Next Week's Offering at the Casino-Joe Conian in the Company.

Mr. S. A. Schloss returned last night from New York, where he personally booked a fine company of vaudeville entertainers for next week's offering at The Casino, Wrightsville Beach. It's no cry of "wolf" to state that the company comes direct from New York to justify hog raising on a large at Metropolitan prices and will return there when the engagement here is completed.

The bill will consist of Hill, Edi monds & Co., eccentric comedy trio, and the Browning Sisters, whom Manager Schloss obtained from Proctor's celebrated circuit in New York: John J. McCowan, comedy musical artist, and "our own" Joe Conlan, the Irish comedian, who was last season one of the leading characters in "The Irish Pawnbroker," playing one-night stands. Joe Conlan formerly lived here and numbers many Wilmington people among his most enthusiastic admirers. It is needless to say that a warm welcome awaits him at The Casino and his appearance will be the signal for an wholesale exodus of Wilmington theatre folk to the beach.

THE RETAIL GROCERS

Attorney General of State Association Spoke to Local Merchants Last Night.

BETTER METHODS OF TRADE

Meeting in Merchants' Association Room in Seaboard Air Line Building, Well Attended-Mr. Johnson's Work in the State--His Itinerary.

Mr. Norman H. Johnson, a leading young attorney of Burlington, N. C., who was recently elected attorney general of the North Carolina Association of Retail Grocers and General Merchants, addressed an enthusiastic gathering of local grocers under the auspices of the Wilmington Association in the Seaboard Air Line building last night. Mr. J. H. Thomas presided at the meeting and Mr. P. Heinsberger was at his desk as secretary. Mr. Johnson was presented to the gathering of grocerymen by Secretary Heinsberger.

The speaker in an eloquent discourse of nearly two hours outlined the purpose of the organization which he so ably represents, and called upon the grocers to awake to the possibilities of concentrated action. The objects of the Association he defined as to obtain through National, State and the various local organizations an equalization of freight rates; to correct unjust discrimination in taxes; to abolish the office of standard keeper and have the duties exercised through the in fluence of the local associations: to weed out "dead beats," both from the buying public and the dealers as well; to encourage the patronage of home industries, especially local wholesale dealers, thereby centralizing capital; to bring about the enactment of a law making husband and wife jointly responsible for contracts for the necessities of life; to prevent the present homestead law from being used as a subterfuge for fraudulent debtors; to obtain other and better collection laws. The social advantages of organization and the education naturally resulting from the meeting together of dealers was commended by Mr. Johnson, and newer and better ideas of business were presented and encouraged. Referring to the scope of the work Mr. Johnson said that every State in the Union, with the possible exception of seven, are organized, the movement being backed by the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association, the manufacturers and jobbers. Locally speaking, Mr. Johnson said that 35 towns and cities in the State now have representative organizations and the movement has passed the experimental stage. Thus far Mr. Johnson has confined his efforts to Eastern North Carolina and a live and growing association in each town and city visited attests the success of the work being done by him. He will remain in Wilmington and at the beach until Monday when he will visit Clinton, speaking there at night. His itinerary for the remainder of the week is as follows: Fremont, Tuesday 1 P. M.; Mount Olive, Tuesday night; Wilson, Wednesday Tarboro, Friday night.

DELIGHTFUL WAGONETTE PARTY.

Mr. George Schnibben Delightfully Enter. tained Friends Thursday Night.

Mr. George Schnibben gave a delightful wagonette party to a number of his friends Thursday evening. The young people went out to the handsome country place of Mr. Schnibben's brother, on the Castle Hayne road, four miles from the city, and spent the evening in pleasant social intercourse, while a number of features were introduced for the entertainment of the guests. Refreshments were served and the party, returning to the city about 12 o'clock, voted Mr.

Schnibben a most acceptable host. In a ring-throwing contest prizes were awarded as follows: Miss Hackenmann, of Charleston, handsome box of engraved stationery; J. G. Kuhlken, stone beer mug; J. G. W. Tienken, (booby prize), a china doll baby. The awarding of the consolation prize to Mr. Tienken afforded much merriment. Those in the party were: Miss Hackenmann, of Charleston, S. C. Misses Emma Wrede, Mary Rust, Johanna Fuchs, Katie Behrends and Lena Behrends; Messrs. J. G. and Ben Kuhlken, Willie Mahler, F. K. J. Fuchs, Martin VanOesen, Martin Brunjes, J. G. W. Tienken and Geo. Schnibben.

NOBLE INSTANTLY KILLED.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, JULY 25, 1903

White Man Hurled to Platform by Palling Lumber from Overturned Truck. Negro Also Injured.

As the result of the overturning of a truck, heavily laden with lumber, at the Angola mill, beyond Hilton Park, yesterday morning about 9 o'clock James E. Noble, white, aged about 40 years, was struck by the falling mass and thrown to a platform with such violence that he was instantly killed. Alex. Judge, colored, who was assisting Noble with the truck, was caught under a part of the lumber and badly bruised and broken. Two other negroes narrowly escaped with their lives. The wounded negro was sent to the hospital where he was reported as doing remarkably well last night. The remains of Noble were taken to the undertaking establishment of Mr. J. F. Woolvin soon after the accident, prepared for burial and sent yesterday afternoon to a house at 918 Mulberry street, whence the funeral will be conducted at 10 o'clock this morning with interment in Bellevue cemetery.

