THE MEETING LAST NIGHT

in Sixty-five.

Railroads Offer Reduced Rates-6ol William Lamb, Mr. Eugene Martin and Others to Speak-Arrangements in Progress.

As the date approaches for the reunion of veterans at Fort Fisher, the committees of arrangement are becomseem to indicate a grand success. A meeting of the committees was held roads. last night at the office of President H. C. McQueen, of the Murchison National Bank, and plans were very generally discussed.

It was reported that all railroads had agreed to give a special rate of one fare, plus 25c., for the round trip, to all who desire to attend and that tickets on that account would be sold on Aug. 9th, 10th and 11th, with final limit Aug. 16th. The steamer "Wilmington" has given a rate of 50c. to Fort Fisher and return on that date. The boat will leave at 9 A. M., Wednesday, Aug. 12th, returning in the afternoon at 5 o'clock. The committee requests that hotels and boarding houses take the visitors upon the occasion of the reunion at special rates. General N. M. Curtis, of Newbury, N. Y., who led the assault upon Fisher; Col. William Lamb, of Norfolk, Va., who commanded the garrison, and Eugene S. Martin, Esq., of Wilmington, have been asked to deliver short addresses at the fort. There will also no doubt be other speeches by prominent men who took part in the engagement. Indications are that there will be a large gathering.

Col. W. J. Woodward, commander of Cape Fear Camp, United Confederate Veterans, of this city, who has long cherished the idea of a reunion grounds into a National reservation, 81 M., 77 degrees; maximum, 96 de- STAR of the sudden death of Mr. M. The map shows the present physical condition of Federal Point; also, position of the land and water forces Jan. 13, 14 and 15, 1865. The map is a valuable one and to Col. Schooner "Islesboro," cleared Saturday with cargo of 16,100 cross-ties, consigned by the Standard Pole and Tie Co. While passing down the river, near Orton, she sheered from the channel and went slightly aground but floated on next tide and proceeded to sea from Southport at 7 A. M. yes-

Springer & Co. and after discharging will receive cargo of lumber from the Kidder Lumber Co. for Mayaguez, Porto Rico. The "Knowlton" has traded here before and her popular master, Capt. Hudson, is well remembered and is being cordially greeted by his friends on the wharf.

The British steamer "Undaunted." which arrived Saturday with cargo of kainit for the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Co., is still ashore at Bulk Head Shoals, five miles down the river, tug boats having failed to get her afloat without lightering the cargo, which is now being done by Capt. ### Death of Mrs. B. Manning.

Mrs. Elizabeth Manning, widow of the late Lewis Manning, died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at her home No. 117 Wright street, at the advanced age of 68 years. She had been in poor health for some time and, while her death was not altogether unexpected, it came as a source of much regret to her friends. He said he had been to the hospital to see his brother, who was capsized with him in the boat on the river; that he fell in with one or two friends, took several drinks, and when he went to sleep his companions left him. # TOBACCO SALES YESTERDAY.

More Than 50,000 Pounds of Yellow Les Were Sold flere Yesterday.

There was another large sale of to pacco at the Wilmington warehouse yesterday and it is estimated that between 50,000 and 60,000 pounds of the yellow leaf exchanged hands. As on previous sales days, the quality of the weed was generally poor, but the prices are said to have averaged about six cents. As the season advances. however, the quality of the weed will grow better and better and the prices will advance accordingly. The attendance upon the sale yesterday was not large. Owing to the extreme heat few people cared to walk the four blocks from the car line for curiosity's sake and as most of the tobacco sold was received by freight shipments, few growers were in attendance. Mr. J. N. Gibbons was the auctioneer and he got over the floor in a hurry. The bulk of the purchases was by Mr. A. B. Bray for the American Tobacco Co., though a number of independent buyers entered with much spirit into the bidding.

The sales will continue every day this week except Saturday. Consignments of tobacco continue to arrive and the warehousemen are really confronted with the problem of keeping the weed on and off the floor with sufficient dispatch to make ready for the new shipments.

VETERINARY BOARD.

State Examiners and North Carolina Association Now in Session Here.

ORGANIZED LAST. NIGHT

Dr. Yalt Butler, President; Dr. T. Garroll, Secretary and Treasurer. Three Applicants for License. Subjects of Examination.

