SUDDEN DEATH OF A CHILD. Little Son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Fennell

Died Morning After Receiving Injuries from a Fall. Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Fennell, No.

THE MORNING

811 Chesnut street, have the sympathy of friends in the sudden and almost tragic death of their little sop. Frank Peele, aged a little less than eight years, who passed away at the family residence yesterday morning.

The boy late Friday afternoon fell from the balustrade of the front porch of his father's home, striking his head violently against the ground. The accident was regarded trivial by the boy's mother, as he was soon playing about the house as usual and was cheerful and bright until he went to bed at night. Yesterday morning he complained of a slight headache, but otherwise appeared all right. About 10 o'clock Mrs. Fennell discovered that his nose was bleeding and almost instantly the little fellow relapsed into unconsciousness and died within a few minutes. The parents of the child are members of the Christian Science faith and no physician was summoned, but had one been called he would not have been able to reach the child in time to

The Casino This Week Returns to Vaudeville for Pourth of July.

The Casino this week goes back to straight vaudeville and it being the week of the 4th of July, the management has secured six real top-liners-Harry Melville and Lona May, comedy sketch team; Geanne and Reuand, musical artists; Signor Bensley, the renowned foot juggler, and Mde. Helen Pelletier, prima donna soprano. Altogether this will be much the strongest bill yet offered and it is expected to prove the banner week in point of patronage. Large rockers and tables have recently been added to the verandas of The Casino and where to the sweet strains of Prof. Brannon's orchestra all light refreshments are served before and after the performance.

A Successful Excursion

Charlotte Observer: The second annual excursion of the Pritchard Memorial Baptist Sunday school was a succass in all particulars. The patrons had a thoroughly enjoyable trip, and the managers of the excursion netted s handsome sum for their Sunday school. Elegant order was observed on the train and there was no accident of any kind. The excursionists returned from the coast yesterday morning. The second train was considerably delayed by a breakdown of the engine shortly after leaving Wilmington. The entire management of the excursion was good, and was the subject of much favorable comment on the part of the

MR. WILLIAM I. GORE

Aged and Highly Respected Retired Merchant of Wilmington Died Last Night.

SUFFERED WITH PARALYSIS

the community in which he lived after a lingering illness following members of the devoted family at his not entirely unexpected, will come with deepest regret to many friends in Wilmington and elsewhere, for he was a man who made friends and lasting

Mr. Gore was born at Little River. S. C., Dec. 25th 1829 and was, therefore, 73 years of age. While a young man he was engaged in various pursuits in his native county but he removed to Wilmington in 1868 and engaged in the wholesale grocery and commission business in the store now occupied by Stone & Co., on South Water street. Later he associated himself with Mr. D. L. Gore under the firm name of Gore & Gore, which partnership resulted in the building up of a very large business in heavy groceries. The firm also handled peanuts extensively. Later the deceased associated with him self his son, the late Albert Gore, under the firm name of W. I. Gore & Son which also prospered to an unusual degree, Mr. Gore was last engaged as a member of the firm of Corbett & Gore, now the M. J. Corbett Company, with large offices and warehouses near the A. C. L. yards. About three years ago, on account of feeble health, Mr. Gore was forced to retire from the active duties of a business life and since that time had devoted himself to his family and home. In the year of 1854 deceased married Miss Rachel Ann Litchfield, of Little River, S. C. and the two had lived happily together until death came yesterday to dissolve bonds which had held them as devoted hus band and wife within a few months of 50 years. The bereaved wife and three daughters are the only members of his immediate family surviving and to them is poured out the tenderest sympathy of the community. The daughters are Miss Julia Gore, Mrs. Fred E. Owen and Mrs. L. L. Pritchard, all of this city. He is also survived by a sister and brother-Mrs. J. H. Stone, of Little River, S. C., and Mr. B. F. Gore, who lately removed to Wilmington. The grandchildren surviving, of whom Mr. Gore was especially fond, are Misses Bessie L. Gore, Thurber Gore, Julia Owen, Edith I. Pritchard and Mesers. Albert, W. I. Gore, Jr., Milton B. Gore and

Thos. H. Pritchard. At the outbreak of the civil war Mr. Gore responded promptly to his country's call and enlisted in 1861 as second lieutenant in the Waccamaw Light Artilley, which was formed in the upper portion of Horry county, S. C., and which was stationed during the conflict at Fort Randall and Fort Sumter, S. C. He was a brave soldier and an intropid leader. In public life after the war, he had served as a member of the City Board of Audit and Finance and was a director in a number of leading financial institutions. His counsel was often sought in business affairs and was always conservative and of that kind that could be relied upon.

The funeral will be conducted at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon from the late residence and the interment will be in Oakdale.

The Postoffice Elevator. Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy is in receipt of a letter from Supervising Architect J. K. Taylor, of the Treasury Department, at Washington, stating that an engineer from his office will be sent in a few days to Wilmington to obtain necessary data for the preparation of specifications and drawings for an elevator for the U.S. Postoffice and Court House building in this city. It will be remembered that Mr. Bellamy, while in Congress, secured an appropriation for an elevator, which has

STAR.

That there will be a spirited fight for the Wilmington postmastershipand that very soon—is apparent from the large number of endorsements received during the past week by three or more applicants for the position. The term of office of the present lucumbent, Miss Mary C. Darby, who will soon have served four years, expires in the early Fall, and already forces are at work to determine whether she is to be reappointed or the place is to go to some one else.

Among those who are reported to be asking for endorsements are. Miss Darby, Assistant Postmaster T. E. Wallace and Mr. J. M. Forshee. Business men, regardless of party affiliation, are being asked to express a preference, and some are doing so. Many Democrats are taking the ground that while it is "none of their fight," the office is one of the most important in the State, and taht inasmuch as it is sure to go to some Republican anyway, they had as well advantage themselves of the benefits of an invitation to take a hand and secure the appointment of some one whom their best judgment dictates as the proper person to hold fifty years of the club's existence. the place.

It is furthermore stated that the list of applicants is by no means complete yet, but that the leaders are already in the field.

At a special meeting of the Ladies Concording the Ladies Concording was unan money advantage. At a special meeting of the Ladies' Concordia Society, held to-day, the following was unanimously adopted:

It is the object of this meeting to give expression to our heartfelt sorrow at the death of our dear sister, Mary S. Echloss.

We are deeply conscious of the sad loss sustained by our society and its members in the departure of one whose presence in our midst was ever associated with helpfulness in our noblest objects, whose life among us, full of incidents that tested her noble womanhood, was ever a true picture of a idevoted mother in Israel, whose memory will ever be cherished with tenderest thoughts. To her bereft children, now sadly tried by this great sorrow, our hearts go out in deepest sympathy, praying that our Heavenly Father, whose loving hand alone can help them, be near them in this sad hour of their lives.

Resolved, that a page in our minute book be inscribed to the memory of our departed sister. - Mr. C. Ed. Taylor, of South-Resolved, that a page in our minute book be inscribed to the memory of our departed sister.