It is said that Noble had been drink ing during the morning and, with the three negroes, was engaged in removing the truck, piled high with lumber, from the dry kiln to a platform for shipment. One of the wheels in some way became caught and the vehicle was overturned. Noble was struck by the lumber and thrown on his back to the platform. His head was crushed badly and an ugly hole was made in the back and front part of his head. No other part of his body was injured. His death was instantaneous.

Noble came here several years ago from Greene county, where two of his brothers reside. For a while he was employed as a laborer on the streets and was very well known.

GARS JUMPED THE RAILS.

Cow and Carolina Beach Train Had Collision-Sunday School Party.

The train of Summer cars used in conveying passengers to and from the steamer "Wilmington's" pier to Carolina Beach ran over a cow on the 11 o'clock trip to the beach yesterday morning and two cars crowded with ladies and children on the Second Advent Sunday school excursion, were derailed. However, no one was injured in the accident proper but Mrs. S. J. Bryant, in jumping from one of the cars after it stopped, severely sprained an ankle. The accident caused much confusion among the ladies and children.

Capt. Harper soon had a force of men at work and the track was cleared. The train was being run backward from the pier to the beach and the cow, belonging to Mr. H. A. Kure, was tied near the track. The first car passed over the animal without being derailed, but the second and third flew the track. The cow was instantly killed.

In the police court yesterday Will Armstrong, colored, was fined $10 and cost for disorderly conduct around the "hobby horses" at Seventh and Queen streets, Thursday night. Bob. Fowler, a white man, was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct upon the same occasion. In default of payment of the fines they were ordered sent to the roads for 30 and 20 days, respectively. New Hanover County Board of Equalization Completed Its Work Yesterday.

THE ADJOURNMENT SINE DIE.

Increase in Values Will Approximate $700,000 - Recommended Purchase of New "Block Books" -- Matters Referred to Commissioners.

The County Board of Equalization completed its labors vesterday afternoon and adjourned sine die. All members of the board were present at the final meeting except Commissioner Holmes, who is absent from the city, and Chairman J. A. Biddle, of th: Federal Point board of assessors. The closing session was taken up with the hearing of reports from special commitrees to which had been referred certain matters for special investiga-

Upon report of the committee appointed for that purpose, the tax valuation of the steamer "Wilmington" was fixed at $10,000, and that of the steamer "Southport" at $2,000. Last year the property was listed for taxation in Brunswick county at a smaller figure. The committee appointed to place a valuation upon the property of the Diamond Steamboat and Wrecking Co., reported in favor of fixing the value at $10,500, and the report was adopted.

The Orton House valuation, which had been previously increased to $59,-000, was reduced to $55,000, including furniture.

The valuation upon the Clarendon Water Works Co. plant was reduced $15,000 to $10,000, leaving the value of the pipe line at $40,000 as before, and making a total valuation of $50,000 upon all.

The matter of the valuation upon the plant of the Standard Oil Company was referred again to the committee or further investigation and report to the Board of County Commissioners.

The matter of the valuation of the shingle mill of C. M. Betts & Co., in Cape Fear township, was referred to the assessors of Wilmington township, also for further investigation and report to the Board of Commissioners. Upon motion of Chairman Belden, of the Wilmington board of assessors, and second by Chairman Montford, of the Masonboro board, the purchase of new set of "block books" was recommended to the Board of Commissioners. The present books are badly worn and unfit for use. They were made more than ten years ago by Mr. Samuel P. Collier and a copy of them revised to date is almost indispensable to the county. The work will probably cost in the neighborhood of

The Board took its final adjournment at '4:30 o'clock. Chairman Mc-Eachern says he is unable to say definitely as to what is the increase in valuation for the county but that he thinks it will not fall far short of $700,000.

NEW HOPE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Ninth Anniversary Celebrated This Week.

Presbyterianism in Brunswick. On Wednesday of this week New Hope Sunday School at Town Creek, Brunswick county, celebrated its ninth anniversary with public exercises and a picnic. Rev. A. D. McClure, of this city, delivered an address which was highly appreciated, and the other features were most enjoyable. A large crowd was in attendance.

New Hope Presbyterian church was founded in 1894 through the instrumentality of Mr. Oscar Pearsall, of this city, who, desirous of doing something for Presbyterianism in Brunswick county, approached Dr. McClure on the subject. The idea of a home missionary was suggested and the Rev. L. W. Curtis, fresh from the seminary, was assigned to the work. At that time the family of Mr. Jackson Johnson, of Town Creek, was the only one in the county and Presbyterianism in Brunswick had its inception there. New Hope church was established and now has a membership of 50 and a Sunday School of 65 members. Three other churches have sprung up through the influence of New Hope and from the church have gone out Rev. Mr. Curtis and his wife, nee Miss Johnson, as missionaries in the foreign field. Mrs. Curtis has recently written a book on The Lags, which has received unvarying favorable comment and high commendation. Dr. Mc-Clure speaks of the book in the most pleasing terms and says it should have a very wide sale.

Charles McCoy, a colored laborer at the Navassa guano factory, was ligtly injured yesterday by a piece o falling timber used in some repair work going on at the factory. One of his toes was cut off and he was also slightly bruised about the side. Mc-Koy was brought over to the city and sent to the hospital.

The Fishblate Clothing Co., to make room for their large stock of Fall purchases, are making great sac-rifices in the sale of their Summer stock. Now is the time to obtain bargains in summer goods. All first
