

Stage of water in the Cape Fear river at Fayetteville, N. C., at 8 A. M. Wednesday 24 feet and falling.

COTTON REGION BULLETIN. Fair weather has continued in the eastern, and rains with heavy showers are reported in the western districts. The temperature has fallen decidedly in the western portions of the cotton belt.

STORM WARNING.

Signals were displayed at 4 P. M. a all points along the Atlantic coast from Key West to New York. Disturbance over Ontario moving east. High southwest winds expected, becoming west and northwest Friday.

FORECAST FOR TO-DAY. WASHINGTON, April 30.-For North Carolina: Showers and colder Friday; Saturday fair and cool, brisk west winds, possibly high on the coast.

Port Almanac May 1.

S in Rises..... 5.08 A. Sin Sets..... 6.47 P. M

That old hoodoo that followed the battleship Texas seems to have skipped over to the lowa.

Emile Waldteufel, the waltz writer, has composed over 800 waltzes, polkas, mazurkas, &c. Emile's dances may be all right but he has a teufel of a name.

A Boston preacher who told his congregation that no woman who wears a sea gull or song bird on her hat can enter heaven, can't gull the women with that kind of talk.

The catalogue of the University of North Carolina for the season 1902-3 shows a total of 608 students, who come from seventeen different States. This is the largest enrollment in the history of the University.

Five Italians were arraigned in a magistrate's court in New York a few days ago, charged with extorting money from a countryman, and here is the armament found on them-five dirks, three stilettos, two razors and a revolver.

There is said to be a shortage in the Vermont maple sugar crop. This is rough on Vermont, but when a fair article of "maple sugar" can be made out of brown sugar and vinegar, there is no occasion to worry over it.

There are said to be four denizens 90 years of age and a score or more over 80 in one township in Ohio. They are probably pensioners Wedding in Charlotte.

ers, Capi. and Mrs. H. C. Roome are aboard.

- The State Great Council of Red Men will meet at Washington, N. C., next week. Wilmington reprelittle something about agriculture as well as thestricals and testing water

- Southport Standard: "Rev.

Odd Fellows at the Methodist church on Sunday morning last. The entire membership attended the services in a body, and expressed themselves in very satisfactory terms of Rev. Mc-

- Southport Standard: "The

Wilmington District Langue Conference will meet at Grace church in Wilmington on Tuesday and Wednes-

Leaguers will go from Southport."

Whorton's sermon."

Electric Company."

Florence.

metrer.

ers at least, should have cots or bunks to sleep on to keep them off the floor, sentatives will leave Tuesday. and that the jail should be furnished - Fayetteville Observer: "Mr. better bedding for the prisoners. Jim Sutton, of Wilmington, srrived here yesterday to accept a position STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION with Superintendent Jones, of the

Adjourned Yesterday at Kinston-Officers - Beginning Saturday and durment of prisoners, nor should it be

We also think that the sick prison-

Elected for Ensning Year. ing the remainder of the season the street railway cars will start each Mr. Philip Heinsberger, who repremorning at 7 o'clock instead of 7:30 sented St. Andrew's Sunday School, of A. M. as during the Winter. this city, at the State Convention at Kinston this week, returned last even-- The new book of delinquents ing and reports a most delightful reported to the Merchants' Association meeting. The attendance was large and recently compiled by the secreand the visitors were most hospitably fary and a committee from that body entertained. for the information of members, came allowed.

Officers were elected as follows: from the presses yesterday. President, Robert N. Simms, of Ba-- The Pee Dee Presbytery of leigh; treasurer, Jos. 'J. Rogers, Kin-South Carolina in session at Conway, ston; general secretary, Prof. S. M. S. C., yesterday accepted the proposi-Smith, Elon College, and Rev. J. tion of the city of Florence, which Walter Long, Dobson, assistant secreoffered $3,000 and a site for the estabtary. ishment of a classical high school at The following are the members o

