbidding any of his subjects having more than four wives.

In two divorce cases in Morris-town, N. J., on the ground of desertion, the men pleaded that their mothers-in-law made home too hot for them. But that plea didn't count with the Judge, who held that a man had no right to run away from his family to get away from his mother-in-law. That's the way he laid down the law.

HIGH PRICES FOR ROSIN.

Good Strained Will Bring $2 Per Barrel. Recent Loss of Two Wilmington Carcasses—Other Shipping News.

On the local market yesterday rosin reached the highest price in 80 years, according to a well known factor. The quotations were $1.95 for strained and $2.00 per barrel for good strained. The recent loss of two large Wilmington carcasses by marine disaster is said to be responsible for the strength of the local market. The abandonment of the Norwegian barque Freidig with a cargo from Murchison & Co. was noted a few days ago and yesterday it was learned that the barque Argo with a cargo of 6,107 barrels, consigned by the S. P. Shoter Company and valued at $9,865.25 had also been lost. She was driven on the rocks Feb. 27 at Machariob, eight miles south of Campbelltown, Scotland, and became a total wreck. Three of her crew reached the shore and put off again in a boat to rescue their comrades, but they were blown to sea and have not since been heard of. The remainder of the Argo's crew was rescued by the Campbelltown lifeboat. The bark was considered a total loss on the 29th. Of course the local consignors are fully protected by insurance but the orders have to be refilled; hence the strong demand.

The brig Jennie Hulbert, hence for New York with lumber cargo, passed out at Southport at 9:30 A. M. yesterday. The British steamer Baron Inverdale, with cargo of cotton for Liverpool, passed out at 10 A. M. The Swedish barque Arago is at quarantine but is expected up-to-day for cargo of naval stores.

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. Hussey, of Warsaw, will deeply sympathize with them in the death of their son, William G. Hussey, aged about 30 years, which occurred at the family home at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Young Mr. Hussey was well known in Wilmington and spent last Sunday with friends in the city. PRETTY RECEPTION.

Congregation and Friends of Grace Church Delightfully Entertained Last Night.

AUSPICES EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Music, Refreshments and Other Social Features Participated in by Many Guests in New Annex to House of Worship—Committees.

Under the auspices of Grace Epworth League a most charming and elaborate reception was given last night from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock in the new annex to the pretty church of the congregation at the northeast corner of Fourth and Grace streets. The lecture room, class rooms and church parlors were conveniently thrown into one by means of folding doors and the combined auditorium proved itself admirably adapted to social affairs of the kind which distinguished it last evening. The rooms were attractively decorated with palms, ferns, with amilax and yellow jessamine, while the lighting effect from handsomely polished candelabra in the refreshment room was all that could be desired. The guests—three or four hundred in number—were most hospitably received by a party among whom were Rev. and Mrs. J. N. Cole, Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Johnson, Dr. Mrs. W. E. Ford, Mrs. O. C. Covington, Mrs. A. C. Craft and Miss Neppie Borden.

The guests were favored during the earlier hour of the reception by a piano solo, "Rustle of Spring" (Sinding), by Wilmington's talented young musician, Mr. James Charles Craft. A vocal solo, "Forgotten" (Owles), was charmingly rendered by Miss Mary Cole, who played her own accompaniment. Mrs. James Craik Lord delighted the audience with a beautiful soprano solo, "The Last Smile" (Wallenhaus), and responded to an enthusiastic encore with the "Spring Song" by Mendelssohn. Mrs. Lord has a voice of much sweetness and is a valuable addition to musical circles of the city. She is a graduate of the Cincinnati School of Music.

Following the musical features, dainty refreshments were served by an assembly of pretty young ladies, who were most charming in their attendance. The refreshment committee was composed of Mrs. J. A. Garrell (chairman), Mrs. W. M. Hankins, Mrs. W. C. Craft and Mrs. Annie Bowden. The decorations were by a committee composed of Mrs. L. A. Blue (chairman); Miss Hazel Love, Miss Louise Van Laer and others.

