Children's Day Exercises.
Children's Day exercises were observed Sunday night at the Baptist church in Atkinson. A large congregation was present, and enjoyed the recitation of the programme, particularly by Clyde Lewis, Edith Dobson, Edwin Barnhill, May Lewis, Marshall Cobb, Zilpha Barnhill, Eliza Barnhill, Rev. J. H. Dobson and others. Miss O. Mitchell presided at the piano. The programme was prepared and the children drilled by Miss Caille Stringfield and Miss Jennie P.
Payser. They deserve much credit for giving such a creditable entertainment.

THE SUBURBAN CAR LINE.

Number of Stops in City Reduced by One-half to Facilitate Travel—Additional Machinery Arriving.
After thorough trial, it has been found by the Consolidated Railways Company to be impracticable to stop the large suburban cars, on crowded days, at every corner and make the desired schedule. It has been decided, therefore, to omit the stops at Second, Fourth, Sixth, Eighth and Tenth streets and to stop hereafter only at Third, Fifth, Seventh and Ninth streets, and at Market street. Suitable signs will designate the stopping points.
Passengers from any part of the city may reach these points on the city cars, without extra cost. This plan will add much to the satisfaction of a majority of those travelling back and forth to Wrightsville Beach who are interested in every plan that will shorten the schedule.
In this connection, it is of interest to know that the parts of the transformers needed at the sub-station at Wrightsville to enable the company to supply the necessary current at that point, were shipped by express from Pittsburg Saturday, the Westinghouse company having made every effort to bring about this result and having complished with their promise. After these parts arrive it will require two or three days time for the expert workmen who are here from Pittsburg to install the apparatus and get it working.
The Westinghouse company has also, through unusual efforts, been able to make shipment of all of the additional apparatus which was ordered about ten days ago for the purpose of duplicating the Wrightsville sub-station, as mentioned at that time. They were fortunate in having some machines in process which enabled the early shipment, as ordinarily it would require from four to six months to make a shipment of this kind after the receipt of the order.

IN THE HIGHER COURT.

Only Morning Sessions Are Being Held in View of the Heated Period.
FEW IMPORTANT CASES.
County Negroes Not Guilty of Selling Unwholesome Meat as Charged—The Grand Jury at Its Work—Trial of Thomas Boyd—Notes.
Superior Court was engaged with no cases of importance yesterday.
Owing to stress of weather and the fact that friends of Judge Peebles have urged him to spend as much of his time as possible at the beach, only one session of the court will be held each day during the week, but that one session will be a long one, continuing from 9:30 A. M. to 3 P. M. or later if deemed advisable. The grand jury, however, is continuing its sessions mornings and afternoons and will doubtless complete its work early in the week. The county jail was visited Monday and the convict camp will be inspected this morning. The murder trial of the Thomas boys, charged with killing Dan. Shines in Brooklyn last February will likely be disposed of at this time. It is likely that a verdict of manslaughter or murder in the second degree will be submitted to. Messrs.
Marden Bellamy and Herbert Mc-Clammy are counsel for the defence.
Upon the conveying of court yesterday morning, the following jurors ordered summoned for the day were returned by the Sheriff with the exception of Emanuel L. Bear, G. E. Delan, P. E. Dillard, W. S. Royster, J. P.
Chapman, Jos. N. Jacob, E. F. Bass, E. T. Conway, R. W. Jones and Walter A. Taylor, who were not found; excused by His Honor, J. D. Dochser, Jr., Walter Smallbones and Benj.
Bell.
R. Redwine, carrying concealed weapons, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and the costs.
James Hensley and Thos. Nixon, charged with selling unwholesome meat, were found not guilty after a trial lasting nearly all the morning.
The circumstances of the sale are familiar to readers of the city papers.
Herbert McClammy, Esq., appeared for the defendants and succeeded in proving his clients innocent of the knowledge that they were disposing of diseased meat.
The fine of $10 against Mr. E. W.
Konig for non-attendance as a witness was stricken out.
George Pigford, charged with the larceny of logs from the Pittsburg Lumber Co., was also found not guilty.
Just before recess for the day the case of Mrs. Shelly Tharp vs. Willie Tharp was called up and a divorce was granted upon grounds of abandonment.
WEDDING ARRANGEMENTS DISTURBED.
Owing to illness of Groom, Emmet Gregg Nuptials Will Take Place in Sumter.
On account of the illness of the groom, who is convalescing from an attack of appendicitis at his home in Sumter, S. C., the marriage of Miss Willie Ennett, niece of Mr. and Mrs.
James Bryan Higgins, of this city, to Mr. Charles M. Gregg, will not take place in the First Presbyterian church, of Wilmington, at 6:15 o'clock this evening, as was expected, but the ceremony will be solemnized at Sumter, S. C., this afternoon. The change in the arrangements was a great disappointment to the many friends of the young people here, but it could not be avoided.
The ceremony at Sumter will be performed by the Rev. J. M. Wells, Ph. D., of Wilmington, who left yesterday afternoon for Sumter with the wedding party, including the bride, her sister, Miss Sallie Ennett, and her cousin, Mrs. E. T. Huggins.
Mr. and Mrs. Gregg will be at home after Wednesday, July 15th, at 109 South Harvin street, Sumter, S. C.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN WHITE.