the general committee of the State: - Prof. Cassio C. Brannan, with N. B. Broughton, chairman; Geo. W. Watts, J. R. Mendenhall, F. T. Blair, Belding's Philadelphia Orchestra which spent the last season at Kenil-Dr. C. C. Hubbard, H. W. Jackson, worth Inp. Asheville, N. C., will Geo. H. Howell, Elder G. C. Vance, arrive in Wilmington this morning to J. D. Andrews, H. N. Snow, H. B. play first violin in the Casino Orches-Parker, Jr., Rev. J. D. Atkinson, Rev. tra, on Wrightsville beach. A. G. Dixon, W. J. Young, Jr., T. P. Johnson, Rev. M. S. Spear, J. W. - The wharf rat, as well as at Long, C. H. Mebane. tacking everything else, has invaded · Central Executive Committee-N. the poultry field. Fifteen fine chicks B. Broughton, Geo. W. Watts, H. just hatched in the poultry yard of Superintendent Repertson at the Clar-W. Jackson, W. J. Young, Jr., H. N. Snow, Rev. J. O. Atkinson, Geo. H. endon pumping station at Hilton were Crowell. killed by the rats Wednesday night.

Primary Secretary, Mrs. J. H. - Mr. James D. Mote, who farms Weathers, Charlotte; secretary home n a small way back of the Olarendon department, H. W. Snow, Durham; Water Works office, on Princess secretary department normal training, street, had the first snap beans of the F. S. Blair, Guilford College. season yesterday. "Jeems" knows a VESSEL AND ICE CARGO LOST.

The Schooner Albert T. Stearns Ashord

Mc whorter preached the 84th anon Massachusetts Coast. niversary sermon to Atlantic Lodge of Parties interested here have re ceived notice that the schooner Al bert T. Stearns, Captain Bunker, bound from Rockport, Me., to Will mington, went ashore Monday on Shovelful shoals, near Chatham, Mass., and is a total wreck. The Monomay life saving station sent out a boat and succeeded in rescuing the crew. The wreckers are stripping the vessel. The Stearns had a cargo of natural day next week. Rev. E. Mc Whorter will deliver an address, and E. D. Guthrie, ice for the Independent Ice Company, Esq, will read a paper. It is quite of this city, but the loss is fully covprobable that a large number of ered by insurance. The schooner is owned by the same firm as the illfated Jno. H. Buttrick, which was lost off this coast exactly a month tine yesterday; receipts 25 casks. The local cotton market advanced 10 cents for middling yesterday with a firm tone. The receipt was only one bale against 464 bales same day last vear.

The schooner M. C. Haskell, Capt. Wingfield, hence for Mayaguez, Porto Rico, and the schooner Jno. Paul, Capt. Foss, hence for Boston, passed out at Southport at 3:30 P. M. yesterdavi

The big Standard Oil steamer Col onel E. L. Drake, Capt. Rubelli, one of the largest that ever came to the port, is expected here to morrow with a supply of oil for the North Carolina branch of the company in this city. urban line to Wrightsville beach. A The Drake is 360 feet long, 50 feet beam and 281 feet depth. She has a turn of the visitors from the beach. capacity of 35,000 barrels of oil.

The monthly statement for April by Capt. Edgar Williams, harbor master, shows arrivals of 29 yessels of a combined tonnage of 24,645, which makes a very favorable comparison with the shipping of the same month last year. Twenty-five of the vessels were Ameri can and 4 were foreign as follows: American-Nine steamers, 12,456 tons; 1 barge, 3,000 tons; 15 schooners 6,941 tons. Total tonnage, 22,397. Foreign-Four barques, 2,248 tons

Funeral of Mrs. Blatr.

The remains of the late Mrs. W. W. Blair will arrive at 12:45 to-morrow from Gainesville, Ga., and the funeral will be conducted at 4 P. M. from the Fisher while down the river, but will First Presbyterian church, of which she was a member. It was thought until yesterday that the remains would the election of officers and winding up arrive to day but a telegram from of other business. Mr. Blair stated that they would not get here until to-morrow. The remains will be accompanied to Wilmington by Mr. Blair, Mr. and of the committees. The badge will be Mrs. T. M. Bell, of Gainesville, at whose residence Mrs. Blair passed away; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Merrill, of I. O. O. F. emblems. Cedar Rapids, Iowa, father and stepmother, respectively, of the deceased, and Mrs. R. Cotter and daughter, of Columbus Junction, Iows.

The New City Directory.