The reception was a great success from every point of view. It was the most ambitious yet undertaken by the Epworth League and reflects great credit upon that enthusiastic organization. The League meets weekly on Fridays for devotional exercises from 7:45 to 8:30 P. M., and is a valuable auxiliary to the congregation in many ways than one.

Several Were Announced Yesterday—Fries' Mill Merger Appears Intact.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Brown, of Columbus, resigned; J. M. Forehand, of Chowan county, on the State Board of Agriculture, to succeed J. B. Coffield, of Martin county, resigned. Members of the Board of Visitors of the A. & M. College appointed were: C. W. Gold, Wilson; W. J. Peole, Raleigh; R. L. Smith, Albemarle; George Howell, Tarboro. The Governor also re-appointed W. M. Webb, of Morehead City, oyster commissioner.

An expert will be here in a few days to perfect the merger of this mill. H. E. Fries, of Winston-Salem, will be vice president and general manager of the Southern Textile Co., the capital of which will be $14,000,000, to embrace eighty Southern mills.

The Woodmen at Kinston.
Messrs. George Jackson, J. W. Fleet and John E. Wood returned yesterday from Kinston, where they were in attendance upon the District Head Camp, Woodmen of the World, during the past few days. The jurisdiction of the District Camp is the States of North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Delaware and District of Columbia. A goodly number of delegates were in attendance. Mr. Fleet was honored with an election to the office of Head Watchman, and Mr. Jackson was made one of the five members of the Board of Managers. The next Head Camp will be held at Grifton, W. Va., with privilege to change to Charlestown, W. Va., should it later be deemed advisable.

Railway Car Men.
Upwards of 250 persons were present last night at an elaborate social session of the Local Union, Brotherhood Railroad Car Men, and all were more hospitably entertained. The meeting was held in Germania Hall, and after the social features, twenty-five new members were added, running the list up to over 200. Dr. Blackwell, pastor of the First Baptist church, was present by invitation and delivered a pleasing address upon the subject, "Man, Not a Machine."

SOUTH CAROLINA MURDERER.

Sam Wadkins, Wanted for Twelve Years in Marlboro County, at Last on His Way There—The Crime.

Sheriff J. B. Green, of Marlboro county, S. C., arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and took back with him in the afternoon the negro Sam Wadkins, alias Sam White, who is wanted by the South Carolina authorities for the brutal murder of another negro, Will Roper, in the Hebron neighborhood, seven miles from Bennettsville, S. C., 12 years ago on Dec. 3rd of this year.

White was recognized under most unusual circumstances at the last term of the United States court in this city, before which he was being tried for retailing liquor in Columbus county. The particulars of the recognition are well known. The negro could not be turned over to the South Carolina authorities until a requisition was honored by Gov. Aycock, of North Carolina, and until Judge Funnell could issue an order, releasing him from the Federal custody. These technicalities were observed this week and Sheriff Green came yesterday armed with all the necessary papers to take the negro to Bennettsville, where he will be tried at the term of Marlboro county, convening April 27th. There was no reward for his capture as was at first supposed. Sheriff Green says the woman over which the murder was committed, is living at Laurinburg and as he has all the papers from the coroner's inquest he doesn't think it will be difficult to convict.

The prisoner is about 50 years old and is on crutches from a broken ankle received by jumping from a fast moving train, when he was arrested in Columbus county for retailing liquor. He has a bad eye and looks as if he is capable of committing the aggravated murder with which he is charged. Near Laurinburg he was an intimate friend of a colored woman, who married his victim, a much younger man, and removed with him to Marlboro county. Wadkins followed the couple and going into their house with a shotgun, he demanded that the woman pack up her clothes and return with him. The young negro husband got out of the door and was retreating in the yard, when Wadkins filled him with shot from both barrels of the gun. Sheriff Green led yesterday afternoon with his prisoner, via Maxton.

Nathan, Mrs. B. Frank, Mrs. A. A. Nathan, Mrs. N. S. Shivers, Mrs. J. Sternberger, Mrs. S. Sternberger. Musical Director—Miss Lena Solomon. Floor Manager—Miss Marcella Shrier.