Well Known Citizen and Esteemed Confederate Soldier Passed Away Last Night—Invalid Twelve Years.
The STAR chronicles with painful regret this morning the death of Mr.
Benjamin Franklin White, which occurred at 9 o'clock last night at his home, No. 806 Market street, after a long and painful illness. Mr. White had been an invalid for the past twelve years and while his death was not wholly unexpected, it came as a sad blow to the devoted family and hundreds of friends in Wilmington, who admired and loved him for his many traits of strong Christian character; his staunch devotion to the Confederacy in its darkest days, and the great fortitude and cheerfulness with which he bore his suffering. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved family in this, their hour of sorrow.
Mr. White was born at Richlands, Onslow county, and was 60 years of age when he died. He moved with his parents to Wilmington when a mere boy of nine years and had resided here ever since. He was an upholsterer and for many years hanger by trade and for many years conducted, with the late J. W. Zimmerman under the firm name of Zimmerman & White, one of the largest establishments of its kind in the city, at northwest corner of Second and Princess streets. Later, on Market street, he was in business for himself and was successful to an unusual degree until stricken down twelve years ago.
Mr. White was one of the bravest and most gallant soldiers who ever fought under the Confederate flag. At the outbreak of hostilities between the States he enlisted with the Cape Fear Riflemen, which was assigned to the 18th North Carolina Regiment as Co. I, commanded by Capt. Tom Lewis, of Wilmington. He fought throughout the war and made a record for himself which will live after him. He rose to the rank of First Lieutenant soon after entering the service.
Mr. White was twice married—first to Miss Amanda King, of Onslow county, and as a result of that union only one child survives, Miss Carrie White, of this city, who was the constant companion and devoted nurse of her father during his long illness.
The second wife was Miss Eliza Mc-Duffie, of Wilmington, who preceded Mr. White to the grave twelve years ago, leaving one son and four daughters who now survive the father. They are Mr. Benj. F. White, Jr., Mrs.
Charles A. Loris, Misses Louise, Ellie and Lida White, all of this city.
Mr. White is also survived by two brothers, Messrs. J. A. White, of Rocky Mount, and Mr. D. G. White, of this city.
Mr. White was a member of Stonewall Lodge No. 1, K. of P., and also of the Uniform Rank, in which latter order he carried insurance of $8,000.
He was also a member of Cape Fear Camp No. 264, U. C. V., and all of these orders are officially called in another column to attend the funeral in a body. The services will be conducted at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon from the First Baptist church by the Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure and the interment will be in Oakdale.

BANKERS IN SESSION.