Mr. Julius Holderman, an experadvertising solicitor with the Hill Directory Co., 1109 East Main street. Richmond, Va., is in the city calling upon Wilmington business men in the interest of the new edition of his company's valuable publication for this city. Mr. Holderman is a clever gentleman and possesses every qualification for the directory business. Three other men are here working up manuscript for the new book, which will be issued this Summer or early in the Fall.

Paueral Yesterday Afternoon, Impressive funeral services were con-

Rev. Dr. A. G. Voigt arrived yestional Bank building. The first meetterday and conducted the funeral sering will be called to order by Grand vices over the remains of the little Master J. F. Griffith, of Winston, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Haar, hav-Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The ing been excused from the centennial visitors will be welcomed in behalf of session of the Lutheran Synod at Sathe Odd Fellows of the city by Past lisbury on account of the death. The Grand Master Jno. D. Bellamy and synod is holding a most interesting in behalf of the city by Mayor William and profitable meeting. Wednesday E. Springer. Grand Master Griffith night's session was devoted to an adwill likely respond to behalf of the dress on "Beneficiary Education," by Grand Lodge. A night session will also be held, beginning at 8 o'clock. A correspondent reporting the pro-Wednesday morning's session will ceedings, says: be called to order at 9 o'clock and it

The sessions of the synod continue will continue until about 1 o'clock in to be interesting and are well attendthe afternoon, when a recess will be ed by the public. The venerable Dr. G. D. Bernheim, of Wilmington, one taken for a trolley ride over the subof the most prominent ministers of the Southern Lutheran Church and an industrious writer of church history, night session will be held upon the rearrived last night, but was too unwell All of Thursday will be given over to take part in the session of the synod to-day. He is to deliver an address at to pleasure. Capt. Jno. W. Harper, of the steamer Wilmington, has placed the afternoon session of the centennial celebration Saturday on "Our his splendid boat at the disposal of Pioneer Ministers; Their Labors and members of the Grand Lodge and they Trials, Past and Present Compared," will go for an excursion down the will probably include a visit to the Mrs. Mariana Newman left yesterday fort itself as the committee has secured afternoon for Florence, S. C., to live the endorsement of Capt. E. E. Winswith her son, Mr. Louis Newman. She low, in charge of the Corps of U. S. has been an invalid for many years Engineers here, upon an application to and yesterday was the first time she the Secretary of War for the rare had been out of her room at the Bonitz privilege. On the boat the Daughters House in 20 years. In the same room of Rebekah will serve refreshments she was a guest many years ago after and an Italian band has been secured she was first married. Up to last to furnish the music. The party will month she had resided there with her most probably visit the ruins of Fort son, the late Henry Newman, who cared for her tenderly. Mrs. Newreturn to the city in time to hold a man's friends hope that she stood the session Thursday and adjourn, after trip to Florence well and will be pleased with her new surroundings.

In Same Room 20 Years.

V. A-J. G. Ittner. Missing Man Not Found. Treasurer-A. J. Marshall. Although diligent search has been Conductor-Joe Meler. made, nothing has been seen or heard of Mr. James Byrd, a member of the O. G.-G. W. Bornemann. Trustees-Julius Sternberger, Behrends and G. W. Linder. city street force, who disappeared ton, bearing a cut of Fort Fisher and from his home, near Third and The above with the appointive offi-Wright streets, last Saturday night. cers will be installed on next Thursday Chief of Police Furlong and Sheriff night, May 7th, by Deputy Grand Stedman will send several men to-day. Arch A. J. Marshall. to ascertain, if possible, the man's whereabouts. Norment-Parmele Wedding.

> The Eagle Steam Laundry at No. 15 social event was the reception at the home of Capt. W. S. Norment, Tues-North Second street, will begin operation next Monday with Mr. J. W. day evening, preceding the nuptials of Mr. Parmele and Miss Nell Norment. Smith, manager. The machinery is which were celebrated last evening in all new and has been tested and found the Presbyterian church. A host of in perfect working order. The laundry friends were in attendance at the rewill employ about a dozen persons at ception, and most valuable was the profusion of rich presents, betokening the popularity of the bride in her home town., The marriage ceremony was performed by Dr. J. P. McMillan, first but the force will be increased from time to time as business demands.

