

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. LXXII.—NO. 57.

WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY, MAY 29, 1903

WHOLE NO. 11,157

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
One Year, by Mail, $5.00
Six Months, 2.50
Three Months, 1.25
Two Months, 1.00
Delivered to subscribers in the City at 45 Cents per Month.

The Morning Star.

OUTLINES.

Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht sailed yesterday from Gloucester, Ireland, for Sandy Hook, N. Y. — Earthquake in Asiatic Turkey destroyed a town and killed hundreds of people. — Armed men made a demonstration Wednesday night at the jail in Jackson, Ky. — "Tribal Land" won the Brooklyn handicap; "Gunfire" was second. — The next General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church will be held in Mobile, Ala. — No further arrests were made in connection with the Postoffice Department scandal. — Marine engineers at Norfolk, Va., demand an increase of wages, and a tie-up is expected. — Application for a receiver of the Victor Cotton Mills, Charlotte, N. C., has been made by stockholders. — President Roosevelt received a warm welcome in Idaho. — Serious labor troubles are reported in Russia. — George Feeley was knocked out by Jim Jeffords in a twenty round bout at Savannah last night. — Division of the coast line of the United States into thirteen naval defense districts has been ordered. — Venezuela has issued a 2 degree suppressing customs houses at ports of that country now in control of insurgency. — New York markets: Money on call easy at 2 1/2 per cent; cotton dull at 17 1/2; flour was dull but steady; wheat—spot dull, No. 2 87 1/2; corn—spot quiet, No. 2 56; oats—spot dull, No. 2 39 1/2; rosin steady; spirits turpentine quiet.

WEATHER REPORT.

U. S. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE, WEATHER BUREAU, WILMINGTON, N. C., May 28.
Meteorological data for the twenty-four hours ending at 8 P. M.:
Temperatures: 8 A. M., 74 degrees; 8 P. M., 73 degrees; maximum, 80 degrees; minimum, 68 degrees; mean, 74 degrees.
Rainfall for the day, .00; rainfall since 1st of the month to date, 2.22 inches.
Stage of water in Cape Fear river at Fayetteville, N. C., at 8 A. M. 4 feet.
COTTON REGION BULLETIN.
The weather has been generally fair in the central portions of the cotton belt. A few scattered rains have fallen in the eastern and western districts. There has been little change in temperature.

FORECAST FOR TO-DAY.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—For North Carolina: Showers Friday and Saturday except fair on the coast; light variable winds.

Port Almanac—May 29.

Sun Sets..... 4.46 A. M.
Sun Sets..... 7.09 P. M.
Sun Sets..... 14 H. 21 M.
High Water at Southport, 10.04 P. M.
High Water Wilmington, 12.34 P. M.

Another frank sailed from Boston a few days ago to cross the Atlantic in a seventeen-foot boat.

The attention of cotton men and cotton speculators is now turned to New Orleans, where the bulls and bears are performing.

The grandsons of P. D. Armour will have to pay $20,000 inheritance tax, but as they have about $4,000,000 to draw from they can stand it.

Mr. Peter Stuyvesant, who was the first Mayor of New York 250 years ago, was not as good looking as his successor, Mayor Low, but he wore more hair and shirt collar.

After his return from the South Dr. Parkhurst remarked in the New York World that "At present the negro in the South has just as good a chance of obtaining work as the white man. It is not so here."

The men in Roumania will now go to kicking against permitting any more women to learn to read. Some of those who have learned are kicking against plowing, which the men consider their particular business.

Among other things that Capt. Scott and his party of Antarctic explorers discovered down there was a chain of mountains from 7,000 to 9,000 feet in height extending southward 300 miles, and it is believed to be the Pole.

The late B. F. Jones, the steel magnate of Pittsburg, left an estate worth $60,000,000, which goes by will to his widow and four children, with the exception of an annuity of $1,000 to a brother and a similar amount to a sister.

The Navy Department has contracted for 200,000 pounds of frankfurter, 145,000 of sauerkraut and 90,000 pounds of bologna sausage for the sea fighters. With such a strong equipment as that they ought to be able to tackle a pretty robust foe.