Seventh Annual Convention of North Carolina Association Opened Last Night.
AT THE SEASHORE HOTEL.
Delightful Reception Feature of the Evening—Address of Welcome and Response—River Excursion To-day.
State B. & L. Meeting.
The opening feature of the seventh annual convention of the North Carolina Bankers' Association at Wrightsville Beach last night was an elegant party reception in the assembly room of the Seashore Hotel upon which there were in attendance more than a hundred prominent men of finance of this and other States, nearly as many of their lady friends and members of their families and not a few prominent bankers and business men of Wilmington. The reception was given by the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce and was delightful for that informally so peculiarly characteristic of the seashore, which attended it.
The guests numbered perhaps three hundred and the attendance of bankers was said to have been the largest ever recorded at an opening session of the Association in the seven years of its history.
The convention was called to order at 9:30 o'clock, President George W. Montcastle, of Lexington, in the chair; secretary C.
N. Evans, of Charlotte, at his desk and all the other officers and executive committees of the Association in attendance. President Montcastle presented Hon. A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, whom he said he felt great pleasure in introducing as a chosen to welcome the visitors to the city in behalf of the Chamber of Commerce of Wilmington.
The address of welcome.
Col. Waddell received with applause and spoke in one of his happiest moods. He expressed pleasure and honour in being privileged to speak to a body of such representative men and begged to assure them that no draft they would draw would be excused or subject to discount or the "three days of grace." The Chamber of Commerce had formed a trust which excluded all competition in furnishing entertainment. The very name "banker" was a high-sounding one and conveyed to the mind of the ordinary citizen, a corpulent, bald-headed individual of finance and greenback.
The occupation is an ancient one in the Scriptures testify. Holy Writ shows that banks existed in those days and paid interest on deposit. The first record was when Moses received a check on the Red Sea. The banker has always been prominent in every age and country. Now they are great power and influence in the direction of public affairs. The Chamber of Commerce recognized that fact and expected to reap much benefit from the Association's discussions. If members of the Association would supply the deficiency in the purse and bank books that may be found empty they would make their meeting a howling success.
"Gentlemen, I hope you will allow me to say," concluded Col. Waddell, "that keeping other people's money and receiving the profit yourselves is a most admirable business and the wonder is that more people are not in it. I hope it may be my pleasure to welcome yet another larger body of you at your next convention in Wilmington in 1907."
Response by Col. F. H. Fries.
The response to Col. Waddell's words of welcome in behalf of the convention was by Col. F. H. Fries, president of the Mechanics' Loan and Trust Co. of Winston, one of the leading members of the Association and a gentleman of fine address and courteous bearing. Col. Fries said:
"Members of the Chamber of Commerce of Wilmington, N. C.
"We, the members of the North Carolina Bankers' Association, and visiting friends, deeply appreciate the kind and generous welcome that have been so aptly spoken by our distinguished friend, Colonel Waddell, than whom none is able or more gifted and eloquent to reply. I am encouraged to undertake this pleasant duty assigned to me because I am conscious that you will not expect more than a heart-felt acknowledgment, expressed in plain and simple words, befitting the calling in which most of us are engaged.
"In the days of our forefathers, when the ancestral home was the log cabin, the entrance to which was fastened by the wooden latch, raised by the leathern thong, the owner left the latch string hanging knotted on the outside, so that friends might come in and make themselves at home; the idea was a beautiful one, bespeaking hospitality and the welcome of those who were thus admitted, to what it was in those days the host's entire possessions; but after all, this primitive welcome lacked the warmth and handshake and good cheer and welcome that have since become such a greeting as we have received here, to where we are met with the warm handshake and good cheer and are welcomed into the wide open arms of that leads to the unstinted hospitality of our friends.
"It is a most delightful welcome which you have extended to the bankers of this State and all over the State, on this occasion of their annual holiday. They come from the Western part, where in the greenest verdure the lofty mountain peaks stand sentinel over the most beautiful land that can be found on this beautiful earth, where the azalea, the Rhododendron in great abundance and Jovellinus gaze the coaves and gorges of the mountains in a way that is beyond description; beyond even the powers of this gifted orator who has just addressed you. We have just recently returned from a short trip to the beautiful Sapphire country and the Transylvania mountain region and know the bankers of this section would misrepresent their country, if they did not come with joyful hearts and smiling faces from the midst of these grand and beautiful surroundings. They come from the Piedmont section, like our worthy president, happy over the prosperity of the cotton mills and factories that are spinning their yarn from eight-cent cotton, and shipping the product of their factories, fields and forests all over this and the foreign lands. They come from the East, where the memory of eight-cent cotton may cast a momentary shadow as they think of what might have been but for the war; they bring the thought of the thousands of car-loads of fruits and berries that have rolled away and have come again with hundreds of thousands of dollars that have found their way into their vaults and safes, where moths and rust do not corrupt and thieves—(seldom)— break through and steal. They come from beyond the State, these brothers that have strayed from us; and whom we are delighted to see, with evidence of prosperity deservedly gained and realized worthily won, the most noted, and perhaps the best beloved of them clothed with the highest honors that can be bestowed by the people of this country, for bankers the world has ever known.

"Happy and joyous they all come to this annual family reunion, and it is a most appropriate and fitting that in this beautiful place, where the old ocean meets and kisses the fairest land of the earth, and where the original settlers first landed in that spirit of freedom and love of independence that their descendants have right nobly maintained in their day and generation.