The first annual meeting of the State Veterinary Examining Board, of North Carolina, was called to order last night in the handsome lodge room on the third floor of the Elks' Home, on North Front street, and an organization was effected by the election of Dr. Tait Butler, State Veterinarian of Raleigh, as president, and Dr. T. B. Carroll, of Wilmington, secretary and reasurer. All members were present at the meeting, including the above, as follows: Dr. J. W. Petty, Greensboro; Dr. T. B. Carroll, Wilmington; Dr. B. L. Griffin, Concord; Mr. W. C. McMackin, Raleigh, and Dr. Tait Butler, Raleigh.

The Examining Board for veterinarians was created by act of the ast Legislature, the appointments having been made by the Governor. It is the duty of the Board to meet annually for the examination of applicants for license to practice the profession, keep a record of all such, publish the names of all successful applicants and exercise a general supervision over veterinary surgery and medicine in the State. Persons heretofore practicing veterinary medi cine or surgery are required to register by 1905. The act does not apply to regular doctors nor to persons practic ing without fee.

The meeting last night was very enthusiastic. Three applications for examination were received and the papers will be submitted this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Elks' Home. Members of the Board have been designated to conduct the examination upon the subjects assigned as follows:

After the meeting last night members of the Board and a large number of other veterinarians in the city for the meeting of the State Veterinary Association to day were entertained by Dr. Carroll with a complimentary trolley ride to the beach.

The State Veterinary Associatian, which met last year in Charlotte and organized by electing Dr. Carroll, of this city, president; Dr. Petty, of Greensboro, vice president, and Mr. W. C. McMackin, of Raleigh, secretary and treasurer, will hold its second annual sessions in Wilmington, beginning this morning at 10 o'clock and continuing through to-morrow. One of the features of the convention will be an address by Hon. T. E. Whitaker, of Oak Ridge, N. C., who was a member of the last Legislature and so ably championed the bill incorporating the State Association and establishing the Examining Board. The veterinarians are a distinguished looking body of men and Wilmington is glad to have them in her midst.

mpressive Service Yesterday Morning at St. Thomas' in Honor of Pope Leo.

Requiem High Mass for the repose of the soul of the late Holy Father. Pope Leo XIII, was celebrated at St. Thomas' pro-cathedral in this city at o'clock yesterday morning, Rev. Father C. Dennen having been the celebrant. The service was one of the most solemn and impressive in the history of the church and a large congregation was present. During the course of the service Rev. Father Dennen delivered an able and beautiful discourse upon the life and character of the Holy Father and read some of the Pope's great productions.

The music for the mass was by Guasse and was sung by a choir composed of Mr. H. K. Holden, Mr. J. W. Reilly, Mrs. J. D. Edwards, Mr. R. C. Banks, Mrs. Jos. H. Watters, Miss Flossie Watters, Miss Mary Higgins, Mrs. James J. Allen and Miss Katle Carroll, with Mr. James Owen Reilly as organist.

Inaugurated Last Night by Gonsolidated Company-Splendid Troupe of Eatertainers at the Casino.

GRAND MID-SUMMER WEEK

Although the weather was a bit threatening, a large crowd last night went down to Wrightsville beach for the inauguration of the grand Mid-Summer week which will be distinguished by special features, announced daily, until Saturday night. The largest crowd went down on the regular car and trailers at 8 o'clock. music having been furnished en route and at the pavilion upon arrival by the Delgado Band, which is an excellent one for the length of time it has been organized. The low, round-trip rate of 25c. prevailed and the people seemed to appreciate the reduction. The chief attraction was, of course, the opening bill by the New York vaudevillians at The Casino. There was ome disappointment locally because Joe Conlon, the Irish comedian well known in Wilmington, did not put in an appearance but the remaining members of the company well sustained the advance notice of their capabilities as first-class entertainers. The theatre was filled and not a discordant note was heard in the volume of praise given. The performance opened with a laughable farce by "Billy" Hill, entitled "All a Mistake," and introducing the entire cast.

The Rooney sisters proved themelves clever singers and dancers, and Phil. Staats, the comedian and planist, was described as being "great." The Southern trio, Hill and Edmunds and cute little Baby Florence, closed the performance in a lively vaudeville treat. The comppny will be seen again each night throughout the week.
