Yopp, a prominent dealer of this city, and Congress man G. B. Patterson, of Maxton. The messengers were met at the station by Messrs. J. B. Fales, Ed. Taylor and E. R. Dize, also large dealers here, and the young fish, as sprightly as the mountain minnow, were released from tin receptacles in the river at Market dock. They were five days old, and Mr. Copeland said they were the finest he ever saw. Everything was favorable for the deposit, and the little fish will soon grow to be "fry" indeed. A million were turned loose in the Northeast branch of the Cape Fear about a year ago.

Saturday Mr. Copeland said h would deposit 700,000 of the small shad in a tributary of the Cape Fear, near Clintan, and next week the gov-

The official returns were made early to the Democratic Executive Commit- tee, which met at 7:30 o'clock in the Board of Audit and Finance room at the City Hall. Msj. W. F. Unimportant chal- lenges were heard from the First and Fifth wards and the committee de- cided them without knowing until af- ter decision for whom the challenged voters cast their ballots. The election officers were a capable set of men and with the explicit instructions given them by a most capable committee, there was very little confusion. The official vote was soon declared, as will be found published on this page. A great crowd gathered at the City Hall to hear the returns and Msj. Robertson, chairman of the commit- tee, was greeted with great applause when he announced from the mayor's table in the court room the results in each ward and as a whole. Three cheers for "Springer" were given at the close of the reading and in re- sponse to loud calls, Mayor-elect Springer came inside the railing and made a brief but very happy speech. Other speeches were made and a densely packed room was soon vacated. Our New Mayer. Mr. William E. Springer, who was yesterday nominated as the Democratic candidate for the mayorality of Wilmington (the nomination being equivalent to an election) will bring to the discharge of the duties of that position all the necessary qualifications. He is essentially a business man of excellent training and practice and is especially fitted for the financial department of the city. He has for some years been desirous of becoming Wilmington's Chief Magistrate, and now that he has reached the pinnacle of his ambition, it is but natural that he should give his best efforts to the service of the people who have so signally honored him. Let him be sustained in these efforts by the co-ordinate branches of the city government and there is no reason to doubt that his administration will be acceptable to his fellow citizens.