The New York Commercial predicts that the Republicans in Congress will steer clear of tariff revision, and that if the Supreme Court sustains the anti-merger decision of the U. S. Circuit Court it will amend the Sherman law so it will not hurt the merging business.

ANOTHER GRAVE OFFENCE.

Young White Man Charged With an Attempted Felonious Assault—Preliminary Hearing This Afternoon.

John Wilkins, a young white man formerly employed as a clerk in a grocery store at Second and Dawson streets, will be confronted with a serious charge in Justice Fowler's court this afternoon at 4 o'clock. He was arrested in Federal Point township, about six miles from the city, night before last, by Constable W. B. Savage and the warrant charges him with an attempt to commit a felonious assault on Tuesday upon Miss Alle Elmira Watson, a grown daughter of Mrs. Rose L. Watson, who lives on Fifth, between Wright and Dawson streets. The prosecution alleges that he visited the home under a pretense of collecting a bill and that upon resistance by the young woman, the mother came and demanded to know of the girl what the trouble was. Wilkins is reported to have threatened Miss Watson if she spoke of the affair to her mother and he then left. The young man, as employed Maraden Bellamy, Esq., to appear in his behalf and is confident of making a strong defence. He is now in jail in default of $300 justified bond.

LOCAL DOTS.

Special convocation Concord Chapter No. 1, R. A. M. to-night at 8 o'clock for work in Mark Master Degree.

The "Home Boys" and "Returning Collegians" will play a game of baseball at Hilton Park at 8:30 o'clock this afternoon. The public is invited.

Fayetteville Observer: "The law firm of Patterson & McCormick, of Maxton, has been dissolved. Congressman Patterson remains at Maxton, while Mr. J. G. McCormick goes to Lumberton to enter into partnership with McLean & McLean."

Southport Standard: "On account of illness Prof. D. M. Bais, who has been conducting a very successful singing school here for the past two weeks, left on Monday for his home near Vineland, where he will remain until he recovers."

Miss Carrie McCoilin, 15 years of age, was bitten by a beech leaf snake while picking blackberries on Mr. Martindale's place, in Harriet township, Tuesday afternoon. Home remedies were applied, but she has grown worse and is not expected to live.

The Wilmington Stone & Construction Co. has received a letter from J. B. Clowes & Sons, of New York, asking for quotations on the block manufactured here. The New York firm has some large contracts in Cuba and considers Wilmington a most advantageous point for water shipments to that island.

May 30th being a national holiday the hours at the Wilmington postoffice will be as follows: Registry and money order department, open from 8 to 10 A. M. General delivery and stamp windows, 7 to 10 A. M. and 5 to 7 P. M. The carriers will make the early morning delivery and collection.

Chamber of Commerce Committee. The Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce met at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon but the business transacted was chiefly routine and of a private character. Those in attendance were President J. A. Taylor, Vice President S. P. McNair and Messrs M. S. Willard, J. A. Arrington and L. B. Rogers. The entertainment of the Bankers' Convention at Wrightsville in June was discussed and Secretary Kyle was instructed to solicit funds for the same.

Mr. Bear Improving. The STAR is glad to announce that Mr. Samuel Bear, Sr., who is now under treatment in a private hospital in New York, is steadily improving, and should be unfavourably symptomatic appears he will probably be home within a week or ten days. He had to submit to a surgical operation, which was performed by one of the surgeons who operated on President McKinley.

Left For Savannah, Ga. Mr. J. N. Brand left yesterday for Savannah, Ga., where he will be superintendent of transportation of the Second Division of the Atlantic Coast Line. Mr. Haylow, who will take Mr. Brand's place here, will arrive about June 1st. Mrs. Brand and little son, who have been visiting at Sumter, S. C., joined Mr. Brand at Charleston last night.

