Was John Wilkes Booth a man or a cat?

"Oh, give us arrest," cried the officials and embelzing post-office officials in Washington. And they got it.

We raise our cheapest to the Greensboro Telegram for the pleasant words with which it greets this paragraph.

A modest vivendi has been established between Hanna and Forsaker; but each reserves the right to resume business at the old stand.

Recently we enclosed a quarter-dollar in a letter to a firm in New York. It never reached its destination. It had to pass through Washington.

A correspondent asks for the origin of the love-sick term, "My Junecie." We thought everybody knew that the original "Junecie" was a June bride.

Senator Hanna was not unmindful of the warning: "Look out for the locomotive when the bell rings." For a rhenic he was uncommonly spry in getting off the track.

Charlotte, having grown weary of the petrified man, is now in ecstasies over a petrified rat sent the Observer by the "head devil" of the Hendersonville Hustler. There's nothing like being metropolitan.

The lynching of a negro school teacher at Belleville, Ill., for murdering a county school superintendent who had refused to renew his teaching certificate, shows that a much less offense than the nameless crime is considered a sufficient justification for mob law in the North.

The Raleigh Post says: "The recent rains will bring many thousands of dollars to North Carolina farmers." This may be so; but we advise the farmers to keep right on with their ploughing. Frogs and fishes sometimes add to the gaiety of rains; but the rain-dollars—well, we haven't "saw" any 'em yet.

Referring to the strenuous Teddy, the Washington Post says: "His ways are as unlike the ways of any of his predecessors as the regenerated White House, with its peculiar attachments, is unlike the White House of other days." Very true. For example, no other President has spent sixty-five consecutive days in an electioneering tour.

THE COURT RECORD.

Seventeen Offenders Before the Mayor and Six Were Sent to County Roads.

IN MAGISTERIAL CIRCLES.

Several Cases Continued—Negro Who Was Slashed in Brooklyn Saturday Night—Prisoner Who Took Money from a Sailor.

Seventeen Saturday night and Sunday offenders faced Mayor Springer from the prisoners' bench in the municipal court yesterday. Six of the number went to the roads; two others had their cases continued, and the remaining contingent were fined or discharged as the evidence or conditions would permit.

The road recruits were: Tom Branch, white, drunk, 20 days; Dennis Nobles, white, vagrancy, 30 days; Amos Talley, colored, drunk and disorderly, 30 days; Charles Fisher, albino, disorderly conduct, 20 days; Ben Keil, colored, drunk and down, 20 days; Elijah Lacey, colored, drunk and disorderly, 20 days.

Alex. McLauren, a country darkey arrested by Policeman E. R. Chadwick for "expectorating" on the sidewalk, was allowed to go, owing to his ignorance of the law. Charley Wright, another country negro, suspected of having stolen a pair of new shoes he was displaying Saturday night, was also discharged.

TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY

Teachers and prominent educators from all parts of the State will begin arriving to-day for the twentieth annual session of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly which will begin to-night at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, and continue through Friday, with an excursion to Port Fisher and other points of historical interest on the Cape Fear river on Saturday. The attendance will reach two hundred or more and the meetings promise to be very interesting and profitable.

Prof. W. D. Carmichael, of Durham, secretary and treasurer of the Assembly, arrived at the Seashore Hotel Sunday and Prof. M. C. S. Noble, a prominent member of the Association, arrived yesterday to be in readiness for the opening session which will be called to order by President Venable to-night at 8:30 o'clock. The exercises will be opened with prayer by the Rev. R. B. John, presiding elder of the Wilmington District, M. E. church, and the address of welcome will probably be by J. O. Carr, Esq., in the absence of Mr. George Routledge, who has an important professional engagement in Kinston, which will take him away from the city this morning. The response to the address of welcome, in behalf of the Assembly, will be by Prof. M. C. S. Noble, the only other feature of to-night's session will be an address by the scholarly Prof. J. B. Carylie, of Wake Forest College.

SMALL CLOUDBURST SUNDAY.

Nearly 4 inches of Rainfall for 48 Hours Up to 8 O'clock Yesterday Morning.

Wilmington and this section of Eastern Carolina were visited by a very heavy downpour of rain Sunday morning between 5 o'clock and noon. Up to 8 o'clock the Weather Bureau recorded 1.71 inches and after that hour until 8 A. M. yesterday 2.32 inches were recorded, making about 4 inches in all during the 48 hours covered by the report. Three and a half inches of that amount fell between 5 A. M. and noon Sunday, breaking the record for several years past. Drains were inadequate and incalculable damage was done to the streets of the city, especially those were macadamized. A few cellars were reported flooded, however, with little damage.

The 2.32 inches after 8 o'clock Sunday morning came from briefly local showers, but several points in the Wilmington district had clouds burst on Saturday night, notably, Cheraw, S. C., 1.16; Florence, S. C., 1.50; Goldsboro, 1.10, and Newbern, 1.51. There was a small washout on the Northern railroad Sunday and a train was sent out from here to repair it. Fortunately no regular trains are scheduled for Sunday on that road and the washout caused no disturbance to the ordinary traffic.

The heaviest rainfall in the State was 4.75 inches at Weldon for the 24 hours ending at 8 o'clock Sunday morning.

THE KNIGHTS OF KHORASSAN.

Official Announcement to Votaries of Gerontol at Wrightsville June 17th.

Handsomely printed pamphlets containing interesting information relative to the semi-annual ceremonial session of Suez Temple, No. 73, Dramatic Order, Knights of Khorassan, at Wrightsville Beach, June 17th., in connection with the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, which will be in session at Wilmington the same time, were received in the city yesterday. The pamphlets bear the following unique announcement:

"Votaries! On the 17th day of June, the Faithful are commanded to mount and journey toward the rising sun to the Oasis of Wilmington, where will be celebrated the great Feast of Summertime, but several points in the Wilmington district had clouds burst on Saturday night, notably, Cheraw, S. C., 1.16; Florence, S. C., 1.50; Goldsboro, 1.10, and Newbern, 1.51. There was a small washout on the Northern railroad Sunday and a train was sent out from here to repair it. Fortunately no regular trains are scheduled for Sunday on that road and the washout caused no disturbance to the ordinary traffic."

WILL BUILD NEW HOUSE OF WORSHIP.

Bladen Street M. E. Church Working to That End—Fund Already Started.

The congregation of Bladen Street M. E. church has inaugurated a movement looking to the erection of a handsome new house of worship. Six persons have already subscribed $175 toward a building fund and the canvass for other amounts will be taken up this week.

The plan at present is to buy the lot adjoining the present site, on the west, and to move the old church on that property and to convert the same into Sunday school classrooms, pastor's study, etc. It is proposed to build the new church large enough to seat 450 or 600 persons and to begin work upon the same as early as possible.

Under the pastorate of Rev. George B. Webster the congregation is steadily growing and enlarged accommodations are absolutely necessary. Mr. Webster is doing a good work in that section of the city and his church was perhaps never more alive than now.

HANOVER SEASIDE CLUB OPENING.

Hanover Seaside Club will hold its sixth annual opening at its handsome club house on Carolina Beach to-morrow, June 10th. A very attractive programme has been mapped out and the attendance is expected to be large. There will be a boxing contest for gentlemen in which the first prize will be a season ticket at the club and there will also be contests for the ladies in which suitable prizes will be offered. There will be four trips of the boat during the day and evening, leaving at 9 A. M., 2:45, 5:15 and 7:45 P. M., with last boat leaving the beach pier at 10:30 o'clock.
