lovement on Foot for Reunion of Jolly North Carolles Tars.

A movement is on foot for a reunion of the officers and crew of the U. S. S. "Nantucket," upon which upwards of a hundred of the North Carolina Naval Brigade saw service during the late war with Spain. Plans for the event have not yet been formulated, but it may be safely said that if the reunion is held, it will be at or near Wilmington and will be a jolly affair. Nearly half of the "Nantucket's" crew were Wilmingtonians and it is now a fittle more than five years since the monitor sailed. The reunion idea is a good one if sufficient enthusiasm in the event can be aroused.

Jall at Whiteville Regarded as Insecure Case on Appeal to Supreme Court for Defendants Made Up and Porwarded Yesterday.

H. B. Register, familiarly known as "Buck" Register, and his son, Jabel, who were convicted, at the special term of Columbus Superior Court last week, of the double murder of Jesse Soles, white, and Jim Staley, colored, were brought to the city yesterday by Deputy Sheriff W. H. Thompson and Jallor W. J. Benton, of Whiteville, and were taken on the 7 o'clock train last night to Raleigh. where they will be confined in the State prison pending the hearing of their appeal to the Supreme Court. Oct. 11th.

The public is familiar with the crime and conviction of the two men. The elder, who is 64 years of age, was sentenced by Judge Fred Moore to life Imprisonment and Jabel was sentenced to be hanged on Friday, Oct. 9th. The jall at Whiteville is regarded as insecure for desperate oriminals and the final order for the removal of the prisoners was received from the Governor and Solicitor Tuesday.

The prisoners arrived on the 1: P. M. train yesterday and as they were secorted through the streets handcuffed together and accompanied by the officers, they attracted much attention. The elder Register carried in his hand, closely rolled, the current number of a magazine and neither of the men displayed any sign of emotion or nervousness. The elder is gray with age and slightly stooped, but walked steadily and had few words to sayabsolutely nothing as to the terrible its monthly meeting Tuesday at 9 which was placed at the disposal of Wrightsville. From many points, 19 31 tr convicted. Returning to the station yesterday evening the younger Register carried the magazine in the treasurer, and P. Heinsberger, secrehand around the wrist of which he lary, were at their respective places. was bound, evidently in an effort to The-proceedings of the last meeting conceal the fact as far as possible that he and his father were chained.

Before being locked in a cell in the New Hanover jail, to which they were taken immediately upon their arrival here, the prisoners had a brief conversation with Donald McRackan. Esq., of Whiteville, who has been here the past two days assisting Hon. John D. Bellamy in a preparation of the case of the Registers on appeal The papers will be sent to the attorneys for the prosecution for agreement, and later to Judge Moore at Asheville, who will forward them to the Suprem Court. As before stated, the case will be heard upon motion for a new trial on October 11th. As October 9th has been appointed as the day of execution for Jabel, it will now fall to the Governor to appoint another date upon which he will hang, unless the Supreme grants a new trial, of which counsel for the defendants are very

Fitzwater, of Hamlet, and R. A. Daugherty, of Jacksonville, Fis. Brown is charged with systematically robbing freight cars of the Seaboard Air Line between Wilmington and Council's Station and was caught by conductor T. B. Henry, of the S. A. L, in the act of stowing away a lot of clothing and an assortment of notions and dry goods from a car into which he had broken while in transit, Monday night, near Phoenix. The young negro was tied and carried on to Hamlet where he! was turned over to the detectives. Yesterday Detectives Daugherty and Fitzwater brought the prisoner to Wilmington and turned him over to Constable W. B. Savage. Upon a warrant secured from Justice Bornemann the lad was committed to jail for preliminary hearing to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. While detectives are not given to talking of developments in their cases, it is gathered from an interview with Mr. Daugherty yesterday afternoon that the young negro has one or more confederates in his robbery of the cars and has made several good hauls of freight from time to time recently. Very few, if any, of the goods have been recovered save those taken from the person of the negro by Conductor Henry Monday night.

"Bky-gazer," as the boy is familiarly known in police circles in Wilmington, has rather a bad record and has been employed from time to time by several down-town shop keepers with the result that he was usually discharged for some petty thievery.

The secretary brought out his first printed reports of delinquents, which were distributed among the members. A new form of letter to assist the members in collecting their bills was adopted, and 1,000 copies were ordered printed. Many members handed over to the secretary their list of delinquents or bad-paying customers. Meetings will hereafter be held twice a month, on Tuesdays at 9 P. Mr. McQueen Misq uoted.

In its report of the proceedings of the Board of Audit and Finance yesterday, this sentence was used by the STAR in connection with the disapproval of a bill for ice for the Princess street public drinking fountain, viz: "Chairman McQueen said he knew of no city in the United States which undertook to furnish people with free drinking water." Of course, everybody will understand that free fce water was intended instead of "free drinking water." This correction is cheerfully made in justice to Mr. Mc-Queen. Yearling Blocked the Track, Fayetteville Observer: "A bull year created some excitement to-day at the lower Hay street A. C. L. crossing.

When the animal reached the railroad track he refused to cross and the farmer tried to pull him over. The owner tugged and pulled, but the animal refused to budge. Meanwhile mal refused to budge. Meanwhile trains came rolling up from both directions, but were compelled to stop to heep from running on the farmer and the stubborn little animal. Some several blockage of trains, assembled on the scene, and all sorts of advice was given to the man with the bull yearling, with a sprinkling of not very courfeous shouts from the railroad men. After struggling for nearly fifteen minutes the man gave up the fight and, ordering a dray, had the animal hauled to market."

Mr. Brinson, in behalf of the authorities and children of the Home, spoke of the great pleasure it gave them to be present and reassured the Odd Fellows of Wilmington of their high appreciation. There are three great events in the lives of the children of the Home, said Mr. Brinson-Thanksgiving, Uhristmas and the annual outing at Wilmington and her seaside resorts. Upon each of these occasions the Wilmington Odd Fellows always do something to bind them closer to the hearts of the little ones in the Home. The annual outing is a great factor in making more perfect the discipline in the institution. Mr. Brinson spoke of the absent children and concluded with an appeal to the Odd Fellows of the city to subscribe for the paper published by the boys at the i Home. Not long ago Wilmington headed the list of paid subscribers, but now Goldsboro claims the honor. Mr. Brinson asked that Wilmington again come to the head of the list where it numerically belongs.

Mr. Jacobi then announced the numpers on the programme each of which was enjoyed highly and warmly applauded. The programme was the same as printed yesterday, Mrs. J. D. Edwarde, Miss Lillian Stroud, Mr. C. H. Cooper and Mr. A. S. Holden