Strawberry Shipments. Wednesday's shipments of strawberries amounted to 23 refrigerators. No report of Express shipments was received. Those by refrigerator cars were distributed as follows: Pittsburg, 8 cars; New York, Newark, Philadelphia and Buffalo, 8 cars each, and one each to Scranton, Erie and Wilkesbarre.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Mercer & Evans Co.—Pretty face. Notice—To Justices and Comm'rs. N. C. Wilmington—Two trips Sunday. Miscellaneous—Meeting Concord Chapter. Atlantic Trust & Banking Co.—Deposits made with us.

Wanted—First-class cook. Wanted—10,000 feather beds. A Day—At Wrightsville Beach. Scofield's Andrew's Oh—Trolley party.

HABEAS CORPUS WRIT

Hearing in Raleigh Upon an Application for Release of Ernest Haywood.

Baltimore Lawyer and Robt. N. Simms, Esq., of Raleigh, Testified as to the Shooting—Case Continued Until 10 O'clock This Morning.

[Special Star Telegram.] RALEIGH, N. C., May 28.—The hearing of the writ of habeas corpus in the case of Ernest Haywood for the killing of Ludlow Skinner, February 21st, began at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon before Associate Justices R. M. Douglas and Platt D. Walker. An immense crowd attended the hearing.

Haywood shows considerably the bad effect of imprisonment, being pale and thin. He entered in company with his brother-in-law, W. W. Edgar and Dr. Hubert A. Haywood.

Counsel for the prosecution are all here to-day, Walter E. Daniels, of Weldon, acting as solicitor. Hon. J. E. Woodard, of Wilson, and Donald Gilliam, of Tarboro, are leading counsel.

The first witness, Bernard A. Schmitt, an attorney of Baltimore, said: "Chas. B. Ezzell and I were at the bank corner, nearly opposite the postoffice; saw two men at the steps of the postoffice seemingly in excited arguments; saw one man strike the other in the face. The man struck fell, catching his hand on the slab near the steps. The other man (Skinner) backed off from the steps, then started towards the man struck; to renew the attack; then I heard the shot and Skinner staggered back to the curb; then a second shot. When the first shot was fired, Skinner had his hand in a peculiar manner about his side; think he was trying to pull a revolver. After the second shot Skinner was at the street curb; then he circled and fell across the car track."

Robt. N. Simms, a prominent attorney of Raleigh, was the next witness. The gist of his statement was as follows: "My attention was drawn to two men who seemed to be struggling. The other man (Skinner) struck Haywood. He fell over and caught on his hand. Skinner sprang back and faced Haywood about the time the first shot was fired. Skinner hesitated a moment, then started towards the man struck. When about ten feet this side of the track a second shot was fired. He going faster than a walk he crossed the track and fell; did not make any public statement until next morning. I read the papers, saw that the evidence at the coroner's inquest was not what I saw and then told my brother-in-law and afterwards defendant's lawyers."

Simms was subjected to a rigid cross-examination, which he met to his statement and explained why his firm refusal to be counsel on either side; said there was no appreciable difference between the two shots fired by Haywood.

A great number of character witnesses were introduced to prove that Haywood was a man of good character, who had been assailed by many since he became a witness. Among them were Governor Aycock, N. B. Broughton, Dr. T. N. Ivy, Dr. J. H. Forrester, Dr. R. T. Vance. All paid him the highest possible tributes. Court took a recess to 10 o'clock.

Simms, who is regarded as the star witness of the defence, testified that he saw no attempt to draw a pistol and that the character was proved by some of the best men in the State, and the defence by these also proved the good character of Willis G. Briggs, a young newspaper man, whose testimony the defence will use to rebut Simms.

The case will last well into next week and there will be two sessions a day. Haywood is looking thin and his hair has turned almost white. He keeps very cool and he shows no uneasiness in his face.

MEETING OF THE JUSTICES OF PEACE. Called Together Next Monday in Court House to Consider Tax Rate for 1903.

Pursuant to call issued in another column by Chairman D. McEachern, of the Board of County Commissioners, a meeting of the peace of New Hanover will assemble in the Court House Monday at noon, June 1st, for the purpose of fixing the real and personal property rate of taxation for the ensuing fiscal year.

It is learned that the Commissioners will recommend the same rate as at present in force and the same will doubtless be ratified at the meeting Monday.