Stone and Construction and the Standard Supply Companies-A Hardware Co. [Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C, April 30.-The Wilmington Stone and Contracting Company was chartered to-day with $20,000 capital authorized and $6,000 Rev. C. W. Kegley, of Wilmington. subscribed, by W. H. Griffin, of Newbern; S. P. Adams and H. E. Bonitz, of Wilmington each of whom has 20 shares. The company will manufacture artificial-building stone and do general contracting, building, etc. The Standard Supply Company, of

There was also a charter to the Mc-Allister Hardware Company, of Lum-berton, capital $8,000 subscribed and $25,000 authorized. The incorporators

are J. A. McAllister, W. P. McAllis

Hugh McL McAllister, of Charlotte.

er, J. McAllister, of Lumberton, and

THE DRUIDS ELECT OFFICERS.

hose Chosen Last Night by Linden Grove

At last night's meeting of Linden

Frove No. 2, United Ancient Order of Druids, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing term :

in the presence of a large audience

including a number of Wilmington friends. The happy couple left on the evening train for a bridal tour through the North, on which thArgus wishes them the most abundant joy, to be extended through the whole life

Jr. P. A.-G. W. Linder. N. A.-D. E. Costin.

Secretary-Geo. Ziegler.

I. G.-Geo. Simon.

No. 2-The Installation.

sbares.

Wilmington, was also chartered, with $30,000 capital subscribed, the business specified being to manufacture all Spring business has kinds of machinery, electrical appliances, metal products, tools, mill supopened with a rush plies, etc. The incorporators and in-terest of each are H. A. Burr, 240 shares, Fred S. Burr, 10 shares; Theo-dore S. Jackson, of New York, 50

Our Gas Ranges are selling rapidly. If you haven't one already leave your order now and you won't regret it. What about our

THE RAIL IS ON.

ELECTRIC FAN THIS SEASON? Consolidated Railways, Light and Power Co. 8 my 1 %

Baseball Goods.

I have a full line of

Spalding's Gloves, Balls, Mits Masks, Bats, Protectors, And anything you will need

in the game.

The Stationer,

107 Market St. ap 12 tf

Restaurant, The Only

Our Restaurant Has Made a Reputation!

There are thousands of people in this city who when they think of our Restaurant think of a quiet and cozy place where the food is excellent, the service prompt and the prices moderate. It is now an assured success

Orders for Plants, Floral Designs, Cut Flowers, Bouquets, &c., filled promptly and at reasonable prices. CHARLES ANDERSON & CO. Telephone 719. jan Str ville, N. C., is the Deputy Grand Master, and will likely be Grand Master after this year's meeting.

Wilmington is the leading I. O.O.F. city in the State and has a number of Past Grands who are eligible to seats in the Grand Lodge.

river as far as Fort Caswell. The trip

The committee has ordered 300 handsome souvenir badges for the visitors

as well as an extra supply for the use on wide red ribbos, with celluloid but-

It is expected that all the Grand

The local committee of arrange-King (chairman), J. A. Orrell (secreon from the (tary), W. L. Smith, W. H. Yopp, B.

The New Steam Laundry.

Express Agent at Florence.)

ments is composed as follows: J. T. for a number of years been in the King (chairman), J. A. Orrell (secre-

Lumberton Argus: "A brilliant

Yesterday's Florence Times says: "Charles Bultman has been appointed agent of the Southern Express Company at this place, to take effect to-morrow. Mr. Bultman has journey.' various departments and is thorough-Fayetteville People Coming,