KICKED TO DEATH BY HORSE.

Distressing News Received by Mrs. R. D. W. Connor Yesterday Morning.

In response to a telegram announcing that her father, Mr. Philip Hanes, had been kicked by a horse and seriously wounded, Mrs. R. D. W. Connor, of this city, left yesterday morning for Mocksville, N. C. to be with him. She had hardly departed before a second telegram came bearing the distressing news that Mr. Hanes had died of his injuries. Prof. Connor received the telegram and left last evening to be with the family in their bereavement.

A special from Winston-Salem sent out before Mr. Hanes' death is as follows: "WINSTON-SALEM, March 11.—News was received here to-day that Mr. Philip Hanes, a former resident of this city, now of Mocksville, was kicked by his horse yesterday afternoon and that his condition this morning was thought to be quite serious. The hoof of the animal struck Mr. Hanes in the lower part of the abdomen with great force. Dr. Shroyer of Salisbury was called to see Mr. Hanes. He was expected to arrive this afternoon."

At the Academy of Music.

Last night's threatening weather did not deter a large audience from attending the Academy of Music and enjoying a fine performance of the four act comedy drama, "For Her Child's Sake." Again new specialties were introduced and again greatly pleased. Mr. Pete Seymour, perhaps, introduced the most laughable specialty of the evening and received several encores. To-night one of the most popular of all plays, "Hazel Kirke," will be presented. For the special ladies' and children's matinee to-morrow afternoon, tickets will be on sale at Plummer's in the morning.

$3,000 Too Much for Wilmington.
Mr. Collier has secured all negotiations off regarding bringing to Wilmington, the world's greatest living soprano, Mme. Nordica and the Great Opera Metropolitan Opera House Band and Orchestra. While Wilmington aspires to such great attractions, this one being especially only offered in a life time, $3,000 guarantees seem to be above her limit. To those who came forward, Mr. Collier begs to extend his thanks.

Telephone Men Here.
Mr. M. B. Spler, of Charlotte, superintendent of this district of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., arrived in the city yesterday on business connected with the installation of the new system in Wilmington. Mr. W. H. Atkins, of Atlanta, traffic manager of the company, will arrive to-day on business for the company.

ANNUAL PURIM BALL.

Twenty-fourth Annual Entertainment Under Auspices of the Temple of Israel.

Charming Little Play Rendered by Young Folks—An Elegant Supper and Round of Other Pleasures—The Committees in Charge.

The twenty-fourth annual Purim ball and entertainment under the auspices of the ladies of the congregation of the Temple of Israel was given last night in Harmony Circle club rooms in the MacRae building and it was one of the most delightful affairs of the season. The little folks were entertained from 4 to 8:30 o'clock and after that hour the older members of the congregation enjoyed the pleasures of the occasion. A delightful supper was served during the progress of the evening's enjoyment and dancing was participated in until a late hour, the music having been furnished by a select orchestra. The decorations were very effective and the menu for the supper most inviting.

The chief feature of the children's entertainment was the presentation of a delightful little cantata, "A Visit From Mother Goose and Her Family," which was richly costumed and the characters cleverly interpreted. The cast was as follows:

JEWISH FEAST OF PURIM.

It Will Be Celebrated by Hebrews Everywhere To-day—Its Significance.

Jews everywhere will celebrate the Purim feast to-day. It marks the anniversary of King Ahasuerus' order rescinding the edict for the killing of the Jews and overthrowing the plans of Haman for the destruction of the race. Through the efforts of Esther the King issued the order, and gave the Jews permission to defend themselves when attacked.

The race was preserved by this order and the people have celebrated it ever since, covering a period of 2,400 years. The celebration has not the religious sentiment which marks so many of the Jewish holidays. In ancient times the anniversary was celebrated by giving dances, especially managers, and this custom has been continued to a large extent by thousands of Jews. One of the prescribed customs is for the assembling of the family in the morning and evening, when the book of Esther is read and there is a general exchange of presents. It generally is made the merriest of the Jewish holidays, marking, as it does, the preservation of the Jews.