Few Menus Sold. Southport Standard: "We understand that Southport is to have a menhaden fish factory, to be located at Price's Creek, on the Cape Fear river, about a mile and a half above the town, the site where Messrs. Pullan & Weeks operated a former enterprise of the same kind three years ago. Local capital only goes into this enterprise, and instead of steamers sharpies will be used to handle the fish. It is proposed to do fishing inside the bar and outside also, as the weather and run of fish will permit. Further notice than this is not permitted at the present time. We may state, however, that Mr. William Weeks has the contract to erect the plant, and that he has begun the preparatory work."

Dr. J. Henry Borneemann, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Henry Borneemann, of this city, graduated yesterday with the degree of M. D., from Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. Dr. Borneemann completed his course with distinction and his friends predict for him a brilliant professional career. Dr. Borneemann expects to return home via Hot Springs, N. C., where he will go before the State Medical Examining Board.

Friends will be glad to know that the condition of Mrs. Geo. N. Harris was a little improved yesterday.

NEW FIRE ALARM BATTERIES.

Storage System of Improved Manufacture May be Installed by Board of Aldermen—Representative Here.

Mr. O. P. Crocker, of Atlanta, Southern agent of the Gannett Fire Alarm Telegraph Co., of New York, is in the city interesting the Fire Committee of the Board of Aldermen in a new storage battery of six circuits to take the place of the old gravity battery system now in use and poorly adapted to the service. Raleigh, Charlotte and Greensboro have recently installed the new battery, and Mr. Crocker is anxious to place the new system in Wilmington.

Aside from increasing the efficiency of the fire alarm system, a storage battery would cost not exceeding $25 per year for maintenance, while the gravity batteries require about $200 per year in repairs, blue stone, copper, zinc, etc. Again, the present system consists of only three circuits, and two of them are full, so that if additional boxes are to be added, there will be no room for them. It is proposed to have the new battery system for six circuits so that any number may be added.

Mr. Crocker has been conferring with the Aldermen individually but hopes to have a conference with the Fire Committee relative to a purchase of the new battery. It will cost $1,000, but the savings in maintenance, Mr. Crocker guarantees, will make up that amount in a few years. It will require about 90 days to get the new system, should the Board of Aldermen decide to buy. An expert would come from the factory to install the apparatus.

LAWN PARTY ON THE SOUND. Delightful Affair Last Night at Wrightsville—Next Sun Realized.

The musicale and lawn party last night at the Atlantic View Hotel, on Wrightsville Sound, attracted nearly a hundred young people from Wilmington, who went down on a chartered suburban car, leaving the city at 8:15 o'clock and returning soon after 11 P. M. They all reported a delightful entertainment.

The musical portion of the affair took place in the pavilion of the hotel and was much enjoyed. Mr. Frank Westbrook rendered a whistling solo, and Miss Mary Cole contributed much to the programme with a number of vocal selections.

On the beautiful lawn of the hotel, brilliantly lighted with Japanese lanterns, dainty refreshments were served and the young people enjoyed an hour of delightful social intercourse.

The affair was composed of Miss Linnie Stokely, Mrs. G. A. Croft and Mrs. P. F. Perry, and they deserve no end of praise for the charming manner in which everything passed off. Mr. J. N. Gibbons is superintendent of Woodside Union Sunday School for the benefit of which the affair was given. Considerably more than enough was realized for balance payment upon a handsome organ recently purchased.

Inspector General Injured. Col. T. H. Bais, inspector general of the State Guard, and Major John Newton, U. S. A., who are engaged in a tour of the State, inspecting the companies of the National Guard, were in a frightful runaway accident between Lumber Bridge and Fayetteville Wednesday afternoon. They had inspected the Lumber Bridge company, and as the freight train stevedilled the same night was late, they started to drive over in a private conveyance. The horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse to the buggy in which Col. Bais was riding was frightened by the breaking of a trace and ran. Col. Bais was thrown a complete somersault in the air, and falling to the ground he dislocated his right shoulder. The officers reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and the horse