Lodge officers will be in attendance. Among the number will be Mr. R.cnard J. Jones, of this city, the veteran treasurer, who will have served half a century after the Wilmington meeting. Grand Secretary B. H. Woodell, of Raleigh, is another veteran in the service and has the confidence and esteem of every Odd Fellow in the State. Mr. . J. Hopkins, of Wilmington, is another Grand Lodge officer who is deservedly popular in State Odd Fellow ship. Dr. L. B. McBrayer, of Ashe-

ducement to live so long out there. The latest reported El Dorado dis- covered is in Talladega county, Ala- bama, where the dirt taken from different places at depths of from two to seven feet pans out from $26 to $128 a ton. The discoverers say there are "millions in it," ahead of of the Klondike and no freezing or starving to death. Commenting upon the fact that Admiral Dewey owns and drives a spanking team of horses, an ex- change says everybody knows he is a fine sailor, but few know that he is also a clever whip. The mischief we don't. Didn't he whip Montojo	bride's mother, on North Church street, by Dr. A. C. Barron, pastor of the Tryon Street Bapitst church. It was a quiet home wedding, Mr. Wil- liam B. Taylor was best man and Miss Carrie McLean was maid of honor. Shortly after the ceremony the newly wedded couple left for Wilmington." NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Meeting-Plantagenet Commandery The Consolidated Bailways, Light and Power CoElectric fans. BUSINESS LOCALS. A. Steljes-House for rent.	Hogs Rusning at Large. Residents in the southern portion of the city are complaining that hogs are being allowed to run at large in the neighborhood night af ter night. A number of flower gardens and yards have been ruined by the depredators and there appears to be no check to them. High Diver Fell. A special from Washington, N. C., says: 'This afternoon as the high diver of the Hatch Adams Carnival Company was preparing to exploit his feature, his assistant went to the top of the ladder to test it. The gay ropes holding the top ladder section broke, throwing him to a stone pavement be- low. A broken leg and a dislocated	over the remains of John H., the little son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Haar, whose death was announced Wednes- day morning. The services were by Rev. A. G. Voigt, D. D., and many friends of the family were in attend- ance. The floral tributes were nume- rous and very pretty. The interment was in Oakdale. His Grandiather Dead. Mr. Norwood H. Lockhart has re- turned from Timmonsville, S. C., where he was called on Tuesday on account of the death of his grand- father, Mr. W. J. Lockhart, a well known citizen of that section. De- ceased was 87 years old, a consistent member of the Baptist church and a worthy citizen. He was buried in Tim-	Small Fire At Hope Mills. Fayetteville Observer 30th: Fire was discovered this morning in a num- ber of bales of cotton on the Atlantic Coast Line platform at Hope Mills, but was extinguished with a loss of not over $100. The cotton was con- signed to the Cumberland Manufactur- ing Company." Health Officer Resigned. Health Inspector W. E. Beaton has resigned his position to take affect at once. He will re-enter the service of the C. R. L. & P. Co, as conductor. In the health department he was a model officer and the superintendent	Mr. S. W. Diron, the present agent, has been provided for in another de- partment of the service." Given Away at Polvogt's To-day. The Neek Ruche, Parasol and Hat, which have been on display in the window of the O. W. Polvogt Co. since their opening day, will be given away to day at eleven o'clock. All those who are interested are requested to be at their store at 11 o'clock this morning when the presentation will take place. The first will be awarded the Parasol, the second will be given the Neck Ruche and the third will be given choice of any Hat in their estab- lishment. All those whose purchases in their Millinery Department amounted to 55.00havebeen given an opportunity to secure one of these articles. To-day the C. W. Polvogt Co. will offer as their bargains Trunks, Suit Cases, Sheets, Pillow Cases and 'Household	a large party of gentlemen and ladies, some twenty-five or thirty, will be pas- sengers on the City of Fayetteville to- morrow, bound for Wilmington to hear Mme. Nordica and the Duss Metropolitan Opera House orchestra at the Opera House there Saturday night. The City of Fayetteville will leave her wharf here promptly at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, and returning will leave Wilmington immediately after the concert Saturday." — The city election will be held next Tuesday, May 5th. — DIED. — BLAIR-IN Gainesville, Ga., Tuesday, April 28th, at 10 P. M., Mrs. W. W. BLAIR, in the S6th year of her age. — Remains will arrive to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon via S. A. L., and funeral will be con- ducted at 4 P. M. same day from the First	A powerful purifier of the blood, price 75c a bottle, three bottles for $2.00, at HARDIN'S Palace Pharmacy, 126 South Front Street. ap 25 tf Both 'Phones 55. Plantagenet Commandery No. 1. Will meet in special conclave Friday, six (6) P. M. for work in the Order of the Bed Cross
---	--	--	---	--	--	---	--	--